Acknowledgements

I am grateful to Alexis Sanderson, Dominic Goodall and Harunaga Isaacson for initiating me into the philological study of Śaivism, and to Florinda De Simini for encouraging me to apply for a position in her ŚIVADHARMA PROJECT (ERC no. 803624), for sharing with me all the relevant manuscript material and in general leading the project in the most friendly and generous way through difficult Covid-affected years. While working on the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, I have also been affiliated with another ERC project, the DHARMA PROJECT (ERC no. 809994), and I'm grateful to all my colleagues involved in that enterprise, including Arlo Griffith, Emmanuel Francis, Annette Schmiedchen, and Dániel Balogh.

During my visit to the National Archives in Kathmandu, the staff were helpful and professional. I wish to express my thanks to Jyoti Neupane, Manita Neupane, Saubhagya Pradhananga, Rubin Shrestha, Sahan Ranjitkar, and all other members. Sushmita Das made great efforts to acquire the manuscripts in Calcutta.

My colleagues and friends working in Naples or visiting Naples for shorter periods have helped me on a daily basis, during our regular reading sessions and in every other possible way, and I am thankful to them: to Florinda De Simini, Nirajan Kafle, Kengo Harimoto, Giulia Buriola, Alessandro Battistini, Lucas den Boer, Torsten Gerloff, Kenji Takahashi, Francesco Sferra, Dorotea Operato, Daniela Cappello, Michael Bluett, Marco Franceschini, Martina Dello Buono, Chiara Livio, Margherita Trento, Nina Mirnig, Timothy Lubin, SAS Sarma, R. Sathyanarayanan, and others.

Colleagues I have known for countless years, such as Judit Törzsök, Dominic Goodall, Harunaga Isaacson, Csaba Dezső and Gergely Hidas, are always the first to help my work and support me in every possible way.

I am infinitely grateful to my family for always supporting me unwaveringly.

Aims and problems

What is this edition? It is not much more than a new copy, and carefully prepared new version of a text called Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, based on a number of witnesses, augmented with an analysis of the contents, with contextualisation, and with an English translation. As for the critical edition, while I went to great lengths to understand the textual history behind the manuscripts used, it is obviously a deeply contaminated version of a text transmitted through contaminated witnesses. Nevertheless, it is hopefully a version that is as close to the authors' and redactors' original intention around the time they assembled these chapters together, approximately in the seventh to tenth centuries, as possible. Of course we do not know if there was a single moment when the intention to compose a new text on Dharma under the title Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha was born or if there was one single 'original copy',<sup>1</sup> but it is hopefully the most meaningful and most readable among all available copies. Still, the present book is just a version of a text that surely has never existed exactly in this very form, inevitably showing signs of being an eclectic edition. Furthermore, it may show unintentional characteristics of the 21st century (ones that go beyond the modern Devanāgarī font face or occasional choices based on our modern understandings and misunderstandings) mixed with characteristics of the first millenium. We know that '[a]ll editing is an act of interpretation.'<sup>2</sup> And many of the editorial decisions I made were based on opinions expressed by colleagues during our regular reading sessions. Thus this edition is a result of the interpretative efforts of a group of scholars, and this may sometimes, but hopefully rarely, have caused contradictions.

Find a hard copy of McGann's Textual Condition.

And as to complicate things, we are publishing this long text in two volumes, and the second volume is still in the making when the first comes out. This may produce various problems: of interpretation, of internal references, of repetition, and most importantly of presenting a text of embedded and recurring layers cut in half. To counteract some of these problems, I had finished editing and studying some of the most significant passages in the second part of the text by the time I let the first one out of my hands; some of these the reader can find in the Appendices. A further minor problem arises when I discuss topics that I have already touched upon in Kiss 2021: some overlaps are inevitable.

And what is the purpose of this edition? The main objective of the ŚIVADHARMA PROJECT has been to understand better the function of individual texts within the so-called Śivadharma corpus, and thus the raison d'être of the corpus itself. My attempt is rather simplistic: it is to understand what the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha tried to convey when it was composed and to try to see why this text got inserted in those multi-text manuscripts that usually transmit the so-called Śivadharma corpus. But even without this ideal to fully understand the purpose and function of the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, to make a pre-eleventh-century Sanskrit text easily available in the twenty-first century is, I believe, a noble aspiration.

Introduction

The Śivadharmā corpus

In general...

Reading the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha

The title

The title Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha can be translated as: ‘A Compendium on the Essence of the Bull [of Dharma].’ The last two elements (sāra-saṃgraha) need little explanation: this work is a ‘compendium’ on, a ‘collection’ or ‘summary’ of (saṃgraha) the ‘essence’ (sāra) of its topic. The words ‘compendium’ and ‘collection’ reflect the composite nature of the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha well; see sections on the structure of the text and on the its possible sources on pp. ??ff and pp. ??ff. The remaining question is whether the bull in the title is only a reference to a representation of Dharma or also a hint at Śiva’s bull, his vehicle or mount, sometimes called Nandi or Nandin in other works.<sup>3</sup>

Dharma is frequently referred to as a (four-legged) bull in Sanskrit literature from at least the time of the Mahābhārata. See, e.g., this passage (MBh 3.188.10–13):

krte catuṣpāt sakalo nirvyājopādhivarjitah |
vṛṣaḥ pratiṣṭhito dharmo manuṣyeṣv abhavat purā || 10 ||
adbharmapādavidhas tu tribhir aṃśaiḥ pratiṣṭhitaḥ |
tretāyāṃ dvāpare ’rdhena vyāmiśro dharmo ucyate || 11 ||
tribhir aṃśair adbharṃ tu lokān ākramya tiṣṭhati |
caturthāṃśena dharmas tu manuṣyān upatiṣṭhati || 12 ||
āyur vīryam atho buddhir balaṃ tejaś ca pāṇḍava |

<sup>3</sup> There is no trace of Nandi/Nandin as identified with the bull in the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha. On the possible time after which Nandi or Nandin, originally a gaṇa was considered a bull, see Bhattacharya 1977 and Goodall, Rout, Sathyanarayanan et al 2005, 100–108 and 171–172.

manuṣyāṇām anuyugaṃ brasatīti nibodha me || 13 ||

Śiva got his bull, MBh: 13076027a vṛṣabhaṃ ca dadau tasmai saha tābhiḥ prajāpatiḥ 13076027c prasādayām āsa manas tena rudrasya bhārata 13076028a prītaś cāpi mahādevaś cakāra vṛṣabhaṃ tadā 13076028c dhvajam ca vāhanaṃ caiva tasmāt sa vṛṣabhadhvajaḥ 13076029a tato devair mahādevas tadā paśupatiḥ kṛtaḥ 13076029c īśvaraḥ sa gavāṃ madhye vṛṣāṅka iti cocyate

Manusmṛti also confirms this (8.16a): vṛṣo hi bhagavān dharma.

MMW ‘vṛṣa’:

“Justice or Virtue personified as a bull or as”Siva’s bull Mn. viii, 16 Pur. Kāvyaḍ.; just or virtuous act, virtue, moral merit “Śiś. Vās.,” Mahākṣapaṇaka’s koṣa (CHECK date), the Anekārthadhvanimañjarī, places the meaning ‘dharma’ as first when defining the word ‘vṛṣa’:

*dharmo vṛṣo vṛṣaḥ śreṣṭho vṛṣo gaur mūṣiko vṛṣaḥ |
vṛṣo balaṃ vṛṣaḥ kāmo vṛṣalo vṛṣa ucyate || 1.48*

The ŚDhU also mentions the ‘Dharma bull’:

*īśvarāyatanaśyādbhāḥ śrīmān dharmavṛṣaḥ sthitaḥ |
yatra vīravṛṣas tatra kṣityām gomātaraḥ sthitā || 12.87*

Sanderson 2015 (210 n. 136), in general, on vṛṣa being Dharma, and on the bull appearing on the coins of the Hepthalite Hun Mihirakula in particular says the following:

To laud the bull (vṛṣa) would be surprising if the intended meaning were the bull that is Śiva’s mount, but not if the word is intended in its figurative meaning, namely dharmabha, or sukṛtam ‘the virtuous actions [prescribed by the Veda].’ For this meaning of vṛṣaḥ see, for example, Amarasimha, Nāmaliṅgānuśāsana 1.4.25b (sukṛtam vṛṣaḥ), 3.3.220 (sukṛte vṛṣabhe vṛṣaḥ); Halāyudha, Abhidhānaratnamālā 1.125cd (dharmah punyam vṛṣaḥ śreyah sukṛtam ca samam smṛtam); Manusmṛti 8[.]16a (vṛṣo hi bhagavān dharmas...); and the Gwalior Museum Stone Inscription of Patañgaśambhu (Mirashi 1962), l. 15, vṛṣaikaniṣṭho 'pi jitasmaro 'pi yaḥ śaṅkaro 'bhūd bhuvi ko 'py apūrvvaḥ, concerning the Śaiva ascetic Vyomaśambhu: 'He was in the world an extraordinary new Śiva, since he too was vṛṣaikaniṣṭhaḥ ('devoted solely to pious observance'; in Śiva's case 'riding only on the Bull') and he too was jitasmarah ('one who had defeated sensual urges'; in Śiva's case 'the defeater of the Love god Kāmadeva'). This is also the meaning of vṛṣaḥ in the title Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, one of the works of the Śivadharmā corpus (see, e.g., Sanderson 2014, p. 2), i.e., 'Summary of the Essentials of the [Śiva]dharma'.

In his last sentence here, Sanderson implies that the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha is organically part of the teachings that we call the Śivadharmā corpus, and thus he adds Śiva in square brackets when translating the title Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha. A closer examination of the VSS reveals no direct references to either Śiva's bull or to the bull as embodying the Śivadharmā. Instead, the bull in the VSS is repeatedly associated with the Dharma that is the four āśramas (see p. ??). My conclusion is that while the word vṛṣan the title may well carry a reference to Śiva's bull, it is always only implied and never explicitly taught, while the bull as the personification of Dharma as the four āśramas explicitly appears. Thus the title actually lacks any explicit hint to Śaivism, which fits in well with the rather blurred and multi-layered affiliation of the text to Dharmasāstra, Vaiṣṇavism and Śaivism.<sup>4</sup>

Bhattacharya (1977, 1552) suggests that

In the Purāṇas the bull (Vṛṣabha or Vṛṣa) of Śiva is identified with Dharma, "virtue personified". This is a new development to sanctify the animal vehicle of the god. This new situation took place with the religious rite when an offering of a bull to a Brahmin deemed to be of a high religious merit.

Is he ignoring the fact that Dharma as a bull appears already in the Mahābhārata? He comes to the conclusion (Bhattacharya 1977, 1555) that one of the earliest sources to fuse the figures of Nandin and the bull is the relatively early<sup>5</sup> Matsya-purāṇa.

Vṛṣadeva's commission? As a fanciful experiment, and if one supposes that the VSS originated in Nepal, one could wonder if the title Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha has anything to do with the Licchavi king Vṛṣadeva. Sanderson (2009, 74) mentions that Vṛṣadeva is 'described in an inscription of his eighth-century descendant Jayadeva as having inclined towards Buddhism;’ (Vajrācārya 1973, 148, l. 9: sugataśāsana-pakṣapātī) ‘a view confirmed by a local chronicle, which attributes to him the establishing of Buddhist images,’ and that this king established ‘the Caitya of the Sīnagu-vihāra (the Svayambhūnāth Caitya).’ More importantly, Sanderson summarises the information to be found in the Changu Narayana Pillar Inscription (east shaft),<sup>6</sup> namely that Vṛṣadeva was the great-grandfather of Mānadeva, whose ‘dated inscriptions range in date from 459 to 505/6 [CE]’ (Sanderson 2009, 75).<sup>7</sup> This would place the reign of Vṛṣadeva around 400 CE. The early fifth century may look too early for the date of composition of the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, and any connection between this king and the text is impossible to prove at the moment, but it is equally impossible to reject any connection, and if there were one, it would give some explanation for the slightly unusual nature of the title.

Pañcāvaraṇastava 71: pratyag āśāsthitaṃ vande vṛṣaṃ ca vṛṣabhākṛtim | sāksād dharmam sitaṃ tryakṣaṃ paramēśasya vāhanam || + notes to this verse on p. 171

The genre

Is the VSS a Purāṇa? There are at least two reasons to think so. One is the section VSS 1.63–76, a list of so-called *vedavyāsa*s, transmitters of Purāṇas, from Brahmā, to Vyāsa Dvaipāyana, Romaharṣa and his son. Why should a text include in its first chapter such a list if the implication is not that it is about its own origin?

Another argument is that the topics dealt with in the VSS are exactly what we expect from a Purāṇa. The famous purāṇapañcalakṣaṇa includes, following Wilson’s translation (in Rocher 1986, 26), the following: (1) primary creation, cosmogony and chronology (sarga); (2) creation, destruction of the world (pratisarga); (3) geneologies (vaṃśa); (4) Manu eras (manvantaras); (5) history (vaṃśānu-carita).<sup>8</sup> Arguably all these are present in the VSS, most of them already in chapter one, and later in twenty-one and twenty-four, plus narratives of the deeds of gods (e.g. in chapter twenty-three), and much more that one normally sees in Purāṇas.

Contents of chapters 1–12

Adhyāya 1 After a maṅgala-verse that addresses a deity whose identity is obscure (is it Śiva or the impersonal Brahman?, verse 1.1), we enter the first layer of the text, which comprises a dialogue between Janamejaya and Vaiśampāyana and could be labelled Dharmaśāstric. Janamejaya wishes to hear the essence, the ultimate Dharmic teaching, of the Mahābhārata. In response, Vaiśampāyana starts relating a dialogue in which Viṣṇu, disguised as a Brahmin, is testing an ascetic called Anarthayajña, reknown for performing non-material sacrifice (anarthayajña, the topic of adhyāya eleven), and a devotee of Viṣṇu (which becomes clear in adhyāya twenty-one). This is the beginning of the layer one could label Vaiṣṇava. The first topic they discuss is brahmavidyā (1.9–10), and ambiguous definition of the impersonal Brahman and/or the syllable om. The next topic is kāla (‘death, time’), the origin of the body, karma (1.11–17), and the divisions of time (from truṭi, nimeṣa up to kalpas, 1.18–31), which leads to a teaching on numbers, from one up to two hundred quadrillion (para, 1.32–36). Verses 1.37–40 introduce a list of the rulers of the eight regions of the Brahmanḍa (1.41–49). In addition, Viṣṇu features as the ruler of the centre of the Brahmanḍa (1.50), reconfirming the general Vaiṣṇava character of this layer. 1.51–58 give the number of subordinates to each ruler mentioned above. 1.59–62 teaches the measurements of the Brahmanḍa. Finally, verses 1.63–76 list the redactors and transmitters of the Purāṇas, from Brahmā to Vyāsa Dvaipāyana and Romaharṣa.

Notes on the language

The language of the VSS goes beyond the idiosyncrasies of epic Sanskrit. It exhibits strong similarities to Śaiva Aīśa Sanskrit,<sup>9</sup> and it applies particular metrical licences and uses a special vocabulary, morphology and syntax. The analysis of this language, ideally, could lead us to the author(s) or redactors of the text and to its place of composition. Here I only give a brief overview of the most important phenomena. For details see the observations on the constitution of the Sanskrit text in the footnotes to the translation (pp. ??), as well as the Index.

Metre

As regards metrical licences, the first striking feature is the generous use of the poetic licence sometimes labelled ‘muta cum liquida’,<sup>10</sup> namely that some consonant clusters that would normally turn the previous short (laghu) syllable long (guru) may in some cases do not do so. The syllables pra, bra, hra, kra, especially at the beginning of words CHECK, are well-known candidates for this licence.<sup>11</sup> In the VSS, tra, vra, śra, pra, and also śya, śva, sva, dva, all involving conjunct consonants with a liquid sounds or semi-vowels in second position, and possibly also rpa, CHECK! seem additional ones.

The well-known author on prosody, Kedārabhaṭṭa (11-12th centuries),<sup>12</sup> frequently quoted by Mallinātha, gives the following definition in his Vṛttaratnākara (here given together with Sulhaṇa’s Sukavibhṛdayanandinī commentary):

padādāv iha varṇasya saṃyogaḥ kramasaṃjñikah |
paraḥsthitena tena syāl laghutā ’pi kvacid guroḥ || 1.10 ||

vibhaktiyantam padam tasya padasyādaḥ vartamāno yo varṇas tasya saṃyogaḥ | sa iha śāstre kramasaṃjñō jñeyah
| tena kramena purovartinā prāṅpadānte vartamānasya
prāṅtagurubhāvasyāpi laghutā syāt | kvacil lakṣānurod-
hena | nanu ka eṣaḥ kramo nāma saṃyoga ucyate | pūrvācāryāṇām piṅgalanāgaprabhṛtīnām kālīdāsādīnām ca kavīnām samayaḥ
parigrhītaḥ | saṃyogaḥ kramasaṃyogaḥ || 10 || tatra gra-
saṃyogena yathā | idam asyodāharaṇam |

taruṇam sarṣapaśākam navaudanam picchalāni ca dadbhīni |
alpavyayena sundari grāmyajano miṣṭam aśnāti || 1.11 ||

<sup>12</sup> SOURCE

TRANSLATE the whole passage!

In this [work], a consonant cluster at the beginning of a word is called krama. A [preceding] long syllable can sometimes be turned short by that initial [syllable].

... TRANSLATE

Tender mustard seed, fresh porridge, and slimy curds: village people eat this kind of dishes, O beautiful goddess, due to lack of money.

To sum this example up: the verse given above (1.11) is in āryā, and the metric pattern of the second half-verse is the following: - . - . - . - . - . - . - . - . This yields 28 morae, instead of the expected 27. By treating the final syllable of sundari short, in spite of the following grā, the pattern conforms to the expected pattern: - . - . - . - . - . - . - . - .

The commentator gives several more examples (involving the syllables gra, hra, bhra), including this Śārdūla line:

nidravyo hriyam eti hrīparigataḥ prabhraśyate tejasah

In this line, the last syllable of eti should count as short, in spite of the fact that the beginning of the next word (hrī°) would normally turn it long.

The VSS abounds in this phenomenon of ‘muta cum liquida’. EXAMPLES from the VSS and from my emendations. CHECK

- only beginning of words in the VSS?
- final -am etc. counts as long (reverse of muta cum liquida)
- In Kannada and Telugu prosody, under the name of śīthīla-dvīṭva, the exception is that sometimes in a consonant cluster of the form [consonant + “r”], the “r” (repha) can be ignored, so that it is not a conjunct consonant anymore.
- The exception is not accepted by purists: Shatavadhani Ganesh says that the Sanskrit masters like Kālidāsa, Bhāravi, Māgha, Śrīharṣa, and Viśākhadatta have not freely used this exception (though the masters in Kannada and other languages have). Being more of a “poetic licence” and a violation of the standard rule (only found in later poetry), it is extremely unlikely that any sane poet would have indulged in that exception in all four pāda-s of a verse. Thus it is very unlikely that the program will miss identifying a verse that indulges in this

A Critical Edition of Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha 1–12

Witnesses

In the pre-modern era, the VSS has been transmitted exclusively in multiple-text manuscripts that were produced in Nepal. Even when a manuscript of the VSS seems to be a single-text MS, chances are high that it originally belonged to a multiple-text manuscript.<sup>13</sup> In the manuscript descriptions below, in addition to some general remarks, I will mainly focus on information relevant to the VSS. For much more detail on the overall features of these manuscripts, see De Simini 2016b and the catalogues I mention at some of the individual manuscript.<sup>14</sup>

In recently published and forthcoming critical editions of and articles on the Śivadharmā corpus (e.g. Bisschop 2018 and Bisschop, Kafle, & Lubin 2021), the sigla of the manuscripts used are made up of a letter signifying the script (e.g. ‘N’ for Nepālākṣara/Newari), a superscript letter for the current location where the manuscript is deposited (e.g. ‘C’ for Cambridge), and two (sometimes only one or even three) subscript digits echoing the last digit(s), if any, of the reference number of the manuscript in the library where it is located or, in the case of NGMPP reel numbers, the last two digits of the first part of the reel number. For details of this system and for the underlying reasons, see Bisschop 2018, 50–51. Since in the case of the VSS all available manuscripts use some variant of the Nepālākṣara script, in this publication I omit the first letter, making the letter for the current location non-superscript. This helps keeping the apparatus more readable. In the manuscript descriptions below, I give this omitted and implied ‘N’ in brackets as a reminder.

<sup>13</sup> As I remarked elsewhere (Kiss 2021, 185, n. 9): ‘Asiatic Society (Calcutta), Manuscript G 4076, cat. no. 4083, may seem to be an independent manuscript of the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, but as De Simini has already remarked (2016b, 240 n. 19) [= De Simini 2016b], it is probably from a multiple text manuscript. In fact, from what can be gathered from its description in Shastri 1928, 716ff, it seems likely that this manuscript was originally part of manuscript Asiatic Society (Calcutta) G 3852, cat. no. 4085. See for example the folio numbering in these two manuscripts: ASC G 3852 contains 210 folios, and ASC G 4076 starts on folio 210.’

<sup>14</sup> I owe thanks to Florinda De Simini for sharing with me most of the manuscripts listed here, to Kengo Harimoto and Gudrun Melzer (Munich) for providing photos of the Munich MS, and to Nirajan Kafle for sharing a digital copy of the Paris MS with me.

The Cambridge manuscripts

(N)C<sub>94</sub> Cambridge University Library, Add. 1694.1. This MS has been fully collated for chapters 1–12 of the critical edition in this volume. See a detailed description of this manuscript in the CUDL online catalogue.<sup>15</sup> According to this catalogue, the date of creation of this manuscript is the 12th century, its dimensions are 5 × ca. 53.5 cm. The script is Nepālākṣara. It is a palm-leaf multiple-text manuscript containing 258 folios and transmitting eight texts: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Śivadharmaśaṃgraha, 4) Umāmahēśvarasaṃvāda, 5) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda, 6) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 7) Dharmaputrikā, 8) Śivopaniṣad.

The VSS occupies 45 folios: it starts on f. 193 (the recto side, online image no. 381, is an empty folio side, the text itself starts on the verso side); it ends on f. 239r (online image no. 473). The text of the VSS is transmitted fully, without any folios or major sections of the text missing. The leaves transmitting the VSS are well-preserved. Some folio sides are faded and most folios are somewhat damaged on the right side, sometimes at other parts, and it seems from the images that some opaque-looking tape has been applied to protect these damaged sections. In my critical edition the broken off, completely lost, akṣaras are represented by ×, the illegible akṣaras under the tape by ★ (‘illegible’). The quality of the readings of this manuscript is one of the best among the available witnesses, comparable only to K<sub>82</sub> and P<sub>57</sub>, making it one of the most important sources for the VSS.

(N)C<sub>45</sub> Cambridge University Library, Add. 1645. This MS has been fully collated for chapters 1–12 of the critical edition in this volume. See a detailed description of this manuscript in the CUDL online catalogue.<sup>16</sup> According to this catalogue, the dimensions of the manuscript are 4.4 × 61.7cm. The manuscript is dated to (Nepala) ‘saṃvat 259 śrāvaṇa śukla dvādaśīyādī(?) < trayodaśyām,’ which converts to July 10/11 Monday/Tuesday, 1139 CE.<sup>17</sup> The script is Nepālā-

<sup>17</sup> F. 247r line 6. The CUDL website transcribes this colophon as: saṃvat 259 śrāvaṇaśukladvādaśīpyādī 8 trayodaśyām (retrieved 8 Dec 2021). The element dvādaśīpyādī might be read as dvādaśīyā di, perhaps a mistake for dvādaśyām di (di for a misplaced diva/divā?), and the symbol that does look like a figure ‘8’ of a slightly later period than the manuscript itself (resembling the mathematical symbol <) might also be a kākapada. Another faint kākapada is perhaps to be seen under daśī, therefore it is possible that the scribe’s intention was to delete dvādaśī and correct it to trayodaśyām, and then the date becomes the 11th of July. Kengo Harimoto has suggested that the unclear element (yādī/pyādī) is in fact ghaṭī, and after comparing these two syllables to other kṣara. It is a palm-leaf multiple-text manuscript containing 247 folios. Eight texts are transmitted in this manuscript: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Śivadharmasaṃgraha, 4) Śivopaniṣad, 5) Umāmāheśvarasaṃvāda, 6) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda, 7) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 8) Dharmaputrikā.

The VSS occupies 37 folios plus one folio side: it starts on f. 201v line 4 (online image no. 404), and it ends on f. 238v line 3 (online image no. 478). The readings of this manuscript seem to follow those of K<sub>82</sub> remarkably closely while transmitting the Śivadharmottara (as observed by De Simini and Harimoto).<sup>18</sup> This is more difficult to see in the case of the VSS, but indeed, they seem closely related.

(N)C<sub>02</sub> Cambridge University Library, Add. 2102. All available folios of this MS have been collated for chapters 1–12 of the critical edition in this volume. See a detailed description of this manuscript in the CUDL online catalogue.<sup>19</sup> According to this catalogue, the date of creation is the 12th century, and the dimensions of the manuscript are 4.8 × ca. 52.5cm. The script is Nepālākṣara. It is a palm-leaf multiple-text manuscript containing 96 folios. Six texts are transmitted in this manuscript: 1) Śivadharmottara, 2) Śivadharmasaṃgraha, 3) Umāmāheśvarasaṃvāda, 4) Śivopaniṣad, 5) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 6) Dharmaputrikā (only f. 322v). Note that the Śivadharmottara starts on f. 51r, thus the part that most probably contained the Śivadharmasāstra is lost.

The Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha starts on f. 267r line 1 (online image no. 181). The online description labels this image as f. 237r. This first folio in fact has no visible foliation. The previous text, the Śivopaniṣad, ended on f. 236v, with pāda b of verse 7.122,<sup>20</sup> which is not the end of the Śivopaniṣad: about eighteen verses, probably transmitted in one single folio, are lost. This means that, if the foliation and the order of the folios are presented correctly, and if the portion containing the VSS indeed belongs to the same manuscript, folios 237–266, i.e. thirty folios, are missing. They must have transmitted the Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda, which takes up twenty-three folios in C<sub>94</sub>, and twenty folios in C<sub>45</sub>. Thus this MS did most probably transmit all eight texts of the Śivadharm corpus.<sup>21</sup>

This first folio of the VSS is in a hand which is different from the rest of the manuscript, but the hand changes back in the next folio.<sup>22</sup> instances of gha and ṭa, one cannot but agree. In this case this should be an indication of the exact time (ghaṭikā) the scribe finished copying the text. It is still not clear if we should take dvādaśī or trayodaśyām as the date. For help on the conversion of the date and for a detailed discussion on the colophon I am indebted to Kengo Harimoto.

In this multiple-text manuscript, the VSS is transmitted in an incomplete form, that is to say, a number of folios are missing (most notably chapters 15–17). The first partially visible folio number is in image 184: the numeral characters 200+60 are visible (268v, according to the CUDL online catalogue). In image 186, the folio number 269 is clearly visible (f. 269v). In folio 270v, the continuous text is broken at verse 2.21c (kāmarū°), ff. 271 and 272 are missing, and the text resumes on f. 273r with verse 3.30b ([abimsā pa] ramam sukham). Folio 291 is missing (verses 12.87cd–12.113). In folio 296v (image no. 234) the text breaks off again at vātaśūlair upadrutā | śukro (verse 14.22b), the next folio being 306r (carmatāś ca dvijasundariṣu, verse 18.27b; nine folios and chapters 15–17 are completely missing).

Again, there are two missing folios after bandhus sarvva° in verse 18.47c in f. 306v. The text resumes in f. 309r (image 237) with ṇeṣu ca sarvveṣu vidvān sreṣṭha sa ucyate (verse 19.52cd). Another folio is missing between iṣṭāniṣṭadvaya° (verse 20.22, f. 309v) and snāyu majjā sirā tathā (verse 20.51d, f. 311r). The VSS ends on f. 322v (image no. 262) with the concluding colophon vṛṣasārasaṃgraha samāpta iti. This folio also contains the beginning of the Dharmaputrikā, but this multiple-text manuscript contains no more folios.

The Kathmandu manuscripts

(N)K<sub>82</sub> NGMPP A 1082/3, NAK 3/393. This MS has been fully collated for chapters 1–12 of the critical edition in this volume. See a brief description of this MS in the NGMCP online catalogue.<sup>23</sup> According to this catalogue, the dimensions of the manuscript are 55.6 × 5.5cm. It is dated to Nepāla Samvat 189 (1068–69 CE).<sup>24</sup> The script is Nepālākṣara. It is a palm-leaf multiple-text manuscript containing 274 folios. Eight texts are transmitted in this manuscript: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Śivadharmasaṃgraha, 4) Umāmahēśvarasaṃvāda, at the top of the first folio side (f. 267r, ‘mode..... supply beg of Vṛṣasāra-saṃgr.’). I am not sure how ‘modern’ this supplement is, but it seems indeed likely that a lost first folio was supplemented with a later copy. To match the end of this new copy with the beginning of the next, older, folio, a scribe more or less erased the beginning of the first line in the old folio, rather than the other way round. This slightly illogical decision may mean that the younger copy was not tailor-made for the old portion, but rather that it was taken from a younger manuscript which was perhaps considered more legible. Otherwise it would have been more practical to stop copying the first folio at the point where the next begins.

<sup>24</sup> See f. 12r line 2 of the Dharmaputrikā in this MS: navottarāsītīyute sate bde āśāḍhaśuklasya tithau tṛtīye, translated by De Simini 2016b, 252 n. 49 as: ‘in [the year] 189, in the 3rd lunar day of the bright [fortnight] of [the month] Āśāḍha.’ She adds that the date is verified in Petech 1984, 46 as May 24, 1069 CE.

5) Śivopaniṣad, 6) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 7) Dharmaputrikā, 8) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda.

As for each text in this collection, the foliation for the VSS restarts from f. 1v (f. 1r is a cover) and the text spans ff. 1v–46r. This is a beautifully written and well-preserved manuscript which gives very useful readings and has proved to be essential for the reconstruction of the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha.<sup>25</sup>

(N)K<sub>10</sub> NGMPP A 10/5, NAK 1/1261. This MS has been fully collated for chapters 1–12 of the critical edition in this volume. See a brief description of this MS in the NGMCP online catalogue.<sup>26</sup> According to this catalogue, the dimensions of the manuscript are 55 x 5.5cm. It is an undated palm-leaf multiple-text manuscript containing 74 folios. Four text are transmitted in this manuscript: 1) Śivadharmottara, 2) Umāmāheśvarasaṃvāda, 3) Śivopaniṣad, 4) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha.

Some folios feature monochrome drawings. A great number of the leaves that transmit the VSS are damaged and, at least judging from the microfilm images, faded and slightly disordered. The folio numbers are rarely visible. The VSS starts on exp. 44 (upper leaf, no folio number is visible here). The text continues on the lower leaf and then on the upper leaf on exp. 43 (going backwards, so to say) up to 1.62 (viṃśakoṭīṣu gulmeṣu ūrdhva°). Verses 1.62cd–2.22 seem to be missing. The lower leaf on exp. 43 contains verses 2.23–2.39. The single leaf in exp. 42 contains verses 2.40–3.16a. Exp. 41 contains a single leaf of the Umāmāheśvarasaṃvāda, ending in a colophon for its chapter twenty-two, and still going backwards, the preceding folios continue transmitting the Umāmāheśvarasaṃvāda. Exploring the presence of the VSS in this manuscript further, one should look at the expositions after no. 44. Exp. 45 contains the end of the Śivopaniṣad. The single leaf on exp. 46 is almost illegible but most probably contains a fragment of the Gautamadharmasūtra. The second line just above the string hole on the left reads ... vīrud vanaspatināṃ ca puṣpāṇi svavad ādadīte..., which is a fragment of Gautamadharmasūtra 2.3.25 (12.28). The remaining parts of the VSS are to be found on exp. 47ff. The upper leaf on exp. 47 continues with VSS 3.16b–36ab, while the lower leaf contains a text that I have not been able to identify. The lower leaf in exp. 48 transmits 3.36cd–4.11ab, the upper one 4.11b–30a. The lower leaf in exp. 49 contains 4.30ab–47ab, the upper one 47d–68a, and so on so forth. Thus when reading the text from these images, after exp. 48, one has to start with the lower leaf and continue with the upper one.

(N)K<sub>7</sub> NGMPP B 7/3 = A 1082/2, NAK 1/1075. This MS has been fully collated for chapters 1–12 of the critical edition in this volume. See a brief description of this MS in the NGMCP online catalogue.<sup>27</sup> According to this catalogue, the dimensions of the manuscript are 58 × 6cm. The script is Nepālākṣara. Dated to Nepāla Samvat 290 (1169–70 CE). It is a palm-leaf multiple-text manuscript containing 289 folios. Eight texts are transmitted in this manuscript: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Śivadharmaśaṃgraha, 4) Umāmabeśvarasaṃvāda, 5) Śivopaniṣad, 6) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 7) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda, 8) Dharma-putrikā. Ff. 209v–264v contain the VSS.

This is a nicely written manuscript, giving generally useful and convincing readings.

(N)K<sub>3</sub> NGMPP A 3/3 (= A 1081/5), NAK 5-737. I have collated this MS only for verses 1.1–15ab to test it. See a brief description of this MS in the NGMCP online catalogue.<sup>28</sup> According to this catalogue, the dimensions of the manuscript are 58.5 x 5.5cm. The script is Nepālākṣara and the MS is dated to Nepāla Samvat 321 (1200–01 CE). It is a palm-leaf multiple-text manuscript containing 215 folios. Eight texts are transmitted in this manuscript: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Śivadharmaśaṃgraha, missing (only a few folios are extant, e.g. ff. 124 and 143), 4) Umāmabeśvarasaṃvāda, 5) Śivopaniṣad, 6) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda, 7) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 8) Dharmaputrikā.

The VSS starts in f. 227 (image no. 177) and seems to end after it begins transmitting chapter 23 in f. 264 (image no. 218), but the last image (no. 253) also contains a fraction of VSS chapter 13. The microfilm images are somewhat blurred and the readings do not seem promising.

Other palm-leaf MSS preserved in Kathmandu, but not used for this critical edition include the following:

NAK 5–738 (NGMPP A 11/3)<sup>29</sup>—the microfilm images of the folios containing the VSS are unfortunately extremely blurred to an extent that make them impossible to use.

NGMPP C 25/1 (Kesar Library 218)—this multiple-text manuscript preserves only a few disordered folios of the VSS.

The Munich manuscript

M his MS is preserved at CHECK and has no access number CHECK. I have collated the readings of this MS only for VSS chapter one as a test. On this MS in more detail, see Harimoto (forthcoming). I received the digital images of this MS from Kengo Harimoto shortly after he had taken pictures of it in Munich on Nov

16, 2021. This MS contains the following texts: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Umāmaheśvarasaṃvāda, 4) Śivopaniṣad, 5) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 6) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda, 7) Dharmaputrikā. The section that must have contained the Śivadharmasaṃgraha, ff. 82–121, is lost. The portion that contains the VSS and the Dharmaputrikā is dated (f. 50r line 5): || iti vṛṣasārasaṃgrahacaturviṃśatimodhyāyasaṃāptaḥ | samvat 192 māghakṛṣṇadivāpāñcamyām || postakalikhitam iti ||. The year 192 in Nepāla Samvat converts to 1071–1072 CE. The part of the MS that precedes the VSS looks considerably earlier and is potentially an important witness for other texts of the Śivadharmas corpus. An interesting feature of this MS is that it gives the number of verses contained in each chapter in the colophons. Ten folios that transmitted the VSS are missing: f. 5 (VSS 3.4–3.33), ff. 11–13 (VSS 6.20–8.45), ff. 24 (VSS 13.9–13.36), and ff. 39–43 (VSS 20.38–22.35).

The foliation for the VSS restarts and the hand in which the VSS and the Dharmaputrikā are written are different from, and most probably later than that of the texts that come before them in this bundle.

The MS rarely gives interesting readings for the reconstruction of the VSS, and in general does not seem to be superior to any of the MSS described above.

The Paris manuscript

(N)P<sub>57</sub> This is a multiple-text palm-leaf manuscript written in Nepālākṣara script and preserved in the Collection Sylvain Lévi at the Institut d'études indiennes, Collège de France as MS Skt 57-B 23. I have collated the readings of this MS for VSS chapters three and eight. It contains 249 palm leaves. Folios 214 and 216 are missing from the part of the manuscript that transmits the VSS, thus we don't have verses 1.60d–2.21ab, as well as 3.14–42 and 4.1–7. Foliation appears on the verso side: in the left-hand margin in Newari alphabetical numerals and in the right-hand margin in arabic numerals by a second hand. The portion that contains the VSS is fairly well-preserved and the text is written in a clear hand. Although it is an undated manuscript, it could be dated to the 11th century CE on palaeographical grounds. It contains the following text in the order they are presented in the manuscript: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Śivadharmasaṃgraha, 4) Umāmaheśvarasaṃvāda, 5) Śivopaniṣad, 6) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda, 7) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 8) Dharmaputrikā. The VSS appears on ff. 212–252. This source gives reliable readings and contains relatively few scribal mistakes.<sup>30</sup>

<sup>30</sup> This description had as its starting point a shorter description written and kindly shared with me by Nirajan Kafle.

The Oxford manuscript

(N)O<sub>15</sub> This palm-leaf manuscript is deposited in the Bodleian Library, in Oxford, under shelf mark Sansk. a. 15. It is dated to Nepāla Samvat 307 (1186–87 CE), and it contains 335 folios, transmitting the following texts: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Śivadharmasaṃgraha, 4) Umāmabeśvarasaṃvāda, 5) Śivopaniṣad, 6) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda, 7) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 8) Dharma-putrikā.

A cursory examination of the text reveals rather disappointing readings, therefore I have not included in the apparatus any of the collation done.

The Kolkata manuscripts

I have not been able to access either of these two potentially important witnesses:

(N)Ko<sub>76</sub> MS G 4076 in the collection of The Asiatic Society, Kolkata.<sup>31</sup> Shastri 1928 (716–718) gives a detailed description of this manuscript along with the text of VSS 1.1–16. According to Shastri, the dimensions of the MS are 22½ × 2 inches (57.15 × 5.08cm), the text is complete and the script is of the twelfth century CE.

This manuscript may appear as a rare instance of the VSS being transmitted independently, and not in a multiple-text manuscript, but it seems very likely that it was originally part of Ko<sub>52</sub> (MS G 3852), a Śivadharm corpus MS in the same collection lacking the VSS; see note 13 on page 1.

(N)Ko<sub>77</sub> According to Shastri 1928, 720, MS G 4077 in the collection of the Asiatic Society, Kolkata, a palm leaf MS, transmits the VSS in 52 folios. The MS is dated to July 6, 1036 CE (Nepāla Samvat 156; see De Simini 2017, 542), which makes it ‘the oldest known dated attestation of the corpus’ (De Simini 2016b, 250–251).

The Tübingen manuscript

I have not yet utilised MS Ma I 582 in the Universitätsbibliothek of Tübingen, a beautiful and nicely written MS. It seems to contain only sixteen folios that transmit the VSS, and they are from the second half of the text. Nothing appears to have been preserved from chapters 1–12.

<sup>31</sup> I am grateful to our colleague Sushmita Das for attempting to get a copy of this MS in March 2020.

The London manuscript

(N)L<sub>16</sub> This is a paper manuscript in the Library of the Wellcome Institute for the History of Medicine under the shelf number WI δ 16 (I–VIII). It contains 406 folios and the following texts: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmot-tara, 3) Śivadharmasamgraha, 4) Umāmahēśvarasamvāda, 5) Śivopaniṣad, 6) Uttarottamamahāsamvāda, 7) Vṛṣasārasamgraha, 8) Dharmaṣaṣṭikā. This MS is described in Wujastyk 1985.

While collating MS L<sub>16</sub> for VSS chapter 22, I realised that it was to be a direct or close copy of K<sub>82</sub>. A few examples to prove this will suffice:

K<sub>82</sub> (f. 40r) reads:

[spha]ṭikāṃ × ram [= kāmbaram] eva ca | daśayogāsanāsīno

L<sub>16</sub> (f. 381v) gives:

sphaṭikāṃsatam eva ca || devayogāsanāsīto

supplying sa for the lost syllable and misreading the damaged da as de and the śa as va.

Here K<sub>82</sub> (f. 39v) reads:

[japo yoga tapo] dhyānam svādhyāyaś ca daśa smṛtaḥ with dhyā and svā damaged;

L<sub>16</sub> (f. 381r) cannot read the bit that is completely lost, and it misreads the damaged dhyānam as dhānam, svādhyā as sādhū:

In the next example, the text is supposed to read kare grhya tapodhanam | tataḥ so 'ntarbitas tatra tenaiva.

K<sub>82</sub> (f. 39r) gives:

[kare] x x x x x dha)na tataḥ so 'ntar)bitas tatra tenaiva

L<sub>16</sub> (f. 380r) gives:

kare - - - dhatām tataḥ || sati hitas tatra tenaiva trying to make sense of the fragments. The examples above suggest that L<sub>16</sub> was copied, most probably directly, from K<sub>82</sub> when the damage had already been done to K<sub>82</sub>. For this reason, I have not collated its readings for VSS chapters 1–12.

Naraharinath's edition

(N)E Much has been said of Yogi Naraharinath's pioneering but problematic edition (the editio princeps) of the Śivadharma corpus (Naraharinath 1998): see e.g. De Simini 2016a, 66, n. 190; 2017, 542, Bisschop 2018, 58–59, Bisschop, Kafle, & Lubin 2021, 55. My impression of the text of the VSS in Naraharinath's edition is that its quality is considerably inferior to those of the other texts of the corpus. It may or may not be Naraharinath's fault; others must have been involved in the process of transcription, and the number and nature of the innumerable mistakes all over the text may also suggest a general problem with the typesetting process. Nevertheless I have recorded the readings found in this publication for all twelve chapters given in my critical edition.

Editorial policies

- orthography: deviant orth, sandhi, punctuation? - avagrahas usually supplied but sometimes found in the MSS, not used by me for crasis (e.g. a+a=ā) - daṇḍas: usually 4 pādas to a verse, but I have made arbitrary decisions based on sense-units because none of the sources really indicate where a verse ends (||). - falsifications everywhere on purpose and accidentally

[Chapter One]

[ stutiḥ —

Invocation ]

anādimadhyāntam anantapāraṃ

susūkṣmam avyakta jagatsusāraṃ |

harīndrabrahmādibhir āsamagraṃ

praṇamya vakṣye vṛṣasārasaṃgrahaṃ || 1:1 ||

Having bowed to the One who has no beginning, no middle part and no end, whose boundaries are limitless, who is very subtle and who is the unmanifest and fine essence of the world, to the One who is wholly complete with Hari, Indra, Brahmā and the other [gods], I shall recite [the work called] ‘A Compendium on the Essence of the Bull [of Dharma]’.

1.1 Pāda a is reminiscent of, among other famous passages, Bhagavadgītā 11.19: anādimadhyāntam anantavīryam anantabāhuṃ śaśisūryanetram | paśyāmi tvāṃ diptahutāśavaktraṃ svatejasā viśvam idaṃ tapantam ||

See also Bhagavadgītā 10.20cd: aham ādiś ca madhyaṃ ca bhūtānāṃ anta eva ca ||

A faint reference to the Bhagavadgītā seems proper at the beginning of a work that claims to deliver a teaching based on, but also to surpass, the Mahābhārata (see following verses of the VSS). Compare also e.g. Kūrmapurāṇa 1.11.237: rūpaṃ tavāśeśakalāvihīnam agocaraṃ nirmalam ekarūpaṃ | anādimadhyāntam anantam ādyaṃ namāmi satyaṃ tamasah parastāt || To say that a god has no beginning and no end in a temporal or spacial sense is natural (anādi°...°antam), but to have no ‘middle part’ (°madhya°) in these senses is slightly less so. Thus the rather commonly occurring phrase anādimadhyāntam is probably a fixed expression usually referring to a deity that is endless, eternal and immaterial. As to which deity or what form of a deity this stanza refers to, it may be Śiva, his name missing in pāda c, but the phrasing of the verse is vague enough to keep the question somewhat open: the impersonal Brahman might be another option, even more so if we look at verses 1.9–10, whose topic is brahmavidyā.

In pāda b jagat-susāraṃ is most probably not to be interpreted as jagatsū sārāṃ (‘the essence in the worlds’). Another way to translate avyakta jagatsusāraṃ would be: ‘who is the fine essence of the unmanifest world.’

Strictly speaking, pāda c is unmetrical, but it is better to simply acknowledge here the phenomenon of ‘muta cum liquida’, namely that syllables followed by consonant clusters such as ra, bra, bra, kra, śra, śya, śva, śva, dva can be treated as short (laghu). (See Introduction CHECK) Thus harīndrabrahmā° can be treated as a regular beginning of an upajāti (. . . -), the syllable bra not turning the previous syllable long (guru).

The reading āsamagraṃ in pāda c is suspect, although the initial ā- might convey some sort of completeness, meaning ‘all round’ (see e.g. Kale 1992, 226). The fact that we could perceive the ending of pāda a and b (pāraṃ-sāraṃ), as well as pāda c and d, as (in the latter case, oddly) rhyming pairs (graṃ-grahaṃ) suggests that accepting the reading āsamagraṃ could be the right decision (as suggested by Alessandro Battistini). I translate this verse accordingly. M gives an exciting, albeit unmetrical, alternative (yat samagraṃ), but this seems more like a guess to me than the correct reading. For some time I was considering emending āsamagraṃ. The most tempting of all the possible options (arçyam/arbyam/arghyam/īdyaṃ/ādhyam agraṃ, āsamastam) seemed to be āptam agraṃ, meaning ‘appointed/received/respected [by Hari, Indra, Brahmā etc.] as the foremost one’. The fact that the akṣaras āsam and āptam look similar in most of the scripts used in our manuscripts could support this conjecture. āptam could also possibly refer to the text itself, although then the syntax becomes slightly confusing: ‘I shall recite the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha that was

The dialogue of Janamejaya and Vaiśampāyana ]

śatasāhasrikam grantham sahasrādhyāyam uttamam |

parva cāsya śataṁ pūrṇam śrutvā bhāratasamhitām || 1:2 ||

Having listened to the Bhāratasamhitā [i.e. the Mahābhārata], the supreme book of a hundred thousand [verses] and a thousand chapters (adhyāya), with all its hundred sections (parvan),

atrptaḥ puna papraccha vaiśampāyanam eva hi |

Janamejaya remained unsatisfied. Listen unweariedly to what he asked Vaiśampāyana in the past.

janamejaya uvāca |

bhagavan sarvadharmajña sarvaśāstraviśārada |

asti dharmam param guhyam saṁsārārṇavatāraṇam || 1:4 ||

Janamejaya spoke: O venerable sir, O knower of the entire Dharma, O you who are well-versed in all the sciences (śāstra)! There is a supreme and secret Dharma first received by Hari...' etc. Another candidate was ādhyam agram: 'Having bowed to [Him] who contains/is rich with Hari, Indra, Brahmā etc.' I have not emended the text because it is difficult to know if there is any need for change and if there is, which reading to chose. There was no consensus when this verse was discussed in our extended Śivadharmā reading group.

Pāda d seems hypermetrical, but it can be interpreted as a vamśastha line, a change from triṣṭubh to jagatī (as suggested by Dominic Goodall).

1.2 The dialogue of Janamejaya and Vaiśampāyana makes up the outermost layer of the VSS (except for the introductory stanzas 1.1–3; see Introduction CHECK), mostly containing general dharmasāstric material. That the MBh should contain a hundred thousand verses is hinted at e.g. in line 19 of the Khoh Charter 2 of Śarvanātha, year 214 (Siddham IN00088: uktañ ca mahābhārata śatasāhasryam (understand °ryām) samhitāyām...). The hundred parvans of the Mahābhārata are listed in MBh 1.2.33–70.

1.3 My emendation from the unmetrical punaḥ to the unusual, or rather, Middle Indic (Edgerton 1953, vol. 2, p. 347), puna is based on the assumption that in the original the metre must have overridden morphology, similarly to what may have happened in 8.44d (Mālinī metre): na bhavati punajanma kalpakotyāyute 'pi, and in 12.151c (Sragdharā metre): garbhāvāsam na ca tvan na ca punamaraṇam kleśam āyāsapūrṇam.

For an unsatisfaction or dissatisfaction (atrpti) with previous teachings in a somewhat similar manner to what Janamejaya experiences here, see e.g. Nisvāsa mūla 1.9: vedāntam veditam deva sāmṁkhyam vai pañcaviṁśakam | na ca trptim gamiṣyāmo hy rte śaivād anugrahāt ||; and the Śivadharmasāstra: CHECK. Vaiśampāyana, a Rṣi, disciple of Vyāsa, great-grandson to Arjuna, recited the Mahābhārata at the snake sacrifice of Janamejaya. This setting is an echo of the starting point of the Mahābhārata, see MBh 1.1.8ff. In fact the next few verses in the VSS make it clear that the VSS picks up where the Mahābhārata left off: Janamejaya has heard the whole Mahābhārata from Vaiśampāyana, but he is eager to hear more. Note how we are forced to emend pāda c to contain a stem form proper noun (janamejaya) to maintain the metre, and note how the manuscripts struggle with this pāda. Stem form nouns, prātipadikas, abound in the VSS: see Introduction p. CHECK.

[that causes] liberation from the ocean of mundane existence (saṃsāra).

kathayasva hi me tṛptim kuru yatnāt tapodbhava || 1:5 ||

Teach me the Dharma that emerged from [Vyāsa] Dvaipāyana's mouth, O best of Brahmins. Help me find satisfaction at all cost, O great ascetic!

vaiśampāyana uvāca |
śṛṇu rājann avahito dharmākhyānam anuttamam |
vyāsānugrahasamprāptaṃ guhyadharmam śṛṇotu me || 1:6 ||

Vaiśampāyana spoke: Listen with great attention, O king, to this unsurpassed narration of Dharma. Hear the secret Dharma that I received by Vyāsa's favour.

anarthayajñakartāraṃ tapovrataparāyaṇam |
śīlaśaucasamācāraṃ sarvabhūta-dayāparam || 1:7 ||
jijñāsānārthaṃ prāśnaikaṃ viṣṇunā prabhaviṣṇunā |
dvijarūpadharo bhūtvā papraccha vinayānvitaḥ || 1:8 ||

Viṣṇu, the great Lord, assuming the form of a twice-born [Brahmin], wanted to test [Anarthayajña, the ascetic yogin] who performed nonmaterial sacrifices (anarthayajña), focused on his austerities and observances, whose conduct was virtuous and pure, and who was intent on compassion towards all living beings; therefore he [Viṣṇu] humbly asked him a question.

[ brahmavidyā —
 The knowledge of Brahman ]

[vigatarāga uvāca |]
brahmavidyā katham jñeyā rūpavarṇavivarjitā |
svaravyaṅjananirmuktam akṣaram kimu tatparam || 1:9 ||

[Vigatarāga spoke:] How is the knowledge of the Brahman to be understood if it is devoid of form and colour? The syllable that is devoid of vowels and consonants: is there anything higher than that?

1.4 Note dharma as a neuter noun in pāda c and in the next verse.

1.5 The majority of the MSS consulted include a vā in pāda b, and although C<sub>45</sub>'s reading seems a bit smoother, that manuscript rarely gives superior readings. Therefore I have chosen dharmaṃ vā yad, in which vā functions probably in a weak sense. That the secret Dharma Janamejaya is seeking is the one taught by Vyāsa Dvaipāyana, and thus no real options are involved here, becomes clear in 1.6cd. The reading of M in pāda b (dharmavākyaṃ) is tempting but could be a later correction. In general, M's readings here are unique but probably secondary: hi me tṛptim in pāda c seems more attractive than M's prasādena because it echoes atṛptaḥ in 1.3a.

1.7 Note the odd syntax here: viṣṇunā... dvijarūpadharo bhūtvā papraccha. The agent of the active verb is in the instrumental case (anacoluthic structure). On Anarthayajña, the interlocutor of VSS 1.9–10.2 and 19.1–21.22, and an important figure discussed in 22.3ff, as well as a concept ('nonmaterial sacrifice'), see Kiss 2022 and Introduction CHECK.

1.9 The translation of this verse, and the reconstruction and interpretation of pāda d, which is echoed in 1.10d, is slightly tentative. I doubt if kimu could have the standard (Vedic) meaning 'how much more/less' here. Rather u is probably just an expletive. In general it seems that this verse

*anarthayajña uvāca |
anuccāryam asandigdham avicchinnaṃ anākulam |
nirmalaṃ sarvagaṃ sūkṣmaṃ akṣaraṃ kimu tatparam || 1:10 ||*

Anarthayajña replied: That syllable is not to be pronounced, is unquestionable, non-dividable, consistent, spotless, all-pervading and subtle: what could be higher than that?

[ kālapāśaḥ —
The noose of death and time ]

*vigatarāga uvāca |
dehī dehe kṣayaṃ yāte bhūjalāgniśivādibhiḥ |
yamadūtaiḥ katham nīto nirālambo nirañjanaḥ || 1:11 ||*

Vigatarāga spoke: When the body disintegrates in the ground, in water, in fire or [is torn apart] by jackals and other [animals], how is the supportless and spotless soul led [to the netherworld] by Yama's messengers?

*kālapāśaiḥ katham baddho nirdehaś ca katham vrajet |
svargaṃ vā sa katham yāti nirdeho bahudharmakṛt |
etan me saṃśayaṃ brūhi jñātum icchāmi tattvataḥ || 1:12 ||*

How is it bound by the nooses of death/time? And if it is bodiless, how can it move? And how does the [soul of a] virtuous [person] (bahudharmakṛt) reach heaven if it has no body? This is my doubt. Teach me. I want to know the truth.

*anarthayajña uvāca |
atiśaṃśayakaṣṭhaṃ te prṣṭo 'haṃ dvijasattama |
durvijñeyaṃ manuṣyais tu devadānavapannagaiḥ || 1:13 ||*

Anarthayajña spoke: You are asking me about an extremely doubtful and problematic matter, O truest of the twice-born. [This is something that] is difficult to understand by humans, and [even] by gods (deva), demons (dānava) and serpents (pannaga).

*karmabetuḥ śarīrasya utpattir nīdhanam ca yat |
sukṛtaṃ duṣkṛtaṃ caiva pāśadvayam udāhṛtam || 1:14 ||*

references the syllable om.

1.11 The word 'śivā' in pāda b is slightly suspect, and could be the result of metathesis, from 'viṣā' ('by poison'). Nevertheless, jackals seems appropriate in this context, for they are commonly associated with human corpses, death and the cremation ground (see e.g. Ohnuma 2019). Furthermore, pāda b lists phenomena that cause the body to disintegrate, and not causes of death; thus the reading śiva is probably correct.

1.12 The word kāla has, as usual, a double meaning here: kālapāśa is both Yama's noose, and also the limitations and bondage caused by time, as becomes clear at the discussion on the different time units in verses 1.18–31.

1.13 Note te used for tvayā in pāda a. Alternatively, taking te as genitive, the line could be translated as: 'I am being asked about a great problem of yours that originates in doubts...'

The cause of both the birth and death of the body is karma. Good and bad deeds are called the two nooses.

tenaiva saba saṃyāti narakaṃ svargam eva vā |

na tvayā viditaṃ kiñcij jijñāsyasi kathaṃ dvija |
kālapāśam ca viprendra sakalaṃ vettum arhasi || 1:17 ||

[If] you don't know anything, how could you start your investigation, O twice-born? O great Brahmin, you should know the noose of time in its entirety.

kalākalitakālaṃ ca kālatattvakalāṃ śṛṇu |
truṭidvayaṃ nimeṣas tu nimeṣadviguṇā kalā || 1:18 ||

Learn about time (kāla) which is divided into digits (kalā), [i.e. about] the division[s] (kalā) of the entity [called] time (kālatattva). Two atomic units of time (truṭi) is one twinkling (nimeṣa). One digit (kalā, cca. 1.6 second) is twice a twinkling.

kalādviguṇitā kāṣṭhā kāṣṭhā vai triṃśatiḥ kalā |
triṃśatkalā mubūrtaś ca mānuṣeṇa dvijottama || 1:19 ||

Two digits (kalā) form one bit (kāṣṭhā, 3.2 seconds). Thirty bits (kāṣṭhā) is one digit (kalā?, 1.6 minutes). Thirty digits (kalā) make up one section (mubūrta, 48 minutes) in human terms, O great Brahmin.

mubūrtatriṃśakenaiva ahorātram vidur budbāḥ |
ahorātram punas triṃśan māsam ābur manīṣiṇaḥ || 1:20 ||

1.14 The MSS give karmahetu in pāda a overwhelmingly, which could work as a neuter bahuvrihi compound picking up both utpattir and nidhanaṃ but karmahetuḥ is grammatically more correct, picking up the feminine utpatti. I suspect that there may have been a confusion, scribes taking karmahetuśarīrasya as one single compound; but this would make it difficult to interpret the verse.

1.17 The variant jijñāsyasi seems to be the lectio difficilior as opposed to vijñāsyasi, but the latter could also work fine here. Note how M (agreeing with E) gives a reading (vaktum arhasi) that is clearly out of context. This confirms that while M comes up with interesting readings, they are mostly to be ignored.

1.18 1.18d and 1.19a are problematic in the light of 1.19b, which redefines kalā in harmony with the traditional interpretation, see e.g. Arthaśāstra 2.20.33: triṃśatkāṣṭhāḥ kalāḥ. On divisions of time, see also, e.g., Manu 1.64ff. I have calculated 1.6 second for one kalā backwards, starting from one day (see 1.20ab).

Thirty sections (muhūrta) are known to the wise as night and day [i.e. a full day]. Thirty days and nights are taught by the wise to be one month.

The Tretā age is thrice [as long], the Kṛta age four [times as long as the Kali age].
This is the figure related to the four ages (yuga). Taking it seventy-one [times],

daśa kalpasahasrāṇi brahmābhaḥ parikalpitam |

is of the same [duration] according to the wise who know the truth.

rātryāgame pralīyante jagat sarvaṃ carācaram |
abhāgame tathaiveha utpadyante carācaram || 1:26 ||

When [Brahmā's] night falls, the whole moving and unmoving universe dis-is born.

parārdhaparakalpāni atītāni dvijottama |

1.21 Note how a verb (e.g. iti vadanti, iti prābur) is missing in the first half-verse.

1.22 Note the stem form noun yuga metri causa, and also M's unique but confused readings.

1.23 The 'figure' mentioned in this verse is the sum of the duration of the four yugas, which makes up one mahāyuga: Kaliyuga = 360,000 years, Dvāparayuga = 720,000 years, Tretāyuga = 1,080,000 years, Dvāparayuga = 1,440,000 years; altogether 3,600,000 years. 72 mahāyugas make up a manvantara (= 259,200,000 years). One kalpa is 14 manvantaras (= 3,628,800,000 years). Ten thousand kalpas are one day of Brahmā, and his night is of the same length, which makes one full day of Brahmā 72,576,000,000,000 years. See next verses.

1.24 See 21.34ff.

1.25 M has a separator sign ([o]) at the end of pāda b, as if a section ended here.

1.26 The plural form pralīyante in pāda a is metri causa for pralīyate, perhaps also influencing utpadyante (for utpadyate) in pāda d, which in turn is used here to avoid an iambic pattern (- - - - -).

yathārkagrabatārendu bhramato dṛśyate tv iha |

kālacakraṃ bhramatvaiva viśramaṃ na ca vidmahe || 1:28 ||

vigatarāga uvāca |

śrutam vai kālacakraṃ tu mukhapadmaviniṣṛtam |

parārdham ca paraṃ caiva śrotuṃ vaḥ pratidīpitam || 1:32 ||

Vigatarāga spoke: I have just heard [the term] ‘wheel of time’ (kālacakra) uttered from [your] lotus mouth, as well as parārdha and para. You have made these things appear as exciting, as things to hear.

1.27 On the definition of the numbers para and parārdha, see verses 1.32–36. Note the peculiar compound bṛḡu-r-ādi-maharṣayah.

1.28 bhramato (gen.) in pāda b seems to stand for the neuter participle bhramat. Alternatively, bhramato might mean ‘erroneously’ (brama-tas, abl.), but this makes the verse difficult to interpret.

1.30 Note that samatītāni (neuter) most probably picks up devarājāḥ (masculine) in this verse, or rather devarājā stands for devarājānām and samatītāni picks up parārdhāni. It is not clear to me what devarāja (‘god king’) means exactly (Indra?).

1.32 The reading of all manuscripts consulted, vinisṛtam, may be considered metrical if we interpret it, loosely, as vinisṛitam. Pāda d is suspect and my translation is tentative. M’s reading in pāda d (śrotuṃ naḥ pratidīyatām) might make sense (‘give it back/repeat it for us again’), but it sounds forced, as if the scribe tried to come up with a reading that he understood better than śrotuṃ vaḥ pratidīpitam, which is in fact not easy to interpret. One would expect a phrase meaning ‘please tell me about these.'

1.33 See a similar teaching of numbers in BrahmanḍaP 3.2.91ff.

1.34 For anta meaning ananta, see 1.58cd–59ab. M's reading in pāda d may be a result of an eyeskip to 1.35c.

1.36 Note that E, after omitting three lines, inserts this: vṛndañ caiva mahāvṛnda dviparānantam eva ca.

1.37 The use of the singular next to numerals is one of the hallmarks of the VSS (see p. CHECK). As an introduction to this phenomenon, pāda a has brahmāṇḍam in the singular where we would expect a plural form. The word prāpitaṃ is a conjecture for cāpitaṃ, which I find unintelligible. Another possibility could be jñāpitaṃ. My emendation of cāṅguli-mūrdhveṣu to cāṅguli-m-ūrdhveṣu (with a hiatus filler) is based on ūrdhvatās in 1.61d, which is part of the reply to the question posed in this line. In turn, aṅguli here triggered an conjecture in 1.61c.

1.38 One would expect brahmāṇḍāni in pāda a instead of brahmāṇḍānāṃ, but we should probably understand brahmāṇḍānāṃ viśeṣān prasamkhyātum... The structure noun in genitive + verb meaning 'telling' occurs also in CHECK.

1.39 The claim that Brahmā taught Mātariśvan is confirmed in 1.64cd, and also, e.g., in Brahmāṇḍapurāṇa 3.4.58cd (see the apparatus).

1.40 My conjecture in pāda b (bhūbhṛtām) is based on the fact that the readings transmitted in the MSS seem unintelligible and, more importantly, that these names are said to belong to nāyakas in the subsequent verses, a possible synonym of bhūbhṛt ('a king'), and also that it is a minute intervention. In pāda c, understand diśāṣṭānāṃ as diśām aṣṭānāṃ or diśaṣṭakānāṃ, and note that one of the hallmarks of the language of the VSS is the use of the singular in the proximity of numbers, where a plural would be expected (daśa nāma).

1.41 Note that many of the names here and in the following verses are, in the absence of any parallel passage, rather insecure. In order to avoid the repetition of the name Saha, I take the first name here as feminine; Asabhā seems also to be a feminine ruler's name. Later on there seem to come more feminine names (Tejā, Yamunā, Naganā, etc.), therefore it may be correct to interpret some of the names as names of queens. What is clear here is that the list evokes the name Sahasrākṣa, one of the appellations of Indra, the quadrian of the eastern direction.

[1] Nagaja, [2] Naganā, [3] Nanda, [4] Nagara, [5] Naga, [6] Nandana, [7] Nagarbha, [8] Gahana, [9] Guhyo, [10] Gūḍhaja: [these are] the ten associated with [the South-West].

[ vāruṇe —
West ]

vāruṇena pravakṣyāmi śṛṇu vipra nibodha me |
babhrāḥ setur bhavodbhadraḥ prabhavodbhavabhājanaḥ |
bharaṇo bhuvano bhartā daśaite varuṇālayāḥ || 1:45 ||

I shall teach you the [names] in Varuṇa's region [in the west]. Listen, O Brahmin, learn from me. [1] Babhra, [2] Setu, [3] Bhava, [4] Udbhadra, [5] Prabhava, [6] Udbhava, [7] Bhājana, [8] Bharana, [9] Bhuvana, and [10] Bharṭṛ: these ten dwell in Varuṇa's region [in the west].

[ vāyavye —
North-West ]

nṛgarbho 'suragarbhaś ca devagarbho mahīdharaḥ |
vṛṣabho vṛṣagarbhaś ca vṛṣāṅko vṛṣabhadhvajaḥ || 1:46 ||

[1] Nṛgarbha, [2] Asuragarbha, [3] Devagarbha, [4] Mahīdhara, [5] Vṛṣabha,

1.42 Here, in the region of Agni, the names evidently evoke the image of flames.

1.43 I have chosen the variant saṃyano in pāda c only to avoid the repetition of the name saṃyama, and the variant yanoyanaḥ in pāda d because I suspect that most of the names here should begin with ya. All the name forms in this verse are to be taken as tentative. The only guiding light is the presence of ya, reinforcing a connection with Yama.

1.44 naga in pāda b is a stem form noun metri causa tatparaḥ in pāda d might be another example of a singular form next to a number (see 1.40c above). Note that the reconstruction of these names are tentative. What is clear here is that the initials should be na and ga, probably suggesting a connection with nirṛti, narakas and nāgas.

1.45 Varuṇa upholds the sky and the earth. This could be the reason why these names include bharana and bharṭṛ.

[6] Vṛṣagarbha, [7] Vṛṣāṅka, [8] Vṛṣabhadhvaja, jñātavyaś ca tathā samyag vṛṣajo vṛṣanandanaḥ |
nāyakā daśa vāyavye kīrtitā ye mayā dvija || 1:47 ||
 and [9] Vṛṣaja and [10] Vṛṣanandana: these are to be known properly as the ten leaders in Vāyu's region [in the north-west], as I taught them, O twice-born.

[ uttare —
 North ]

sulabhaḥ sumanaḥ saumyaḥ suprajaḥ sutanuḥ śivaḥ |
sataḥ satya layaḥ śambhur daśa nāyakam uttare || 1:48 ||
 [1] Sulabha, [2] Sumana, [3] Saumya, [4] Supraja, [5] Sutanu, [6] Śiva, [7] Sata, [8] Satya, [9] Laya, [10] Śambhu: [these are] the ten leaders in the north.

[ īśāne —
 North-East ]

indu bindu bhuvo vajra varado vara varṣaṇaḥ |
ilano valino brahmā daśeśāneṣu nāyakāḥ || 1:49 ||
 [1] Indu, [2] Bindu, [3] Bhuva, [4] Vajra, [5] Varada, [6] Vara, [7] Varṣaṇa, [8]
 Ilana, [9] Valina, [10] Brahmā: [these are] the ten rulers in the Īśāna direction [i.e. in the north-east].

[ madhyame —
 Center ]

aparo vimalo moho nirmalo mana mohanaḥ |
akṣayaś cāvyaḥ viṣṇur varado madhyame daśa || 1:50 ||
 [1] Aparā, [2] Vimala, [3] Moha, [4] Nirmala, [5] Mana, [6] Mohana, [7] Akṣaya, [8] Avyaya, [9] Viṣṇu, [10] Varada: [these are] the ten [leaders] in the centre.

1.46 The connection between vṛṣa and the north-west or Vāyu is not evident to me.
CHECKIn a tantric context, a western position is more standard for vṛṣa, see e.g. Goodall, Rout, Sathyanarayanan et al 2005, 40.

1.47 Note how M deviates here again in a significant way.

1.48 I prefer the form sumanaḥ to the more standard sumanāḥ (K<sub>7</sub>) in pāda a, because it suits the slightly irregular language of the VSS (see pp. CHECK), and because the solitary reading of K<sub>7</sub> may well only be an attempt to standardise. It is also not inconceivable that sumanaḥ stands compounded with saumyaḥ. Note how daśa nāyakam could again be an example for the use of the singular next to a number in pāda d. It seems that here the northern region is associated with Śiva, rather than the north-east, the īśāna direction, which is occupied by Brahmā: see next verse.
 In a tantric context, Brahmā is sometimes associated with the north-east, see, e.g., Goodall, Rout,

1.49 I consider indu, bindu and vajra stem form nouns. The north-east seems to be occupied by Brahmā, and by rulers whose names should somehow evoke Brahmā's name.

1.50 Note that the last three lists above have been associated with Śiva, Brahmā and Viṣṇu, respectively, and here, in a layer of the text that can be labelled Vaṣṇava (see pp. CHECK), it is Viṣṇu that seems to occupy a central position. mana mohanaḥ in pāda b may sound like one single name, but we are forced to separate these two words (mana being in stem form metri causa) to arrive at a list of ten names.

[parivārāḥ —
Subordinates]

sarveṣāṃ daśa-m-īśānāṃ parivāraśataṃ śataṃ |
śatānāṃ prthag ekaikaṃ sahasraiḥ parivāritam || 1:51 ||

Each of the ten rulers has a retinue of a hundred subordinates. Each one of [these] hundred is surrounded by a thousand subordinates.

sahasreṣu ca ekaikaṃ ayutaiḥ parivāritam |
ayutaṃ prayutair vṛndaiḥ prayutaṃ niyutair vṛtam || 1:52 ||

Each one of the thousand is surrounded by ten thousand [subordinates], the ten thousand is surrounded by a multitude of a hundred thousand, the hundred thousand by a million,

ekaikasya parivāro niyutaḥ prthag eva ca |
koṭibhir daśakoṭyena ekaikaḥ parivāritam || 1:53 ||

[that is] each one has a retinue of a million [subordinates] (niyuta). [Then those] are surrounded by ten million (koṭi) [subordinates], [they in turn] by a hundred million (daśakoṭi).

daśakoṭiṣu ekaikaṃ vṛndavṛndabhṛtair vṛtam |
vṛndavargeṣu ekaikaṃ kharvabhiḥ parivāritam || 1:54 ||

Each one of the hundred million is surrounded by a billion (vṛnda) subordinates (bhṛta). Each one in these groups of a billion (vṛnda) is surrounded by ten billion (kharva) [subordinates].

kharvavargeṣu ekaikaṃ daśakharvagaṇair vṛtam |
daśakharveṣu ekaikaṃ śaṅkubhiḥ parivāritam || 1:55 ||

Each in these groups of ten billion (kharva) is surrounded by a hundred billion (daśakharva). Each of those hundred billion (daśakharva) is surrounded by a trillion (śaṅku) [deities].

śaṅkubhiḥ prthag ekaikaṃ padmena parivāritam |
padmavargeṣu ekaikaṃ samudraiḥ parivāritam || 1:56 ||

Each of those one trillion (śaṅku) is surrounded by ten trillion (padma). Each

1.51 I take daśa-m-īśānāṃ as a disjointed CHECK compound (daśeśānāṃ). It is conceivable that each of the above ninety rulers has ten subordinates, therefore each group of ten rulers has a hundred subordinates altogether, but the original idea may have been that each one of the above ninety rulers has a hundred subordinates. Alternatively, this verse may only refer to the central group of ten rulers mentioned in 1.50, and each one of them has a hundred subordinates.

1.52 We are forced to follow E's reading in pāda c in order to make sense of this passage. My correction in pāda d is motivated by the same. Note that vṛnda is not a number in this line. Elsewhere in this chapter vṛnda is the word that signifies 'a billion'.

1.53 It seems that *pāda*s ab repeat what has been stated in 1.52cd. koṭyena stands for koṭyā (thematization). Note how the scribe of M gets confused at 1.53c due to an eye-skip and fully regains control only at 1.55b.

of those ten trillion (padma) is surrounded by a hundred trillion (samudra).

samudreṣu tathaikaikaṃ madhyasaṃkhyais tu tair vṛtam |
madhyasaṃkhyeṣu ekaikaṃ anantaiḥ parivāritam || 1:57 ||

And each of those hundred trillion (samudra) is surrounded by those whose number is one quadrillion (madhya). Each of those quadrillion (madhya) is surrounded by ten quadrillion (ananta).

ananteṣu ca ekaikaṃ parārdhparivāritam |
parārdheṣu ca ekaikaṃ pareṇa parivāritam |
eṣa vai kathito vipra śakyaṃ sāmkyam udīritam || 1:58 ||

Each of those ten quadrillion (ananta) is surrounded by a hundred quadrillion (parārdha). Each of those hundred quadrillion (parārdha) is surrounded by two hundred quadrillion (para). This is how it is taught, O Brahmin. The enumeration [of the rulers of the Brahmāṇḍa] has been taught as much as it is possible.

Measurements ]

pramāṇam śṛṇu me vipra saṃkṣepād bruvato mama |
candrodaye pūrṇamāsyāṃ vapur aṇḍasya tādrśam || 1:59 ||

Listen to me and learn about the measurements [of the universe], O Brahmin, I shall teach [you] in a concise manner. The body of the Egg is like that of [the moon] at moonrise on the day of the full moon.

koṭīkoṭīśahasraṃ tu yojanānām samantataḥ |
aṇḍānām ca parīmāṇam brahmaṇā parikīrtitam || 1:60 ||

The whole circumference of the Eggs has been declared by Brahmā to be ten million (koṭi) times a thousand times ten million yojanas.

saptakoṭīśahasrāṇi saptakoṭīśatāni ca |
viṃśakoṭīṣv aṅgulīṣu ūrdhvatas tapate raviḥ || 1:61 ||

The Sun shines from the height of seven thousand seven hundred and twenty koṭi finger's breath.

pramāṇam nāma saṃkhyā ca kīrtitāni samāsataḥ |
brahmāṇḍam cāprameyāṇām lakṣaṇam parikīrtitam || 1:62 ||

The numbers pertaining to the measurements have been taught in brief. The characteristics of the unmeasurable Brahmāṇḍa[s] have been taught.

[ vyāsāḥ —

1.56 Note that śaṅkubhiḥ stands for śaṅkūṣu (instrumental for locative).

1.61 This verse is the reply to the question in 1.37cd, which contains the word aṅguli: this hints at the possibility that the unintelligible gulmeṣu transmitted in most of the witnesses might be corrupted from aṅguīṣu; hence my conjecture, resulting in a ra-vipulā.

1.62 Note the mixture of different grammatical genders and numbers in this verse. Understand pramāṇeṣu saṃkhyāḥ kīrtitāḥ samāsataḥ and brahmāṇḍānām aprameyāṇām...

The redactors (of the Purāṇas) ]

purāṇāśīsahasrāṇi śatāni dvījasattama |
brahmaṇā kathitaṃ pūrṇaṃ mātariśvā yathātatham || 1:63 ||

O truest of the twice-born, the Purāṇa[s of] 8,000,000 [verses] were taught by [1] Brahmā to [2] Mātariśvan [= Vāyu] in their entirety, in their true form.

vāyunā pāda saṃkṣīpya prāptaṃ cośanasam purā |
tenāpi pāda saṃkṣīpya prāptavāms' ca brhaspatiḥ || 1:64 ||

1.63 Pāda a should probably be analysed and interpreted as purāṇam (purāṇānām aśītisahasrāṇi śatāni ślokaṇi) brahmaṇā kathitam. Alternatively, pāda a may have originally read purāṇāni sahasrāṇi, and then the initial number of verses transmitted by Brahmā is a hundred thousand. That the number refers to the number of *śloka*s transmitted, and not, e.g., the number of lines, is confirmed in 1.66d: viṃśatślokaśahasrikam.

On the idea that initially there was only one Purāṇa, see, e.g., Rocher 1986, 41ff.

In pāda d, either understand mātariśvā (nom.) as mātariśvānam (acc.) or emend kathitam to kathitaḥ in the sense 'Mātariśvan was taught,' echoing 1.39cd: brahmaṇā yat purāṇāyāto mātariśvā yathā tathā.

Compare this list to a list of twenty-eight *vedavyāsa*s, from Brahmā to Vyāsa Dvaipāyana, in ViṣṇuP 3.3.10–19, taught by Parāśara, the twenty-sixth vyāsa of this list and our text (in the numbering that I add here I follow the translation in Dutt 1896, 178–179): vedavyāsa vyatītā ye aṣṭaviṃśati sattama | caturdhā yaiḥ kṛto vedo dvāpareṣu punaḥ punaḥ || dvāpare prathame vyatītā svayaṃ vedāḥ [1] svayambhuvā | dvitīye dvāpare caiva vedavyāsaḥ [2] prajāpati || trītiye [3] cośanā vyāsa caturthe ca [4] brhaspatiḥ [5] savitā pañcame vyāsaḥ [6] mṛtyuḥ ṣaṣṭhe smṛtaḥ prabhū || sapthame ca [7] tathaivendro [8] vasiṣṭhaḥ cāṣṭame smṛtaḥ [9] sārasvatā ca navame [10] tridhāmā daśame smṛtaḥ || ekādaśe tu [11] trivṛṣā [12] bhāradvāja tataḥ param | trayodaśe [13] cāntarikṣo [14] varṇi cāpi caturdaśe || [15] trayyāruṇaḥ pañcadaśe ṣoḍaśe tu [16] dbanañjayaḥ [17] kratuñjayaḥ sapthadaśe [18] ṛṇajyo 'ṣṭadaśe smṛtaḥ || tato vyāso [19] bharadvājo bharadvājāt tu [20] gautamaḥ | gautamād uttamo vyāso [21] baryātmā yo 'bhīdhīyate || atha baryātmano [22] venaḥ smṛto vājaśravā tu yaḥ | somaḥ śuśmāyānaś tasmāt [23] tṛṇabindur iti smṛtaḥ || [24] ṛkṣo 'bhīdhī bhārgavaś tasmād vālmīkir yo 'bhīdhīyate | tasmād asmatpitā [25] śaktir vyāsaś tasmād [26] abam mune || [27] jātukarṇo 'bhavan mattaḥ kṛṣṇadvaipāyanaś [28] tataḥ | aṣṭaviṃśatir ity etc vedavyāsaḥ purāṇāḥ ||

Another relevant passage is Brahmaṇḍapurāṇa 3.4.58cd–67 (≈ Vāyupurāṇa 2.41.58–67). Note how Tṛṇabindu is, perhaps by mistake, different from Somaśuśma/Suśmāyāna here, but, more importantly, note Amitabuddhi of VSS 1.76 appear at the end of this list: [1] brahmā dadau śāstram idam purāṇam [2] mātariśvane || tasmāc [3] cośanasā prāptaṃ tasmāc cāpi [4] brhaspatiḥ | brhaspatiś tu provāca [5] savitre tadanantaram || savitā [6] mṛtyave prāha mṛtyuś [7] cendrīya vai punaḥ | indraś cāpi [8] vasiṣṭāya so 'pi [9] sārasvatāya ca || sārasvatāś [10] tridhāmne 'tha tridhāmā ca [11] śaradvate | śaradvāms tu [12] trivṛṣāya so [13] 'ntarikṣāya dattavān || [14] carṣiṇe cāntarikṣo vai so 'pi [15] trayyāruṇāya ca | trayyāruṇād [16] dbanañjayaḥ sa vai prādāt [17] kṛtañjaye || kṛtañjayaḥ [18] tṛṇañjayo [19] bharadvājāya so 'py atha | [20] gautamāya bharadvājāḥ so 'pi [21] niryantare punaḥ || niryantaras tu provāca tathā [22] vājaśravāya vai | sa dadau [23] somaśuśmāya sa cādāt [24] tṛṇabindave || tṛṇabindus tu [25] dakṣāya dakṣaḥ provāca [26] śaktaye | śakteḥ [27] parāśaraś cāpi garbbasthaḥ śrutavān idam || parāśarāj [28] jātukarṇyaś tasmād [29] dvaipāyanaḥ prabhū | dvaipāyanāt punaś cāpi [30] mayā prāptaṃ dvījottama || mayā caicitat punaḥ proktaṃ [31] putrāyāmitabuddhaye | ity eva vākyam brahmādigurunām samudāhṛtam ||

The list of *vedavyāsa*s in Liṅgapurāṇa 1.7.15–18 includes these twenty-five names: Kratu, Satya, Bhārgava, Aṅgiras, Savitr, Mṛtyu, Śatakratu, Vasiṣṭha, Sārasvata, Tridhāman, Trivṛta, Śatatejas, Tarakṣu, Āruṇi, Kṛtañjaya, Rtañjaya, Bharadvāja, Gautama, Vācaśravas, Tṛṇabindu, Rūkṣa, Śakti, Jātūkarṇya, Kṛṣṇa Dvaipāyana.

Vāyu abridged the verses and then gave [the Purāṇas] to [3] Uśanas. He [Uśanas] also abridged the verses, and [4] Bṛhaspati received them.

*bṛhaspatis tu provāca sūryaṃ trimśatsahasrikam |
pañcaviṃśatsahasrāṇi mṛtyuṃ prāha divākaraḥ || 1:65 ||*

Bṛhaspati taught 30,000 [verses] to [5] Sūrya [the Sun]. Divākara [= the Sun] taught 25,000 [verses] to [6] Mṛtyu [Death].

*ekaviṃśatsahasrāṇi mṛtyunendrāya kīrtitam |
indrenāha vasiṣṭhāya viṃśatslokaśahasrikam || 1:66 ||*

Mṛtyu taught 21,000 [verses] to [7] Indra. Indra taught 20,000 verses to [8] Vasiṣṭha.

*aṣṭādaśasahasrāṇi tena sārasvatāya tu |
sārasvatas tridhāmāya sahasradaśa sapta ca || 1:67 ||*

And he[, Vasiṣṭha taught] 18,000 [verses] to [9] Sārasvata. Sārasvata [taught] 17,000 [verses] to [10] Tridhāma[n].

*ṣoḍaśānāṃ sahasrāṇi bharadvājāya vai tataḥ |
daśa pañcasahasrāṇi trivṛṣāya abhāṣata || 1:68 ||*

[He taught] 16,000 verses to [11] Bharadvāja. [Bharadvāja] taught 15,000 verses to [12] Trivṛṣa.

*caturdaśasahasrāṇi antarīkṣāya vai tataḥ |
trayyāruṇiṃ sahasrāṇi trayodaśa abhāṣata || 1:69 ||*

[Trivṛṣa] then [taught] 14,000 verses to [13] Antarīkṣa. [Antarīkṣa] taught 13,000 [verses] to [14] Trayyāruṇi.

*trayyāruṇis tu viprendro dhanamjayam abhāṣata |
dvādaśāni sahasrāṇi saṃkṣīpya punar abravīt || 1:70 ||*

Trayyāruṇi, the great Brahmin, having abridged them again, taught 12,000 [verses] to [15] Dhanamjaya.

*kṛtaṃjayāya samprāpto dhanamjayamahāmuniḥ |
kṛtaṃjayād dvijaśreṣṭha ṛṇamjayamahātmane || 1:71 ||*

Dhanamjaya, the great sage, handed [them] over to [16] Kṛtaṃjaya. [That recension was transmitted] from Kṛtaṃjaya, O best of the twice-born, to [17] noble Ṛṇamjaya.

*ṛṇāñjayāt punaḥ prāpto gautamāya maharṣiṇe |
gautamāc ca bharadvājas tasmād dharyātmanāya tu || 1:72 ||*

1.64 Note the stem form noun pāda twice in this verse and the slightly odd grammatical structure (purāṇaṃ) prāptam uśanasam ('the Purāṇa reached Uśanas'), as opposed to the solution in pāda d (prāptavān).

1.71 Note the odd structure in pādas ab: dhanamjayāḥ kṛtaṃjayāya samprāptaḥ, for a more standard dhanamjayena (purāṇaṃ) samprāpitam kṛtaṃjayam ('the Purāṇa was transmitted to Kṛtaṃjaya').

Then from R̥ṇaṃjaya it was given to [18] Gautama, the great sage, from Gautama to [19] Bharadvāja, from him to [20] Haryātman.

*rājaśravās tataḥ prāptaḥ somaśuṣmāya vai tataḥ |
somaśuṣmāt tataḥ prāptas tṛṇabindus tu bho dvija || 1:73 ||*

Then [21] Rājaśravas received it, then [22] Somaśuṣma. Then from Somaśuṣma [23] Tṛṇabindu received it, O twice-born.

*tṛṇabindus tu vṛkṣāya vṛkṣaḥ śaktim abhāṣata |
śaktiḥ parāśaram prāha jatukarṇāya vai tataḥ || 1:74 ||*

Tṛṇabindu taught it to [24] Vṛkṣa, Vṛkṣa to [25] Śakti [the father of Parāśara]. Śakti taught it to [26] Parāśara, then [Parāśara] to [27] Jatukarṇa.

*dvaipāyanam tu provāca jatukarṇo maharṣiṇam |
romaharṣāya samprāpto dvaipāyanamahāmuniḥ || 1:75 ||*

Jatukarṇa taught it to [28] [Vyāsa] Dvaipāyana, the great sage. Dvaipāyana, the great sage, gave it to [29] Romaharṣa.

*romaharṣeṇa provāca putrāyāmitabuddhaye |
daśa dve ca sahasrāṇi purāṇam samprakāśitam |
mānuṣāṇāṃ hitārthāya kiṃ bhūyaḥ śrotum icchasi || 1:76 ||*

Romaharṣa taught the Purāṇa[s] of 12,000 [verses], now fully revealed, to his son, [30] Amitabuddhi, for the benefit of humankind. What else do you wish to know?

1.72 The structure of pādas ab is as odd as that of 1.71ab. What was intended is probably r̥ṇaṃjayena prāpitam gautamāya. My emendation in pāda d of baryadvatāya to baryātmanāya (for a standard baryātmane) is based on the list of vedavyāsas in ViṣṇuP 3.3.16–17 (see note to 1.63 above).

1.73 The syntax is again slightly odd here. The indentation may have been prāpitam rājaśavasā somaśuṣmāya... tatas tṛṇabindunā prāptam.

1.74 In other list of vedavyāsas, Tṛṇabindu hands the Purāṇas down to R̥kṣa, Rūkṣa or Dakṣa (see note to 1.63 above). vṛkṣa in pāda a is probably a corrupted form. The name Jatukarṇa may be a corrupted form of Jātū- or Jātukarṇa.

1.75 The syntax of pādas cd echoes that of 1.73ab above.

1.76 Romaharṣa is usually considered to be the same person as Sūta, disciple of Vyāsa Dvaipāyana.

In Brahmāṇḍapurāṇa 3.4.67ab (mayā caitat punaḥ proktaṃ putrāyāmitabuddhaye, see note to 1.63 above) Amitabuddhi is clearly the name (or epithet) of Romaharṣa's son. This suggests that the form romaharṣāya in pāda a is a mistake for romaharṣas ca, or similar. MS M is either transmitting an otherwise syntactically problematic reading (romaharṣeṇa) that is more original than that of most other witnesses or M's scribe is trying to correct the text. Supposing the former, in this case I accepted M's reading.

Manuscripts C<sub>02</sub> and M place the iti of the colophon at the end of the last śloka, before the daṇḍas, thus: icchāsīti ||O|| (C<sub>02</sub>) and icchasi iti ||o|| (M). Note also that M gives the number of ślokas in this chapter, 77, which is almost exactly the number of verses this critical edition has produced. The scribe of M struggled with eyeskips in this chapter, therefore it seems unlikely that he himself counted the number of verses he had copied and arrived at this very figure. Rather, he copied the number from his exemplar.

|| iti vṛ̥ṣasārasaṃgrahē brahmāṇḍasaṃkhyā nāmādhyaḃyāḥ prathamāḥ ||
Here ends the first chapter in the Vṛ̥ṣasārasaṃgraha called the Description of the Brahmāṇḍa[s].

What are its characteristics and how much is its extent?

kasya vā layanam jñeyam pramāṇam vātra vāsinaḥ |
kā vā tatra prajā jñeyā ko vā tatra prajāpatiḥ || 2:3 ||

Whose dwelling place is it? And [what] is the scale of the one[s] who dwell there? What kind of people live there? And who is the ruler (prajāpati) there?

[ śivāṇḍasamkhyā —
Summary of the Śivāṇḍa ]

anarthayajña uvāca |
śivāṇḍalakṣaṇam vipra na tvam praṣṭum ihārhasi |
daivatair api kā śaktir jñātum draṣṭum ca tattvataḥ || 2:4 ||

Anarthayajña spoke: Please don't ask me about the characteristics of the Śivāṇḍa, O Brahmin. How could even the gods have the power to really know and see [the Śivāṇḍa]?

agamyagamanam guhyam guhyād api samuddhṛtam |
na prabhur netaras tatra na daṇḍyo na ca daṇḍakah || 2:5 ||

The path leading to it is not to be trodden, it is more secret than any secret, and it is lofty. There is no master or servant [lit. the opposite] there, nobody to be punished and no punisher.

2.1 It is unlikely that janāgreṇa picks up mayā ('by me, the best of men'), instead, I supposed that this instrumental stands for the ablative or should be understood as 'through the best of man.'

2.2 The location where Śivāṇḍa was mentioned is verse 1.40ab above.

2.3 vā layanam in pāda a may stand for vā-ālayanam, in the sense of vā-ālayam. The questions in this verse are most probably answered in verses 2.26–33, and if my interpretation is correct there, pramāṇam vātra vāsinaḥ (understand vāsinām) and pāda c should refer to the number of inhabitants in the five regions of Īśāna, Tatpuruṣa etc., who are referred to here in pādas a and possibly d.

2.5 My emendation to samuddhṛtam in pāda b is not fully satisfactory, but the readings transmitted in the witnesses are problematic. M, a MS not collated for this chapter, gives a confusing reading: saṁmurdhniḍdam. I doubt if E's samṛddhidam ('yielding success') is the correct reading.

na satyo nānṛtas tatra suśīlo no duḥśīlavān |
nānṛjur na ca dambhitvaṃ na tṛṣṇā na ca īrṣyatā || 2:6 ||

There are no truthful or untruthful people there, no moral or immoral people, no crooked people, no hypocrisy, no thirst or envy.

na krodho na ca lobho 'sti na māno 'sti na sūyakaḥ |
īrṣyā dveṣo na tatrāsti na śaṭho na ca matsaraḥ || 2:7 ||

There is no anger or desire there, no arrogance or discontent ([a]sūyaka), no envy or hatred, no cheaters and no jealousy.

na vyādhir na jarā tatra na śoko 'sti na viklavaḥ |
nādhamaḥ puruṣas tatra nottamo na ca madhyamaḥ || 2:8 ||

There is no disease, no aging, no grief and no agitation there, there are no inferior or superior people and there is nobody in-between.

notkṛṣṭo mānavas tasmin striyaś caiva śivālaye |
na nindā na praśaṃsāsti matsarī piśuno na ca || 2:9 ||

There are no privileged men or women there in Śiva's abode, no reproach or praise, no selfish or treacherous people.

garvadarpaṃ na tatrāsti krūramāyādikam tathā |
yācamāno na tatrāsti dātā caiva na vidyate || 2:10 ||

There is no pride or arrogance there, no cruelty or trickery and so on. There are no beggars and no donors there.

anarthī vraja tatrasthaḥ kalpavṛkṣasamāśritaḥ |
na karma nāpriyas tatra na kaliḥ kalaho na ca || 2:11 ||

Go without material desires (anarthin), being there you'll be resting under a wishing tree. There is no karma there and no enemy. No Kali age is there and there is no fighting.

dvāparo na ca na tretā kṛtaṃ cāpi na vidyate |
manvantaram na tatrāsti kalpaś caiva na vidyate || 2:12 ||

There is no Dvāpara age or Tretā or Kṛta. There are no manvantaras there and no kalpas.

ābhūtasamplavaṃ nāsti brahmarātridinaṃ tathā |

Perhaps samudāhṛtam ('declared, talked about as') was meant. It is not inconceivable that C<sub>02</sub>'s (and M's) agamyaḡabhanam ('it is inaccessible because of its depth') is original and it is to be contrasted with samuddhṛtam ('lofty'). One also wonders if guhāḡ could be the right reading, and in what sense, in pāda b.

2.6 Strictly speaking duḥśīlavān in pāda b is unmetrical; understand or pronounce duśīlavān. īrṣyatā (for īrṣyā, see 2.7a) is a form rarely attested.

2.7 na sūyakaḥ in pāda b stands for na asūyaka metri causa.

2.11 Note the term anarthī in pāda a: it might have something to do with non-material sacrifice (anarthayajña), the topic of chapter 11. vraja in pāda a is suspect.

2.12 On manvantaras and kalpas, see 1.23–24 above.

na janmamaraṇaṃ tatra āpadaṃ nāpnuyāt kvacit || 2:13 ||

No universal floods of destruction come, and there are no days and nights of Brahmā. There is no birth and death there and one never encounters catastrophes.

na cāśāpāśabaddho 'sti rāgamohaṃ na vidyate |

na devā nāsurās tatra na yakṣoragarākṣasāḥ || 2:14 ||

Nobody is tied to the noose of hope and there is no passion or delusion. There are no gods and demons there and no Yakṣas, Serpents and Rākṣasas.

na bhūtā na piśācās ca gandharvā ṛṣayas tathā |

tārāgrahaṃ na tatrāsti nāgakimnaragārūḍaṃ || 2:15 ||

There are no Ghosts nor Piśācas, no Gandharvas and no Ṛṣis. There are no planets there, no Nāgas, Kiṃnaras or Garuḍa-like creatures.

na japo nāhnikas tatra nāgnihotrī na yajñakṛt |

na vrataṃ na tapaś caiva na tiryannarakaṃ tathā || 2:16 ||

There are no recitations or daily rituals there, nobody performs the Agnihotra and there are no sacrificers. There are no religious observances and no austerities and no 'animal hell'.

tasyeśānasya devasya aiśvaryaguṇavistaram |

api varṣaśatenāpi śakyaṃ vaktuṃ na kenacit || 2:17 ||

Nobody would be able to tell the extent of the qualities of the god Īśāna's powers, not even in a hundred years.

harecchāprabhavāḥ sarve paryāyeṇa bravīmi te |

devamānuṣavarjyāni vrkṣagulmalatādayaḥ || 2:18 ||

All are born by Hara's wish. I shall teach [them to] you one by one, excluding gods and people, starting with the trees, the bushes and creepers.

2.13 ābhūtasamplava for the more widely attested form ābhūtasamplava occurs, e.g., in some MSS transmitting ŚDhŚ 10.77 and 81 (see Bisschop, Kafle, & Kiss forthcoming).

2.16 The phrase of tiryannaraka appears in MBh 3.181.18ab: aśubhaiḥ karmabhiḥ pāpāḥ tiryannarakagāmināḥ. Here Ganguli 1883–1896 translates tiryann separately as 'in a crooked way,' but I suspect that in the VSS tiryannaraka has more to do with tiraggati, being reduced to animal existence, being reborn as an animal or entering a hell in animal form. Cf. MBh 13.134.057 (CHECK): nṛṣu janma labhante ye karmaṇā madhyamāḥ smṛtāḥ | tiryannarakagantāro hy adhamās te narādhamāḥ ||, and Umāmahēśvarasamvāda 6.1: avamanyanti ye viprān sarvaloke namaskṛtān | narakaṃ yānti te sarve tiryagyonim vrajanti ca || I suspect that nātirya° in the witnesses is only a scribal mistake for na tiryā°.

2.17 My translation of aiśvaryaguṇa° is tentative. It could be taken as a dvandva compound (e.g. 'supremacy and qualities'). The expression sarva° or aṣṭaiśvaryaguṇopeta occurs frequently, e.g. in SivP 7.2.8.28ab and SkandaP 55.30cd, and ŚDhU 2.6, 79, 125, 127, with aiśvaryā most probably referring to the eight siddhis aṇiman, laghiman etc. De Simini (2016a, 386), e.g., translates sarvaiśvaryaguṇopetaḥ in ŚDhU 2.127 as 'endowed with all the qualities of lordship.'

2.18 Note the gender confusion in this verse, and the way I take pāda a as a separate statement to avoid a further confusion of case.

parārdhadvigūṇotsedho vistāraś ca tathāvidhaḥ |
anekākārapuṣpāṇi phalāni ca manoharam || 2:19 ||

The height [of the Śivāṇḍa] is two parārdhas, and [its] width is the same.
 There are lovely flowers of different forms [there] and also lovely fruits.

anye kāñcanavṛkṣāṇi maṇivṛkṣāṇy athāpare |
pravālamaniṣaṇḍāś ca padmarāgaruhāṇi ca || 2:20 ||

There are also golden trees and also gem trees, coral gem thickets and ruby plants.

svādumūlaphalāḥ skandhalatāviṭapapādapāḥ |
kāmarūpās ca te sarve kāmādāḥ kāmabhāṣiṇaḥ || 2:21 ||

There are tasty roots and fruits and trees with creepers on their twigs. All are shape-shifters and they fulfill man's desires and they whisper seductively.

tatra vipra prajāḥ sarve anantagūṇasāgarāḥ |
tulyarūpabalāḥ sarve sūryāyutasamaprabhāḥ || 2:22 ||

There [in the Śivāṇḍa], O Brahmin, all the subjects are the oceans of endless virtues. They are all equally beautiful and strong, and they shine like millions of suns.

parārdhadvayavistāram parārdhadvayam āyatam |
parārdhadvayavikṣepā yojanānām dvijottama || 2:23 ||

[The Śivāṇḍa] is two parārdha long and two parārdha wide, and two parārdha yojanas is its extension, O great Brahmin.

aiśvaryatvaṃ na saṃkhyāsti balaśaktiś ca bho dvija |
adhordhvo na ca saṃkhyāsti na tiryāñ caiti kaścana || 2:24 ||

[Īśāna's] powers cannot be expressed by numbers, neither can [His] powerfulness, O twice-born. [In fact, the extension in the Śivāṇḍa] downwards and upwards cannot be expressed by numbers, neither can its horizontal extension.

śivāṇḍasya ca vistāram āyāmaṃ ca na vedmy aham |
bhogam akṣaya tatraiva janmamṛtyur na vidyate || 2:25 ||

[In reality,] I do not know the length and width of the Śivāṇḍa. Enjoyment is

2.19 I understand pāda a as parārdhadvigūṇa utsedho, i.e. as an example of double sandhi. On the other hand, sedho is only my conjecture, and may refer to something else than the Śivāṇḍa. Note the number confusion in pāda d, and also that two parārdhas is one para, the highest possible number according to verses 1.35–36 above. The number may refer to any unit of length, but 2.23 below suggests that it is yojanas.

2.20 Note that both anye and apare here pick up neuter nouns (gender confusion).

2.21 My conjectures in pādas ab result in a compound split at the caesura, which may have been the reason why the line got corrupted.

2.23 I understand pādas cd, tentatively, as vikṣepam parārdhadvayam yojanānām

2.24 This line is a reply to 2.17b.

undecaying there, and there is no birth or death there.

śivāṇḍamadhyam āśritya gokṣīrasadṛśaprabhāḥ |
parārdhaparakoṭīnām īśānānām smṛtālayaḥ || 2:26 ||

In the centre of the Śivāṇḍa, [creatures] shine like cow's milk. [It is] said to be the region (ālaya) of the one and a half para crore Īśānas.

bālasūryaprabhāḥ sarve jñeyās tatpuruṣālaye |
parārdhaparakoṭīnām pūrvasyām diśam āśritāḥ || 2:27 ||

They are all like the rising sun in the region of Tatpuruṣa. They are one and a half para crore [in number], living in the east.

bhinnāñjanaprabhāḥ sarve dakṣiṇām diśam āśritāḥ |
parārdhaparakoṭīnām aghorālayam āśritāḥ || 2:28 ||

Everybody is like collyrium in the southern direction, in the region of Aghora, one and a half para crore [in number].

kundendubhimaśailābhāḥ pāścimām diśam āśritāḥ |
parārdhaparakoṭīnām sadya-m-iṣṭālayaḥ smṛtaḥ || 2:29 ||

In the western direction, they are like jasmine, the moon, like snowy rocks. Sadyojāta's lovely region is [home] to one and a half para crore [people].

kuṅkumodakasamkāśā uttarām diśam āśritāḥ |
parārdhaparakoṭīnām vāmadevālayaḥ smṛtaḥ || 2:30 ||

In the northern direction, they are like saffron in water. Vāmadeva's region is [home] to one and a half para crore [people].

īśānasya kalāḥ pañca vaktrasyāpi catuṣ kalāḥ |
aghorasya kalā aṣṭau vāmadevās trayodaśa || 2:31 ||

2.25 Pāda c is transmitted in an unmetrical form and with a gender problem in the witnesses (bhogam akṣayas), hence my emendation using a stem form noun, a phenomenon frequently seen in this text. But note that bhoga is normally masculine; there might be a hiatus-filler in-between: bhoga-m-akṣaya).

2.26 Note the stem form smṛta in pāda d (cf. 2.29d). I understand īśānānām as aiśānānām. Īśāna is traditionally the upward-looking face of Śiva, his region is positioned in the centre here. Note that the somewhat cryptic third pādas here and in the coming verses may or may not refer to the number of people living in the given region. They may tell us about the extent of the given region, although the numbers are much higher than what one would expect after verse 2.23.

2.27 The genitive of parārdhaparakoṭīnām is baffling here and in the coming verses, but I suspect that again the expression gives the number of subjects living in the given region. pūrvasyām is meant to mean pūrvām (cf. dakṣiṇām, pāścimām, and uttarām in the next verses); note how K<sub>10</sub> tries to save the construction by reading diśi.

This verse conforms to the traditional view that Śiva's Tatpuruṣa-face is looking to the east.

2.28 Note the Aiśa form diśim in C<sub>45</sub>, and that Aghora is indeed usually south-facing.

2.29 Note the Aiśa form diśim in K<sub>7</sub> in pāda b. In pāda d, we may presuppose the presence of a sandhi-bridge: sadya-m-iṣṭālayaḥ. Sadyojāta is traditionally associated with the western direction.

2.30 Note the Aiśa form diśim in C<sub>94</sub> in pāda b. Vāmadeva is traditionally associated with the western direction.

Īśāna has five parts (kalā), [his Tatpuruṣa] face has four. Aghora has eight, and there are thirteen Vāmadeva[-kalā]s.

sadyaś cāṣṭau kalā jñeyāḥ saṃsārārṇavatārakāḥ |
aṣṭatrimṣat kalā hy etāḥ kīrtitā dvijasattama || 2:32 ||

Sadyojāta has eight parts. These parts, altogether thirty-eight, which liberate us from the ocean of existence, have been taught, O truest Brahmin.

saṃkhyā varṇā diśaś caiva ekaikasya pṛthak pṛthak |
pūrvoktena vidhānena bodhavyās tattvacintakaiḥ || 2:33 ||

Those who explore the truth should know the numbers, the colours and directions associated with each one [of Śiva's faces] in the way taught above.

śivāṇḍagamanākṛṣṭyā śivayogaṃ sadābhyaset |
śivayogaṃ vinā vipra tatra gantum na śakyate || 2:34 ||

If one has the intention to go to the Śivāṇḍa, one should practise Śiva-yoga regularly. Without Śiva-yoga, O Brahmin, it is impossible to go there.

aśvamedhādīyajñānām koṭyāyutaśatāni ca |
kṛcchrādītapa sarvāṇi kṛtvā kalpaśatāni ca |
tatra gantum na śakyeta devair api tapodhana || 2:35 ||

[Even] by [performing] millions of sacrifices such as the Aśvamedha, or by performing all the difficult austerities for a hundred kalpas, it is impossible to get there even for the gods, O great ascetic.

gaṅgādisarvatīrtheṣu snātvā taptvā ca vai punaḥ |
tatra gantum na śakyeta ṛṣibhir vā mahātmabhiḥ || 2:36 ||

By [merely] bathing and performing austerities at all the sacred places such as the Gaṅgā, even the honorable Ṛṣis will not be able to get there.

saptadvīpasamudrāṇi ratnapūrṇāni bho dvija |
dattvā vā vedaviduṣe śraddhābhaktisamanvitaḥ |
tatra gantum na śakyeta vinā dhyānena niścayaḥ || 2:37 ||

Or [even] by donating the oceans of the seven islands with all their gems to a Veda expert, O Brahmin, with faith and devotion, one will not be able to go there without meditation. [This is a] certainty.

svadehān māṃsam uddhṛtya dattvārthibhyaś ca niścayāt |
svadāraputrasarvasvaṃ śiro 'rthibhyaś ca yo dadet |
na tatra gantum śakyeta anyair vāpi suduṣkaraiḥ || 2:38 ||

2.31 Note how vaktrasya should refer to Śiva's Tatpuruṣa-face, given that the text lists Śiva's five faces: Īśāna, Tatpuruṣa, Aghora, Vāmadeva, Sadyojāta.

2.32 Note sadyaś in pāda a for sadyaśaś or sadyojātasya.

2.34 ākṛṣṭyā in pāda a might be corrupt.

2.35 Understand kṛcchrādītapa sarvāṇi as kṛcchrādītapāṃsi sarvāṇi. It can be considered an instance of the use of a stem form noun.

He who destroys his own body and gives it without hesitation to those who are in need of it, or he who gives away his wife, his son and his possessions or his own head to those in need, or he who [performs] other difficult deeds, will not be able to go there [by merely doing these].

yajñatīrthatapodānavedādhyaṇapāragaḥ |
brahmāṇḍāntasya bhogāṃs tu bhuñkte kālavaśānugaḥ || 2:39 ||

He who has completed the sacrifices, the pilgrimages, the austerities, the donations, the study of the Vedas, will experience those enjoyments that the Brahmanḍa offers, still being subject to time and death.

kālena samapreṣyena dharmo yāti parikṣayam |
alātacakravat sarvaṃ kālo yāti paribhraman |
traikālyakalanāt kālas tena kālāḥ prakīrtitaḥ || 2:40 ||

Dharma decays tossed forward by time. Time flies moving everything round and round like a circle of burning coal. Time is called kāla because of the waves (kalana) of the three divisions of time [past, present, future].

|| iti vṛṣasārasaṃgrāhe śivāṇḍasaṃkhyā nāmādhyaṇyo dvitīyaḥ ||

Here ends the second chapter in the Vṛṣasārasaṃgrāha called the Description of the Śivāṇḍa.

2.40 Notice the muta cum liquida licence in pāda a: samapre° renders as short-short-long. I take samapreṣyena as if it read sampreṣito, picking up dharmo; otherwise it is difficult to make sense of it. As Kenji Takahashi pointed out to me, Fitzgerald 2012 is a good starting point to understand the implication of alātacakra, ‘a single, rapidly twirled torch creat[ing] the illusion of an apparently real, continuous circle’ (ibid., p. 777). The function of sarvaṃ in pāda a becomes clear only if we understand paribhraman in a causative sense (for paribhramayan). One cannot help noticing that this verse would be in a more fitting context after verse 1.31, at the end of a section on kāla. On the other hand, it leads us to the next topic, Dharma, smoothly.

[ ṛtīyo 'dhyāyaḥ ]
[ Chapter Three ]

[ dharmappravacanam —
An Exposition of Dharma ]

vigatarāga uvāca |

kimarthaṃ dharmam ity ābuh katimūrtiś ca kīrtyate |

katipādavr̥ṣo jñeyo gatis tasya kati smṛtāḥ || 3:1 ||

Vigatarāga spoke: Why do they call it Dharma? And how many embodiments (mūrti) is he known to have? He is known as a bull: how many legs does it/he have? How many are his paths?

kautūbalaṃ mamotpannam saṃśayaṃ chindhi tattvataḥ |

kasya putro munisreṣṭha prajāś tasya kati smṛtāḥ || 3:2 ||

I have become curious [about these questions]. Put an end to my doubts for good. Whose son is [Dharma], O best of sages? How many children does he have?

anarthayaḥ uvāca |

dhṛtiḥ ity eṣa dhātur vai paryāyaḥ parikīrtitaḥ |

ādhāraṇān mahattvāc ca dharmā ity abhidhīyate || 3:3 ||

Anarthayaḥ spoke: Well, dhṛti ('firmness') is [of the same] verbal root [as dharmā], and is said to be [its] synonym. It is called dharmā because it supports (āDHĀRāṇa) and because it is great (MAhattva).

3.1 For the correct interpretation of pāda a, namely to decide whether these questions focus on the bull of Dharma or Dharma itself/himself, see the end of the previous chapter, where dharmā was mentioned (2.40b), and to which the present verse is a reaction; see also MBh 12.110.10–11: prabhāvārthāya bhūtānāṃ dharmappravacanam kṛtam | yat syād abhīṃsāṃyuktaṃ sa dharmā iti niścayaḥ || dhāraṇād dharmā ity āhur dharmena vidhṛtāḥ prajāḥ | yat syād dhāraṇasāmyuktaṃ sa dharmā iti niścayaḥ || Note the similarities of MBh this passage with this chapter: the phrase dharmā ity āhur, the fact that the present chapter from verse 18 on is actually a chapter on abhīṃsā, and that the etimological explanation involves the word [ā]dhāraṇa in both cases. These lead me to think that in pāda ab of this verse in the VSS, it is Dharma that is the focus of the inquiry and not the bull.

Understand pāda d as gatayaś tasya kati smṛtāḥ. I have accepted smṛtāḥ because this plural signals that gatis is meant to be plural, similarly to what happens in 3.6cd (tasya patnī... mahābhāgāḥ). The use of the singular in a context of numbers and quantities is one of the hallmarks of the language of the VSS, see p. CHECK.

On Dharma as a bull, see Introduction, pp. CHECK.

3.3 For similar Purāṇic passages on the etymology of dharmā, see the apparatus to this verse.

The insertion in my translation '[of the same]' solves the problem of a noun (dhṛti) seemingly being considered a verbal root (dhātu) here. I owe thanks to Judit Törzsök for this interpretation. For similar passages with nominal stems apparently being treated as dhātus, see e.g. Vāyup 3.17cd: bhāvya ity eṣa dhātur vai bhāvye kāle vibhāvyaḥ; Vāyup 3.19cd (= BrahmāṇḍaP 1.38.21ab): nātha ity eṣa dhātur vai dhātujñāḥ pālāṇe smṛtāḥ; LiñP 2.9.19: bhaja ity eṣa dhātur vai sevāyām parikīrtitaḥ

śrutismṛtidvayor mūrtiś catuṣpādavṛṣaḥ sthitaḥ |
caturāśrama yo dharmah kīrtitāni manīṣibhiḥ || 3:4 ||

The four-legged Bull is the embodiment of both Śruti and Smṛti. It is Dharma, as made up of the four āśramas.

gatiś ca pañca vijñeyāḥ śṛṇu dharmasya bho dvija |
devamānuṣatiryam ca narakasthāvarādayaḥ || 3:5 ||

And the paths of Dharma are five. Listen, O Brahmin: [existence as] gods, men, animals, [existence in] hell and [as] immovable things [such as plants and rocks] etc.

brahmaṇo hṛdayam bhittvā jāto dharmah sanātanaḥ |
tasya patnī mahābhāgā trayodaśa sumadhyamāḥ || 3:6 ||

Eternal Dharma was born after splitting Brahmā's heart. He has beautiful wives, thirteen in number, with nice waists.

dakṣakanyā viśālākṣī śraddhādyaḥ sumanoharāḥ |
tasya putrāś ca pautrāś ca anekāś ca babhūva ha |
eṣa dharmānisargo 'yam kiṃ bhūyaḥ śrotum icchasi || 3:7 ||

They are Dakṣa's daughters, [called] Śraddhā and so on. They have huge eyes and they are beautiful. Numerous sons and grandsons were born to him. This is the emergence of Dharma. What more do you wish to hear?

3.4 A similar image of the legs of the Bull of Dharma being the four (and not three, at least according to Olivelle 1993, 55 and Ganguli 1883–1896, Śāntiparvan CCLXX) āśramas is hinted at MBh 12.262.19–21: dharmam ekaṃ catuṣpādam āśritās te naraṣabbhāḥ | taṃ santo vidbivat prāpya gacchanti paramāṃ gatim || grhebhya eva niṣkramya vanam anye samāśritāḥ | grham evābhisamśṛitya tato 'nye brahmacāriṇaḥ || dharmam etaṃ catuṣpādam āśramam brāhmaṇā viduḥ | ānantiyaṃ brahmaṇaḥ sthānaṃ brāhmaṇā nāma niścayaḥ ||. On the more frequently quoted interpretation of the four legs, see Olivelle 1993, 235, a translation of Manu 1.81–82: 'Dharma and truth possess all four feet and are whole during the Kṛta yuga, and people did not obtain anything unrighteously (adharmaṇa). By obtaining, however, dharmā has lost one foot during each of the other yugas and righteousness (dharmā) likewise has diminished by one quarter due to theft, falsehood, and deceit. (MDh 1.81–82).' Understand pādas c and d as catvāri āśramāṇi kīrtitāni dharmo manīṣibhiḥ or yo dharmah kīrtitaś caturāśramāṇi manīṣibhiḥ or yo dharmas caturāśramah kīrtito manīṣibhiḥ. Judit Törzsök suggested that caturāśrama and dharmah may be interpreted as a compound here.

3.5 Note the use of the singular next to numbers in pāda a, as in 3.1d, and that vijñeyāḥ is an emendation from vijñeyaḥ following the logic of 3.1d. tiryā seems to be an acceptable nominal stem in this text for tiryāñc. See, e.g., 4.6a: devamānuṣatiryēsu. 'ādayaḥ in pāda d seems superfluous.

3.6 Note the use of the singular in pādas cd. I have left sumadhyamāḥ as the manuscripts transmit it: it signals the presence of the plural. And consider correcting mahābhāgā to mahābhāgās. In sum, understand tasya patnyo mahābhāgās trayodaśa sumadhyamāḥ.

3.7 śraddhādyaḥ in pāda b is an attractive lectio difficilior ('they were rich in faith/devotion'), but I have finally decided to accept the easier and better-attested śraddhādyaḥ[b]. Again, I have chosen/applied the plural forms 'ādyāḥ and sumanoharāḥ in pāda b to hint at the fact that the presence of the plural is to be preferred here; thus only viśālākṣī is problematic. As patnī in the previous verse, it should be treated as a plural. Note the use of the singular for the plural also in pādas cd, especially babhūva ha for babhūvuh (babhūva ha perhaps being a phonetic and metrically

Anarthayañña spoke: [Dharma's wives are] [1] Śraddhā ('Faith'), [2] Lakṣmī ('Prosperity'), [3] Dhṛti ('Resolution'), [4] Tuṣṭi ('Satisfaction'), [5] Puṣṭi ('Growth'), [6] Medhā ('Wisdom'), [7] Kriyā ('Labour'), [8] Lajjā ('Modesty'), [9] Buddhi ('Intelligence'), [10] Śānti ('Tranquillity'), [11] Vapus ('Beauty'), [12] Kīrti ('Fame'), [13] Siddhi ('Success'), [all] born to Prasūti [Dakṣa's wife].

śraddhā kāmah suto jāto darpo lakṣmīsutaḥ smṛtaḥ |
dhṛtyās tu niyamaḥ putraḥ saṃtoṣas tuṣṭijaḥ smṛtaḥ || 3:10 ||

Śraddhā's son is Kāma ('Desire'). Darpa ('Pride') is said to be Lakṣmī's son. Dhṛti's son is Niyama ('Rule'). Saṃtoṣa ('Satisfaction') is Tuṣṭi's son.

puṣṭyā lābhaḥ suto jāto medhāputraḥ śrutas tathā |
kriyāyās tv abhavat putro daṇḍaḥ samaya eva ca || 3:11 ||

'adjusted' equivalent, so to say, of babbhuvuḥ).

3.8 I have emended tebhyah to the correct feminine form tābhyah because I suspect that it is only the result of some early confusion brought about by putras, although tebhyah might be original. Note again the use of the singular (nominative) for the plural (accusative) in pādas ab. Alternatively, emend dharmapatnī to dharmapatnīr (plural accusative) and putras to putrān to make them work with śrotum icchāmi.

3.9 For Dharma's thirteen wives and their sons, see, e.g., LiñP 1.5.34–37 (note the similarity between the first line and VSS 3.6cd–7ab above): dharmasya patnyah śraddhādyāḥ kīrtitā vai tray-odaśa | tāsu dharmaprajāṃ vakṣye yathākramam anuttamam || kāmō darpo 'bha niyamaḥ saṃtoṣo lobha eva ca | śrutas tu daṇḍaḥ samayo bodhaś caiva mahādhyutiḥ || apramādaś ca vinayo vyavasāyo dvijottamāḥ | kṣemam sukham yaśaś caiva dharmaputrāś ca tāsu vai || dharmasya vai kriyāyāṃ tu daṇḍaḥ samaya eva ca | apramādas tathā bodho buddher dharmasya tau sutaḥ ||

prasūtisambhavāḥ in pāda d is a rather bold conjecture that can be supported by two facts: firstly, the readings of the manuscripts are difficult to make sense of and thus are probably corrupt; secondly, a corruption from the name Prasūti, traditionally the name of Dakṣa's wife, to ābhūti is relatively easily to explain, sū and bhū being close enough in some scripts (e.g. in C<sub>94</sub>) to cause confusion. Another option would be to accept Ābhūti as the name of Dakṣa's wife. For Prasūti being Dakṣa's wife in other sources, see, e.g., LiñP 1.5.20–21 (but also note the presence of the name Sambhūti): prasūtīḥ suśuve dakṣāc caturviṃśatikanyakāḥ | śraddhām lakṣmīm dhṛtiṃ puṣṭiṃ tuṣṭiṃ medhām kriyām tathā || buddhi lajjām vapuḥ śāntiṃ siddhiṃ kīrtiṃ mahātapāḥ | khyātiṃ śāntiś ca sambhūtiṃ smṛtiṃ prītiṃ kṣamām tathā ||

3.10 Understand śraddhā as a stem form noun for śraddhāyāḥ (gen./abl., cf. 3.11a). Alternatively, take śraddhā and suto as elements of a split compound, and understand śraddhāsuto jātaḥ kāmah.

To Puṣṭi was born a son [called] Lābha (‘Profit’). Medhā’s son is Śruta (‘Sacred Knowledge’). Kriyā’s sons are Daṇḍa (‘Punishment’) and Samaya (‘Law’).

lajjāyā vinayaḥ putro buddhyā bodhaḥ sutaḥ smṛtaḥ |
lajjāyāḥ sudhiyaḥ putra apramādaś ca tāv ubhau || 3:12 ||

Lajjā’s son is Vinaya (‘Discipline’), Buddhi’s son is Bodha (‘Intelligence’).
 Lajjā has two [more] sons: Sudhiya[/Sudhī] (‘Wise’) and Apramāda (‘Cautiousness’).

yaśaḥ kīrtisuto jñeyaḥ sukhaṁ siddher vyajāyata |

Kṣema (‘Peace’) is to be known as Śānti’s son, Vyavasāya (‘Resolution’) is Vapus’ son. Yaśas (‘Fame’) is Kīrti’s son, Sukha (‘Joy’) was born to Siddhi.
 [This is how] the sons of Dharma in the [manvantara] era of Svāyambhuva [Manu] were known.

Vigatarāga spoke: How come Dharma has two embodiments? Tell me, O great ascetic. I am extremely intrigued. Cut my doubts concerning [this] knowledge.

anarthayaājña uvāca |

3.11 I have emended abhayaḥ to abhavat in pāda c, following the relevant line in the KūrmP cited above (kriyāyās cābhavat putro daṇḍaḥ samaya eva ca) and also LiñP 1.5.37 quoted in the apparatus to this verse, allotting only two sons to Kriyā. Thus I don’t think that Kriyā is supposed to have a son called Abhaya (‘Freedom from danger’; BhāgP 4.1.50ab claims that Dayā had a son called Abhaya: śraddhāsūta śubham maitrī prasādam abhayaṁ dayā). Nevertheless, in a number of sources Kriyā actually has three sons, see, e.g., ViṣṇuP 1.7.26ab, where they are named as Daṇḍa, Naya and Vinaya: medhā śrutaṁ kriyā daṇḍam nayaṁ vinayaṁ eva ca. Perhaps read kriyāyās tu nayaḥ putro in pāda c? Compare VāyuP 1.10.34cd (kriyāyās tu nayaḥ prokto daṇḍaḥ samaya eva ca) with BrahmāṇḍaP 1.9.60ab (kriyāyās tanayau proktau damaś ca sama eva ca).

3.12 In a very similar passages in KūrmP 1.8.20 ff., Apramāda is Buddhi’s son and Lajjā has only one son, Vinaya. In the above verse (VSS 3.12), sudhiyaḥ (for sudhīḥ) may only be qualifying apramāda, thus Lajjā may have two sons: Vinaya and the wise Apramāda. Alternatively, pādas cd might be a extra line inserted accidentally.

3.13 Note that sukhaṁ in pāda d is probably meant to be masculine (sukhaḥ), but e.g. in the KūrmP passage quoted above it is also neuter. For the emendation in pāda e, see MatsP 9.2cd: yāmā nāma purā devā āsan svāyambhuvāntare, and BhāgP 6.4.1: devāsuraṇṛṇām sargo nāgānām mṛgapakṣiṇām | sāmāsikas tvayā prokto yas tu svāyambhuve ’ntare ||.

3.14 Note dharmā as a neuter noun and the form atīvaṁ for atīva metri causa. My emendation from kīrtaya (‘declare’) to kartaya (‘cut’) was influenced by the combination of chindbi and saṁśaya, often with kautūhala, elsewhere in the VSS: 3.2ab: kautūhalaṁ mamotpannam saṁśayaṁ chindbi tattvataḥ; 10.10cd: kautūhalaṁ mahaj jātaṁ chindbi saṁśayakāraṁ; 15.2ab: etat kautūhalaṁ chindbi saṁśayaṁ paramesvara. The reading kīrtaya may have been the result of the influence of kīrtitā in 3.13b above (De Simini’s observation).

Anarthayajña spoke: Dharma’s embodiment is said to consist of Śruti and Smṛti. The characteristics of the Śrauta [tradition] are an association with a wife [i.e. marriage] and with the fire ritual, and sacrifice. The Smārta [tradition] [focuses on] the conduct (ācāra) of the classes (varṇa) and life-stages (āśrama) which is connected to rules and regulations (yama-niyama).

[ yameṣv ahiṃsā (1) —
The first yama-rule: Non-violence ]
[ pañcavidhā hiṃsā —
Five types of violence ]

3.15 The reading °dvayī in K<sub>7</sub> in pāda a is attractive, but as Judit Törzsök has pointed out to me, it is more likely that the slightly less convincing but widespread variant °dvayor is original.

As for Dharma being based on śruti and smṛti, see, e.g. Manu 2.10: śrutis tu vedo vijñeyo dharmaśāstram tu vai smṛtiḥ | te sarvārtheṣv amimāṃsye tābhyām dharmo hi nirbabbau ||. In Olivelle’s translation (Olivelle 2005, 94): “Scripture” should be recognized as “Veda,” and “tradition” as “Law Treatise.” These two should never be called into question in any matter, for it is from them that the Law shines forth.’

There may be a hiatus filler in pādas cd: °sambandha-m-ijyā for °sambandha ijyā.

To state that the Smārta tradition is connected to yamas and niyamas and the āśramas and then to discuss these at length (principally in chapters 3–8 and 11) can be seen as a clear self-identification with the Smārta tradition.

3.16 Pāda a should be understood as yamanīyamayoś caiva, but the author of this line may have tried to avoid the metrical fault of having two short syllables in the second and third positions. Note that this is the beginning of a long section in our text that describes the yama-niyama rules, reaching up to the end of chapter eight. The title given in the colophon of the next chapter, chapter four, namely yamavibhāga, would fit this locus better than the beginning of that chapter, which commences with a discussion on the second of the yamas, satya.

3.17 Note how all witnesses read mādhūrya instead of mādhurya. The former may have been acceptable originally in this text. Pāda a is a ma-vipulā. In pāda c, pañca and bhedā may be typeset as two separate words since the use of the singular after numbers is one of the hallmarks of the text (see CHECK).

3.19 Note the use of the singular in pādas cd referring back to the agents of the previous sentence. Most probably, °vadhyam is to be understood as °vadham and the form vadhyam serves only to avoid two laghu syllables in pāda d.

3.20 Understand bhujoraś ca in pāda a as bhuje, urasi ca, in this case with an instance of double sandhi, and in stem form: bhuje urasi ca → bhuja urasi ca → bhujorasi ca → bhujoraś ca. Alternatively, understand it as a compound (bhujorasi). In pāda b, my emendation is only one of the possible interpretations. We might accept śīroru° as consisting of śīra + ūru ('head and thigh'), or emend it to śīrorah° for śīra + urah ('head and chest'). Also note my conjecture in pāda d, without which this pāda is difficult to interpret.

3.22 Understand vadhaḥ in pāda b as vadhyah metri causa. My translation of the second line of this verse reflects a conjecture (taddvārā) understood as connected to both pāda c and nibataḥ in pāda d.

He who always has compassion for all creatures is the [true] Pandit. He is the [true] sacrificer, the [true] ascetic, he is the donor, the one with a firm vow.

ahiṃsā paramaṃ tīrtham ahiṃsā paramaṃ tapaḥ |
ahiṃsā paramaṃ dānam ahiṃsā paramaṃ sukham || 3:29 ||

3.23 Pāda a is unmetrical. Note how elliptical this verse is and that hiṃsakāni is neuter although it refers to people, perhaps implying bhūtāni. Alternatively, take y in hiṃsakāny as a rather unusual sandhi-bridge (hiṃsakān-y-āhu), or simply delete this y. Note also that āhu stands for āhur metri causa.

3.24 Note dharmā as a neuter noun in pāda a and that vinirmuktaṃ and pradam are neuter accordingly.

3.25 Note that parataro is masculine in pāda d, picking up a neuter 'yaśaḥ. This phenomenon is probably the result of 'yaśaḥ resembling a masculine noun ending in -aḥ and also of the metrical problem with a grammatically correct nātaḥ parataram ayaśaḥ.

3.26 Pāda d (nātaḥ param tapodhana) is slightly suspect. The vocative tapodhana usually refers to Anarthayajña in these passages, and not to Vigatārāga, as here. The text may have read nātaḥ paratamo 'dhanah ('There is no bigger loss of wealth') or possibly something starting with nātaḥ param tapo ... ('There is no greater... of austerity').

Non-violence is the supreme pilgrimage place. Non-violence is the highest austerity. Non-violence is the highest donation. Non-violence is the highest joy.

ahiṃsā paramo yajñah ahiṃsā paramaṃ vratam |
ahiṃsā paramaṃ jñānam ahiṃsā paramā kriyā || 3:30 ||

ahiṃsā paramaṃ śaucam ahiṃsā paramo damaḥ |
ahiṃsā paramo lābhaḥ ahiṃsā paramaṃ yaśaḥ || 3:31 ||

Non-violence is the highest purity. Non-violence is the highest self-restraint. Non-violence is the highest profit. Non-violence is the greatest fame.

ahiṃsā paramo dharmah ahiṃsā paramā gatīḥ |
ahiṃsā paramaṃ brahma ahiṃsā paramaḥ śivaḥ || 3:32 ||

3.39 Understand phalam āhārā as phalāhārā (-m- is a sandhi-bridge). This verse clearly refers to the story of the Rāmāyaṇa.

3.40 guṇākaraṣāt in pāda c is difficult to interpret and guṇākaraṣāt is a conjecture by Judit Törzsök which fits the context well, although the polysemy of guṇa may allow for other solutions. Verses 3.40–42 may be echoing BrahmanḍaP 216.64–66: māmsān miṣṭatarāṃ nāsti bhakṣyabhojyādikeṣu ca | tasmān māmsaṃ na bhūñjīta nāsti miṣṭaiḥ sukhodayaḥ || gosahasraṃ tu yo dadyād yas tu māmsaṃ na bhakṣayet | samāu etau purā prāha brahmā vedavidāṃ varāḥ || sarvatīrtheṣu yat punyam sarvayaajñeṣu yat phalam | amāmsabbhakṣaṇe viprās tac ca tac ca ca tatsamam ||.

|| iti vṛṣasārasaṁgrāhe abhimsāpraśamsā nāmādhyāyas tṛtīyaḥ ||

Here ends the third chapter in the Vṛṣasārasaṁgrāha called the Praise of Non-violence.

3.42 On padma meaning ‘ten trillion’, and on other words for numbers, see 1.32–35.

koṭīyajña in pāda d may refer to a special kind of sacrifice, mostly known as koṭihoma in the Purāṇas and in inscriptions (see, e.g., Fleming 2010, and 2013) It probably involves a hundred fire-pits and a hundred times one thousand Brahmins (hence the name ‘the ten-million sacrifice’). See, e.g., BhavP uttaraparvan 4.142.54–58: śatānāno daśamukho dvimukhaikamukhas tathā | caturvidho mahārāja koṭihomo vidhīyate || kāryasya gurutām jñātvā naiva kuryād aparvaṇi | yathā saṁkṣepataḥ kāryaḥ koṭihomas tathā śṛṇu || kṛtvā kuṇḍaśataṁ divyaṁ yathoktaṁ hastasaṁmitam | ekaikasmimś tataḥ kuṇḍe śataṁ viprān niyojayet || sadyaḥ pakṣe tu viprānām sahasraṁ parikīrtitam | ekasthānapraṇīte ḡnau sarvataḥ paribhāvite || homaṁ kuryur dvijāḥ sarve kuṇḍe kuṇḍe yathoditam | yathā kuṇḍababutve pi rājasūye mahākratau ||

Note that the second syllable of phalam in pāda d is treated as long: this happens often at word-boundaries in this text; and note how K<sub>7</sub> aims to restore the metre by inserting tv after its phalam.

[ Chapter Four ]

[ yameṣu satyam (2) —
The second yama-rule: Truthfulness ]

anarthayaājña uvāca |
sadbhāvaḥ satyam ity ābur dṛṣṭapratyayam eva vā |
yathābhūtārthakathanam tat satyakathanam smṛtam || 4:1 ||

Anarthayaājña spoke: The state of being real (sad-bhāva) is called Truth (sat-ya). Alternatively, it is also a notion that originates in perception. [Also, it is] relating things that correspond to reality. This is how Truth is discussed.
REVISE

ākrośatādanādīni yaḥ sabeta suduḥsaham |
kṣamate yo jītātmā tu sa ca satyam udāhṛtam || 4:2 ||

He who endures severe abuse and beating etc. but keeps quiet, his self being conquered, is said to be [an example of] truth.

vadhārtham udyataḥ śastraṁ yadi prccheta karhicit |
na tatra satyam vaktavyam anṛtam satyam ucyate || 4:3 ||

If one is being interrogated any time with a sword lifted to strike him down, then it is not the truth that is to be spoken. [In this case,] a lie is called truth.

vadhārthaḥ puruṣaḥ kaścid vrajet pathi bhayāturaḥ |
prcchato 'pi na vaktavyam satyam tad vāpi ucyate || 4:4 ||

A person who is walking on the road and is afraid of being killed, should not reply [to people who are potentially dangerous] even if they ask him. That is also called Truth.

na narmayuktam anṛtam hinasti na strīṣu rājan na vivāhakāle |
prāṇātyaye sarvadhanāpahāre
pañcānṛtam satyam udāharanti || 4:5 ||

A lie does not hurt when it is connected with joking, with women, O king[!], at the time of marriage, at the departure from life and when one's entire wealth is about to be taken away. They call these five kinds of lies Truth.

devamānuṣatīryeṣu satyam dharmah paro yataḥ |
satyam śreṣṭham variṣṭham ca satyam dharmah sanātanaḥ || 4:6 ||

Since Truth is the supreme Dharma with respect to gods, humans and animals[?], Truth is the best, the most preferable. Truth is the eternal

4.1 Should we read satyalakṣaṇam in pāda d, following the rather similar Śivadharmasāstra 11.105cd?

4.2 suduḥsaham (singular) in pāda b picks up ādīni (plural) in pāda a. The -m in satyam may be a sandhi-bridge and the phrase may refer to a masculine subject thus: sa ca satya -m- udāhṛtaḥ.

Dharma.

satyaṃ sāgaram avyaktaṃ satyaṃ akṣayabhogadam |
satyaṃ potaḥ paratrārthaṃ satyaṃ panthāna vistaram || 4:7 ||

Truth is an unmanifest ocean. Truth yields imperishable pleasures. Truth is the ship that carries you to the other world. Truth is the wide path.

satyaṃ iṣṭagatiḥ proktaṃ satyaṃ yajñam anuttamam |
satyaṃ tīrthaṃ paraṃ tīrthaṃ satyaṃ dānam anantakam || 4:8 ||

Truth is said to be the desired path. Truth is the supreme sacrifice. Truth is a pilgrimage place, a supreme pilgrimage place. Truth is an endless donation.

satyaṃ śīlaṃ tapo jñānaṃ satyaṃ śaucaṃ damaḥ śamaḥ |
satyaṃ sopānam ūrdhvasya satyaṃ kīrtir yaśaḥ sukham || 4:9 ||

Truth is morality, austerity, knowledge. Truth is purity, self-control and tranquillity. Truth is the ladder upwards. Truth is fame and glory and happiness.

aśvamedhasahasraṃ ca satyaṃ ca tulayā dhṛtam |
aśvamedhasahasrād dhi satyaṃ eva viśiṣyate || 4:10 ||

[When] a thousand Aśvamedha sacrifices and Truth are measured on a pair of scales, Truth indeed surpasses a thousand Aśvamedha sacrifices.

satyena tapate sūryaḥ satyena pṛthivī sthitā |
satyena vāyavo vānti satye toyam ca śītalam || 4:11 ||

The Sun shines because of Truth. The Earth stays in place by Truth. The winds blow because of Truth. Water is cooling through Truth.

tiṣṭhanti sāgarāḥ satye samayena priyavrataḥ |
satye tiṣṭhati govindo balibandhanakāraṇāt || 4:12 ||

The oceans dwell in Truth because of their encounter[?] with Priyavrata [Manu's son]. Govinda abides in Truth because He [as Vāmana] stopped [Mahā]Bali [in spite of the fact that this was achieved by a trick].

4.7 Pāda d is slightly problematic because it is difficult to ascertain if some of the MSS actually read panthāna or pasthāna (or yasthāna). I suspect that panthāna is a stem form noun formed (metri causa) to stand for an irregular nominative of pathin.

4.11 Here and several times below, satye is probably to be taken as standing for satyena.

4.12 Pāda b, samayena priyavrataḥ, probably stand for samayena priyavratasya although it is unclear to me what exactly samaya refers to here. For Priyavrata's story, in which he wanted to turn nights into days by circling around Mount Meru in a chariot, and by this produced the seven oceans, see e.g. Bhāgavatapurāṇa 5.1.30–31: yāvad avabhāsayati suragirim anuparikrāman bhagavān ādityo vasudhātalam ardhenaiṣa pratapaty ardhenāvaccādayati, tadā hi [priyavrataḥ] bhagavadupāsanopacitātīpuruṣaprabhāvas tad anabhinandan samajavena rathena jyotirmayena rajanīm api dinaṃ kariṣyāmīti saptakṛtvā taranīm anuparyakrāmad dvitīya iva pataṅgaḥ | ye vā u ha tad rathacarananemikṛtaparikhātās te sapta sindhava āsan yata eva kṛtāḥ sapta bhūvo dvīpāḥ | evam purā cakradhareṇa viṣṇunā baddho balir vāmanarūpadhāriṇā | śakrapriyārthaṃ surakāryasiddhaye hitāya vipraśabbhagodvijānām ||

*agnir dahati satyena satyena śaśinācaraḥ |
satyena vindhyās tiṣṭhanti vardhamāno na vardhate || 4:13 ||*

Fire burns with Truth. The Moon rises by Truth. It is because of Truth that the Vindhya mountain stands in place and that although it was growing it is not growing [anymore].

*lokālokaḥ sthitaḥ satye meruḥ satye pratiṣṭhitaḥ |
vedās tiṣṭhanti satyeṣu dharmāḥ satye pratiṣṭhati || 4:14 ||*

The [mythical] Lokāloka mountains are located in Truth. Mount Meru stands by Truth. The Vedas abide in Truth. Dharma is rooted in Truth.

*satyaṃ gauḥ kṣarate kṣīraṃ satyaṃ kṣīre ghr̥taṃ sthitaṃ |
satye jīvaḥ sthito deve satyaṃ jīvaḥ sanātanaḥ || 4:15 ||*

The milk a cow yields is Truth. Ghee in milk is there as Truth. The soul dwells in the body in Truth. The eternal soul is Truth.

*satyaṃ ekena samprāpto dharmasādhyananīścayaḥ |
rāmarāghavavīryeṇa satyaṃ ekaṃ surakṣitaṃ || 4:16 ||*

If Truth alone (ekena) is obtained, Dharma is surely accomplished. By the heroism of Rāma Rāghava, Truthfulness was well-guarded, more than

4.13 Since śaśi (instead of śaśin) is a possible stem in this text, śaśir ācaraḥ could also be possible here in pāda b (see K<sub>82</sub>K<sub>10</sub>K<sub>7</sub>), perhaps standing for śaśinaś caraṇam or śaśiś carati. My emendation (śaśinācaraḥ) could stand for śaśinā/śaśinaś cāraḥ metri causa. Vindhya became jealous of the Sun's revolving around Mount Meru and when the Sun refused to him the same favour, he decided to grow higher and obstruct the Sun's movement. As a solution to this situation, Agastya asked Vindhya to bend down to make it easier for him to reach the south and to remain thus until he returned. Vindhya agreed to do what Agastya asked him to do but Agastya never returned. See Mahābhārata 3.102.1–14 (see in the word samaya in verse 13 and compare it to VSS 4.12b): yudhiṣṭhira uvāca | kimarthaṃ sabasā vindhyaḥ pravṛddhaḥ krodhamūrchitaḥ | etad icchāmy ahaṃ śrotuṃ vistareṇa mahāmune || lomaśa uvāca | adrinājaṃ mahāśailaṃ meruṃ kanakaparvatam | udayāstamaye bhānuḥ pradakṣiṇam avartata || taṃ tu dr̥ṣtvā tathā vindhyaḥ śailaḥ sūryam athābravīt | yathā hi merur bhavatā nityaśaḥ parigamyate || pradakṣiṇam ca kriyate mām evaṃ kuru bhāskara | evaṃ uktas tathaḥ sūryaḥ śailendraṃ pratyabhāṣata || nāham ātmeccchayā śaila karomy enaṃ pradakṣiṇam | eṣa mārgaḥ pradīṣṭo me yenedaṃ nirmitaṃ jagat || evaṃ uktas tathaḥ krodhāt pravṛddhaḥ sabasācalaḥ | sūryācandramasor mārgaṃ roddhum icchan paraṃtapa || tato devāḥ sahitāḥ sarva eva; sendrāḥ samāgamyā mahādrirājaṃ | nivārayām āsur upāyatas taṃ; na ca sma teṣāṃ vacanaṃ cakāra || athābhijagmur munim āśramasthaṃ; tapasvinam dharmabhṛtāṃ varīṣṭhaṃ | agastyam atyadbhutavīryadīptaṃ; taṃ cārthaṃ ūcuh sahitāḥ surās te || devā ūcuh | sūryācandramasor mārgaṃ nakṣatrāṇāṃ gatiṃ tathā | śailarājo vṛnoty eṣa vindhyaḥ krodhavaśānugaḥ || taṃ nivārayitum śakto nānyaḥ kaś cid dvijottama | ṛte tvām hi mahābhāga tasmād enaṃ nivāraya || lomaśa uvāca | tac chrutvā vacanaṃ viprah surāṇāṃ śailam abhyagāt | so 'bhigamyābravīt vindhyaṃ sadāraḥ samupasthitaḥ || mārgam icchāmy ahaṃ dattaṃ bhavatā parvatottama | dakṣiṇāṃ abhigantāsmi diśāṃ kāryeṇa kena cit || yāvadāgamaṇam mahyaṃ tāvat tvam pratipālaya | nivṛtte mayi śailendra tato vardhasva kāmataḥ || evaṃ sa samayaṃ kṛtvā vindhyenāmītrakarāṇa | adyāpi dakṣiṇād deśād vāruṇir na nivartate || etat te sarvaṃ ākhyātaṃ yathā vindhyo na vardhate | agastyasya prabhāvena yaṃ mām tvam paripṛcchasi || anything else.

etat satyavidbhānasya kīrtitaṃ tava suvrata |
sarvalokahitārthāya kim anyac chrotum icchasi || 4:17 ||

This is how [I] taught the rules of Truth to you, O virtuous one, to favour the whole world. What else do you wish to hear?

vigatarāga uvāca |
na hi trptiṃ vijānāmi śrutvā dharmam tavāpy aham |
upariṣṭād ato bhūyaḥ kathayasva tapodhana || 4:18 ||

Vigatarāga spoke: I can't have enough of learning about [this teaching of] your[s on] Dharma. Teach me further than this, O great ascetic.

[yameṣv asteyam (3) —

The third yama-rule: Refraining from stealing ]

anarthayajña uvāca |
steyam śṛṇu atha viprendra pañcadhā parikīrtitaṃ |
adattādānam ādau tu utkocam ca tataḥ param |
prasthavyājas tulāvyājah prasahyasteya pañcamam || 4:19 ||

Anarthayajña spoke: Now listen to [my teaching about] stealing, O great Brahmin, which is taught to be of five kinds. Firstly, [listen to] theft [lit. 'taking what has not been given'], then bribery, cheating with weights, cheating with scales, and the fifth kind, robbery.

dhṛṣṭaduṣṭaprabhāvena paradravvyāpakarṣaṇam |
vāryamāṇo 'pi durbuddhir adattādānam ucyate || 4:20 ||

Theft is when somebody else's wealth is taken away through a bold/impudent crime. [A person who commits such a crime] is foolish even if he remains unnoticed [or: kept back from the crime?].

utkocam śṛṇu viprendra dharmasaṃkarakārakam |
mūlyam kāryavināśārtham utkocah parigrhyate |
tena cāsau vijānīyād dravyalobhabalāt kṛtam || 4:21 ||

O great Brahmin, listen to bribery, which defiles Dharma. A sum of money taken in order to annul a punishment [or something that is to be done, in order to become exempt from a duty] is a bribe. Therefore this [also] should be considered as such [i.e. as stealing because] it is committed out of greed.

prasthavyāja-upāyena kuṭumbaṃ trātum icchati |
taṃ ca stenaṃ vijānīyāt paradravvyāpahāraṇam || 4:22 ||

[Even if] somebody wants to protect families by the method of cheating with

4.16 Another way to translate ekena in pāda a would turn the sentence into this: 'If Truth is obtained by somebody, he will be one for whom Dharma is surely accomplished.'

4.18 It is not inconceivable that tava is meant to carry the sense of an ablative, as Kenji Takahashi has suggested to me: 'I can't have enough of learning about Dharma from you.'

4.21 Note asau in pāda c as an accusative form.

weights, that person should be considered a thief, because he takes away other people's wealth.

tulāvyāja-upāyena parasvārtham hared yadi |
cauralakṣaṇakāś cānye kūṭakāpaṭikā narāḥ || 4:23 ||

[The case is similar] if somebody takes away somebody else's belongings by the method of cheating with scales. Other people, deceitful swindlers (kūṭa-kāpaṭika) [can also] have the characteristics of thieves.

durbalārjavabāleṣu cchadmanā vā balena vā |
apahr̥tya dhanam mūdhaḥ sa coraś cora ucyaṭe || 4:24 ||

[If] someone, by deceit or by force, snatches away the wealth of weak and honest people or children [and women and simpletons?], that morally corrupt thief is [rightly] called a thief.

nāsti steyasamam pāpam nāsty adharmaś ca tatsamaḥ |
nāsti stenasamākīrtir nāsti stenasamo 'nayaḥ || 4:25 ||

There is no sin equal to stealing. There is no crime (adharma) equal to it. There is no ill-fame comparable to that of being a thief. There is no bad-conduct comparable to being a thief.

nāsti steyasamāvidyā nāsti stenasamaḥ khalāḥ |
nāsti stenasama ajño nāsti stenasamo 'lasaḥ || 4:26 ||

There is no such ignorance as stealing. There are no bigger rouses than thieves. There is nobody as ignorant as a thief. There is not a lazy person who is comparable to a thief.

nāsti stenasamo dveṣyo nāsti stenasamo 'priyaḥ |
nāsti steyasamam duḥkham nāsti stenasamo 'yaśaḥ || 4:27 ||

There is nobody as detestable as a thief. There is nobody as much of an enemy as a thief. There is no such suffering as stealing. There is nobody more disgraced than a thief.

pracchanno hr̥iyate 'rtham anyapurusaḥ pratyakṣam anyo haret

<crux> anyāḥ kṛitadhamo 'paro dhayabhṛta </crux> ete jaghanyāḥ smṛtāḥ

Some [thieves] take away [other people's] wealth in disguise, some in broad daylight. Other wicked people take money from deposits, and some people steal through fraud. Some gather wealth by forging documents, others steal

4.23 A line may have dropped out after pāda b, perhaps because a line similar to 4.22cd caused an eyeskip. Alternatively, this line may simply be elliptical.

4.27 Note how stena and steya are used interchangeably (or chaotically) in the above passages in the MSS to denote both 'thief' and 'theft/stealing'. The scribe of K<sub>7</sub> ends up writing stenya in 4.27e.

from stolen money??? Some people's wealth is from a purchased [child??
(krīta)]. ..... These are considered the vilest.

*stenastulya na mūdham asti puruṣo dharmārthabhīno 'dhamah

There are no bigger idiots than thieves, who are wicked people without Dharma and Artha. As long as he lives, he trembles in fear of the king, wailing.
Having received his punishment, he gets into severe and [in]tolerable difficulties, propelled by [his] karma. When his time comes, he dies and goes to hell, weeping vehemently.

*nītvā durgatikotikalpa nirayāt tiryatvam āyānti te

Having spent ten million aeons of suffering, they emerge from hell to the state of animal existence. Similarly [CHECK eka], after roaming about in animal existence for a hundred and one times ten million years, then they reach the status of human existence on earth which is full of poverty and disease. Then abandoning all one's karmas, the causes of suffering, one seeks refuge in Śiva.

[ yameṣv ānṛśaṁsyam (4) —

The fourth yama-rule: Absence of cruelty ]

*aṣṭamūrtiśivadveṣṭā pitur mātus ca yo dviṣet |
gavāṁ vā atithēr dveṣṭā nṛśaṁsāḥ pañca eva te || 4:31 ||*

The one who is hostile towards the eight-formed Śiva, he who hurts his

4.28 It appears that briyate in pāda a is to be taken as an active verb (harate). Note also how C<sub>45</sub> and K<sub>7</sub> read the same here. Take 'harīno in pāda b as singular and m in 'nya-m-adhamo as a sandhi-bridge.

4.29 Understand stenastulya na mūdham asti (the reading of E!) as a 'metri causa' version of stenatulyo na mūdho 'sti, and see a similar case of a nominative ending inside of compound in pāda c below. One major concern remains here: the accepted reading here is that of E, an edition that rarely emerges as the sole transmitter of the best reading. A solution could be to emend to stenamtulya..., meaning 'There is no bigger foolishness than theft', but then the second part of pāda a is difficult to connect. Understand prāptaḥśāsana tīvrasyaviṣamaṁ in pāda c as prāptaśāsanas tīvram asahyaṁ ca viṣamaṁ prāpnoti. Alternatively, understand tīvrasya° as duḥsahya° (suggested by Törzsök). The actual reading of C<sub>94</sub>, prāptaś (lost in the process of normalization and standing in contrast with that of all other MSS that read prāptaḥ) may suggest a doubling of the ś of śāsana metri causa (suggestion by Törzsök). More likely is that a licence of having a nominative ending inside of a compound is applied here, as probably above in pāda a (also remarked by Törzsök).

4.30 Note °kalpa for °kalpaṁ metri causa. I understand vipule as vipulāyām, vipulā appearing in Amarakośa 2.1.7 as a synonym of dhātṛi, 'earth'. Note the switch from plural to singular in pāda d.

aṣṭamūrtiḥ śivaḥ sāṅṣāt pañcavyomasamanvitaḥ |
sūryaḥ somaś ca dīkṣaś ca dūṣakaḥ tannṛśamsakaḥ || 4:32 ||

Śiva in his manifest form (sāṅṣāt) is of eight forms, with the five elements (vyoman! NOTE), and the Sun, the Moon, and the sacrificer. [He who] disgraces [any of these] is a cruel person.

pitākāśasamo jñeyo janmotpattikaraḥ pitā |

prṥhvā gurutarī mātā ko na vandeta mātaram |
yajñadānatapovedās tena sarvaṃ kṛtaṃ bhavet || 4:34 ||

The mother is more venerable than the earth. Who would not praise a mother? By that [praise], sacrifices, donations, austerities and [the study of] the Vedas, all will be completed.

gāvaḥ pavitraṃ maṅgalyaṃ devatānām ca devatāḥ |
sarvadevamayā gāvas tasmād eva na biṃsayet || 4:35 ||

Cows are a sacred [auspicious/purifying Judit] blessing, they are the gods of the gods. Cows contain in themselves all the gods. That's exactly why one should not hurt them.

jātamātrasya lokasya gāvas trātā na saṃśayaḥ |
ghṛtaṃ kṣīraṃ dadhi mūtraṃ śakṛt karṣaṇam eva ca || 4:36 ||

Cows are the protectors of the world as if the world were their new-born [calf], there is no doubt about it. The collection of [the five products of the cow, the pañcagavya,] ghee, milk, curd, and [the cow's] urine and dung [is auspicious].

4.31 Note pitur and mātur used as accusative forms in pāda b, or alternatively understand: 'who are hateful towards their fathers and mothers'.

4.32 See Śakuntalā 1.1: yā sṛṣṭiḥ sraṣṭur ādyā [1] vahati vidhibutaṃ yā havir [2] yā ca hotrī [3] ye dve kālāṃ vidhattaḥ [4,5] śruti-viśaya-guṇā yā [6] sthitā vyāpya viśvam | yām ābuh sarva-bīja-prakṛtir [7] iti yayā prāṇīnaḥ prāṇavantaḥ [8] pratyakṣābhiḥ prapannas tanubhir avatu vas tābhir aṣṭābhir īśaḥ ||

A closely related Aṣṭamūrti-hymn appears in Niśv mukha 1.30–41 (I owe thanks to Nirajan Kafle for drawing my attention to this); see Kafle 2018: 62, 63, 116, 119. Kafle notes that this hymn is closely parallel to some passages in the Prayogamañjarī (1.19–26), the Tantrasamuccaya (1.16–23), and the Īśānaśivagurudevapaddhati (kriyāpāda 26.56–63). See also TAK I s.v. aṣṭamūrti.

People who drink the five products of the cow, the five nectars, the five holy and pure [substances] [or: clarified with a strainer??], will obtain the fruits of a horse sacrifice, and then reach the undecaying heavens.

trṇāni bhuktvā amṛtaṃ sravanti

vipreṣu dattāḥ kulam uddharanti || 4:38 ||

There is no wealth comparable to [having] a cow. They yield milk, they draw [a plough etc.]. [As] they roam under the sky, feeding on grass, they issue nectar. When given to Brahmins, they deliver the family [from saṃsāra/the suffering experienced in hell].

4.42 Pāda b seems to awkwardly repeat what arghapādyena in pāda a signifies. Some emendation may be required here, perhaps taking into account bathing (snāna) or an unguent (abhyāṅga).

4.43 For the requirement that one could part with his wife or son, or his own life, for the benefit of someone else, see VSS 2.38 and the narrative in VSS chapter 12; these influenced my decision to emend °ātmano to °ātmanā in pāda a.

4.46 The demonstrative pronoun tasya in pāda c may refer to the guest: 'he will obtain all his
[i.e. the guest's] merits', hinting at some sort of karmic exchange. Nevertheless, I think that tasya points at the merits one can obtain by rituals listed in the previous verse. This is suggested by passages such as the following: Mahābhārata Supp. 13.14.379 ff.: <skt>ahany ahani yo dadyāt kapilāṃ
dvādaśīḥ samāḥiḥ| māsi māsi ca satreṇa yo yajeta sadā naraḥ|| gavāṃ śatasahasraṃ ca yo dadyāj

By one prastha of coarsely ground grains given to a guest, an extremely great sacrifice was performed [so to say], and his [the Brahmin's and his family members'] bodies (svaśarīraṃ) reached heaven.

The mongoose related [this story in the Mahābhārata] in the past in detail, O great Brahmin, and you've known it already. The story of the prastha is well-known.

[yameṣu damaḥ (5) —
The fifth yama-rule: Self-restraint]

dama eva manuṣyāṇāṃ dharmasārasamuccayaḥ |
damo dharmo damaḥ svargo damaḥ kīrtir damaḥ sukham || 4:50 ||

Self-restraint of humans is in itself the collected essence of Dharma.
Self-restraint is Dharma, Self-restraint is heaven, Self-restraint is fame, Self-restraint is happiness.

damo yajño damas tīrthaṃ damaḥ puṇyam damas tapaḥ |
damabīna-m-adharmaś ca damaḥ kāmakulapradāḥ || 4:51 ||

Self-restraint is sacrifice, Self-restraint is a pilgrimage-place, Self-restraint is merit, Self-restraint is religious austerity. If one has no Self-restraint, there is no Dharma, [while] Self-restraint yields a multitude of desired objects.

nirdamaḥ kari mīnaś ca pataṅgabhrāmaramṛgāḥ |
tvag jhivā ca tathā ghrāṇā cakṣuḥ śravaṇam indriyāḥ || 4:52 ||

The elephant, the fish, the moth, the bee and the deer are without Self-restraint. The senses are the skin, the tongue, the nose, the eye and the ear.

durjayendriyam ekaikaṃ sarve prāṇabarāḥ smṛtāḥ |
damaṃ yo jayate samyag nirdamo nidhanaṃ vrajet || 4:53 ||

Each of these sense faculties are hard to conquer and all are known to be fatal [if unconquered]. If one masters Self-restraint, the [one with a?] lack of 4.48 This verse is a reference to the story related by a mongoose in MBh 14.92–93: A Brahmin who practises the vow of gleaning (uñcha) and his family receive a guest. They feed the guest with the last morsels of the little food they have. In the end, the guest reveals that he is in fact Dharma (14.93.80cd) and as a reward the family departs to heaven. The noble act of the poor Brahmin and his family is depicted as yielding greater rewards than Yudhiṣṭhira's grandiose horse-sacrifice. (See some remarks on this story in Takahashi 2021.) were in the masculine (saśarīro divaṃ gataḥ). This would make sense and it would also echo expressions occurring e.g. in the Mahābhārata: 3.164.33cd: <skt>paśya puṇyakṛtāṃ lokān saśarīro divaṃ vraja</skt>; 14.5.10cd: <skt>saṃjīvyā kālam iṣṭam ca saśarīro divaṃ gataḥ</skt>. It is tempting to emend the pāda accordingly, but I have retained svaśarīraṃ divaṃ gatam and I interpret it as referring to the Brahmin's whole family (sva).

4.52 Note kari for kari metri causa, and the end of pāda b (ṁmṛgāḥ), which should be treated metrically as if it read ṁmṛgāḥ.

Self-restraint will die.???

In the case of the deer, death comes about because of hearing [when hunters use buck grunts]. Moths die because[?] of their eyes [as they are attracted to the light of a lamp]. Bees perish because of their smelling, fish because of their tongues.

4.56 Purūravas (double sandhi originally? purūravās ati° – purūravā ati° – purūravāti°). Pāda a may refer to the following passage in the Mahābhārata (1.70.16–18, 20ab):

<skt>purūravās tato vidvān ilāyām samapadyata| sā vai tasyābhavan mātā pitā ceti hi naḥ śrutam|| trayodaśa samudrasya dvīpān aśnan purūravāḥ| amānuṣair vṛtaḥ sattvair mānuṣaḥ san mahāyāśāḥ|| vipraiḥ sa vigrahaṃ cakre vīryonmattaḥ purūravāḥ| jahāra ca sa viprāṇām ratnāny utkrośatām api|| ... tato maharṣibhiḥ kruddhaiḥ śaptaḥ sadyo vyanaśyata|</skt> ("The wise Purūravas was born to Ilā. We heard that Ilā was both his mother and his father. The great Purūravas ruled over thirteen islands of the ocean and, though human, he was always surrounded by super-human beings. Intoxicated with his power, Purūravas quarrelled with some Brahmins and robbed them of their wealth even though they were protesting. [...] Therefore, cursed be the great Ṛṣis, he perished.") See also Buddhacarita 11.15 (Aiḍa = Purūravas): <skt> aiḍaś ca rājā tridivam vigāhya nītvāpi devīm vaśam urvaśīm tām| lobhād ṛṣibhyaḥ kanakaṃ jihīṣur jagāma nāśaṃ viṣayesv atṛptaḥ||</skt> For Daṇḍa(ka)'s story, see Rāmāyaṇa 7.71.31 ff.: Daṇḍa meets Arajā, a beautiful girl, in a forest and rapes her. As a consequence, her father, Śukra/Bhārgava, destroys Daṇḍa's kingdom, which thus becomes the desolate Daṇḍaka-forest.

Sagara's sons, who were chasing the sacrificial horse of their father's Aśvamedha sacrifice, and by doing so disturbed Kapila's meditation, and who in turn burnt them to ashes, see Mahābhārata 3.105.9 ff. and Brahmāṇḍapurāṇa 2.52–53. As for Rāvaṇa's haughtiness, especially the fact that he chose to be invincible by all creatures except humans, and its consequences, one should recall the story of the Rāmāyaṇa and Rāvaṇa's destruction brought about by Rāma therein.

4.57 Saudāsa, also known as Kalmāṣapāda, hit Śakti, Vasiṣṭha's son, with a whip because the latter did not give way to him, and as a consequence Śakti cursed Saudāsa: Saudāsa had to roam the world as a Rākṣasa for twelve years. See Mahābhārata 1.166.1 ff. As for the end of the Yādavas, see the short Mausalaparvan of the Mahābhārata (canto 16): cursed by the sages Viśvāmitra, Kaṇva

damena hīnaḥ puruṣo dvijendra

and Nārada, and seeing menacing omens, the Yādavas take to drinking in Prabhāsa and destroy each other.

The form māndhātō in C<sub>45</sub> stands for māndhātā (nominative of māndhātṛ). I have corrected it in spite of the fact that the authors' knowledge about his story may come from Divyāvadāna 17, where it sometimes appears to be an a-stem noun (māndāta). dvijavajñayā in pāda d stands for dvijāvajñayā metri causa. Māndhātṛ was born from his father's body who, being excessively thirsty once, had drank some decoction prepared for ritual purposes and as a result become pregnant with him. Nevertheless, Buddhacarita 11.13 suggests that Māndhātṛ himself was still unsatisfied with worldly objects even after he had obtained half of Indra's throne: <skt> devena vṛṣṭe 'pi hiranyavarṣe dvīpān samagrāṃś caturō 'pi jītvā | śakrasya cārdhāsanam apy avāpya māndhātur āsīd viṣayeṣv atṛp-tiḥ || </skt> In fact, as Monika Zin points out (2012: 149) Māndhātṛ/Māndhātā's rise and fall is a very popular theme in the 'Narrative Art of the Amaravati School': "Statistics show that in the Amaravati School the most frequently represented narrative is the story of King Māndhātā, which appears 47 times." See ibid. p. 151: "The story [e.g. Divyāvadāna XVII, see more sources in fn. 17 of this article] relates that Māndhātā was a miraculously born cakravartin with Seven Jewels who could cause rain to fall so that his subjects could prosper; not usual rain, but rain of coins, of grain or of cloth. By virtue of his moral strength alone, Māndhātā conquered the world - without any weapons. He conquered all the countries on earth, then Uttarakuru, Pūrvavideha and Aparagodānīya, after which he set out to conquer the heavens. When he was traversing from one abode of the gods to the next (Nāgas, Sadāmattas, Mālādharas, etc.) groups of gods pledged obeisance to him and immediately marched in front of his troops. Māndhātā reached the splendid city of the Trayastriṃśa gods atop Sumeru, where Indra, in the meeting-hall, bequeathed to him half of his own seat and half of his heavenly realm. Māndhātā then ruled together with Indra for an unimaginable period of time during which 36 Indras changed. One day, shortly after he won a battle against the Asuras, a sinful thought came to his mind: why should he rule alongside Indra? It was he, after all, who won the war, not Indra - he was better and should, therefore, rule alone. At that very moment Māndhātā fell from heaven, down to his former realm, became sick and died. Shortly before his death, he preached a sermon to his subjects in which gāthās from the Dhammapada (186–187) appear..."

Nahuṣa was elevated to the position of Indra for a period of time and he also wanted to take Śacī, Indra's wife. Indra instructed Śacī to tell Nahuṣa to harness some Ṛsis to a vehicle and use this vehicle to take Śacī. Agastya, one of the Ṛsis, was insulted even further by Nahuṣa, therefore he cursed Nahuṣa, who then fell from the vehicle. See Mahābhārata 12.329.35 ff. and the verse in the Buddhacarita (11.14) that follows the one about Māndhātṛ: <skt> bhuktvāpi rājyaṃ divi devatānāṃ śatakratau vṛtrabhayāt pranaṣṭe | darpān maharṣīn api vāhayitvā kāmēṣv atṛpto nahuṣaḥ papāta || </skt>

4.58 Pāda a is most probably a reference to Mahābali's promises made to Vāmana that caused his fall. Arjuna: the exile? Flo Kirātārjuniya?? he killed Bhīṣma? Flo a game. See e.g. Mahābhārata 3.56.1 ff. As for Nṛga, see Mahābhārata 14.93.74: <skt> gopradānasahasrāṇi dvijebhyo 'dān nṛgo nṛpaḥ | ekāṃ dattvā sa pārakyāṃ narakāṃ samavāptavān ||

</skt> ("King Nṛga had made gifts of thousands of cows for the twice-born. By giving away one single cow that belonged to someone else, he fell into hell.")

viññānadharmakulakīrtināśa

bhavanti vipra damayā vihīnāḥ || 4:59 ||

[For] a person who is without Self-restraint, O great Brahmin, there is no heaven, liberation or happiness. O Brahmin, people without Self-restraint are the destruction of knowledge, Dharma, family and fame.

[yameṣu ghrṇā (6) —

The sixth yama-rule: Taboos ]

nirghrṇo na paratrāsti nirghrṇo na ihāsti vai |

nirghrṇe na ca dharmo 'sti nirghrṇe na tapo 'sti vai || 4:60 ||

[For] a person without taboos there is neither the other world, nor this life. In the case of a person without taboos there is no Dharma or religious austerity.

parastrīṣu parārtheṣu parajīvāpakarṣaṇe |

paranindāparāṇṇeṣu ghrṇāṃ pañcasu kārayet || 4:61 ||

These five are taboo: women who are not depending on oneself, others' wealth, taking away others' lives, hurting others and [consuming] others' food.

parastrī śṛṇu viprendra ghrṇīkāryā sadā budhaiḥ |

rājñī viprī parivrājā svayoniparayoniṣu || 4:62 ||

Listen, O great Brahmin, the wise should always treat women who are not dependent on oneself as taboo, [be she] a queen, a Brahmin's wife, a wandering religious mendicant, a relative or of another family.

parārthe śṛṇu bhūyo 'nya anyāyārtha-m-upārjanam |

ādḥapraṣṭhatulāvyaṇḍajaiḥ parārtham yo 'pakarṣati || 4:63 ||

Listen further to something else with regards to others' wealth. [It may include] gaining wealth through unlawful means, when somebody takes away other people's wealth by cheating with [small] weights of an ādḥa[ka] or a prastha and with scales.

jīvāpakarṣaṇe vipra ghrṇīkurvīta paṇḍitaiḥ |

vanajāvanajā jīvā vilagāś'caraṇācarāḥ || 4:64 ||

O Brahmin, the wise should regard the taking away [of others'] lives as taboo. Wild and domesticated animals, [serpents] that live in holes and those that walk on their feet [are examples of life forms not to destroy].

4.59 Note how flexible the gender of most nouns is in pāda b: svarga, mokṣa and dama are usually masculine in standard Sanskrit. The majority of the witnesses suggest that pāda c ends in a stem form noun ('nāśa). This pāda is unmetrical, or rather it applies the licence of a word-final short syllable being counted as potentially long ('dharMA°). Note how viprā in pāda d is probably an attempt in some MSS to restore the metre. This pāda is also unmetrical, or rather it applies the licence of a word-final short syllable being counted as potentially long (viPRA).

4.64 In pāda d, understand caraṇācara as caraṇācara (metri causa).

paranindā ca kā vipra śṛṇu vaksye samāsataḥ |
devānāṃ brāhmaṇānāṃ ca gurumātātithidviṣaḥ || 4:65 ||

And what is the hurting of others? Listen, O Brahmin, I'll tell you briefly. He who is hostile to the gods, Brahmins, gurus, mothers and guests [hurts others].

parānneṣu ghrṇā kāryā abhojyeṣu ca bhojanam |
sūtake mṛtake śauṇḍe varṇabhraṣṭakule naṭe || 4:66 ||

As regards other people's food, eating together with people whose food is not to be accepted (abhojyeṣu) is taboo, [e.g.] after birth or death [in the family], in case there are vendors of alcohol, in the case of a family having lost their caste, and in the case of a Naṭa [dancer caste?].

ete pañcaghrṇāsu saktapurūṣāḥ svargārthamokṣārthinaḥ
loke 'nindanam āpnuvanti satataṃ kīrtir yaśo'lamkṛtam | prajñābodhaśrutim smṛtim ca labhate mānam ca nityam labhet
dākṣiṇyam sa bhavet sa āyusa param prāpnoti niḥsaṃśayaḥ || 4:67 ||

Those people who cling to [the prohibition of] the five kinds of taboo [and thus] seek heaven, wealth and liberation, will reach eternal faultlessness in this world, embellished with fame and glory. [A person like that] will obtain wisdom, intelligence, [knowledge of] the Śruti and Smṛti traditions, and honour forever. He will be kindness itself[?] and he will obtain an extra long life, no doubt.

[yameṣu pañcavidho dhanyaḥ (7) —

The seventh yama-rule: The five methods of virtue? ]

caturmaunaś catuḥśatruś caturāyatanam tathā |
caturdhyānam catuṣpādam pañcadhanyavidhocyate || 4:68 ||

The four cases of observing silence, [victory over] the four enemies, the four sanctuaries/planes, the four meditations, and the four legged [Dharma] are called the five ways of being virtuous[?].

4.65 Note mātā as a stem form.

4.66 One should probably understand śauṇḍe in pāda c as śauṇḍike (alternatively, it may be corrupted from ṣaṇḍhe); see both in Vāsiṣṭhadharmaśāstra 14.1–3: <skt>athāto bhojyābhojyam ca varṇayīṣyāmāḥ| cikitsaka-mṛgayu-puṃścali-ḍaṇḍika-stenābhiśastar-ṣaṇḍha-patitānām an-nam abhojyam| kadarya-dikṣita-baddhātura-somavikrayi-takṣa-rajaka-śauṇḍika-sūcaka-vārdhuṣika-carmāvakṛtānām||</skt> etc. In Olivelle's translation (DhSūtras 1999: 285): "Next we will describe food that is fit and food that is unfit to be eaten [...] The following are unfit to be eaten: food given by a physician, a hunter, a harlot, a law enforcement agent, a thief, a heinous sinner [...] a eunuch, or an outcaste; as also that given by a miser, a man consecrated for a sacrifice, a prisoner, a sick person, a man who sells Soma, a carpenter, a washerman, a liquor dealer, a spy, an usurer, a leather worker..." In support of reading ṣaṇḍhe, see Manu 3.239: <skt>cāṇḍāś ca varāhaś ca kukkuṭaḥ svā tathaiva ca| rajasvalā ca ṣaṇḍhaś ca nekṣerann aśnato dvijān||</skt>

4.67 Understand kīrtir yaśo° as kīrtiyaśo° ('r' being an intrusive consonant here metri causa). Understand āyusa as āyusaṃ (metri causa).

caturmaunasya vakṣyāmi śṛṇuṣvāvahito bhava |
pāruṣyapiśunāmithyāsambhinnāni ca varjayet || 4:69 ||

I shall tell you about the four cases of observing silence. Listen, be attentive.
 One should avoid [1] violent [words], [2] slanderous [words], [3] lies, and [4] idle [talk].

kāmaḥ krodhaś ca lobhaś ca mohaś caiva caturvidhaḥ |
catuḥśatrur nibhantavyaḥ so 'rihā vītakalmaṣaḥ || 4:70 ||

The fourfold enemy, desire, anger, greed and delusion, is to be destroyed. He who destroys [these] enemies will become sinless.

caturāyatanam vipra kathayiṣyāmi tac chṛṇu |
karuṇā muditopekṣā maitrī cāyatanam smṛtam || 4:71 ||

I shall teach you the four sanctuaries/planes. Listen, O Brahmin.
 Compassion, sympathy in joy, indifference, and benevolence are the four sanctuaries/planes.

caturdhyānādhunā vakṣye saṃsārārṇavatāraṇam |
ātmavidyābhavaḥ sūkṣmaṃ dhyānam uktam caturvidham || 4:72 ||

I shall now teach you the four meditations, which will liberate you from mundane existence (saṃsāra). Meditation is taught to be fourfold: of the Self, vidyā, bhava [= Śiva] and the subtle one.

ātmataṭṭvaḥ smṛto dharmo vidyā pañcasu pañcadhā |
śattriṃśākṣaram ityāhuḥ sūkṣmatattvam alaṅkaṇam || 4:73 ||

The tattva of the Self is the ātman. Vidyā in the five in a fivefold way[?]. They call the thirty-sixth the imperishable one, [and] the subtle tattva has no attributes.

4.69 Is sambhinna a Buddhist term? See also Dharmaputrikā 1.31.

4.70 Possible direct sources for the idea that kāma is an enemy to be defeated include Buddhacarita 11.17: <skt>cīrāmbarā mūlaphalāmbubhākṣā jaṭā vahanto 'pi bhujaṃgadīrghāḥ| yair nānyakāryā munayo 'pi bhagnāḥ kaḥ kāmasaṃjñān mṛgayeta śatrūn||</skt> and Bhagavaditā 3.43: <skt>evam buddheḥ paraṃ buddhvā saṃstabhyātmānam ātmanā| jahi śatruṃ mahābāho kāmārūpaṃ durāsadam||</skt>

4.71 Is āyatana just a synonym of vihāra here or could this use of the term āyatana for the four Buddhist brahmavihāras have been influenced by the following passage in the Dhammasamuccaya (date?)? <skt>mokṣasyāyatanāni śaṭ| apramādas tathā śraddhā vīryārambhas tathā dhṛtiḥ| jñānābhyāsaḥ saṃtāśleṣo mokṣasyāyatanāni śaṭ||1.3|| nava śāntisamprāptihetavaḥ| dānaṃ śīlaṃ damaḥ kṣāntir maitrī bhūteṣv ahiṃsatā| karuṇāmuditopekṣā śāntisamprāptihetavaḥ||1.4||</skt>

4.72 Note the stem form dhyāna in °dhyānādhunā (for °dhyānam adhunā) in pāda a. For contrast, see VSS 6.8: <skt>dhyānam pañcavidham caiva kīrtitam hariṇā purā| sūryaḥ somo 'gni sphaṭikāḥ sūkṣmaṃ tattvam ca pañcamam||</skt>

4.73 If pāda c is indeed a reference to a 36-tattva philosophical system, it is in striking contrast with the 25-tattva system described in VSS chapter 20.

*catuspādaḥ smṛto dharmas' caturāśramam āśritaḥ |
grhastho brahmacārī ca vānaprastho 'tha bhaikṣukaḥ || 4:74 ||*

Dharma is said to be four-legged [as] it rests on the four āśramas, [those of] the householder, the chaste one, the forest-dweller and the mendicant.

*dhanyās te yair idaṃ vetti nikhilena dvijottama |
pāvanam sarvapāpānām puṇyānām ca pravardhanam || 4:75 ||*

Virtuous are those who know these thoroughly, O great Brahmin. [They will experience] the purification of all sins and the growth of merits.

*āyuh kīrtir yaśaḥ saukhyaṃ dhanyād eva pravardhate |
śāntiḥ puṣṭiḥ smṛtir medhā jāyate dhanyamānave || 4:76 ||*

One's life-span, fame and glory and happiness grow only through virtue (dhanya). [In] a virtuous person piece, prosperity, memory/tradition? and intelligence will arise.

[yameṣu apramādaḥ (8) —
The eighth yama-rule: Lack of Negligence]

*pramādashāna pañcaiva kīrtayiṣyāmi tac chṛṇu |
brahmahatyā surāpānam steyo gurvāṅganāgamam |
mahāpātakam ity ābhus tatsaṃyogī ca pañcamah || 4:77 ||*

There are five areas of negligence. I shall teach them to you, listen. Murdering a Brahmin, drinking alcohol, stealing, having sex with the guru's wife: they call these Grievous Sins. The fifth is when one is connected with them [i.e. with these sins or with people involved in these sinful acts].

*anṛtaṃ ca samutkarṣe rājagāmī ca paśunah |
guroḥ cālīkanirbaddhaḥ samāni brahmahatyayā || 4:78 ||*

A lie concerning one's superiority, a slander that reaches the king's ear, and false accusations against an elder are equal to killing a Brahmin.

*brahmo ṛgvedanindā ca kūṭasākṣī suhradvadhaḥ |
garbitānādyayor jagdhiḥ surāpānasamāni ṣaṭ || 4:79 ||*

Defaming a Brahmin or the Ṛgveda, being a false witness, murdering a friend, eating unfit or forbidden food are six [deeds that are] equal to drinking alcohol.

*retotsekah svayonyāsu kumārīṣu antyajāsu ca |
sakhyaḥ putrasya ca strīṣu gurutalpasamaḥ smṛtaḥ || 4:80 ||*

Sexual intercourse with a female relative, with an unmarried girl, with women of the lowest castes, with the wife of a friend or of one's own son are said to be

4.75 Note the plural instrumental (yair) with a singular active verb (vetti).

4.77 Note the stem form noun in pāda a (sthāna) metri causa, and also that this stem form noun may function as a singular noun next to a number (pañca), a frequently seen phenomenon in this text. Note how pāda f deviates from Manu.

4.78 The translation of this verse is based on Olivelle's (Olivelle Crit Ed. p. 218).

equal to violating the guru's bed.

*nikṣepasyāpaharaṇaṃ narāśvarajatasya ca |
bhūmivajramaṇināṃ ca rukmasteyasamaḥ smṛtaḥ || 4:81 ||*

Stealing/taking away deposits, people, horses, silver, land, diamonds, or gems are said to be equal to stealing gold.

*catvāra ete sambhūya yat pāpaṃ kurute naraḥ |
mahāpātakapañcāitan tena sarvaṃ prakāśitam |
pañcapramādam etāni varjanīyaṃ dvijottama || 4:82 ||*

If a man takes parts in these four [i.e. brahmahatyā, surāpāna, stena, gurvaṅganāgama], that is the fifth Grievous Sin. By this all [of them] have been explained. These five kinds of negligence are to be avoided, O great Brahmin.

[yameṣu mādhuryam (9) —
The ninth yama-rule: Charm ]

*kāyavānmanamādhuryaṃ cakṣur buddhiś ca pañcamaḥ |
saumyadrṣṭipradānaṃ ca krūrabuddhiṃ ca varjayet || 4:83 ||*

[Charm has five types:] bodily, verbal and mental charm, [charm of] the eyes and [of one's] thoughts pañcamaḥ. Giving [others] a friendly glance [is commendable] and one should avoid cruel thoughts.

*prasannamanasā dhyāyet priyavākyaṃ udīrayet |
yathāśaktipradānaṃ ca svāśramābhyāgato guruḥ || 4:84 ||*

One should meditate with a tranquil mind and should speak [to other people using] gentle words. [When] respectable people arrive at one's own hermitage, [one should] present them with as many gifts as one can,

*indhanodakadānaṃ ca jātavedam athāpi vā |
sulabhāni na dattāni indhanāgnyudakāni ca |
kṣute jīveti vā noktaṃ tasya kiṃ parataḥ phalam || 4:85 ||*

with gifts of fire-wood, water and fire. [If] fire-wood, fire and water are easily available [but] are not given [as gift] or [if the phrase] 'Live [for a hundred years]!' is not uttered [by him] when [somebody else] sneezes, what reward could there be for him in the afterlife?

4.82 Note syntax.

4.83 My emendation from °manasā dbūryaś to °mana-mādhuryaś is based on the fact that following the list of yamas in 3.16cd–17ab, we need some reference to mādhurya here and that it is easy to see how this corruption came about: °mano-mādhurya° would be unmetrical, thus the form °mana-mādhurya; °mana-mā° is easily corrupted to °manasā° (not to mention the fact that manasā comes up in the next verse); in addition we need five items in this line because of pañcamaḥ. As always, I correct mādhūrya to mādhurya, although it seems that the former is acceptable in this text. I did not correct mādhuryaś to mādhuryaṃ because of the corresponding pañcamaḥ.

4.85 Understand jātavedam in pāda b as jātavedasam or jātavedāḥ, or rather as belonging to the compound °dānaṃ: jātavedodānaṃ. For pāda e, see Mahāsubhāṣitasamgraha 2558:

[yameṣv ārjavam (10) —
The tenth yama-rule: Sincerity ]

pañcārjavāḥ praśaṃsanti munayas tattvadarśinaḥ | karmavṛttyābbivṛddhiṃ ca pāratoṣikam eva ca |
strīdhanotkocavittaṃ ca ārjavo nābhinandati || 4:86 ||

The sages who see the truth praise five types of sincerity. [Sincerity] in action, in livelihood, in prosperity, in gratifying others [and ...?]. A sincere person does not rejoice in women, wealth, bribery and property.

ārjavo na vṛthā yajña ārjavo na vṛthā tapaḥ |
ārjavo na vṛthā dānam ārjavo na vṛthāgnayaḥ || 4:87 ||

Sincerity [means] no sacrifice [performed] idly. Sincerity [means] no austerity [performed] idly. Sincerity [means] no donation [given] idly. Sincerity [means] no fires [kindled] idly.

ārjavasyendriyagrāmaḥ suprasanno 'pi tiṣṭhati |
ārjavasya sadā devāḥ kāye tasya caranti te || 4:88 ||

The sense faculties of a sincere person are firm even when he is delighted. The gods always live inside the body of a sincere person.

iti yamaprabhāgaḥ kīrtito 'yaṃ dvijendra
iba parata sukhārthaṃ kārayet taṃ manuṣyaḥ |
duritamalapahārī śaṅkarasyājñayāste
bhavati pṛthivibhartā hy ekachatrapravartā || 4:89 ||

Thus has been taught this section on the yama-rules, O great Brahmin. Humans should follow them to reach happiness here and in the other world. He'll live by Śaṅkara's command with his filth of sins destroyed. He'll become a ruler of the world [that he subjugates] under one royal umbrella.

|| iti vṛṣasārasaṃgrāhe yamavibhāgo nāmādhyāyaś caturthaḥ ||

Here ends the fourth chapter in the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha called the Section on the Yama-rules.

<skt>amṛtāyatām iti vadet pīte bhukte kṣute ca śataṃ jīva</skt> ('When eating or drinking, one should say: "Let it turn into nectar!"; and after sneezing: "Live for a hundred years!"'.)

4.89 In pāda a 'pra' does not make the previous syllable long: this is the phenomenon of 'muta cum liquida', one of the hallmarks of the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, that is, syllables such as tra, pṛa, bra, dṛa do not necessarily make the previous syllable long. In pāda b, parata most probably stands for paratra or parataḥ metri causa. We may correct it to paratra ('muta cum liquida'). 'malapahārī' in the MSS stands either for 'malāpahārī' or 'malaprahārī' metri causa. I could have chosen to emend it to 'malaprahārī' ('muta cum liquida' again), but I decided not to because apahārīn, apahāra apahāraka are used in the text very frequently. See also 8.XX, which contains a very similar expression: sakalamalapahāre dharmapañcāśad etat.
