Acknowledgements

I am grateful to Alexis Sanderson, Dominic Goodall and Harunaga Isaacson for initiating me into the philological study of Śaivism, and to Florinda De Simini for encouraging me to apply for a position in her ŚIVADHARMA PROJECT (ERC no. 803624), for sharing with me all the relevant manuscript material and in general leading the project in the most friendly and generous way through difficult Covid-affected years. While working on the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, I have also been affiliated with another ERC project, the DHARMA PROJECT (ERC no. 809994), and I'm grateful to all my colleagues involved in that enterprise, including Arlo Griffith, Emmanuel Francis, Annette Schmiedchen, Astrid Zotter, and Dániel Balogh.

During my visit to the National Archives in Kathmandu, the staff were helpful and professional. I wish to express my thanks to Jyoti Neupane, Manita Neupane, Saubhagya Pradhananga, Rubin Shrestha, Sahan Ranjitkar, and all other members. Sushmita Das made great efforts to acquire the manuscripts in Calcutta.

My colleagues and friends working in Naples or visiting Naples for shorter periods have helped me on a daily basis, during our regular reading sessions and in every other possible way, and I am thankful to them: to Florinda De Simini, Nirajan Kafle, Kengo Harimoto, Giulia Buriola, Alessandro Battistini, Lucas den Boer, Torsten Gerloff, Kenji Takahashi, Francesco Sferra, Dorotea Operato, Daniela Cappello, Michael Bluett, Marco Franceschini, Martina Dello Buono, Chiara Livio, Margherita Trento, Nina Mirnig, Timothy Lubin, SAS Sarma, R. Sathyanarayanan, and others.

Colleagues I have known for countless years, such as Judit Törzsök, Dominic Goodall, Harunaga Isaacson, Csaba Dezső and Gergely Hidas, are always the first to help my work and support me in every possible way.

I am infinitely grateful to my family for always supporting me unwaveringly.

The present publication is a result of the project DHARMA 'The Domestication of "Hindu" Asceticism and the Religious Making of South and Southeast Asia'. This project has received funding from the European Research Council (ERC) under the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme (grant agreement no. 809994). # Preface

Aims and problems

What is this edition? It is not much more than a new copy, and carefully prepared new version of a text called Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, based on a number of witnesses, augmented with an analysis of the contents, with contextualisation, and with an English translation. As for the critical edition, while I went to great lengths to understand the textual history behind the manuscripts used, it is obviously a deeply contaminated version of a text transmitted through contaminated witnesses. Nevertheless, it is hopefully a version that is as close to the authors' and redactors' original intention around the time they assembled these chapters together, approximately in the seventh to tenth centuries, as possible. Of course we do not know if there was a single moment when the intention to compose a new text on Dharma under the title Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha was born or if there was one single 'original copy',<sup>1</sup> but it is hopefully the most meaningful and most readable among all available copies. Still, the present book is just a version of a text that surely has never existed exactly in this very form, inevitably showing signs of being an eclectic edition. Furthermore, it may show unintentional characteristics of the 21st century (ones that go beyond the modern Devanāgarī font face or occasional choices based on our modern understandings and misunderstandings) mixed with characteristics of the first millennium. We know that '[a]ll editing is an act of interpretation.'<sup>2</sup> And many of the editorial decisions I made were based on opinions expressed by colleagues during our regular reading sessions. Thus this edition is a result of the interpretative efforts of a group of scholars, and this may sometimes, but hopefully rarely, have caused contradictions.

Find a hard copy of McGann's Textual Condition.

And as to complicate things, we are publishing this long text in two volumes, and the second volume is still in the making when the first comes out. This may produce various problems: of interpretation, of internal references, of repetition, and most importantly of presenting a text of embedded and recurring layers cut in half. To counteract some of these problems, I had finished editing and studying some of the most significant passages in the second part of the text by the time I let the first one out of my hands; some of these the reader can find in the Appendices. A further minor problem arises when I discuss topics that I have already touched upon in Kiss 2021: some overlaps are inevitable.

And what is the purpose of this edition? The main objective of the ŚIVADHARMA PROJECT has been to understand better the function of individual texts within the so-called Śivadharmā corpus, and thus the raison d'être of the corpus itself. My attempt is rather simplistic: it is to understand what the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha tried to convey when it was composed and to try to see why this text got inserted in those multi-text manuscripts that usually transmit the so-called Śivadharmā corpus. But even without this ideal to fully understand the purpose and function of the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, to make a pre-eleventh-century Sanskrit text easily available in the twenty-first century is, I believe, a noble aspiration.

Introduction

The Śivadharmā corpus

In general...

Reading the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha

The title

The title Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha can be translated as: ‘A Compendium on the Essence of the Bull [of Dharma].’ The last two elements (sāra-saṃgraha) need little explanation: this work is a ‘compendium’ on, a ‘collection’ or ‘summary’ of (saṃgraha) the ‘essence’ (sāra) of its topic. The words ‘compendium’ and ‘collection’ reflect the composite nature of the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha well; see sections on the structure of the text and on its possible sources on pp. ??ff and pp. ??ff. The remaining question is whether the bull in the title is only a reference to a representation of Dharma or also a hint at Śiva’s bull, his vehicle or mount, sometimes called Nandi or Nandin in other works.<sup>3</sup>

Dharma is frequently referred to as a (four-legged) bull in Sanskrit literature from at least the time of the Mahābhārata. See, e.g., this passage (MBh 3.188.10–13):

*krte catuṣpāt sakalo nirvyājopādhiparjitah |
vṛṣaḥ pratiṣṭhito dharmo manuṣyeṣu abhavat purā || 10 ||
adharmapādavidhas tu tribhir aṃśaiḥ pratiṣṭhitah |
tretāyāṃ dvāpare ’rdhena vyāmiśro dharmo ucyate || 11 ||
tribhir aṃśair adharmas tu lokān ākramya tiṣṭhati |
caturthāṃśena dharmas tu manuṣyān upatiṣṭhati || 12 ||
āyur vīryam atho buddhir balaṃ tejaś ca pāṇḍava |*

<sup>3</sup> There is no trace of Nandi/Nandin as identified with the bull in the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha. On the possible time after which Nandi or Nandin, originally a gaṇa was considered a bull, see Bhattacharya 1977 and Goodall, Rout, Sathyanarayanan et al 2005, 100–108 and 171–172.

manuṣyāṇām anuyugaṃ hrasatīti nibodha me || 13 ||

Śiva got his bull, MBh: 13076027a vṛṣabhaṃ ca dadau tasmai saha tābhiḥ prajāpatiḥ 13076027c prasādayām āsa manas tena rudrasya bhārata 13076028a prītaś cāpi mahādevaś cakāra vṛṣabhaṃ tadā 13076028c dhvajam ca vāhanam caiva tas-māt sa vṛṣabhadhvajaḥ 13076029a tato devair mahādevas tadā paśupatiḥ kṛtaḥ 13076029c īśvaraḥ sa gavāṃ madhye vṛṣāṅka iti cocyate

Manusmṛti also confirms this (8.16a): vṛṣo hi bhagavān dharma.

MMW ‘vṛṣa’:

“Justice or Virtue personified as a bull or as”Śiva’s bull Mn. viii, 16 Pur. Kāvyaḍ.; just or virtuous act, virtue, moral merit “Śiś. Vās.,” Mahākṣapaṇaka’s koṣa (CHECK date), the Anekārthadhvanimañjarī, places the meaning ‘dharma’ as first when defining the word ‘vṛṣa’:

dharmo vṛṣo vṛṣaḥ śreṣṭho vṛṣo gaur mūṣiko vṛṣaḥ |
vṛṣo balaṃ vṛṣaḥ kāmō vṛṣalo vṛṣa ucyate || 1.48

The ŚDhU also mentions the ‘Dharma bull’:

īśvarāyatanaśyādhaḥ śrīmān dharmavṛṣaḥ sthitaḥ |
yatra vīravṛṣas tatra kṣityāṃ gomātaraḥ sthitā || 12.87

Sanderson 2015 (210 n. 136), in general, on vṛṣa being Dharma, and on the bull appearing on the coins of the Hepthalite Hun Mihirakula in particular says the following:

To laud the bull (vṛṣa) would be surprising if the intended meaning were the bull that is Śiva’s mount, but not if the word is intended in its figurative meaning, namely dharmah, or sukṛtam ‘the virtuous actions [prescribed by the Veda].’ For this meaning of vṛṣaḥ see, for example, Amarasiṃha, Nāmaliṅgānuśāsana 1.4.25b (sukṛtam vṛṣaḥ), 3.3.220 (sukṛte vṛṣabhe vṛṣaḥ); Halāyudha, Abhidhānaratnamālā

1.125cd (dharmah punyam vṛṣaḥ śreyah sukṛtaṃ ca samam smṛtam); Manusmṛti 8[.]16a (vṛṣo hi bhagavān dharmas...); and the Gwalior Museum Stone Inscription of Patañgaśambhu (Mirashi 1962), l. 15, vṛṣaikaniṣṭho 'pi jitasmaro 'pi yaḥ śaṅkaro 'bhūd bhuvi ko 'py apūrvvaḥ, concerning the Śaiva ascetic Vyomaśambhu: 'He was in the world an extraordinary new Śiva, since he too was vṛṣaikaniṣṭhaḥ ('devoted solely to pious observance'; in Śiva's case 'riding only on the Bull') and he too was jitasmarah ('one who had defeated sensual urges'; in Śiva's case 'the defeater of the Love god Kāmadeva'). This is also the meaning of vṛṣaḥ in the title Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, one of the works of the Śivadharmas corpus (see, e.g., Sanderson 2014, p. 2), i.e., 'Summary of the Essentials of the [Śiva]dharma'.

In his last sentence here, Sanderson implies that the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha is organically part of the teachings that we call the Śivadharmas corpus, and thus he adds Śiva in square brackets when translating the title Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha. A closer examination of the VSS reveals no direct references to either Śiva's bull or to the bull as embodying the Śivadharmas. Instead, the bull in the VSS is repeatedly associated with the Dharma that is the four āśramas (see p. ??). My conclusion is that while the word vṛṣa in the title may well carry a reference to Śiva's bull, it is always only implied and never explicitly taught, while the bull as the personification of Dharma as the four āśramas explicitly appears. Thus the title actually lacks any explicit hint to Śaivism, which fits in well with the rather blurred and multi-layered affiliation of the text to Dharmaśāstra, Vaiṣṇavism and Śaivism.<sup>4</sup>

Bhattacharya (1977, 1552) suggests that

In the Purāṇas the bull (Vṛṣabha or Vṛṣa) of Śiva is identified with Dharma, "virtue personified". This is a new development to sanctify the animal vehicle of the god. This new situation took place with the religious rite when an offering of a bull to a Brahmin deemed to be of a high religious merit.

Is he ignoring the fact that Dharma as a bull appears already in the Mahābhārata? NOOOOO He comes to the conclusion (Bhattacharya 1977, 1555) that one of the earliest sources to fuse the figures of Nandin and the bull is the relatively early<sup>5</sup> Matsyapurāṇa.

Vṛṣadeva's commission? As a fanciful experiment, and if one supposes that the VSS originated in Nepal, one could wonder if the title Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha has anything to do with the Licchavi king Vṛṣadeva. Sanderson (2009, 74) mentions that Vṛṣadeva is 'described in an inscription of his eighth-century descendant Jayadeva as having inclined towards Buddhism;' (Vajracārya 1973, 148, l. 9:

<sup>4</sup> See also Bakker 2014, 69, who while discussing a seal of Śarvavarman that features a beautifully carved bull representing Dharma, remarks (italics mine): 'The reader may also see in the image the thriving Śaiva religion, represented by the Bull, the vāhana of Śiva [...]'

sugataśāsanapakṣapāṭi) ‘a view confirmed by a local chronicle, which attributes to him the establishing of Buddhist images,’ and that this king established ‘the Caitya of the Sīnagu-vihāra (the Svayambhūnāth Caitya).’ More importantly, Sanderson summarises the information to be found in the Changu Narayana Pillar Inscription (east shaft),<sup>6</sup> namely that Vṛṣadeva was the great-grandfather of Mānadeva, whose ‘dated inscriptions range in date from 459 to 505/6’ [CE] (Sanderson 2009, 75).<sup>7</sup> This would place the reign of Vṛṣadeva around 400 CE. The early fifth century may look too early for the date of composition of the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, and any connection between this king and the text is impossible to prove at the moment, but it is equally impossible to reject any connection, and if there were one, it would give some explanation for the slightly unusual nature of the title.

Petech 1984:80 Vṛttasārasaṃgraha = Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha

Pañcāvaraṇastava 71: pratyag āśāsthitaṃ vande vṛṣaṃ ca vṛṣabhākṛtim | sāksāḍ dharmāṃ sitaṃ tryakṣaṃ paramesāsyā vāhanam || + notes to this verse on p. 171

The genre

Is the VSS a Purāṇa? There are at least two reasons to think so. One is the section VSS 1.63–76, a list of so-called vedavyāsas, transmitters of Purāṇas, from Brahmā, to Vyāsa Dvaipāyana, Romaharṣa and his son. Why should a text include in its first chapter such a list if the implication is not that it is about its own origin?

Another argument is that the topics dealt with in the VSS are exactly what we expect from a Purāṇa. The famous purāṇapañcalakṣaṇa includes, following Wilson’s translation (in Rocher 1986, 26), the following: (1) primary creation, cosmogony and chronology (sarga); (2) creation, destruction of the world (pratisarga); (3) geneologies (vaṃśā); (4) Manu eras (manvantaras); (5) history (vaṃśānucarita).<sup>8</sup> Arguably all these are present in the VSS, most of them already in chapter one, and later in twenty-one and twenty-four, plus narratives of the deeds of gods (e.g. in chapter twenty-three), and much more that one normally sees in Purāṇas.

Contents of chapters 1–12

Adhyāya 1 After a maṅgala-verse that addresses a deity whose identity is obscure (is it Śiva or the impersonal Brahman?, verse 1.1), we enter the first layer of the text, which comprises a dialogue between Janamejaya and Vaiśampāyana and could be labelled Dharmaśāstric. Janamejaya wishes to hear the essence, the ultimate Dharmic teaching, of the Mahābhārata. In response, Vaiśampāyana starts relating a dialogue in which Viṣṇu, disguised as a Brahmin, is testing an ascetic called Anarthayajña, reknown for performing non-material sacrifice (anarthayajña, the topic of adhyāya eleven), and a devotee of Viṣṇu (which becomes clear in adhyāya twenty-one). This is the beginning of the layer one could label Vaiṣṇava. The first topic they discuss is brahmavidyā (1.9–10), and ambiguous definition of the impersonal Brahman and/or the syllable om. The next topic is kāla (‘death, time’), the origin of the body, karma (1.11–17), and the divisions of time (from truṭi, nimeṣa up to kalpas, 1.18–31), which leads to a teaching on numbers, from one up to two hundred quadrillion (para, 1.32–36). Verses 1.37–40 introduce a list of the rulers of the eight regions of the Brahmanḍa (1.41–49). In addition, Viṣṇu features as the ruler of the centre of the Brahmanḍa (1.50), reconfirming the general Vaiṣṇava character of this layer. 1.51–58 give the number of subordinates to each ruler mentioned above. 1.59–62 teaches the measurements of the Brahmanḍa. Finally, verses 1.63–76 list the redactors and transmitters of the Purāṇas, from Brahṁā to Vyāsa Dvaipāyana and Romaharṣa.

– Place of composition: geographical names and persons mentioned

To make assumptions about the place of composition of the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, we can consider the following: the location of the manuscript evidence, place names and individuals mentioned in the text... The geographical locations mentioned in the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha are the following:

– in the narrative in chapter 12:

- Mṛgendrasīkhara (on the southern slopes of the Himalayas; 22.5ab: himavaddakṣiṇe pārśve mṛgendrasīkhare)
- Mahendrapathaga(?), the name of a river near Mṛgendrasīkhara)
- Kusuma (i.e., Pāṭaliputra)

- ibid p. 417: person in last āśrama is called: parivrāṭ, parivrājaka(!), bhikṣu, muni, yati. See Olivelle, Patrick. The Āśrama System. The History and Hermeneutics of a Religious Institution. New York, Oxford: Oxford University Press, 1993. [megvan] p.82ff: The Order of Āśramas; ibid: “In later texts the usual order is student, householder, hermit, and renouncer, reflecting the sequence of the passage from one āśrama to another... In the Dharmasūtras, however, only Baudhāyana and Vasiṣṭha follow that order... A specific order becomes insignificant when the āśramas are taken as four alternative adult vocations.” Are they alternative adult vocations here in the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha? They are numbered.

Notes on the language

The language of the VSS goes beyond the idiosyncrasies of epic Sanskrit. It exhibits strong similarities to Śaiva Aīśa Sanskrit,<sup>10</sup> and it applies particular metrical licences and uses a special vocabulary, morphology and syntax. The analysis of this language, ideally, could lead us to the author(s) or redactors of the text and to its place of composition. Here I only give a brief overview of the most important phenomena. For details see the observations on the constitution of the Sanskrit text in the footnotes to the translation (pp. ??), as well as the Index.

Metre

As regards metrical licences, the first striking feature is the generous use of the poetic licence sometimes labelled ‘muta cum liquida,’<sup>11</sup> namely that some consonant clusters that would normally turn the previous short (laghu) syllable long (guru) may in some cases do not do so. The syllables pra, bra, hra, kra, especially at the beginning of words CHECK, are well-known candidates for this licence.<sup>12</sup> In the VSS, tra, vra, śra, pra, and also śya, śva, sva, dva, all involving conjunct consonants with a liquid sounds or semi-vowels in second position, and possibly also rpa, CHECK! seem additional ones.

The well-known author on prosody, Kedārabhaṭṭa (11-12th centuries),<sup>13</sup> frequently quoted by Mallinātha, gives the following definition in his Vṛttaratnākara (here given together with Sulhaṇa’s Sukavihrdayanandinī commentary):

padādāv iha varṇasya saṃyogaḥ kramasaṃjñikah |
puraḥsthitena tena syāl laghutā ’pi kvacid guroḥ || 1.10 ||

vibhaktiyantam padam tasya padasyādaḥ vartamāno yo varṇas tasya saṃyogaḥ | sa iha śāstre kramasaṃjñō jñeyah
| tena krameṇa purovartinā prākpadānte vartamānasya
prāptagurubhāvasyāpi laghutā syāt | kvacil lakṣānurod-

<sup>13</sup> SOURCE

TRANSLATE the whole passage!

In this [work], a consonant cluster at the beginning of a word is called krama. A [preceding] long syllable can sometimes be turned short by that initial [syllable].

... TRANSLATE

Tender mustard seed, fresh porridge, and slimy curds: village people eat this kind of dishes, O beautiful goddess, due to lack of money.

To sum this example up: the verse given above (1.11) is in āryā, and the metric pattern of the second half-verse is the following: - - - - - - - - - - This yields 28 morae, instead of the expected 27. By treating the final syllable of sundari short, in spite of the following grā, the pattern conforms to the expected pattern:

- - - - - - - - - -

The commentator gives several more examples (involving the syllables gra, hra, bhra), including this Śārdūla line:

nidravyo hriyam eti hrīparigataḥ prabhraśyate tejasah

In this line, the last syllable of eti should count as short, in spite of the fact that the beginning of the next word (hrī°) would normally turn it long.

The VSS abounds in this phenomenon of ‘muta cum liquida’. EXAMPLES from the VSS and from my emendations. CHECK

- only beginning of words in the VSS?
- final -am etc. counts as long (reverse of muta cum liquida)
- In Kannada and Telugu prosody, under the name of śithila-dviva, the exception is that sometimes in a consonant cluster of the form [consonant + “r”], the “r” (repha) can be ignored, so that it is not a conjunct consonant anymore.
- The exception is not accepted by purists: Shatavadhani Ganesh says that the Sanskrit masters like Kālidāsa, Bhāravi, Māgha, Śrīharṣa, and Viśākhadatta have not freely used this exception (though the masters in Kannada and other languages have). Being more of a “poetic licence” and a violation of the standard rule (only found in later poetry), it is extremely unlikely that any sane poet would have indulged in that exception in all four pāda-s of a verse. Thus it is very unlikely that the program will miss identifying a verse that indulges in this

A Critical Edition of Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha 1–12

Witnesses

In the pre-modern era, the VSS has been transmitted exclusively in multiple-text manuscripts that were produced in Nepal. Even when a manuscript of the VSS seems to be a single-text MS, chances are high that it originally belonged to a multiple-text manuscript.<sup>14</sup> In the manuscript descriptions below, in addition to some general remarks, I will mainly focus on information relevant to the VSS. For much more detail on the overall features of these manuscripts, see De Simini 2016b and the catalogues I mention at some of the individual manuscript.<sup>15</sup>

In recently published and forthcoming critical editions of and articles on the Śivadharma corpus (e.g. Bisschop 2018 and Bisschop, Kafle, & Lubin 2021), the sigla of the manuscripts used are made up of a letter signifying the script (e.g. ‘N’ for Nepālākṣara/Newari), a superscript letter for the current location where the manuscript is deposited (e.g. ‘C’ for Cambridge), and two (sometimes only one or even three) subscript digits echoing the last digit(s), if any, of the reference number of the manuscript in the library where it is located or, in the case of NGMPP reel numbers, the last two digits of the first part of the reel number. For details of this system and for the underlying reasons, see Bisschop 2018, 50–51. Since in the case of the VSS all available manuscripts use some variant of the Nepālākṣara script, in this publication I omit the first letter, making the letter

<sup>14</sup> As I remarked elsewhere (Kiss 2021, 185, n. 9): ‘Asiatic Society (Calcutta), Manuscript G 4076, cat. no. 4083, may seem to be an independent manuscript of the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, but as De Simini has already remarked (2016b, 240 n. 19) [= De Simini 2016b], it is probably from a multiple text manuscript. In fact, from what can be gathered from its description in Shastri 1928, 716ff, it seems likely that this manuscript was originally part of manuscript Asiatic Society (Calcutta) G 3852, cat. no. 4085. See for example the folio numbering in these two manuscripts: ASC G 3852 contains 210 folios, and ASC G 4076 starts on folio 210.’

<sup>15</sup> I owe thanks to Florinda De Simini for sharing with me most of the manuscripts listed here, to Kengo Harimoto and Gudrun Melzer (Munich) for providing photos of the Munich MS, and to Nirajan Kafle for sharing a digital copy of the Paris MS with me.

for the current location non-superscript. This helps keeping the apparatus more readable. In the manuscript descriptions below, I give this omitted and implied ‘N’ in brackets as a reminder.

The Cambridge manuscripts

(N)<sup>C</sup><sub>94</sub> Cambridge University Library, Add. 1694.1. This MS has been fully collated for chapters 1–12 of the critical edition in this volume. See a detailed description of this manuscript in the CUDL online catalogue.<sup>16</sup> According to this catalogue, the date of creation of this manuscript is the 12th century, its dimensions are 5 × ca. 53.5 cm. The script is Nepālākṣara. It is a palm-leaf multiple-text manuscript containing 258 folios and transmitting eight texts: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Śivadharmasaṃgraha, 4) Umāmaheśvarasaṃvāda, 5) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda, 6) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 7) Dharmaputrikā, 8) Śivopaniṣad.

The VSS occupies 45 folios: it starts on f. 193 (the recto side, online image no. 381, is an empty folio side, the text itself starts on the verso side); it ends on f. 239r (online image no. 473). The text of the VSS is transmitted fully, without any folios or major sections of the text missing. The leaves transmitting the VSS are well-preserved. Some folio sides are faded and most folios are somewhat damaged on the right side, sometimes at other parts, and it seems from the images that some opaque-looking tape has been applied to protect these damaged sections. In my critical edition the broken off, completely lost, akṣaras are represented by ×, the illegible akṣaras under the tape by * (‘illegible’). The quality of the readings of this manuscript is one of the best among the available witnesses, comparable only to K<sub>82</sub> and P<sub>57</sub>, making it one of the most important sources for the VSS.

(N)<sup>C</sup><sub>45</sub> Cambridge University Library, Add. 1645. This MS has been fully collated for chapters 1–12 of the critical edition in this volume. See a detailed description of this manuscript in the CUDL online catalogue.<sup>17</sup> According to this catalogue, the dimensions of the manuscript are 4.4 × 61.7cm. The manuscript is dated to (Nepala) ‘saṃvat 259 śrāvaṇa śukla dvādaśīyādī(?) < trayodaśyām,’ which converts to July 10/11 Monday/Tuesday, 1139 CE.<sup>18</sup> The script is Nepālākṣara.

It is a palm-leaf multiple-text manuscript containing 247 folios. Eight texts are transmitted in this manuscript: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Śivadharmasamgraha, 4) Śivopaniṣad, 5) Umāmaheśvarasamvāda, 6) Uttarottamamahāsamvāda, 7) Vṛṣasārasamgraha, 8) Dharmaputrikā.

The VSS occupies 37 folios plus one folio side: it starts on f. 201v line 4 (online image no. 404), and it ends on f. 238v line 3 (online image no. 478). The readings of this manuscript seem to follow those of K<sub>82</sub> remarkably closely while transmitting the Śivadharmottara (as observed by De Simini and Harimoto).<sup>19</sup> This is more difficult to see in the case of the VSS, but indeed, they seem closely related.

(N)C<sub>02</sub> Cambridge University Library, Add. 2102. All available folios of this MS have been collated for chapters 1–12 of the critical edition in this volume. See a detailed description of this manuscript in the CUDL online catalogue.<sup>20</sup> According to this catalogue, the date of creation is the 12th century, and the dimensions of the manuscript are 4.8 × ca. 52.5cm. The script is Nepālākṣara. It is a palm-leaf multiple-text manuscript containing 96 folios. Six texts are transmitted in this manuscript: 1) Śivadharmottara, 2) Śivadharmasamgraha, 3) Umāmaheśvarasamvāda, 4) Śivopaniṣad, 5) Vṛṣasārasamgraha, 6) Dharmaputrikā (only f. 322v). Note that the Śivadharmottara starts on f. 51r, thus the part that most probably contained the Śivadharmasāstra is lost.

The Vṛṣasārasamgraha starts on f. 267r line 1 (online image no. 181). The online description labels this image as f. 237r. This first folio in fact has no visible foliation. The previous text, the Śivopaniṣad, ended on f. 236v, with pāda b of verse 7.122,<sup>21</sup> which is not the end of the Śivopaniṣad: about eighteen verses, probably transmitted in one single folio, are lost. This means that, if the foliation and the order of the folios are presented correctly, and if the portion containing the VSS indeed belongs to the same manuscript, folios 237–266, i.e. thirty folios, are missing. They must have transmitted the Uttarottamamahāsamvāda, which takes up twenty-three folios in C<sub>94</sub>, and twenty folios in C<sub>45</sub>. Thus this MS did most probably transmit all eight texts of the Śivadharmasāstra corpus.<sup>22</sup> instances of gha and ṭa, one cannot but agree. In this case this should be an indication of the exact time (ghaṭikā) the scribe finished copying the text. It is still not clear if we should take dvādaśī or trayodaśyām as the date. For help on the conversion of the date and for a detailed discussion on the colophon I am indebted to Kengo Harimoto.

This first folio of the VSS is in a hand which is different from the rest of the manuscript, but the hand changes back in the next folio.<sup>23</sup>

In this multiple-text manuscript, the VSS is transmitted in an incomplete form, that is to say, a number of folios are missing (most notably chapters 15–17). The first partially visible folio number is in image 184: the numeral characters 200+60 are visible (268v, according to the CUDL online catalogue). In image 186, the folio number 269 is clearly visible (f. 269v). In folio 270v, the continuous text is broken at verse 2.21c (kāmarū°), ff. 271 and 272 are missing, and the text resumes on f. 273r with verse 3.30b ([ahiṃsā pa] ramaṃ sukham). Folio 291 is missing (verses 12.87cd–12.113). In folio 296v (image no. 234) the text breaks off again at vātaśūlair upadrutā | śukro (verse 14.22b), the next folio being 306r (carmatāś ca dvijasundariṣu, verse 18.27b; nine folios and chapters 15–17 are completely missing).

Again, there are two missing folios after bandhus sarvva° in verse 18.47c in f. 306v. The text resumes in f. 309r (image 237) with °neṣu ca sarvveṣu vidvān sreṣṭha sa ucyate (verse 19.52cd). Another folio is missing between iṣṭāniṣṭadvaya° (verse 20.22, f. 309v) and snāyu majjā sirā tathā (verse 20.51d, f. 311r). The VSS ends on f. 322v (image no. 262) with the concluding colophon vṛṣasārasaṃgraha samāpta iti. This folio also contains the beginning of the Dharmaputrikā, but this multiple-text manuscript contains no more folios.

The Kathmandu manuscripts

(N)K<sub>82</sub> NGMPP A 1082/3, NAK 3/393. This MS has been fully collated for chapters 1–12 of the critical edition in this volume. See a brief description of this MS in the NGMCP online catalogue.<sup>24</sup> According to this catalogue, the dimensions of the manuscript are 55.6 × 5.5cm. It is dated to Nepāla Samvat 189 (1068–69 CE).<sup>25</sup> The script is Nepālākṣara. It is a palm-leaf multiple-text manuscript containing 274 folios. Eight texts are transmitted in this manuscript: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Śivadharmasaṃgraha, 4) Umāmaheśvarasaṃvāda, 5) Śivopaniṣad.

ible at the top of the first folio side (f. 267r, ‘mode..... supply beg of Vṛṣasāra-saṃgr.’). I am not sure how ‘modern’ this supplement is, but it seems indeed likely that a lost first folio was supplemented with a later copy. To match the end of this new copy with the beginning of the next, older, folio, a scribe more or less erased the beginning of the first line in the old folio, rather than the other way round. This slightly illogical decision may mean that the younger copy was not tailor-made for the old portion, but rather that it was taken from a younger manuscript which was perhaps considered more legible. Otherwise it would have been more practical to stop copying the first folio at the point where the next begins.

<sup>25</sup> See f. 12r line 2 of the Dharmaputrikā in this MS: navottarāsītīyute sate bde āśāḍhaśuklasya tithau tṛtiye, translated by De Simini 2016b, 252 n. 49 as: ‘in [the year] 189, in the 3rd lunar day of the bright [fortnight] of [the month] Āśāḍha.’ She adds that the date is verified in Petech 1984, 46 as May 24, 1069 CE.

6) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 7) Dharmaputrikā, 8) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda.

As for each text in this collection, the foliation for the VSS restarts from f. iv (f. ir is a cover) and the text spans ff. iv–46r. This is a beautifully written and well-preserved manuscript which gives very useful readings and has proved to be essential for the reconstruction of the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha.<sup>26</sup>

(N)K<sub>10</sub> NGMPP A 10/5, NAK 1/1261. This MS has been fully collated for chapters 1–12 of the critical edition in this volume. See a brief description of this MS in the NGMCP online catalogue.<sup>27</sup> According to this catalogue, the dimensions of the manuscript are 55 x 5.5cm. It is an undated palm-leaf multiple-text manuscript containing 74 folios. Four text are transmitted in this manuscript: 1) Śivadharmottara, 2) Umāmahēśvarasaṃvāda, 3) Śivopaniṣad, 4) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha.

Some folios feature monochrome drawings. A great number of the leaves that transmit the VSS are damaged and, at least judging from the microfilm images, faded and slightly disordered. The folio numbers are rarely visible. The VSS starts on exp. 44 (upper leaf, no folio number is visible here). The text continues on the lower leaf and then on the upper leaf on exp. 43 (going backwards, so to say) up to 1.62 (viṃśakoṭīṣu gulmeṣu ūrdhva°). Verses 1.62cd–2.22 seem to be missing. The lower leaf on exp. 43 contains verses 2.23–2.39. The single leaf in exp. 42 contains verses 2.40–3.16a. Exp. 41 contains a single leaf of the Umāmahēśvarasaṃvāda, ending in a colophon for its chapter twenty-two, and still going backwards, the preceding folios continue transmitting the Umāmahēśvarasaṃvāda. Exploring the presence of the VSS in this manuscript further, one should look at the expositions after no. 44. Exp. 45 contains the end of the Śivopaniṣad. The single leaf on exp. 46 is almost illegible but most probably contains a fragment of the Gautamadharmasūtra. The second line just above the string hole on the left reads ... vīrud vanaspatīnāṃ ca puṣpāṇi svavad ādadīte..., which is a fragment of Gautamadharmasūtra 2.3.25 (12.28). The remaining parts of the VSS are to be found on exp. 47ff. The upper leaf on exp. 47 continues with VSS 3.16b–36ab, while the lower leaf contains a text that I have not been able to identify. The lower leaf in exp. 48 transmits 3.36cd–4.11ab, the upper one 4.11b–30a. The lower leaf in exp. 49 contains 4.30ab–47ab, the upper one 47d–68a, and so on so forth. Thus when reading the text from these images, after exp. 48, one has to start with the lower leaf and continue with the upper one.

Nepāla Samvat 290 (1169–70 CE). It is a palm-leaf multiple-text manuscript containing 289 folios. Eight texts are transmitted in this manuscript: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Śivadharmasaṃgraha, 4) Umāmaheśvarasaṃvāda, 5) Śivopaniṣad, 6) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 7) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda, 8) Dharmaputrikā. Ff. 209v–264v contain the VSS.

This is a nicely written manuscript, giving generally useful and convincing readings.

(N)<sup>K</sup><sub>3</sub> NGMPP A 3/3 (= A 1081/5), NAK 5-737. I have collated this MS only for verses 1.1–15ab to test it. See a brief description of this MS in the NGMCP online catalogue.<sup>29</sup> According to this catalogue, the dimensions of the manuscript are 58.5 x 5.5cm. The script is Nepālākṣara and the MS is dated to Nepāla Samvat 321 (1200–01 CE). It is a palm-leaf multiple-text manuscript containing 215 folios. Eight texts are transmitted in this manuscript: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Śivadharmasaṃgraha, missing (only a few folios are extant, e.g. ff. 124 and 143), 4) Umāmaheśvarasaṃvāda, 5) Śivopaniṣad, 6) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda, 7) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 8) Dharmaputrikā.

The VSS starts in f. 227 (image no. 177) and seems to end after it begins transmitting chapter 23 in f. 264 (image no. 218), but the last image (no. 253) also contains a fraction of VSS chapter 13. The microfilm images are somewhat blurred and the readings do not seem promising.

Other palm-leaf MSS preserved in Kathmandu, but not used for this critical edition include the following:

NAK 5-738 (NGMPP A 11/3)<sup>30</sup>—the microfilm images of the folios containing the VSS are unfortunately extremely blurred to an extent that make them impossible to use.

NGMPP C 25/1 (Kesar Library 218)—this multiple-text manuscript preserves only a few disordered folios of the VSS.

The Munich manuscript

M This MS is preserved at CHECK and has no access number CHECK. I have collated the readings of this MS only for VSS chapters one and five as a test. On this MS in more detail, see Harimoto 2022. I received the digital images of this MS from Kengo Harimoto shortly after he had taken pictures of it in Munich on Nov 16, 2021. This MS contains the following texts: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Umāmaheśvarasaṃvāda, 4) Śivopaniṣad, 5) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha,

<sup>30</sup> http://catalogue.ngmcp.uni-hamburg.de/wiki/A\_11-3\_Śivadharmottara

6) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda, 7) Dharmaputrikā. The section that must have contained the Śivadharmasaṃgraha, ff. 82–121, is lost. The portion that contains the VSS and the Dharmaputrikā is dated (f. 5 or line 5): || iti vṛṣasārasaṅgrāhe caturviṃśa-timo dhyāyaḥ samāptaḥ | samvat 192 māghakṛṣṇadivāpañcamyām || postakalikhitam iti ||. The year 192 in Nepāla Samvat converts to 1071–1072 CE. The part of the MS the precedes the VSS looks considerably earlier and is potentially an important witness for other texts of the Śivadharmā corpus. An interesting feature of this MS is that it gives the number of verses contained in each chapter in the colophons. Ten folios that transmitted the VSS are missing: f. 5 (VSS 3.4–3.33), ff. 11–13 (VSS 6.20–8.45), ff. 24 (VSS 13.9–13.36), and ff. 39–43 (VSS 20.38–22.35).

The foliation for the VSS restarts and the hand in which the VSS and the Dharmaputrikā are written are different from, and most probably later than that of the texts that come before them in this bundle.

The MS often transmits unique and interesting readings but rarely convincing ones, and in general does not seem to be superior to any of the MSS described above. But at some points I did follow its reading against the other witnesses, e.g., at 5.1b.

The Paris manuscript

(N)P<sub>57</sub> This is a multiple-text palm-leaf manuscript written in Nepālākṣara script and preserved in the Collection Sylvain Lévi at the Institut d'études indiennes, Collège de France as MS Skt 57-B 23. I have collated the readings of this MS for VSS chapters three and eight. It contains 249 palm leaves. Folios 214 and 216 are missing from the part of the manuscript that transmits the VSS, thus we don't have verses 1.60d–2.21ab, as well as 3.14–42 and 4.1–7. Foliation appears on the verso side: in the left-hand margin in Newari alphabetical numerals and in the right-hand margin in arabic numerals by a second hand. The portion that contains the VSS is fairly well-preserved and the text is written in a clear hand. Although it is an undated manuscript, it could be dated to the 11th century CE on palaeographical grounds. It contains the following text in the order they are presented in the manuscript: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Śivadharmasaṃgraha, 4) Umāmaheśvarasaṃvāda, 5) Śivopaniṣad, 6) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda, 7) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 8) Dharmaputrikā. The VSS appears on ff. 212–252. This source gives reliable readings and contains relatively few scribal mistakes.<sup>31</sup>

<sup>31</sup> This description had as its starting point a shorter description written and kindly shared with me by Nirajan Kafle.

The Oxford manuscript

(N)O<sub>15</sub> This palm-leaf manuscript is deposited in the Bodleian Library, in Oxford, under shelf mark Sansk. a. 15. It is dated to Nepāla Samvat 307 (1186–87 CE), and it contains 335 folios, transmitting the following texts: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmottara, 3) Śivadharmasaṃgraha, 4) Umāmaheśvarasaṃvāda, 5) Śivopaniṣad, 6) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda, 7) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 8) Dharma-putrikā.

A cursory examination of the text reveals rather disappointing readings, therefore I have not included in the apparatus any of the collation done.

The Kolkata manuscripts

I have not been able to access either of these two potentially important witnesses:

(N)Ko<sub>76</sub> MS G 4076 in the collection of The Asiatic Society, Kolkata.<sup>32</sup> Shastri 1928 (716–718) gives a detailed description of this manuscript along with the text of VSS 1.1–16. According to Shastri, the dimensions of the MS are 22½ × 2 inches (57.15 × 5.08cm), the text is complete and the script is of the twelfth century CE.

This manuscript may appear as a rare instance of the VSS being transmitted independently, and not in a multiple-text manuscript, but it seems very likely that it was originally part of Ko<sub>52</sub> (MS G 3852), a Śivadharm corpus MS in the same collection lacking the VSS; see note 14 on page 1.

(N)Ko<sub>77</sub> According to Shastri 1928, 720, MS G 4077 in the collection of the Asiatic Society, Kolkata, a palm leaf MS, transmits the VSS in 52 folios. The MS is dated to July 6, 1036 CE (Nepāla Samvat 156; see De Simini 2017, 542), which makes it ‘the oldest known dated attestation of the corpus’ (De Simini 2016b, 250–251).

The Tübingen manuscript

I have not yet utilised MS Ma I 582 in the Universitätsbibliothek of Tübingen, a beautiful and nicely written MS. It seems to contain only sixteen folios that transmit the VSS, and they are from the second half of the text. Nothing appears to have been preserved from chapters 1–12.

<sup>32</sup> I am grateful to our colleague Sushmita Das for attempting to get a copy of this MS in March 2020.

The London manuscript

(N)L<sub>16</sub> This is a paper manuscript in the Library of the Wellcome Institute for the History of Medicine under the shelf number WI δ 16 (I–VIII). It contains 406 folios and the following texts: 1) Śivadharmasāstra, 2) Śivadharmot-tara, 3) Śivadharmasaṃgraha, 4) Umāmaheśvarasaṃvāda, 5) Śivopaniṣad, 6) Uttarottamamahāsaṃvāda, 7) Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha, 8) Dharmaputrikā. This MS is described in Wujastyk 1985.

While collating MS L<sub>16</sub> for VSS chapter 22, I realised that it was to be a direct or close copy of K<sub>82</sub>. A few examples to prove this will suffice:

K<sub>82</sub> (f. 40r) reads:

[spha]tikāṃ×ram [= °kāmbaram] eva ca | daśayogāsanāsīno

L<sub>16</sub> (f. 38iv) gives:

sphaṭikāṃsatam eva ca || devayogāsanāsīto

supplying sa for the lost syllable and misreading the damaged da as de and the śa as va.

Here K<sub>82</sub> (f. 39v) reads:

[japo yogas tapo] dhyānaṃ svādhyāyaś ca daśa smṛtaḥ with dhyā and svā damaged;

L<sub>16</sub> (f. 38ir) cannot read the bit that is completely lost, and it misreads the damaged dhyānaṃ as dhānaṃ, svādhyā as sādhū:

In the next example, the text is supposed to read kare gr̥hya tapodhanam | tataḥ so 'ntarhitas tatra tenaiva.

K<sub>82</sub> (f. 39r) gives:

[kare] x x x x x dha\na tataḥ so 'ntar\hitas tatra tenaiva

L<sub>16</sub> (f. 38or) gives:

kare - - - dhatām tataḥ || sati hitas tatra tenaiva

trying to make sense of the fragments. The examples above suggest that L<sub>16</sub> was copied, most probably directly, from K<sub>82</sub> when the damage had already been done to K<sub>82</sub>. For this reason, I have not collated its readings for VSS chapters 1–12.

Naraharinath's edition

(N)E Much has been said of Yogi Naraharinath's pioneering but problematic edition (the editio princeps) of the Śivadharma corpus (Naraharinath 1998): see e.g. De Simini 2016a, 66, n. 190; 2017, 542, Bisschop 2018, 58–59, Bisschop, Kafle, & Lubin 2021, 55. My impression of the text of the VSS in Naraharinath's edition is that its quality is considerably inferior to those of the other texts of the corpus. It may or may not be Naraharinath's fault; others must have been involved in the process of transcription, and the number and nature of the innumerable mistakes all over the text may also suggest a general problem with the typesetting process. Nevertheless I have recorded the readings found in this publication for all twelve chapters given in my critical edition.

Editorial policies

- orthography: deviant orth, sandhi, punctuation? - avagrahas usually supplied but sometimes found in the MSS, not used by me for crasis (e.g. a+a=ā) - daṇḍas: usually 4 pādas to a verse, but I have made arbitrary decisions based on sense-units because none of the sources really indicate where a verse ends (||). - falsifications everywhere on purpose and accidentally

Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha

An Annotated Translation

[ prathamo 'dhyāyaḥ ]

[ Chapter One ]

[ stutiḥ —

Invocation ]

anādimadhyāntam anantapāraṃ

susūksmam avyaktajagatsusāraṃ |

harīndrabrahmādbhīr āsamagraṃ

praṇamya vakṣye vṛṣasārasaṃgrahaṃ || 1:1 ||

Having bowed to the One who has no beginning, no middle part and no end, whose boundaries are limitless, who is very subtle and who is the unmanifest and fine essence of the world, to the One who is wholly complete with Hari, Indra, Brahmā and the other [gods], I shall recite [the work called] ‘A Compendium on the Essence of the Bull [of Dharma]’.

1.1 Pāda a is reminiscent of, among other famous passages, BhG 11.19: anādimadhyāntam anantavīryam anantabāhuṃ śaśisūryanetram | paśyāmi tvāṃ dīptahutāśavaktraṃ svatejasā viśvam idaṃ tapantam ||. See also BhG 10.20cd: aham ādiś ca madhyaṃ ca bhūtānām anta eva ca ||.

A faint reference to the BhG seems proper at the beginning of a work that claims to deliver a teaching based on, but also to surpass, the MBh (see following verses of the VSS). Compare also, e.g., KūrmP 1.11.237: rūpaṃ tavāśeṣakalāvihīnam agocaraṃ nirmalam ekarūpaṃ | anādimadhyāntam anantam ādyaṃ namāmi satyaṃ tamasah parastāt ||. To say that a god has no beginning and no end in a temporal or spacial sense is natural (anādi°...°antam), but to have no ‘middle part’ (°madhya°) in these senses is slightly less so. Thus the rather commonly occurring phrase anādimadhyāntam is probably a fixed expression usually referring to a deity that is endless, eternal and immaterial. As to which deity or what form of a deity this stanza refers to, it may be Śiva, his name missing in pāda c, but the phrasing of the verse is vague enough to keep the question somewhat open: the impersonal Brahman might be another option, even more so if we look at verses 1.9–10, whose topic is brahmavidyā.

In pāda b jagat-susāraṃ is most probably not to be interpreted as jagatsu sāraṃ (‘the essence in the worlds’). Another way to translate avyaktajagatsusāraṃ would be: ‘who is the fine essence of the unmanifest world.’

Strictly speaking, pāda c is unmetrical, but it is better to simply acknowledge here the phenomenon of ‘muta cum liquida’, namely that syllables followed by consonant clusters such as ra, bra, hra, kra, śra, śya, śva, sva, dva can be treated as short (laghu). (See Introduction CHECK) Thus harīndrabrahmā° can be treated as a regular beginning of an upajāti ( - - - ), the syllable bra not turning the previous syllable long (guru).

The reading āsamagraṃ in pāda c is suspect, although the initial ā- might convey some sort of completeness, meaning ‘all round’ (see e.g. Kale 1992, 226). The fact that we could perceive the ending of pādas a and b (pāraṃ-sāraṃ), as well as pādas c and d, as (in the latter case, oddly) rhyming pairs (graṃ-grahaṃ) suggests that accepting the reading āsamagraṃ could be the right decision (as suggested by Alessandro Battistini). I translate this verse accordingly. M gives an exciting, albeit unmetrical, alternative (yat samagraṃ), but this seems more like a guess to me than the correct reading. For some time I was considering emending āsamagraṃ. The most tempting of all the possible options (arcyam/arhyam/arghyam/īḍyam/ādhyaṃ agraṃ, āsamastam) seemed to be āptam agraṃ, meaning ‘appointed/received/respected [by Hari, Indra, Brahmā etc.] as the foremost one’. The fact that the akṣaras āsam and āptam look similar in most of the scripts used in our manuscripts could support this conjecture. āptam could also possibly refer to the text itself, although then the syntax becomes slightly confusing: ‘I shall recite the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha that [ janamejayavaiśampāyanasaṁvādaḥ —

The dialogue of Janamejaya and Vaiśampāyana ]

śatasāhasrikam grantham sahasrādhyāyam uttamam |

parva cāsyā śataṁ pūrṇam śrutvā bhāratasaṁhitām || 1:2 ||

Having listened to the Bhāratasaṁhitā [i.e. the Mahābhārata], the supreme book of a hundred thousand [verses] and a thousand chapters (adhyāya), with all its hundred sections (parvan),

atrptaḥ puna papraccha vaiśampāyanam eva hi |

janamejaya yat pūrvam tac chr̥ṇu tvam atandritaḥ || 1:3 ||

Janamejaya remained unsatisfied. Listen unweariedly to what he asked Vaiśampāyana in the past.

janamejaya uvāca |

bhagavan sarvadharmajña sarvaśāstraviśārada |

asti dharmam param guhyam saṁsārārṇavatāraṇam || 1:4 ||

Janamejaya spoke: O venerable sir, O knower of the entire Dharma, O you who are well-versed in all the sciences (śāstra)! There is a supreme and secret Dharma [that causes] liberation from the ocean of mundane existence (saṁsāra).

was first received by Hari...' etc. Another candidate was ādhyam agram: 'Having bowed to [Him] who contains/is rich with Hari, Indra, Brahṁā etc.' I have not emended the text because it is difficult to know if there is any need for change and if there is, which reading to chose. There was no consensus when this verse was discussed in our extended Śivadharmā reading group.

Pāda d seems hypermetrical, but it can be interpreted as a vaṁśastha line, a change from triṣṭubh to jagati (as suggested by Dominic Goodall).

1.2 The dialogue of Janamejaya and Vaiśampāyana makes up the outermost layer of the VSS (except for the introductory stanzas 1.1–3; see Introduction CHECK), mostly containing general dharmasāstric material. That the MBh should contain a hundred thousand verses is hinted at e.g. in line 19 of the Khoh Charter 2 of Śarvanātha, year 214 (Siddham IN00088: uktañ ca mahābhārata śatasāhasryam (understand °ryām) saṁhitāyām... The hundred parvans of the Mahābhārata are listed in MBh 1.2.33–70.

1.3 My emendation from the unmetrical punaḥ to the unusual, or rather, Middle Indic (Edgerton 1953, vol. 2, p. 347), puna is based on the assumption that in the original the metre must have overridden morphology, similarly to what may have happened in 8.4.4d (Mālinī metre): na bhavati punajanma kalpakotyaṇyute 'pi, and in 12.151c (Sragdharā metre): garbhāvāsaṁ na ca tvan na ca punamarāṇam kleśam āyāsapūrṇam.

For an unsatisfaction or dissatisfaction (atrpti) with previous teachings in a somewhat similar manner to what Janamejaya experiences here, see e.g. Niśvāsa mūla 1.9: vedāntam viditam deva sāmṁkhyam vai pañcaviṁśakam | na ca trptim gamiṣyāmo hy ṛte śaivād anugrahāt ||; and the Śivadharmasāstra. CHECK. Vaiśampāyana, a Ṛṣi, disciple of Vyāsa, great-grandson to Arjuna, recited the Mahābhārata at the snake sacrifice of Janamejaya. This setting is an echo of the starting point of the Mahābhārata, see MBh 1.1.8ff. In fact the next few verses in the VSS make it clear that the VSS picks up where the Mahābhārata left off: Janamejaya has heard the whole Mahābhārata from Vaiśampāyana, but he is eager to hear more. Note how we are forced to emend pāda c to contain a stem form proper noun (janamejaya) to maintain the metre, and note how the manuscripts struggle with this pāda. Stem form nouns, prātipadikas, abound in the VSS: see Introduction p. CHECK.

kathayasva hi me tṛptiṃ kuru yatnāt tapodhana || 1:5 ||

Teach me the Dharma that emerged from [Vyāsa] Dvaipāyana's mouth, O best of Brahmins. Help me find satisfaction at all cost, O great ascetic!

vaiśampāyana uvāca |
śṛṇu rājann avahito dharmākhyānam anuttamam |
vyāsānugrahasamprāptaṃ guhyadharmam śṛṇotu me || 1:6 ||

Vaiśampāyana spoke: Listen with great attention, O king, to this unsurpassed narration of Dharma. Hear the secret Dharma that I received by Vyāsa's favour.

anarthayajñakartāraṃ tapovrataparāyaṇam |
śīlaśaucasamācāraṃ sarvabhūta-dayāparam || 1:7 ||
jijñāsānārthaṃ praśnaikaṃ viṣṇunā prabhaviṣṇunā |
dvijarūpadharo bhūtvā papraccha vinayānvitaḥ || 1:8 ||

Viṣṇu, the great Lord, assuming the form of a twice-born [Brahmin], wanted to test [Anarthayajña, the ascetic yogin] who performed nonmaterial sacrifices (anarthayajña), focused on his austerities and observances, whose conduct was virtuous and pure, and who was intent on compassion towards all living beings; therefore he [Viṣṇu] humbly asked him a question.

[ brahmavidyā —

The knowledge of Brahman ]

[ vigatārāga uvāca ]
brahmavidyā katham jñeyā rūpavarṇavivarjitā |
svaravyaṅjananirmuktam akṣaram kimu tatparam || 1:9 ||

[Vigatārāga spoke:] How is the knowledge of the Brahman to be understood if it is devoid of form and colour? The syllable that is devoid of vowels and consonants: is there anything higher than that?

1.4 Note dharma as a neuter noun in pāda c and in the next verse.

1.5 The majority of the MSS consulted include a vā in pāda b, and although C<sub>45</sub>'s reading seems a bit smoother, that manuscript rarely gives superior readings. Therefore I have chosen dharmaṃ vā yad, in which vā functions probably in a weak sense. That the secret Dharma Janamejaya is seeking is the one taught by Vyāsa Dvaipāyana, and thus no real options are involved here, becomes clear in 1.6cd. The reading of M in pāda b (dharmavākyaṃ) is tempting but could be a later correction. In general, M's readings here are unique but probably secondary: hi me tṛptiṃ in pāda c seems more attractive than M's prasādena because it echoes atrptaḥ in 1.3a

1.7 Note the odd syntax here: viṣṇunā... dvijarūpadharo bhūtvā papraccha. The agent of the active verb is in the instrumental case (anacoluthic structure). On Anarthayajña, the interlocutor of VSS 1.9–10.2 and 19.1–21.22, and an important figure discussed in 22.3ff, as well as a concept ('nonmaterial sacrifice'), see Kiss 2021 and Introduction CHECK.

1.9 The translation of this verse, and the reconstruction and interpretation of pāda d, which is echoed in 1.10d, is slightly tentative. I doubt if kimu could have the standard (Vedic) meaning

anarthayañña uvāca |
anuccāryam asandigdham avicchinnam anākulam |
nirmalaṃ sarvagaṃ sūkṣmaṃ akṣaraṃ kimu tatparam || 1:10 ||

Anarthayañña replied: That syllable is not to be pronounced, is unquestionable, non-dividable, consistent, spotless, all-pervading and subtle: what could be higher than that?

[ kālapāśaḥ —
 The noose of death and time ]

vigatarāga uvāca |
dehī dehe kṣayaṃ yāte bhūjalāgniśivādibhiḥ |
yamadūtaiḥ kathaṃ nīto nirālambo nirañjanaḥ || 1:11 ||

Vigatarāga spoke: When the body disintegrates in the ground, in water, in fire or [is torn apart] by jackals and other [animals], how is the supportless and spotless soul led [to the netherworld] by Yama's messengers?

kālapāśaiḥ kathaṃ baddho nirdehaś ca kathaṃ vrajet |
svargaṃ vā sa kathaṃ yāti nirdeho bahudharmakṛt |
etan me saṁśayaṃ brūhi jñātum icchāmi tattvataḥ || 1:12 ||

How is it bound by the nooses of death/time? And if it is bodiless, how can it move? And how does the [soul of a] virtuous [person] (bahudharmakṛt) reach heaven if it has no body? This is my doubt. Teach me. I want to know the truth.

anarthayañña uvāca |
atiśaṁśayakaṣṭhaṃ te prṣṭo 'haṃ dvijasattama |
durvijñeyaṃ manuṣyais tu devadānavapannagaiḥ || 1:13 ||

Anarthayañña spoke: You are asking me about an extremely doubtful and problematic matter, O truest of the twice-born. [This is something that] is difficult to understand by humans, and [even] by gods (deva), demons (dānava) and serpents (pannaga).

karmahetuḥ śarīrasya utpattir nidhanaṃ ca yat |
sukṛtaṃ duṣkṛtaṃ caiva pāśadvayam udāhṛtam || 1:14 ||

'how much more/less' here. Rather u is probably just an expletive. In general it seems that this verse references the syllable om.

1.11 The word °śivā° in pāda b is slightly suspect, and could be the result of metathesis, from °viśā° ('by poison'). Nevertheless, jackals seems appropriate in this context, for they are commonly associated with human corpses, death and the cremation ground (see e.g. Ohnuma 2019). Furthermore, pāda b lists phenomena that cause the body to disintegrate, and not causes of death; thus the reading śiva is probably correct.

1.12 The word kāla has, as usual, a double meaning here: kālapāśa is both Yama's noose, and also the limitations and bondage caused by time, as becomes clear at the discussion on the different time units in verses 1.18–31.

1.13 Note te used for tvayā in pāda a. Alternatively, taking te as genitive, the line could be translated as: 'I am being asked about a great problem of yours that originates in doubts...'

The cause of both the birth and death of the body is karma. Good and bad deeds are called the two nooses.

tenaiva saha saṃyāti narakam svargam eva vā |
sukhaduḥkham śarīreṇa bhoktavyam karmasambhavam || 1:15 ||

na tvayā viditam kiñcij jijñāsyasi katham dvija |
kālāpāśam ca viprendra sakalam vettum arhasi || 1:17 ||

[If] you don't know anything, how could you start your investigation, O twice-born? O great Brahmin, you should know the noose of time in its entirety.

kalākalitakālā ca kālātattvakālāḥ śṛṇu |

Learn about time (kāla) which is divided into digits (kalā), [i.e. about] the division[s] (kalā) of the entity [called] time (kālātattva). Two atomic units of time (truṭi) is one twinkling (nimeṣa). One digit (kalā, cca. 1.6 second) is twice a twinkling.

kalādviguṇitā kāṣṭhā kāṣṭhā vai triṃsatih kalā |
triṃsatkalā muhūrtaś ca mānuṣena dvijottama || 1:19 ||

Two digits (kalā) form one bit (kāṣṭhā, 3.2 seconds). Thirty bits (kāṣṭhā) is one digit (kalā?, 1.6 minutes). Thirty digits (kalā) make up one section (muhūrta, 48 minutes) in human terms, O great Brahmin.

muhūrtatrimśakenaiva ahorātram vidur budhāḥ |
ahorātram punas triṃśan māsam āhur manīṣiṇaḥ || 1:20 ||

1.14 The MSS give karmahetu in pāda a overwhelmingly, which could work as a neuter bahuvrīhi compound picking up both utpattir and nidhanam but karmahetuḥ is grammatically more correct, picking up the feminine utpatti. I suspect that there may have been a confusion, scribes taking karmahetuśarīrasya as one single compound; but this would make it difficult to interpret the verse.

1.17 The variant jijñāsyasi seems to be the lectio difficilior as opposed to vijñāsyasi, but the latter could also work fine here. Note how M (agreeing with E) gives a reading (vaktum arhasi) that is clearly out of context. This confirms that while M comes up with interesting readings, they are mostly to be ignored.

1.18 1.18d and 1.19a are problematic in the light of 1.19b, which redefines kalā in harmony with the traditional interpretation, see e.g. Arthaśāstra 2.20.33: triṃsatkāṣṭhāḥ kalāḥ. On divisions of time, see also, e.g., Manu 1.64ff. I have calculated 1.6 second for one kalā backwards, starting from one day (see 1.20ab).

Thirty sections (muhūrta) are known to the wise as night and day [i.e. a full day]. Thirty days and nights are taught by the wise to be one month.

the knowledge about one time-span of a Manu (manvantara) has been taught briefly. One aeon (kalpa) is fourteen manvantaras in total.

daśa kalpasahasrāṇi brahmāhaḥ parikalpitam |

rātrir etāvatī proktā munibhis tattvadarśibhiḥ || 1:25 ||

Brahmā's day (brahmāhar) is made up of ten thousand Kalpas. [Brahmā's] night is of the same [duration] according to the wise who know the truth.

rātryāgame praliyante jagat sarvaṃ carācaram |

ahāgame tathaiveha utpadyante carācaram || 1:26 ||

When [Brahmā's] night falls, the whole moving and unmoving universe dissolves. And when [his] daylight comes, the moving and unmoving [universe] is born.

1.21 Note how a verb (e.g. iti vadanti, iti prāhur) is missing in the first half-verse.

1.22 Note the stem form noun yuga metri causa, and also M's unique but confused readings.

1.23 The 'figure' mentioned in this verse is the sum of the duration of the four yugas, which makes up one mahāyuga: Kaliyuga = 360,000 years, Dvāparayuga = 720,000 years, Tretāyuga = 1,080,000 years, Dvāparayuga = 1,440,000 years; altogether 3,600,000 years. 72 mahāyugas make up a manvantara (= 259,200,000 years). One kalpa is 14 manvantaras (= 3,628,800,000 years). Ten thousand kalpas are one day of Brahmā, and his night is of the same length, which makes one full day of Brahmā 72,576,000,000,000 years. See next verses.

1.24 See 21.34ff.

1.25 M has a separator sign (|o|) at the end of pāda b, as if a section ended here.

1.26 The plural form praliyante in pāda a is metri causa for praliyate, perhaps also influencing utpadyante (for utpadyate) in pāda d, which in turn is used here to avoid an iambic pattern (- - - -).

yathārkagrahatārendu bhramato dṛśyate tv iha |
kālacakraṃ bhramatvaiva viśramaṃ na ca vidmahe || 1:28 ||

Just as the sun, the planets, the stars and the moon are perceived in this world as wandering around, the wheel of time (kālacakra) keeps spinning and we never experience its halting.

kālaḥ sṛjati bhūtāni kālaḥ saṃharate punaḥ |

śrutaṃ vai kālacakraṃ tu mukhapadmaviniṣṛtaṃ |

Vigatarāga spoke: I have just heard [the term] ‘wheel of time’ (kālacakra) uttered from [your] lotus mouth, as well as parārdha and para. You have made these things appear as exciting, as things to hear.

1.27 On the definition of the numbers para and parārdha, see verses 1.32–36. Note the peculiar compound bhr̥gu-r-ādi-maharṣayaḥ.

1.28 bhramato (gen.) in pāda b seems to stand for the neuter participle bhramat. Alternatively, bhramato might mean ‘erroneously’ (brama-tas, abl.), but this makes the verse difficult to interpret.

1.30 Note that samatītāni (neuter) most probably picks up devarājāḥ (masculine) in this verse, or rather devarājā stands for devarājānām and samatītāni picks up °parārdhāni. It is not clear to me what devarāja (“god king”) means exactly (Indra?).

1.32 The reading of all manuscripts consulted, vinisṛtaṃ, may be considered metrical if we interpret it, loosely, as vinisṛitaṃ. Pāda d is suspect and my translation is tentative. M’s reading in pāda d (śrotuṃ naḥ pratidīyatām) might make sense (“give it back/repeat it for us again”), but

brahmāṇḍam kati vijñeyaṃ pramāṇaṃ prāpitaṃ kvacit |

kati cāṅguli-m-ūrdhveṣu sūryas tapati vai mahīm || 1:37 ||

Vigatarāga spoke: How many eggs of Brahmā are there? And are its measurements available anywhere? From how many finger's breadths high does the sun heat the earth?

it sounds forced, as if the scribe tried to come up with a reading that he understood better than srotuṃ vaḥ pratidīpitam, which is in fact not easy to interpret. One would expect a phrase meaning 'please tell me about these.'

1.33 See a similar teaching of numbers in BrahmāṇḍaP 3.2.91ff.

1.34 For anta meaning ananta, see 1.58cd–59ab. M's reading in pāda d may be a result of an eyeskip to 1.35c.

1.36 Note that E, after omitting three lines, inserts this: vṛndañ caiva mahāvṛnda dviparānantam eva ca.

1.37 The use of the singular next to numerals is one of the hallmarks of the VSS (see p. CHECK). As an introduction to this phenomenon, pāda a has brahmāṇḍam in the singular where we would expect a plural form. The word prāpitaṃ is a conjecture for cāpitaṃ, which I find unintelligible. Another possibility could be jñāpitaṃ. My emendation of cāṅguli-mūrdhveṣu to cāṅguli-m-ūrdhveṣu (with a hiatus filler) is based on ūrdhvatas in 1.61d, which is part of the reply to the question posed in this line. In turn, aṅguli here triggered an conjecture in 1.61c.

dīptatejāś ca tejāś ca tejā tejavaho daśa |

1.38 One would expect brahmāṇḍāni in pāda a instead of brahmāṇḍānāṃ, but we should probably understand brahmāṇḍānāṃ viśeṣān prasamkhyātum... The structure noun in genitive + verb meaning 'telling' occurs also in 4.69a and CHECK.

1.39 The claim that Brahmā taught Mātariśvan is confirmed in 1.64cd, and also, e.g., in Brahmāṇḍapurāṇa 3.4.58cd (see the apparatus).

1.40 My conjecture in pāda b (bhūbhṛtām) is based on the fact that the readings transmitted in the MSS seem unintelligible and, more importantly, that these names are said to belong to *nāyaka*s in the subsequent verses, a possible synonym of bhūbhṛt ('a king'), and also that it is a minute intervention. In pāda c, understand diśāṣṭānāṃ as diśāṃ aṣṭānāṃ or diśaṣṭakānāṃ, and note that one of the hallmarks of the language of the VSS is the use of the singular in the proximity of numbers, where a plural would be expected (daśa nāmā).

1.41 Note that many of the names here and in the following verses are, in the absence of any parallel passage, rather insecure. In order to avoid the repetition of the name Saha, I take the first name here as feminine; Asabhā seems also to be a feminine ruler's name. Later on there seem to come more feminine names (Tejā, Yamunā, Naganā, etc.), therefore it may be correct to interpret some of the names as names of queens. What is clear here is that the list evokes the name Sahasrākṣa, one of the appellations of Indra, the quadrian of the eastern direction.

nṛgarbho 'suragarbhaś ca devagarbho mahīdharah |

vṛṣabho vṛṣagarbhaś ca vṛṣāṅko vṛṣabhadhvajah || 1:46 ||

1.42 Here, in the region of Agni, the names evidently evoke the image of flames.

1.43 I have chosen the variant saṃyano in pāda c only to avoid the repetition of the name saṃyama, and the variant yanoyanaḥ in pāda d because I suspect that most of the names here should begin with ya. All the name forms in this verse are to be taken as tentative. The only guiding light is the presence of ya, reinforcing a connection with Yama.

1.44 naga in pāda b is a stem form noun metri causa tatparaḥ in pāda d might be another example of a singular form next to a number (see 1.40c above). Note that the reconstruction of these names are tentative. What is clear here is that the initials should be na and ga, probably suggesting a connection with nirṛti, narakas and nāgas.

1.45 Varuṇa upholds the sky and the earth. This could be the reason why these names include bharana and bhartr.

[1] Nṛgarbha, [2] Asuragarbha, [3] Devagarbha, [4] Mahīdhara, [5] Vṛṣabha, [6] Vṛṣagarbha, [7] Vṛṣāṅka, [8] Vṛṣabhadhvaja,

Center ]

aparo vimalo moho nirmalo mana mohanah |
akṣayaś cāvyaḥ viṣṇur varado madhyame daśa || 1:50 ||

[1] Aparā, [2] Vimala, [3] Moha, [4] Nirmala, [5] Mana, [6] Mohana, [7] Akṣaya, [8] Avyaya, [9] Viṣṇu, [10] Varada: [these are] the ten [leaders] in the centre.

1.46 The connection between vṛṣa and the north-west or Vāyu is not evident to me. CHECKIn a tantric context, a western position is more standard for vṛṣa, see e.g. Goodall, Rout, Sathyanarayanan et al 2005, 40.

1.47 Note how M deviates here again in a significant way.

1.48 I prefer the form sumanaḥ to the more standard sumanāḥ (K<sub>7</sub>) in pāda a, because it suits the slightly irregular language of the VSS (see pp. CHECK), and because the solitary reading of K<sub>7</sub> may well only be an attempt to standardise. It is also not inconceivable that sumanaḥ stands compounded with saumyaḥ. Note how daśa nāyakam could again be an example for the use of the singular next to a number in pāda d. It seems that here the northern region is associated with Śiva, rather than the north-east, the īśāna direction, which is occupied by Brahmā: see next verse. In a tantric context, Brahmā is sometimes associated with the north-east, see, e.g., Goodall, Rout, Sathyanarayanan et al 2005, 39. CHECKI have left satya in stem form.

1.49 I consider indu, bindu and vajra stem form nouns. The north-east seems to be occupied by Brahmā, and by rulers whose names should somehow evoke Brahmā's name.

1.50 Note that the last three lists above have been associated with Śiva, Brahmā and Viṣṇu, respectively, and here, in a layer of the text that can be labelled Vaṣṇava (see pp. CHECK), it is Viṣṇu that seems to occupy a central position. mana mohanah in pāda b may sound like one single name, but we are forced to separate these two words (mana being in stem form metri causa) to

padmavargeṣu ekaikaṃ samudraiḥ parivāritam || 1:56 ||

Each of those one trillion (śaṅku) is surrounded by ten trillion (padma). Each arrive at a list of ten names.

1.51 I take daśa-m-iśānāṃ as a disjointed CHECK compound (daśeśānāṃ). It is conceivable that each of the above ninety rulers has ten subordinates, therefore each group of ten rulers has a hundred subordinates altogether, but the original idea may have been that each one of the above ninety rulers has a hundred subordinates. Alternatively, this verse may only refer to the central group of ten rulers mentioned in 1.50, and each one of them has a hundred subordinates.

1.52 We are forced to follow E's reading in pāda c in order to make sense of this passage. My correction in pāda d is motivated by the same. Note that vṛnda is not a number in this line. Elsewhere in this chapter vṛnda is the word that signifies 'a billion'.

1.53 It seems that pādas ab repeat what has been stated in 1.52cd. °koṭyena stands for °koṭyā (thematization). Note how the scribe of M gets confused at 1.53c due to an eye-skip and fully regains control only at 1.55b.

of those ten trillion (padma) is surrounded by a hundred trillion (samudra).

samudreṣu tathaikaikaṃ madhyasaṃkhyais tu tair vṛtam |

madhyasaṃkhyeṣu ekaikaṃ anantaiḥ parivāritam || 1:57 ||

And each of those hundred trillion (samudra) is surrounded by those whose number is one quadrillion (madhya). Each of those quadrillion (madhya) is surrounded by ten quadrillion (ananta).

ananteṣu ca ekaikaṃ parārdhaparivāritam |

parārdheṣu ca ekaikaṃ pareṇa parivāritam |

eṣa vai kathito vipra śakyam sām̐khyam udīritam || 1:58 ||

Each of those ten quadrillion (ananta) is surrounded by a hundred quadrillion (parārdha). Each of those hundred quadrillion (parārdha) is surrounded by two hundred quadrillion (para). This is how it is taught, O Brahmin. The enumeration [of the rulers of the Brahmāṇḍa] has been taught as much as it is possible.

Measurements ]

pramāṇam śṛṇu me vipra saṃkṣepād bruvato mama |

candrodaye pūrṇamāsyām vapur aṇḍasya tādṛśam || 1:59 ||

Listen to me and learn about the measurements [of the universe], O Brahmin, I shall teach [you] in a concise manner. The body of the Egg is like that of [the moon] at moonrise on the day of the full moon.

koṭikoṭisahasraṃ tu yojanānām samantataḥ |

aṇḍānām ca parimāṇam brahmaṇā parikīrtitam || 1:60 ||

The whole circumference of the Eggs has been declared by Brahmā to be ten million (koṭi) times a thousand times ten million yojanas.

saptakoṭisahasraṇi saptakoṭisatāni ca |

viṃśakoṭiṣv aṅgulīṣu ūrdhvatas tapate raviḥ || 1:61 ||

The Sun shines from the height of seven thousand seven hundred and twenty koṭi finger's breath.

pramāṇam nāma saṃkhyā ca kīrtitāni samāsataḥ |

brahmāṇḍam cāprameyānām lakṣaṇam parikīrtitam || 1:62 ||

The numbers pertaining to the measurements have been taught in brief. The characteristics of the unmeasurable Brahmāṇḍa[s] have been taught.

[ vyāsāḥ —

1.56 Note that śaṅkubhiḥ stands for śaṅkūṣu (instrumental for locative).

1.61 This verse is the reply to the question in 1.37cd, which contains the word aṅguli: this hints at the possibility that the unintelligible gulmeṣu transmitted in most of the witnesses might be corrupted from aṅguṣu; hence my conjecture, resulting in a ra-vipulā.

1.62 Note the mixture of different grammatical genders and numbers in this verse. Understand pramāṇeṣu saṃkhyāḥ kīrtitāḥ samāsataḥ and brahmāṇḍānām aprameyānām...

The redactors (of the Purāṇas) ]

purāṇāśisahasrāṇi śatāni dvijasattama |
brahmaṇā kathitaṃ pūrṇaṃ mātariśvā yathātatham || 1:63 ||

O truest of the twice-born, the Purāṇa[s of] 8,000,000 [verses] were taught by [1] Brahmā to [2] Mātariśvan [= Vāyu] in their entirety, in their true form.

vāyunā pāda saṃkṣīpya prāptaṃ cośanasam purā |
tenāpi pāda saṃkṣīpya prāptavāṃś ca brhaspatiḥ || 1:64 ||

1.63 Pāda a should probably be analysed and interpreted as purāṇam (purāṇānām aśīṣisahasrāṇi śatāni ślokaṇi) brahmaṇā kathitam. Alternatively, pāda a may have originally read purāṇāni sahasrāṇi, and then the initial number of verses transmitted by Brahmā is a hundred thousand. That the number refers to the number of *śloka*s transmitted, and not, e.g., the number of lines, is confirmed in 1.66d: vimśatślokaśasrikam.

On the idea that initially there was only one Purāṇa, see, e.g., Rocher 1986, 41ff.

In pāda d, either understand mātariśvā (nom.) as mātariśvānam (acc.) or emend kathitaṃ to kathitaḥ in the sense ‘Mātariśvan was taught,’ echoing 1.39cd: brahmaṇā yat purākhyāto mātariśvā yathā tathā.

Compare this list to a list of twenty-eight *vedavyāsa*s, from Brahmā to Vyāsa Dvaipāyana, in ViṣṇuP 3.3.10–19, taught by Parāśara, the twenty-sixth vyāsa of this list and our text (in the numbering that I add here I follow the translation in Dutt 1896, 178–179): vedavyāsā vyatītā ye aṣṭāvimśati sattama | caturdhā yaiḥ kṛto vedo dvāpareṣu punaḥ punaḥ || dvāpare prathame vyastāḥ svayaṃ vedāḥ [1] svayambhuvā | dvitiye dvāpare caiva vedavyāsaḥ [2] prajāpatiḥ || tritiye [3] cośanā vyāsaś caturthe ca [4] brhaspatiḥ [5] śavitā pañcame vyāsaḥ [6] mṛtyuḥ śaṣṭhe smṛtaḥ prabhūḥ || sap-tame ca [7] tathaivendro [8] vasiṣṭhaś cāṣṭame smṛtaḥ [9] sārasvataś ca navame [10] tridhāmā daśame smṛtaḥ || ekādaśe tu [11] trivṛṣā [12] bhāradvājaś tataḥ param | trayodaśe [13] cāntarikṣo [14] varṇī cāpi caturdaśe || [15] trayyārūṇaḥ pañcadaśe śoḍaśe tu [16] dhananjayaḥ [17] kratuṃjayaḥ saptadaśe [18] ṛṇajyo ’ṣṭādaśe smṛtaḥ || tato vyāso [19] bharadvājō bharadvājāt tu [20] gautamaḥ | gautamād uttamo vyāso [21] haryātmā yo ’bhīdhyāte || atha haryātmano [22] venaḥ smṛto vā-jaśravas tu yaḥ | somaḥ śuśmāyanaś tasmāt [23] ṛṇabindur iti smṛtaḥ || [24] ṛkṣo ’bhūd bhārgavaś tasmād vālmikir yo ’bhīdhyāte | tasmād asmatpitā [25] śaktir vyāsaś tasmād [26] aham mune || [27] jātukarṇo ’bhavan mattaḥ kṛṣṇadvaipāyanaś [28] tataḥ | aṣṭāvimśatir ity ete vedavyāsaḥ purāṇāḥ ||

Another relevant passage is Brahmāṇḍapurāṇa 3.4.58cd–67 (≈ Vāyupurāṇa 2.41.58–67). Note how Ṛṇabindu is, perhaps by mistake, different from Somaśuśma/Śuśmāyana here, but, more importantly, note Amitabuddhi of VSS 1.76 appear at the end of this list: [1] brahmā dadau śāstram idam purāṇam [2] mātariśvane || tasmāc [3] cośanasā prāptaṃ tasmāc cāpi [4] brhaspatiḥ | brhas-patis tu provāca [5] śavitre tadanantaram || śavitā [6] mṛtyave prāha mṛtyuś [7] cendrāya vai punaḥ | indraś cāpi [8] vasiṣṭāya so ’pi [9] sārasvatāya ca || sārasvatas [10] tridhāmne ’tha tridhāmā ca [11] śaradvate | śaradvāṃś tu [12] triviṣṭāya so [13] ’ntarikṣāya dattavān || [14] carṣiṇe cāntarikṣo vai so ’pi [15] trayyārūṇāya ca | trayyārūṇād [16] dhananjayaḥ sa vai prādāt [17] kr-taṇjaye || kṛtaṇjyāt [18] ṛṇaṇjayo [19] bharadvājāya so ’py atha | [20] gautamāya bharadvājāḥ so ’pi [21] niryantare punaḥ || niryantaras tu provāca tathā [22] vājaśravāya vai | sa dadau [23] somaśuśmāya sa cādāt [24] ṛṇabindave || ṛṇabindus tu [25] dakṣāya dakṣaḥ provāca [26] śak-taye | śakteḥ [27] parāśaraś cāpi garbhasthaḥ śrutavān idam || parāśarāj [28] jātukarṇyaś tasmād [29] dvaipāyanaḥ prabhūḥ | dvaipāyanaḥ punaś cāpi [30] mayā prāptaṃ dvijottama || mayā caitat punaḥ proktaṃ [31] putrāyāmitabuddhaye | ity eva vākyam brahmādiguruṇāṃ samudāhṛtam ||

The list of *vedavyāsa*s in Liṅgapurāṇa 1.7.15–18 includes these twenty-five names: Kratu, Satya, Bhārgava, Aṅgiras, Savitr, Mṛtyu, Satakratu, Vasiṣṭha, Sārasvata, Tridhāman, Trivṛta, Śatatejas, Tarakṣu, Āruṇi, Kṛtaṇjaya, Ṛtaṇjayo, Bharadvāja, Gautama, Vācaśravas, Ṛṇabindu, Rūkṣa, Śakti, Jātukarṇya, Kṛṣṇa Dvaipāyano.

Vāyu abridged the verses and then gave [the Purāṇas] to [3] Uśanas. He [Uśanas] also abridged the verses, and [4] Bṛhaspati received them.

*bṛhaspatis tu provāca sūryaṃ triṃśatsahasrikam |
pañcaviṃśatsahasrāṇi mṛtyuṃ prāha divākaraḥ || 1:65 ||*

Bṛhaspati taught 30,000 [verses] to [5] Sūrya [the Sun]. Divākara [= the Sun] taught 25,000 [verses] to [6] Mṛtyu [Death].

*ekaviṃśatsahasrāṇi mṛtyunendrāya kīrtitam |
indreṇāha vasiṣṭhāya viṃśatslokaśahasrikam || 1:66 ||*

Mṛtyu taught 21,000 [verses] to [7] Indra. Indra taught 20,000 verses to [8] Vasiṣṭha.

*aṣṭādaśasahasrāṇi tena sārasvatāya tu |
sārasvatas tridhāmāya sahasradaśa sapta ca || 1:67 ||*

And he[, Vasiṣṭha taught] 18,000 [verses] to [9] Sārasvata. Sārasvata [taught] 17,000 [verses] to [10] Tridhāma[n].

*śoḍaśānāṃ sahasrāṇi bharadvājāya vai tataḥ |
daśa pañcasahasrāṇi trivṛṣāya abhāṣata || 1:68 ||*

[He taught] 16,000 verses to [11] Bharadvāja. [Bharadvāja] taught 15,000 verses to [12] Trivṛṣa.

*caturdaśasahasrāṇi antarikṣāya vai tataḥ |
trayyāruṇiṃ sahasrāṇi trayodaśa abhāṣata || 1:69 ||*

[Trivṛṣa] then [taught] 14,000 verses to [13] Antarikṣa. [Antarikṣa] taught 13,000 [verses] to [14] Trayyāruṇi.

*trayyāruṇis tu viprendro dhanamjayam abhāṣata |
dvādaśāni sahasrāṇi saṃkṣīpya punar abravīt || 1:70 ||*

Trayyāruṇi, the great Brahmin, having abridged them again, taught 12,000 [verses] to [15] Dhanamjaya.

*kṛtaṃjayāya samprāpto dhanamjayamahāmuniḥ |
kṛtaṃjayād dvijaśreṣṭha ṛṇamjayamahātmane || 1:71 ||*

Dhanamjaya, the great sage, handed [them] over to [16] Kṛtaṃjaya. [That re-cension was transmitted] from Kṛtaṃjaya, O best of the twice-born, to [17] noble Ṛṇamjaya.

*ṛṇāñjayāt punaḥ prāpto gautamāya maharṣiṇe |
gautamāc ca bharadvājas tasmād dharyātmanāya tu || 1:72 ||*

1.64 Note the stem form noun pāda twice in this verse and the slightly odd grammatical structure (purāṇaṃ) prāptam uśanasam ('the Purāṇa reached Uśanas'), as opposed to the solution in pāda d (prāptavān).

1.71 Note the odd structure in pādas ab: dhanamjayah kṛtaṃjayāya samprāptaḥ, for a more standard dhanamjayena (purāṇaṃ) samprāpitam kṛtaṃjayam ('the Purāṇa was transmitted to Kṛtaṃjaya').

Then from R̥ṇaṃjaya it was given to [18] Gautama, the great sage, from Gautama to [19] Bharadvāja, from him to [20] Haryātman.

rājaśravās tataḥ prāptaḥ somaśuṣmāya vai tataḥ |
somaśuṣmāt tataḥ prāptas tṛṇabindus tu bho dviḥ || 1:73 ||

Then [21] Rājaśravas received it, then [22] Somaśuṣma. Then from Somaśuṣma [23] Tṛṇabindu received it, O twice-born.

tṛṇabindus tu vṛkṣāya vṛkṣaḥ śaktim abhāṣata |
śaktiḥ parāśaram prāha jatukarṇāya vai tataḥ || 1:74 ||

Tṛṇabindu taught it to [24] Vṛkṣa, Vṛkṣa to [25] Śakti [the father of Parāśara]. Śakti taught it to [26] Parāśara, then [Parāśara] to [27] Jatukarṇa.

dvaipāyanam tu provāca jatukarṇo maharṣiṇam |
romaharṣāya samprāpto dvaipāyanamahāmuniḥ || 1:75 ||

Jatukarṇa taught it to [28] [Vyāsa] Dvaipāyana, the great sage. Dvaipāyana, the great sage, gave it to [29] Romaharṣa.

romaharṣeṇa provāca putrāyāmitabuddhaye |
daśa dve ca sahasrāṇi purāṇam samprakāśitam |
mānuṣāṇām hitārthāya kiṃ bhūyaḥ śrotum icchasi || 1:76 ||

Romaharṣa taught the Purāṇa[s] of 12,000 [verses], now fully revealed, to his son, [30] Amitabuddhi, for the benefit of humankind. What else do you wish to know?

1.72 The structure of pādas ab is as odd as that of 1.71ab. What was intended is probably r̥ṇaṃjaya prāpitam gautamāya. My emendation in pāda d of haryadvatāya to haryātmanāya (for a standard haryātmane) is based on the list of vedavyāsas in ViṣṇuP 3.3.16–17 (see note to 1.63 above).

1.73 The syntax is again slightly odd here. The indentation may have been prāpitam rājaśavasā somaśuṣmāya... tatas tṛṇabindunā prāptam.

1.74 In other list of vedavyāsas, Tṛṇabindu hands the Purāṇas down to R̥kṣa, Rūkṣa or Dakṣa (see note to 1.63 above). vṛkṣa in pāda a is probably a corrupted form. The name Jatukarṇa may be a corrupted form of Jātū- or Jātukarṇa.

1.75 The syntax of pādas cd echoes that of 1.73ab above.

1.76 Romaharṣa is usually considered to be the same person as Sūta, disciple of Vyāsa Dvaipāyana.

In Brahmāṇḍapurāṇa 3.4.67ab (mayā caitat punaḥ proktaṃ putrāyāmitabuddhaye, see note to 1.63 above) Amitabuddhi is clearly the name (or epithet) of Romaharṣa's son. This suggests that the form romaharṣāya in pāda a is a mistake for romaharṣas ca, or similar. MS M is either transmitting an otherwise syntactically problematic reading (romaharṣeṇa) that is more original than that of most other witnesses or M's scribe is trying to correct the text. Supposing the former, in this case I accepted M's reading.

Manuscripts C<sub>02</sub> and M place the iti of the colophon at the end of the last śloka, before the danḍas, thus: icchaṣīti || 0 || (C<sub>02</sub>) and icchasi iti || 0 || (M). Note also that M gives the number of ślokas in this chapter, 77, which is almost exactly the number of verses this critical edition has produced. The scribe of M struggled with eyeskips in this chapter, therefore it seems unlikely that he himself counted the number of verses he had copied and arrived at this very figure. Rather, he copied the number from his exemplar.

॥ iti vṛṣasārasaṃgrāhe brahmāṇḍasaṃkhyā nāmādhyaḃyāḥ prathamah ॥

Here ends the first chapter in the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha called the Description of the Brahmanḍa[s].

[ dvitīyo 'dhyāyah ]
[ Chapter Two ]

vigatarāga uvāca |
śrutam mayā janāgreṇa brahmāṇḍasya tu nirṇayam |
pramāṇam varṇarūpaṁ ca saṁkhyā tasya samāsataḥ || 2:1 ||

Vigatarāga spoke: I have heard the description of the Brahmanḍa from [you,] the best of men, its extent, colour, form and the numbers associated with it, in a concise manner.

śivāṇḍeti tvayā prokto brahmāṇḍālayakīrtitaḥ |
kīdṛśam lakṣaṇam jñeyam pramāṇam tasya vā kati || 2:2 ||

You mentioned a Śivāṇḍa as taught to be the receptacle of the Brahmanḍa. What are its characteristics and how much is its extent?

kasya vā layanam jñeyam pramāṇam vātra vāsinah |
kā vā tatra prajā jñeyā ko vā tatra prajāpatiḥ || 2:3 ||

Whose dwelling place is it? And [what] is the scale of the one[s] who dwell there? What kind of people live there? And who is the ruler (prajāpati) there?

[ śivāṇḍasaṁkhyā — Summary of the Śivāṇḍa ]

anarthayaज्ञा uvāca |
śivāṇḍalakṣaṇam vipra na tvam praṣṭum ihārhasi |
daivatair api kā śaktir jñātum draṣṭum ca tattvataḥ || 2:4 ||

Anarthayaज्ञa spoke: Please don't ask me about the characteristics of the Śivāṇḍa, O Brahmin. How could even the gods have the power to really know and see [the Śivāṇḍa]?

agamyagamanam guhyam guhyād api samuddhṛtam |
na prabhur netaras tatra na daṇḍyo na ca daṇḍakaḥ || 2:5 ||

The path leading to it is not to be trodden, it is more secret than any secret, and it is lofty. There is no master or servant [lit. the opposite] there, nobody to be punished and no punisher.

2.1 It is unlikely that janāgreṇa picks up mayā ('by me, the best of men'), instead, I supposed that this instrumental stands for the ablative or should be understood as 'through the best of man.'

2.2 The location where Śivāṇḍa was mentioned is verse 1.4.0ab above.

2.3 vā layanam in pāda a may stand for vā-ālayanam, in the sense of vā-ālayam. The questions in this verse are most probably answered in verses 2.26–33, and if my interpretation is correct there, pramāṇam vātra vāsinah (understand vāsinām) and pāda c should refer to the number of inhabitants in the five regions of Īśāna, Tatpuruṣa etc., who are referred to here in pādas a and possibly d.

2.5 My emendation to samuddhṛtam in pāda b is not fully satisfactory, but the readings transmitted in the witnesses are problematic. M, a MS not collated for this chapter, gives a confusing reading: sa[mur]dhni[da]m. I doubt if E's sa[mr]ddhidam ('yielding success') is the correct reading.

na satyo nānṛtas tatra suśilo no duḥśilavān |

nānṛjur na ca dambhitvaṃ na tṛṣṇā na ca īrṣyatā || 2:6 ||

There are no truthful or untruthful people there, no moral or immoral people, no crooked people, no hypocrisy, no thirst or envy.

na krodho na ca lobho 'sti na māno 'sti na sūyakaḥ |

īrṣyā dveṣo na tatrāsti na śaṭho na ca matsaraḥ || 2:7 ||

There is no anger or desire there, no arrogance or discontent ([a]sūyaka), no envy or hatred, no cheaters and no jealousy.

na vyādhir na jarā tatra na śoko 'sti na viklavaḥ |

nādhamaḥ puruṣas tatra nottamo na ca madhyamaḥ || 2:8 ||

There is no disease, no aging, no grief and no agitation there, there are no inferior or superior people and there is nobody in-between.

notkṛṣṭo mānavas tasmin striyaś caiva śivālaye |

na nindā na praśaṃsāsti matsarī piśuno na ca || 2:9 ||

There are no privileged men or women there in Śiva's abode, no reproach or praise, no selfish or treacherous people.

garvadarpaṃ na tatrāsti krūramāyādikaṃ tathā |

yācamāno na tatrāsti dātā caiva na vidyate || 2:10 ||

There is no pride or arrogance there, no cruelty or trickery and so on. There are no beggars and no donors there.

anarthī vraja tatrasthaḥ kalpavṛkṣasamāśritaḥ |

na karma nāpriyas tatra na kaliḥ kalaho na ca || 2:11 ||

Go without material desires (anarthin), being there you'll be resting under a wishing tree. There is no karma there and no enemy. No Kali age is there and there is no fighting.

dvāparo na ca na tretā kṛtaṃ cāpi na vidyate |

manvantaraṃ na tatrāsti kalpaś caiva na vidyate || 2:12 ||

There is no Dvāpara age or Tretā or Kṛta. There are no manvantaras there and no kalpas.

āhūtasamplavaṃ nāsti brahmarātridinaṃ tathā |

Perhaps samudāhṛtam ('declared, talked about as') was meant. It is not inconceivable that C<sub>02</sub>'s (and M's) agamyagahanam ('it is inaccessible because of its depth') is original and it is to be contrasted with samuddhṛtam ('lofty'). One also wonders if guhād could be the right reading, and in what sense, in pāda b.

2.6 Strictly speaking duḥśilavān in pāda b is unmetrical; understand or pronounce duśilavān. īrṣyatā (for īrṣyā, see 2.7a) is a form rarely attested.

2.7 na sūyakaḥ in pāda b stands for na asūyaka metri causa.

2.11 Note the term anarti in pāda a: it might have something to do with non-material sacrifice (anarthayajña), the topic of chapter II. vraja in pāda a is suspect.

2.12 On manvantaras and kalpas, see 1.23–24 above.

na janmamaraṇaṃ tatra āpadaṃ nāpnuyāt kvacit || 2:13 ||

No universal floods of destruction come, and there are no days and nights of Brahmā. There is no birth and death there and one never encounters catastrophes.

na cāśāpāśabaddho 'sti rāgamohaṃ na vidyate |

na devā nāsurās tatra na yakṣoragarākṣasāḥ || 2:14 ||

Nobody is tied to the noose of hope and there is no passion or delusion. There are no gods and demons there and no Yakṣas, Serpents and Rākṣasas.

na bhūtā na piśācās ca gandharvā ṛṣayas tathā |

tārāgrahaṃ na tatrāsti nāgakiṃnaragāruḍaṃ || 2:15 ||

There are no Ghosts nor Piśācas, no Gandharvas and no Ṛṣis. There are no planets there, no Nāgas, Kiṃnaras or Garuḍa-like creatures.

na japo nāhnikas tatra nāgnihotrī na yajñakṛt |

na vrataṃ na tapaś caiva na tiryannarakaṃ tathā || 2:16 ||

There are no recitations or daily rituals there, nobody performs the Agnihotra and there are no sacrificers. There are no religious observances and no austerities and no 'animal hell'.

tasyeśānasya devasya aiśvaryaguṇavistaram |

api varṣāśatenāpi śakyaṃ vaktuṃ na kenacit || 2:17 ||

Nobody would be able to tell the extent of the qualities of the god Īśāna's powers, not even in a hundred years.

harecchāprabhavāḥ sarve paryāyeṇa bravīmi te |

devamānuṣavarjyāni vṛkṣagulmalatādayaḥ || 2:18 ||

All are born by Hara's wish. I shall teach [them to] you one by one, excluding gods and people, starting with the trees, the bushes and creepers.

2.13 ābhūtasamplava for the more widely attested form ābhūtasamplava occurs, e.g., in some MSS transmitting ŚDhŚ 10.77 and 81 (see Bisschop, Kafle, & Kiss forthcoming).

2.16 The phrase of tiryannaraka appears in MBh 3.181.18ab: aśubhaiḥ karmabhiḥ pāpās tiryān-narakagāmināḥ. Here Ganguli 1883–1896 translates tiryān separately as 'in a crooked way,' but I suspect that in the VSS tiryannaraka has more to do with tiraggati, being reduced to animal existence, being reborn as an animal or entering a hell in animal form. Cf. MBh 13.134.057 (CHECK): nṛṣu janma labhante ye karmaṇā madhyamāḥ smṛtāḥ | tiryāninarakagantāro hy adhamās te narādhamāḥ ||, and Umāmahesvarasaṃvāda 6.1: avamanyanti ye viprān sarvaloke namaskṛtān | narakaṃ jānti te sarve tiryagyonim vrajanti ca ||. I suspect that nātirya° in the witnesses is only a scribal mistake for na tiryā°.

2.17 My translation of aiśvaryaguṇa° is tentative. It could be taken as a dvandva compound (e.g. 'supremacy and qualities'). The expression sarva° or aṣṭaiśvaryaguṇopeta occurs frequently, e.g. in SivP 7.2.8.28ab and SkandaP 55.30cd, and ŚDhU 2.6, 79, 125, 127, with aiśvaryā most probably referring to the eight siddhis aṇiman, laghiman etc. De Simini (2016a, 386), e.g., translates sarvaiśvaryaguṇopetaḥ in ŚDhU 2.127 as 'endowed with all the qualities of lordship.'

2.18 Note the gender confusion in this verse, and the way I take pāda a as a separate statement to avoid a further confusion of case.

parārdhadvigūṇotsedho vistāraś ca tathāvidhaḥ |
anekākārapuṣpāṇi phalāni ca manoharam || 2:19 ||

The height [of the Śivāṇḍa] is two parārdhas, and [its] width is the same.
 There are lovely flowers of different forms [there] and also lovely fruits.

anye kāñcanavṛkṣāṇi maṇivṛkṣāṇy athāpare |
pravālamaniṣaṇḍāś ca padmarāgaruhāṇi ca || 2:20 ||

There are also golden trees and also gem trees, coral gem thickets and ruby plants.

svādumūlaphalāḥ skandhalatāviṭapapādapāḥ |
kāmarūpās ca te sarve kāmādāḥ kāmabhāṣiṇaḥ || 2:21 ||

There are tasty roots and fruits and trees with creepers on their twigs. All are shape-shifters and they fulfill man's desires and they whisper seductively.

tatra vipra prajāḥ sarve anantaguṇasāgarāḥ |
tulyarūpabalāḥ sarve sūryāyutasamaprabhāḥ || 2:22 ||

There [in the Śivāṇḍa], O Brahmin, all the subjects are the oceans of endless virtues. They are all equally beautiful and strong, and they shine like millions of suns.

parārdhadvayavistāraṃ parārdhadvayam āyatam |
parārdhadvayavikṣepā yojanānām dvijottama || 2:23 ||

[The Śivāṇḍa] is two parārdha long and two parārdha wide, and two parārdha yojanas is its extension, O great Brahmin.

aiśvaryatvaṃ na saṃkhyāsti balaśaktiś ca bho dvija |
adhordhvo na ca saṃkhyāsti na tiryāṇ caiti kaścana || 2:24 ||

[Īśāna's] powers cannot be expressed by numbers, neither can [His] powerfulness, O twice-born. [In fact, the extension in the Śivāṇḍa] downwards and upwards cannot be expressed by numbers, neither can its horizontal extension.

śivāṇḍasya ca vistāraṃ āyāmaṃ ca na vedmy aham |
bhogam akṣaya tatraiva janmamṛtyur na vidyate || 2:25 ||

[In reality,] I do not know the length and width of the Śivāṇḍa. Enjoyment is

2.19 I understand pāda a as parārdhadvigūṇa utsedho, i.e. as an example of double sandhi. On the other hand, °sedho is only my conjecture, and may refer to something else than the Śivāṇḍa. Note the number confusion in pāda d, and also that two parārdhas is one para, the highest possible number according to verses 1.35–36 above. The number may refer to any unit of length, but 2.23 below suggests that it is yojanas.

2.20 Note that both anye and apare here pick up neuter nouns (gender confusion).

2.21 My conjectures in pādas ab result in a compound split at the caesura, which may have been the reason why the line got corrupted.

2.23 I understand pādas cd, tentatively, as vikṣepaṃ parārdhadvayaṃ yojanānām

2.24 This line is a reply to 2.17b.

undecaying there, and there is no birth or death there.

śivāṇḍamadhyam āśritya gokṣīrasadṛśaprabhāḥ |
parārdhaparakoṭīnām īśānānām smṛtālayaḥ || 2:26 ||

In the centre of the Śivāṇḍa, [creatures] shine like cow's milk. [It is] said to be the region (ālaya) of the one and a half para crore Īśānas.

bālasūryaprabhāḥ sarve jñeyās tatpuruṣālaye |
parārdhaparakoṭīnām pūrvasyām diśam āśritāḥ || 2:27 ||

They are all like the rising sun in the region of Tatpuruṣa. They are one and a half para crore [in number], living in the east.

bhinnāñjanaprabhāḥ sarve dakṣiṇām diśam āśritāḥ |
parārdhaparakoṭīnām aghorālayam āśritāḥ || 2:28 ||

Everybody is like collyrium in the southern direction, in the region of Aghora, one and a half para crore [in number].

kundenduhimaśailābhāḥ pāścimām diśam āśritāḥ |
parārdhaparakoṭīnām sadya-m-iṣṭālayaḥ smṛtaḥ || 2:29 ||

In the western direction, they are like jasmine, the moon, like snowy rocks. Sadyojāta's lovely region is [home] to one and a half para crore [people].

kuṅkumodakasamkāśā uttarām diśam āśritāḥ |
parārdhaparakoṭīnām vāmadevālayaḥ smṛtaḥ || 2:30 ||

In the northern direction, they are like saffron in water. Vāmadeva's region is [home] to one and a half para crore [people].

īśānasya kalāḥ pañca vaktrasyāpi catuṣ kalāḥ |
aghorasya kalā aṣṭau vāmadevās trayodaśa || 2:31 ||

2.25 Pāda c is transmitted in an unmetrical form and with a gender problem in the witnesses (bhogam akṣayas), hence my emendation using a stem form noun, a phenomenon frequently seen in this text. But note that bhoga is normally masculine; there might be a hiatus-filler in-between: bhoga-m-akṣaya).

2.26 Note the stem form smṛta in pāda d (cf. 2.29d). I understand īśānānām as aiśānānām. Īśāna is traditionally the upward-looking face of Śiva, his region is positioned in the centre here. Note that the somewhat cryptic third pādas here and in the coming verses may or may not refer to the number of people living in the given region. They may tell us about the extent of the given region, although the numbers are much higher than what one would expect after verse 2.23.

2.27 The genitive of parārdhaparakoṭīnām is baffling here and in the coming verses, but I suspect that again the expression gives the number of subjects living in the given region. pūrvasyām is meant to mean pūrvām (cf. dakṣiṇām, pāścimām, and uttarām in the next verses); note how K<sub>10</sub> tries to save the construction by reading diśi.

This verse conforms to the traditional view that Śiva's Tatpuruṣa-face is looking to the east.

2.28 Note the Aiśa form diśim in C<sub>45</sub>, and that Aghora is indeed usually south-facing.

2.29 Note the Aiśa form diśim in K<sub>7</sub> in pāda b. In pāda d, we may presuppose the presence of a sandhi-bridge: sadya-m-iṣṭālayaḥ. Sadyojāta is traditionally associated with the western direction.

2.30 Note the Aiśa form diśim in C<sub>94</sub> in pāda b. Vāmadeva is traditionally associated with the western direction.

Īśāna has five parts (kalā), [his Tatpuruṣa] face has four. Aghora has eight, and there are thirteen Vāmadeva[-kalā]s.

sadyaś cāṣṭau kalā jñeyāḥ saṃsārārṇavatāarakāḥ |
aṣṭatrimṣat kalā hy etāḥ kīrtitā dvijasattama || 2:32 ||

Sadyojāta has eight parts. These parts, altogether thirty-eight, which liberate us from the ocean of existence, have been taught, O truest Brahmin.

saṃkhyā varṇā diśaś caiva ekaikasya prthak prthak |
pūrvoktena vidhānena bodhavyās tattvacintakaiḥ || 2:33 ||

Those who explore the truth should know the numbers, the colours and directions associated with each one [of Śiva's faces] in the way taught above.

śivāṇḍagamanākṛṣṭyā śivayogaṃ sadābhyaset |
śivayogaṃ vinā vipra tatra gantum na śakyate || 2:34 ||

If one has the intention to go to the Śivāṇḍa, one should practise Śiva-yoga regularly. Without Śiva-yoga, O Brahmin, it is impossible to go there.

aśvamedhādīyajñānām koṭyāyutaśatāni ca |
kṛcchrāditapa sarvāṇi kṛtvā kalpaśatāni ca |
tatra gantum na śakyeta devair api tapodhana || 2:35 ||

[Even] by [performing] millions of sacrifices such as the Aśvamedha, or by performing all the difficult austerities for a hundred kalpas, it is impossible to get there even for the gods, O great ascetic.

gaṅgādisarvatīrtheṣu snātvā taptvā ca vai punaḥ |
tatra gantum na śakyeta ṛṣibhir vā mahātmabhiḥ || 2:36 ||

By [merely] bathing and performing austerities at all the sacred places such as the Gaṅgā, even the honorable Ṛṣis will not be able to get there.

saptadvīpasamudrāṇi ratnapūrṇāni bho dvija |
dattvā vā vedaviduṣe śraddhābhaktisamanvitāḥ |
tatra gantum na śakyeta vinā dhyānena niścayaḥ || 2:37 ||

Or [even] by donating the oceans of the seven islands with all their gems to a Veda expert, O Brahmin, with faith and devotion, one will not be able to go there without meditation. [This is a] certainty.

svadehān māṃsam uddhṛtya dattvārthibhyaś ca niścayāt |
svadāraputrasarvasvaṃ śiro 'rthibhyaś ca yo dadet |
na tatra gantum śakyeta anyair vāpi suduṣkaraiḥ || 2:38 ||

2.31 Note how vaktrasya should refer to Śiva's Tatpuruṣa-face, given that the text lists Śiva's five faces: Īśāna, Tatpuruṣa, Aghora, Vāmadeva, Sadyojāta.

2.32 Note sadyaś in pāda a for sadyasāś or sadyojātasya.

2.34 ākṛṣṭyā in pāda a might be corrupt.

2.35 Understand kṛcchrāditapa sarvāṇi as kṛcchrāditapāṃsi sarvāṇi. It can be considered an instance of the use of a stem form noun.

He who destroys his own body and gives it without hesitation to those who are in need of it, or he who gives away his wife, his son and his possessions or his own head to those in need, or he who [performs] other difficult deeds, will not be able to go there [by merely doing these].

*yajñatīrthatapodānavedādhyāyanapārāgaḥ |
brahmāṇḍāntasya bhogāṃs tu bhuñkte kālavaśānugaḥ || 2:39 ||*

He who has completed the sacrifices, the pilgrimages, the austerities, the donations, the study of the Vedas, will experience those enjoyments that the Brahmāṇḍa offers, still being subject to time and death.

*kālena samapreṣyeṇa dharmo yāti parikṣayam |
alātacakravat sarvaṃ kālo yāti paribhraman |
traikālyakalanāt kālas tena kālaḥ prakīrtitaḥ || 2:40 ||*

Dharma decays tossed forward by time. Time flies moving everything round and round like a circle of burning coal. Time is called kāla because of the waves (kalana) of the three divisions of time [past, present, future].

|| iti vṛṣasārasaṃgrāhe śivāṇḍasaṃkhyā nāmādhyāyo dvitīyaḥ ||

Here ends the second chapter in the Vṛṣasārasaṃgrāha called the Description of the Śivāṇḍa.

2.40 Notice the muta cum liquida licence in pāda a: samapre° renders as short-short-long. I take samapreṣyena as if it read sampreṣito, picking up dharmo; otherwise it is difficult to make sense of it. As Kenji Takahashi pointed out to me, Fitzgerald 2012 is a good starting point to understand the implication of alātacakra, ‘a single, rapidly twirled torch creat[ing] the illusion of an apparently real, continuous circle’ (ibid., p. 777). The function of sarvaṃ in pāda a becomes clear only if we understand paribhraman in a causative sense (for paribhramayan). One cannot help noticing that this verse would be in a more fitting context after verse 1.31, at the end of a section on kāla. On the other hand, it leads us to the next topic, Dharma, smoothly.

[ Chapter Three ]

[ dharmappravacanam —
An Exposition of Dharma ]

vigatarāga uvāca |
kimarthaṃ dharmam ity āhuḥ katimūrtiś ca kīrtiyate |
katipādavr̥ṣo jñeyo gatis tasya kati smṛtāḥ || 3:1 ||

Vigatarāga spoke: Why do they call it Dharma? And how many embodiments (mūrti) is he known to have? He is known as a bull: how many legs does it/he have? How many are his paths?

kautūhalaṃ mamotpannam saṃśayaṃ chindhi tattvataḥ |
kasya putro munīśreṣṭha prajāś tasya kati smṛtāḥ || 3:2 ||

I have become curious [about these questions]. Put an end to my doubts for good. Whose son is [Dharma], O best of sages? How many children does he have?

anarthayaājña uvāca |
dhṛtir ity eṣa dhātur vai paryāyah parikīrtitah |
ādhāraṇān mahattvāc ca dharma ity abhidhīyate || 3:3 ||

Anarthayaājña spoke: Well, dhṛti ('firmness') is [of the same] verbal root [as dharma], and is said to be [its] synonym. It is called dharma because it supports (āDHĀraṇa) and because it is great (MAhattva).

3.1 For the correct interpretation of pāda a, namely to decide whether these questions focus on the bull of Dharma or Dharma itself/himself, see the end of the previous chapter, where dharma was mentioned (2.4ob), and to which the present verse is a reaction; see also MBh 12.110.10–11: prab-
hāvārthāya bhūtānāṃ dharmappravacanam kṛtam | yat syād abhimsāsaṃyuktam sa dharma iti
niścayaḥ || dhāraṇād dharma ity āhur dharmeṇa vidhṛtāḥ prajāḥ | yat syād dhāraṇasaṃyuktam
sa dharma iti niścayaḥ || Note the similarities of MBh this passage with this chapter: the phrase dharma ity āhur, the fact that the present chapter from verse 18 on is actually a chapter on abhimsā, and that the etimological explanation involves the word [ā]dhāraṇa in both cases. These lead me to think that in *pāda*s ab of this verse in the VSS, it is Dharma that is the focus of the inquiry and not the bull.

Understand pāda d as gatayas tasya kati smṛtāḥ. I have accepted smṛtāḥ because this plural signals that gatis is meant to be plural, similarly to what happens in 3.6cd (tasya patnī... mahāb- hāgāḥ). The use of the singular in a context of numbers and quantities is one of the hallmarks of the language of the VSS, see p. CHECK.

On Dharma as a bull, see Introduction, pp. CHECK.

3.3 For similar Purāṇic passages on the etymology of dharma, see the apparatus to this verse.
The insertion in my translation '[of the same]' solves the problem of a noun (dhṛti) seemingly being considered a verbal root (dhātu) here. I owe thanks to Judit Törzsök for this interpretation.
For similar passages with nominal stems apparently being treated as dhātus, see e.g. VāyuP 3.17cd:
bhāvya ity eṣa dhātur vai bhāvye kāle vibhāvyaṭe; VāyuP 3.19cd (= BrahmanḍaP 1.38.21ab): nātha ity eṣa dhātur vai dhātujñaiḥ pālāne smṛtāḥ; LiṅP 2.9.19: bhaja ity eṣa dhātur vai sevāyāṃ parikīr-
titaḥ

śrutismṛtidvayor mūrtiś catuspādavr̥ṣaḥ sthitaḥ |
caturāśrama yo dharmah kīrtitāni maṇiṣibhiḥ || 3:4 ||

The four-legged Bull is the embodiment of both Śruti and Smṛti. It is Dharma, as made up of the four āśramas.

gatiś ca pañca vijñeyāḥ śṛṇu dharmasya bho dvija |
devamānuṣatiryaṃ ca narakasthāvarādayaḥ || 3:5 ||

And the paths of Dharma are five. Listen, O Brahmin: [existence as] gods, men, animals, [existence in] hell and [as] immovable things [such as plants and rocks] etc.

brahmaṇo hṛdayaṃ bhittvā jāto dharmah sanātanaḥ |
tasya patnī mahābhāgā trayodaśa sumadhyamāḥ || 3:6 ||

Eternal Dharma was born after splitting Brahmā's heart. He has beautiful wives, thirteen in number, with nice waists.

dakṣakanyā viśālākṣī śraddhādyāḥ sumanoharāḥ |
tasya putrāś ca pautrāś ca anakāś ca babhūva ha |
eṣa dharmanisargo 'yaṃ kiṃ bhūyaḥ śrotum icchasi || 3:7 ||

They are Dakṣa's daughters, [called] Śraddhā and so on. They have huge eyes and they are beautiful. Numerous sons and grandsons were born to him. This is the emergence of Dharma. What more do you wish to hear?

3.4 A similar image of the legs of the Bull of Dharma being the four (and not three, at least according to Olivelle 1993, 55 and Ganguli 1883–1896, Śāntiparvan CCLXX) āśramas is hinted at MBh 12.262.19–21: dharmam ekaṃ catuspādam āśritās te naraṣabhāḥ | taṃ santo vidhivat prāpya gacchanti paramāṃ gatim || gr̥hebhya eva niṣkrāmya vanam anye samāśritāḥ | gr̥ham evābhiṣaṃśritya tato 'nye brahmacāriṇaḥ || dharmam etaṃ catuspādam āśramaṃ brāhmaṇā viduḥ | ānantaṃ brahmaṇaḥ sthānaṃ brāhmaṇā nāma niścayaḥ ||. On the more frequently quoted interpretation of the four legs, see Olivelle 1993, 235, a translation of Manu 1.81–82: 'Dharma and truth possess all four feet and are whole during the Kṛta yuga, and people did not obtain anything unrighteously (adharmaṇa). By obtaining, however, dharmā has lost one foot during each of the other yugas and righteousness (dharma) likewise has diminished by one quarter due to theft, falsehood, and deceit. (MDh 1.81–82).' Understand pādas c and d as catvāri āśramāṇi kīrtitāni dharmo maṇiṣibhiḥ or yo dharmah kīrtitaś caturāśramāṇi maṇiṣibhiḥ or yo dharmas caturāśramah kīrtito maṇiṣibhiḥ. Judit Törzsök suggested that caturāśrama and dharmah may be interpreted as a compound here.

3.5 Note the use of the singular next to numbers in pāda a, as in 3.1d, and that vijñeyāḥ is an emendation from vijñeyah following the logic of 3.1d. tirya seems to be an acceptable nominal stem in this text for tiryañc. See, e.g., 4.6a: devamānuṣatiryeṣu. °ādayaḥ in pāda d seems superfluous.

3.6 Note the use of the singular in pādas cd. I have left sumadhyamāḥ as the manuscripts transmit it: it signals the presence of the plural. And consider correcting mahābhāgā to mahābhāgās. In sum, understand tasya patnyo mahābhāgās trayodaśa sumadhyamāḥ.

3.7 śraddhādyāḥ in pāda b is an attractive lectio difficilior ('they were rich in faith/devotion'), but I have finally decided to accept the easier and better-attested śraddhādyāḥ. Again, I have chosen/applied the plural forms °ādyāḥ and sumanoharāḥ in pāda b to hint at the fact that the presence of the plural is to be preferred here; thus only viśālākṣī is problematic. As patnī in the previous verse, it should be treated as a plural. Note the use of the singular for the plural also in pādas cd, especially babhūva ha for babhūvuh (babhūva ha perhaps being a phonetic

vigatarāga uvāca |

dharmapatnī viśeṣeṇa putras tābhyah pṛthak pṛthak |

śrotum icchāmi tattvena kathayasva tapodhana || 3:8 ||

Vigatarāga spoke: I would like to hear about Dharma's wives truly and about each one of the sons born to them. Teach me, O great ascetic.

anarthayajña uvāca |

śraddhā lakṣmī dhṛti tuṣṭi puṣṭi medhā kriyā lajjā |

buddhi śānti vapuḥ kīrti siddhi prasūtisambhavāḥ || 3:9 ||

Anarthayajña spoke: [Dharma's wives are] [1] Śraddhā ('Faith'), [2] Lakṣmī ('Prosperity'), [3] Dhṛti ('Resolution'), [4] Tuṣṭi ('Satisfaction'), [5] Puṣṭi ('Growth'), [6] Medhā ('Wisdom'), [7] Kriyā ('Labour'), [8] Lajjā ('Modesty'), [9] Buddhi ('Intelligence'), [10] Śānti ('Tranquillity'), [11] Vapus ('Beauty'), [12] Kīrti ('Fame'), [13] Siddhi ('Success'), [all] born to Prasūti [Dakṣa's wife].

śraddhā kāmah suto jāto darpo lakṣmīsutaḥ smṛtaḥ |

dhṛtyas tu niyamaḥ putraḥ saṃtoṣa tuṣṭijaḥ smṛtaḥ || 3:10 ||

Śraddhā's son is Kāma ('Desire'). Darpa ('Pride') is said to be Lakṣmī's son. Dhṛti's son is Niyama ('Rule'). Saṃtoṣa ('Satisfaction') is Tuṣṭi's son.

puṣṭyā lābhaḥ suto jāto medhāputraḥ śrutas tathā |

kriyāyās tv abhavat putro daṇḍaḥ samaya eva ca || 3:11 ||

To Puṣṭi was born a son [called] Lābha ('Profit'). Medhā's son is Śruta ('Sacred and metrically 'adjusted' equivalent, so to say, of babhūvuh).

3.8 I have emended tebhyah to the correct feminine form tābhyah because I suspect that it is only the result of some early confusion brought about by putras, although tebhyah might be original. Note again the use of the singular (nominative) for the plural (accusative) in pādas ab. Alternatively, emend dharmapatnī to dharmapatnīr (plural accusative) and putras to putrān to make them work with śrotum icchāmi.

3.9 Note how lajjā in pāda b makes the line unmetrical.

For Dharma's thirteen wives and their sons, see, e.g., LiñP 1.5.34–37 (note the similarity between the first line and VSS 3.6cd–7ab above): dharmasya patnyah śraddhādyāḥ kīrtitā vai trayo-daśa | tāsu dharmaprajāṃ vakṣye yathākramam anuttamam || kāmo darpo 'tha niyamaḥ saṃtoṣo lobha eva ca | śrutas tu daṇḍaḥ samayo bodhaś caiva mahādyutiḥ || apramādaś ca vinayo vyavasāyo dvijottamāḥ | kṣemaṃ sukhaṃ yaśaś caiva dharmaputrāś ca tāsu vai || dharmasya vai kriyāyāṃ tu daṇḍaḥ samaya eva ca | apramādas tathā bodho buddher dharmasya tau sutau ||

prasūtisambhavāḥ in pāda d is a rather bold conjecture that can be supported by two facts: firstly, the readings of the manuscripts are difficult to make sense of and thus are probably corrupt; secondly, a corruption from the name Prasūti, traditionally the name of Dakṣa's wife, to ābhūti is relatively easily to explain, sū and bhū being close enough in some scripts (e.g. in C<sub>9.4</sub>) to cause confusion. Another option would be to accept Ābhūti as the name of Dakṣa's wife. For Prasūti being Dakṣa's wife in other sources, see, e.g., LiñP 1.5.20–21 (but also note the presence of the name Sambhūti): prasūtiḥ suśuve dakṣac caturviṃśatikanyakāḥ | śraddhāṃ lakṣmīm dhṛtiṃ puṣṭiṃ tuṣṭiṃ medhāṃ kriyāṃ tathā || buddhi lajjāṃ vapuḥ śāntiṃ siddhiṃ kīrtiṃ mahātapāḥ | khyātiṃ śāntiś ca sambhūtiṃ smṛtiṃ pritiṃ kṣamāṃ tathā ||

3.10 Understand śraddhā as a stem form noun for śraddhāyāḥ (gen./abl., cf. 3.11a). Alternatively, take śraddhā and suto as elements of a split compound, and understand śraddhāsuto jātaḥ kāmah.

Knowledge'). Kriyā's sons are Daṇḍa ('Punishment') and Samaya ('Law').

lajjāyā vinayaḥ putro buddhyā bodhaḥ sutaḥ smṛtaḥ |
lajjāyāḥ sudhiyaḥ putra apramādaś ca tāv ubhau || 3:12 ||

Lajjā's son is Vinaya ('Discipline'), Buddhi's son is Bodha ('Intelligence').
 Lajjā has two [more] sons: Sudhiya/[Sudhī] ('Wise') and Apramāda ('Cautiousness').

kṣemaḥ śāntisuto vindyād vyavasāyo vapuḥ sutaḥ |
yaśaḥ kīrtisuto jñeyaḥ sukhaṁ siddher vyajāyata |
svāyambhuve 'ntare tv āsan kīrtitā dharmasūnavah || 3:13 ||

Kṣema ('Peace') is to be known as Śānti's son, Vyavasāya ('Resolution') is Vapu's son. Yaśas ('Fame') is Kīrti's son, Sukha ('Joy') was born to Siddhi.
 [This is how] the sons of Dharma in the [manvantara] era of Svāyambhuva [Manu] were known.

vigatarāga uvāca |
mūrtidvayaṁ kathaṁ dharmaṁ kathayasva tapodhana |
kautūhalaṁ atīvaṁ me kartaya jñānasamśayaṁ || 3:14 ||

Vigatarāga spoke: How come Dharma has two embodiments? Tell me, O great ascetic. I am extremely intrigued. Cut my doubts concerning [this] knowledge.

śrutismṛtidvayor mūrtir dharmasya parikīrtitā |

3.11 I have emended abhayaḥ to abhavat in pāda c, following the relevant line in the KūrmP cited above (kriyāyāś cābhavat putro daṇḍaḥ samaya eva ca) and also LiñP 1.5.37 quoted in the apparatus to this verse, allotting only two sons to Kriyā. Thus I don't think that Kriyā is supposed to have a son called Abhaya ('Freedom from danger'; BhāgP 4.1.50ab claims that Dayā had a son called Abhaya: śraddhāsūta śubhaṁ maitrī prasādam abhayaṁ dayā). Nevertheless, in a number of sources Kriyā actually has three sons, see, e.g., ViṣṇuP 1.7.26ab, where they are named as Daṇḍa, Naya and Vinaya: medhā śrutaṁ kriyā daṇḍam nayaṁ vinayaṁ eva ca. Perhaps read kriyāyās tu nayaḥ putro in pāda c? Compare VāyuP 1.10.34cd (kriyāyās tu nayaḥ prokto daṇḍaḥ samaya eva ca) with BrahmanḍaP 1.9.60ab (kriyāyās tanayau proktau damaś ca śama eva ca).

3.12 In a very similar passages in KūrmP 1.8.20 ff., Apramāda is Buddhi's son and Lajjā has only one son, Vinaya. In the above verse (VSS 3.12), sudhiyaḥ (for sudhīḥ) may only be qualifying apramāda, thus Lajjā may have two sons: Vinaya and the wise Apramāda. Alternatively, pādas cd might be a extra line inserted accidentally.

3.13 Note that sukhaṁ in pāda d is probably meant to be masculine (sukhaḥ), but e.g. in the KūrmP passage quoted above it is also neuter. For the emendation in pāda e, see MatsP 9.2cd: yāmā nāma purā devā āsan svāyambhuvāntare, and BhāgP 6.4.1: devāsuraṇṇām sargo nāgānām mṛgapakṣiṇām | sāmāsikas tvayā prokto yas tu svāyambhuve 'ntare ||.

3.14 Note dharma as a neuter noun and the form atīvaṁ for atīva metri causa. My emendation from kīrtaya ('declare') to kartaya ('cut') was influenced by the combination of chindhi and saṁśaya, often with kautūhala, elsewhere in the VSS: 3.2ab: kautūhalaṁ mamotpannam saṁśayaṁ chindhi tattvataḥ; 10.10cd: kautūhalaṁ mahaj jātaṁ chindhi saṁśayakāraṁ; 15.2ab: etat kautūhalaṁ chindhi saṁśayaṁ parameśvara. The reading kīrtaya may have been the result of the influence of kīrtitā in 3.13b above (De Simini's observation).

dārāgnihostrasambandham ijjā śrautasya lakṣaṇam |
smārto varṇāśramācāro yamaś ca niyamair yutaḥ || 3:15 ||

Anarthayañña spoke: Dharma's embodiment is said to consist of Śruti and Smṛti. The characteristics of the Śrauta [tradition] are an association with a wife [i.e. marriage] and with the fire ritual, and sacrifice. The Smārta [tradition] [focuses on] the conduct (ācāra) of the classes (varṇa) and life-stages (āśrama) which is connected to rules and regulations (yama-niyama).

[ yamaniyamabhedah — Yama and Niyama rules ]

yamaś ca niyamaś caiva dvayor bhedam ataḥ śṛṇu |
ahiṃsā satyam asteyam ānṛśaṃsyam damo ghrṇā |
dhanyāpramādo mādhyam ārjavam ca yamā daśa || 3:16 ||

Now hear the classification of both the yama and niyama rules.
Non-violence, truthfulness, not stealing, absence of hostility, self-restraint, taboos, virtue, carefulness, charm, honesty: these are the ten yamas.

ekaikasya punaḥ pañcabhedam āhur manīṣiṇaḥ |
ahiṃsādi pravakṣyāmi śṛṇuṣvāvahito dvija || 3:17 ||

The wise say that there are five subclasses to each. I shall teach you about non-violence and the other [yama-rules]. Listen carefully, O twice-born.

[ yameṣv ahiṃsā (1) —
The first Yama-rule: Non-violence ]
[ pañcavidhā hiṃsā —

3.15 The reading °dvayī in K<sub>7</sub> in pāda a is attractive, but as Judit Törzsök has pointed out to me, it is more likely that the slightly less convincing but widespread variant °dvayor is original.

As for Dharma being based on śruti and smṛti, see, e.g., Manu 2.10: śrutiś tu vedo vijñeyo dharmasāstraṃ tu vai smṛtiḥ | te sarvārtheṣv amīmāṃsyē tābhyāṃ dharmo hi nirbabhau ||. In Olivelle's translation (Olivelle 2005, 94): “Scripture” should be recognized as “Veda,” and “tradition” as “Law Treatise.” These two should never be called into question in any matter, for it is from them that the Law shines forth.’

There may be a hiatus filler in pādas cd: °sambandha-m-ijjā for °sambandha ijjā.

To state that the Smārta tradition is connected to yamas and niyamas and the āśramas and then to discuss these at length (principally in chapters 3–8 and 11) can be seen as a clear self-identification with the Smārta tradition.

3.16 Pāda a should be understood as yamaniyamayoś caiva, but the author of this line may have tried to avoid the metrical fault of having two short syllables in the second and third positions. Note that this is the beginning of a long section in our text that describes the yama-niyama rules, reaching up to the end of chapter eight. The title given in the colophon of the next chapter, chapter four, namely yamavibhāga, would fit this locus better than the beginning of that chapter, which commences with a discussion on the second of the yamas, satya. Note how all witnesses read mādhūrya in pāda e instead of mādhurya. The former may have been acceptable originally in this text. Pāda e is a ma-vipulā.

3.17 In pāda a, pañca and bhedā may be typeset as two separate words since the use of the singular after numbers is one of the hallmarks of the text (see CHECK).

Five types of violence ]

trāsanam tāḍanam bandho māraṇam vṛttināśanam |
hiṃsām pañcavidhām āhur munayas tattvadarśinaḥ || 3:18 ||

Frightening and beating [other people], tying [someone] up, killing and the destruction of [other people's] livelihood: violence is said by the wise who see the truth to be of [these] five types.

kāṣṭhaloṣṭakaśādyais tu tāḍayantiha nirdayāḥ |
tatprahāravibhinnāṅgo mṛtavadhyam avāpnuyāt || 3:19 ||

Cruel people beat [other people] with sticks, clods of earth [understand: they stone them], with whips and other [objects] in the everyday world. Their bodies broken by the same blows, they receive the capital punishment.

baddhvā pādau bhujoraś ca śīrorukkaṇṭhapāśitāḥ |
anāhatā mriyanty evaṃ vadho bandhanajaḥ smṛtaḥ || 3:20 ||

[Others,] tie up [people] at their feet and their arms and chests. [These,] hung by their hair and neck, die in this way without being wounded. This is the capital punishment for tying up [other people].

śatrucaurabhayair ghoraiḥ śiṃhavyāghragajoragaiḥ |
trāsanād vadham āpnoti anyair vāpi suduḥsahaiḥ || 3:21 ||

He who frightens [other people] with the terrible danger of enemies and thieves, with lions, tigers, elephants or snakes, or by other horrors, will be executed.

yasya yasya hared vittam tasya tasya vadhaḥ smṛtaḥ |
vṛttijivābhībhūtānām taddvārā nihataḥ smṛtaḥ || 3:22 ||

He who robs somebody's money is to be punished by the same person. He is [to be] struck down by those whose livelihood got damaged by him.

viśavahniśaraśastrair māyāyogabalena vā |
hiṃsakāny āhu viprendra munayas tattvadarśinaḥ || 3:23 ||

[Those who kill other people] with poison, fire, arrows, swords, or by the force of magic or yoga are called murderers by the sages who see the truth, O

3.19 Note the use of the singular in pādas cd referring back to the agents of the previous sentence. Most probably, °vadhyam is to be understood as °vadham and the form vadhyam serves only to avoid two laghu syllables in pāda d.

3.20 Understand bhujoraś ca in pāda a as bhuje, urasi ca, in this case with an instance of double sandhi, and in stem form: bhuje urasi ca → bhuja urasi ca → bhujorasi ca → bhujoraś ca. Alternatively, understand it as a compound (bhujorasi). In pāda b, my emendation is only one of the possible interpretations. We might accept śīroru° as consisting of śīra + ūru ('head and thigh'), or emend it to śīrorah° for śīra + urah ('head and chest'). Also note my conjecture in pāda d, without which this pāda is difficult to interpret.

3.22 Understand vadhaḥ in pāda b as vadhyah metri causa. My translation of the second line of this verse reflects a conjecture (taddvārā) understood as connected to both pāda c and niyataḥ in pāda d.

great Brahmin.

[ ahiṃsāpraśaṃsā — Praise of non-violence ]

ahiṃsā paramaṃ dharmaṃ yas tyajet sa durātmavān |
kleśāyāsavinirmuktaṃ sarvadharmaphalapradaṃ || 3:24 ||

Non-violence is the highest Dharma. He who abandons it is a wicked person.
It is free of pain and trouble, it yields the fruits of all [other] Dharmic teachings [in itself].

nātaḥ parataro mūrkhō nātaḥ parataram tamaḥ |
nātaḥ parataram duḥkhaṃ nātaḥ parataro 'yaśaḥ || 3:25 ||

There isn't a bigger fool than he [who abandons it]. There is no bigger mental darkness [than the abandonment of non-violence]. There is no greater suffering or greater infamy.

nātaḥ parataram pāpaṃ nātaḥ parataram viṣam |
nātaḥ paratarāvidyā nātaḥ param tapodhana || 3:26 ||

There is no greater sin or a more effective poison. There is no greater ignorance, there is nothing worse, O great ascetic.

yo hinasti na bhūtāni udbhijjādi caturvidham |
sa bhavet puruṣaḥ śreṣṭhaḥ sarvabhūtadayānvitaḥ || 3:27 ||

He who does not harm the four types of living beings beginning with plants is the best person, having compassion for all creatures.

sarvabhūtadayāṃ nityaṃ yaḥ karoti sa paṇḍitaḥ |
sa yajvā sa tapasvī ca sa dātā sa dṛḍhavrataḥ || 3:28 ||

He who always has compassion for all creatures is the [true] Pandit. He is the [true] sacrificer, the [true] ascetic, he is the donor, the one with a firm vow.

ahiṃsā paramaṃ tīrthaṃ ahiṃsā paramaṃ tapaḥ |
ahiṃsā paramaṃ dānaṃ ahiṃsā paramaṃ sukhaṃ || 3:29 ||

Non-violence is the supreme pilgrimage place. Non-violence is the highest 3.23 Pāda a is unmetrical. Note how elliptical this verse is and that hiṃsakāni is neuter although it refers to people, perhaps implying bhūtāni. Alternatively, take y in hiṃsakāny as a rather unusual sandhi-bridge (hiṃsakān-y-āhu), or simply delete this y. Note also that āhu stands for āhur metri causa.

3.24 Note dharma as a neuter noun in pāda a and that vinirmuktaṃ and pradaṃ are neuter accordingly.

3.25 Note that parataro is masculine in pāda d, picking up a neuter 'yaśaḥ. This phenomenon is probably the result of 'yaśaḥ resembling a masculine noun ending in -aḥ and also of the metrical problem with a grammatically correct nātaḥ parataram ayaśaḥ.

3.26 Pāda d (nātaḥ param tapodhana) is slightly suspect. The vocative tapodhana usually refers to Anarthayajña in these passages, and not to Vigataraḡa, as here. The text may have read nātaḥ paratamo 'dhanah ("There is no bigger loss of wealth") or possibly something starting with nātaḥ param tapo ... ("There is no greater... of austerity").

austerity. Non-violence is the highest donation. Non-violence is the highest joy.

ahiṃsā paramo yajñah ahiṃsā paramaṇi vratam |
ahiṃsā paramaṇi jñānam ahiṃsā paramā kriyā || 3:30 ||

Non-violence is the supreme sacrifice. Non-violence is the supreme religious observance. Non-violence is supreme knowledge. Non-violence is the supreme ritual.

ahiṃsā paramaṇi śaucam ahiṃsā paramo damaḥ |
ahiṃsā paramo lābhaḥ ahiṃsā paramaṇi yaśaḥ || 3:31 ||

Non-violence is the highest purity. Non-violence is the highest self-restraint. Non-violence is the highest profit. Non-violence is the greatest fame.

ahiṃsā paramo dharmah ahiṃsā paramā gatiḥ |
ahiṃsā paramaṇi brahma ahiṃsā paramaḥ śivaḥ || 3:32 ||

Non-violence is the supreme Dharma. Non-violence is the supreme path. Non-violence is the supreme Brahman. Non-violence is supreme Śiva.

[ māṃsāhārah —

On meat-consumption ]

māṃsāśanān nivarteta manasāpi na kṛṇkṣayet |
sa mahat phalam āpnoti yas tu māṃsaṁ vivarjayet || 3:33 ||

One should refrain from meat-consumption. One should not even desire it mentally. He who abandons meat will receive a great reward.

svamāṃsaṁ paramāṃsena yo vardhayitum icchati |
anabhyarcya pitṛn devān na tato 'nyo 'sti pāpakṛt || 3:34 ||

He who wishes to nourish his own flesh with the flesh of other [beings], outside of worshipping the ancestors and the gods, is the biggest sinner of all.

madhuparke ca yajñe ca pitṛdaivatakarmaṇi |
atraiva paśavo hiṃsyā nānyatra manur abravīt || 3:35 ||

During the madhuparka offering and during a sacrifice, during rituals for the ancestors and the gods: only in these cases are animals to be slaughtered and not in any other case. [This is what] Manu taught.

kṛtvā svayaṁ vāpy utpādya paropahṛtam eva vā |
devān pitṛmś cārcayitvā khādan māṃsaṁ na doṣabhāk || 3:36 ||

Should he buy it or procure it himself or should it be offered by others, if he eats meat, he will not sin if he first worships the gods and the ancestors.

vedayajñatapastīrthadānaśīlakriyāvrataiḥ |
māṃsāhāranivṛttānāṁ ṣoḍaśāṃsaṁ na pūryate || 3:37 ||

[visit] sacred places, donate, [are of] good conduct, [perform] rituals and [keep] religious vows [but eat meat] will not [be able to] enjoy even a tiny portion of [such rewards that] [those] people [receive] who have given up meat.

mṛgāḥ parṇatrṇāhārād ajameṣagavādibhiḥ |
sukhino balavantaś ca vicaranti mahītale || 3:38 ||

The deer and the goats, the sheep, the cows and other [animals] wander in the world happily and in great strength [just] from eating leaves and grass.

vānarāḥ phala-m-āhārā rākṣasā rudhirapriyāḥ |
nihatā rākṣasāḥ sarve vānaraiḥ phalabhōjibhiḥ || 3:39 ||

Monkeys eat fruits, Rākṣasas prefer blood. The fruit-eating monkeys defeated all the Rākṣasas.

tasmān māṃsam na hīheta balakāmena bho dvija |
balena ca guṇākarṣāt parato bhayabhīruṇā || 3:40 ||

Therefore one should not crave meat in the hope of gaining strength, O Brahmin, in order to be able to draw a bow with force, or out of fear of the danger coming from the enemy.

ahiṃsakasamo nāsti dānayaājñāsamīhayā |
iha loke yaśaḥ kīrtiḥ paratra ca parā gatiḥ || 3:41 ||

By wishing to make donations and perform sacrifices no one will become comparable to someone who refrains from violence. [He will have] fame and glory in this world and the supreme path in the other.

trailokyam maṇiratnapūṛṇam akhilaṃ dattvottame brāhmaṇe
koṭiyājñāsahasrapadmam ayutam dattvā mahīm dakṣiṇām |
tīrthānām ca sahasrakoṭīniyutam snātvā sakṛn mānavaḥ
etatpunyaphalam ahiṃsakajanaḥ prāpnoti niḥsaṃśayaḥ || 3:42 ||

A person who refrains from violence will gain, no doubt about it, the [same] meritorious rewards that others would get by donating the three worlds

3:37 See a similarly phrased comparison in Manu 2.86: ye pākayaājñās catvāro vidhiyajñāsamānvitāḥ | sarve te japayaājñāsyā kalām nārhanṭi ṣoḍaśim ||.

3:39 Understand phalam āhārā as phalāhārā (-m- is a sandhi-bridge). This verse clearly refers to the story of the Rāmāyaṇa.

3:40 guṇākāśāt in pāda c is difficult to interpret and guṇākarṣāt is a conjecture by Judit Törzsök which fits the context well, although the polysemy of guṇa may allow for other solutions. Verses 3:40–42 may be echoing BrahmaṇḍaP 216.64–66: māṃsān miṣṭataram nāsti bhakṣyabhojyādikeṣu ca | tasmān māṃsam na bhūñjīta nāsti miṣṭaiḥ sukhodayaḥ || gosahasram tu yo dadyād yas tu māṃsam na bhakṣayet | samāu etau purā prāha brahmā vedavidāṃ varaḥ || sarvatīrtheṣu yat puṇyam sarvayaājñeṣu yat phalam | amāṃsabhakṣaṇe viprās tac ca tac ca ca tatsamam ||.

3:41 Pādas ab are reminiscent of ŚDhŚ 11.92: ahiṃsaikā paro dharmah śaktānām parikīrtitam | āśaktānām ayaṃ dharmo dānayaājñādīpūrvakah ||. On this verse see also Bisschop, Kafle, & Lubin 2021, 15–16.

Note the variant °dharmā° in both C<sub>02</sub> and E in pāda b.

filled with jewels and gems in their entirety to an excellent Brahmin, by [performing] a thousand [times] ten trillion (padma) [times] ten thousand (ayuta) koṭiyajña sacrifices, by donating the earth [to a priest] as sacrificial fee, and by bathing [at] a thousand times ten million times a million (niyuta) sacred places at once.

|| iti vṛṣasārasaṃgrāhe ahimsāpraśamsā nāmādhyaḃyaś tṛtīyaḥ ||

Here ends the third chapter in the Vṛṣasārasaṃgrāha called the Praise of Non-violence.

3.42 Metre: śārdūlavikṛīḍita. On padma meaning ‘ten trillion’, and on other words for numbers, see 1.32–35.

koṭiyajña in pāda d may refer to a special kind of sacrifice, mostly known as koṭihoma in the Purāṇas and in inscriptions (see, e.g., Fleming 2010, and 2013) It probably involves a hundred fire-pits and a hundred times one thousand Brahmins (hence the name ‘the ten-million sacrifice’). See, e.g., BhavP uttaraparvan 4.142.54–58: śātānāno daśamukho dvimukhaikamukhas tathā | caturvidho mahārāja koṭihomo vidhiyate || kāryasya gurutām jñātvā naiva kuryād aparvaṇi | yathā saṃkṣepataḥ kāryaḥ koṭihomas tathā śṛṇu || kṛtvā kuṇḍaśataṃ divyaṃ yathoktaṃ has-tasaṃmitam | ekaikasmiṃś tataḥ kuṇḍe śataṃ viprān niyojayet || sadyaḥ pakṣe tu viprānāṃ sa-hasraṃ parikīrtitam | ekasthānapraṇīte ’gnau sarvataḥ paribhāvite || homaṃ kuryur dvijāḥ sarve kuṇḍe kuṇḍe yathoditam | yathā kuṇḍabāhute ’pi rājasūye mahākratau ||

Note that the second syllable of phalam in pāda d is treated as long: this happens often at word-boundaries in this text; and note how K<sub>7</sub> aims to restore the metre by inserting tv after its phalam.

The second Yama-rule: Truthfulness ]

anarthayajña uvāca |
sadbhāvaḥ satyam ity āhur dṛṣṭapratyayam eva vā |
yathābhūtārthakathanam tat satyakathanam smṛtam || 4:1 ||

Anarthayajña spoke: The state of being real (sad-bhāva) is called truth (sat-ya). Alternatively, it is also a certainty (pratyaya) that originates in perception (dṛṣṭa). Relating things in a way that corresponds to reality is called ‘speaking the truth.’

ākrośatādanādīni yaḥ saḥeta suduḥsaham |
kṣamate yo jītātmā tu sa ca satyam udāhṛtam || 4:2 ||

He who endures severe abuse and beating etc. but keeps quiet, his self being conquered, is said to be [an example of] truth[fulness].

vadhārtham udyataḥ śastram yadi prccheta karhicit |
na tatra satyam vaktavyam anṛtam satyam ucyate || 4:3 ||

If one is being interrogated at any time with a sword lifted to strike him down, in this case the truth is not to be spoken, and a lie is can be called truth.

vadhārhaḥ puruṣaḥ kaścid vrajet pathi bhayāturaḥ |
prcchato 'pi na vaktavyam satyam tad vāpi ucyate || 4:4 ||

A person who is walking on the road and is afraid of being killed CHECK should not reply [to people who are potentially dangerous] even if they ask him. This is also called truth[fulness].

na narmayuktam anṛtam hinasti
na strīṣu rājan na vivāhakāle |
prāṇātyaye sarvadhanāpahāre
pañcānṛtam satyam udāharanti || 4:5 ||

A lie does not hurt when it is connected with joking, with women, O king, at the time of marriage, at the departure from life and when one’s entire wealth is about to be taken away. They call these five kinds of lies truths.

4.1 Although the rather similar line in the ŚDhŚ (11.105cd: yathābhūtārthakathanam ity etat satyalakṣanam) makes it tempting to emend satyakathanam to satyalakṣanam in pāda d, I rather take this verse to introduce two views on truth: one philosophical, and one ordinary that relates to the moral question of truthfulness.

4.2 suduḥsaham (singular) in pāda b picks up °ādīni (plural) in pāda a. The -m in satyam may be a sandhi-bridge and the phrase may refer to a masculine subject thus: sa ca satya-m-udāhṛtaḥ.

4.3 Understand udyataḥ (nom.) in an active sense (‘holding/lifting’).

4.5 This upajāti verse appears in countless sources, beginning with the MBh (see the appa-

devamānuṣatiryeṣu satyaṁ dharmah paro yataḥ |

satyaṁ sāgaram avyaktaṁ satyaṁ akṣayabhogadam |

satyaṁ potaḥ paratrārthaṁ satyaṁ panthāna vistaram || 4:7 ||

Truth is an unmanifest ocean. Truth yields imperishable pleasures. Truth is the ship that carries you to the other world. Truth is the wide path.

satyaṁ śīlam tapo jñānam satyaṁ śaucam damaḥ śamaḥ |

satyaṁ sopānam ūrdhvasya satyaṁ kīrtir yaśaḥ sukham || 4:9 ||

Truth is morality, austerity, knowledge. Truth is purity, self-control and tranquillity. Truth is the ladder upwards. Truth is fame and glory and happiness.

aśvamedhasahasraṁ ca satyaṁ ca tulayā dhṛtam |

aśvamedhasahasrād dhi satyam eva viśiṣyate || 4:10 ||

The oceans exist by the truthful encounter with Priyavrata. Govinda abides ratus). All versions contain a vocative addressing a king, which is out of context in the VSS, the addressee being Vigatarāga, i.e. Viṣṇu disguised as a Brahmin. The redactors did not notice or did not care about this small inconsistency. Note the metrical licence that allows the last syllable of °yuktam to count as long. The same reading with anṛtaṁ can be found in the apparatus in the MBh critical edition.

4.7 Pāda d is slightly problematic because it is difficult to ascertain if some of the MSS actually read panthāna or pasthāna (or yasthāna). I suspect that panthāna is a stem form noun formed (metri causa) to stand for an irregular nominative of pathin.

4.8 The repetition of tīrthaṁ in pāda c is slightly suspect. Cf., e.g., MatsP 22.79ab: satyaṁ tīrthaṁ dayā tīrthaṁ tīrthaṁ indriyanigrahaḥ.

4.9 Looking at the similar line in the VarP (193.36cd, see the apparatus), one wonders if the slightly odd ūrdhvasya in pāda c is not a corrupt form of svargasya.

4.11 Here and several times below, satye is probably to be taken as standing for satyena.

agnir dahati satyena satyena śaśinā carah |

Fire burns with truth. The Moon rises by truth. It is because of truth that the Vindhya mountain stands in place and that although it was growing it is not growing [anymore].

lokālokaḥ sthitaḥ satye meruḥ satye pratiṣṭhitaḥ |

4.12 Pāda b, samayena priyavrataḥ, probably stand for samayena priyavratasya although it is unclear to me what exactly samaya refers to here.

For the story of Priyavrata, Manu's son, in which he wanted to turn nights into days by circling around Mount Meru in a chariot, and by this produced the seven oceans, see, e.g., BhāgP 5.1.30–31: yāvad avabhāsayati suragirim anuparikrāman bhagavān ādityo vasudhātalam ardhenaiva pratapaty ardhēnāvachchādayati, tadā hi [priyavrataḥ] bhagavadupāsānopacitātīpuruṣaprabhāvas tad anabhinandan samajavena rathena jyotirmayena rajanīm api dinam kariṣyāmīti saptakṛtvā tarāṇīm anuparyakrāmad dvitīya iva pataṅgaḥ | ye vā u ha tadrathacaraṇanemikṛtaparikhātās te sapta sindhava āsan yata eva kṛtāḥ sapta bhuvo dvīpāḥ |

Pādas cd: for a somewhat similar reference to the story of Mahābali, see, e.g., VarP 65.66: evam purā cakradhareṇa viṣṇunā baddho balir vāmanarūpadhārīnā | śakrapriyārtham surakāryasiddhaye hitāya vipraṣabhaḥ godvījānām ||

4.13 Since śaśi (instead of śaśin) is a possible stem in this text, śaśir ācarah could be acceptable here in pāda b (see K<sub>82</sub>K<sub>10</sub>K<sub>7</sub>), perhaps standing for śaśinas caranam or śaśis carati. My conjecture (śaśinā carah) could stand for śaśinā/śaśinas cārah metri causa. Other possibilities, suggested by colleagues, include śaśibhāskarah, śaśigocarah and śiśirāmbhasah.

Pādas cd refer to the story of Agastya and the Vindhya mountain: Vindhya became jealous of the Sun's revolving around Mount Meru and when the Sun refused him the same favour, he decided to grow higher and obstruct the Sun's movement. As a solution to this situation, Agastya asked Vindhya to bend down to make it easier for him to reach the south and to remain thus until he returned. Vindhya agreed to do what Agastya asked him but Agastya never returned. See MBh 3.102.1–14 (see in the word samaya in verse 13 and compare it to VSS 4.12b): yudhiṣṭhira uvāca | kimarthaṃ sahasā vindhyaḥ pravṛddhaḥ krodhamūrchitaḥ | etad icchāmy ahaṃ śrotuṃ vistareṇa mahāmune || lomaśa uvāca | adrirājaṃ mahāśailaṃ meruṃ kanakaparvatam | udayāstamaye bhānuḥ pradakṣiṇam avartata || taṃ tu dṛṣṭvā tathā vindhyaḥ śailaḥ sūryam athābravit | yathā hi merur bhavatā nityaśah parigamyate || pradakṣiṇam ca kriyate mām evaṃ kuru bhāskara | evam uktas tataḥ sūryaḥ śailendraṃ pratyabhāṣata || nāham ātmecchayā śaila karomy enaṃ pradakṣiṇam | eṣa mārgaḥ pradīṣṭo me yenedaṃ nirmītaṃ jagat || evam uktas tataḥ krodhāt pravṛddhaḥ sahasācalah | sūryācandramasor mārgaṃ roddhum icchan paramtapa || tato devāḥ sahitaḥ sarva eva; sendraḥ samāgamaḥ mahādrirājaṃ | nivārayām āsur upāyatas taṃ; na ca sma teṣāṃ vacanaṃ cakāra || athābhijagmur munim āśramasthaṃ; tapasvinam dharmabhṛtāṃ varīṣṭhaṃ | agastyam atyadbhutavīryadīptaṃ; taṃ cārthaṃ ūcuḥ sahitaḥ surāḥ te || devā ūcuḥ | sūryācandramasor mārgaṃ nakṣatrāṇāṃ gatim tathā | śailarājo vṛṇoty eṣa vindhyaḥ krodhavaśānugah || taṃ nivārayitum śakto nānyaḥ kaś cid dvijottama | rte tvāṃ hi mahābhāga tasmād enaṃ nivāraya || lomaśa uvāca | tac chrutvā vacanaṃ vipraḥ surāṇāṃ śailam abhyagāt | so 'bhigamyābravīd vindhyaṃ sadārāḥ samupasthitaḥ || mārgam icchāmy ahaṃ dattaṃ bhavatā parvatottama | dakṣiṇāṃ abhigantāsmi diśaṃ kāryeṇa kena cit || yāvadāgamanam mahyaṃ tāvat tvāṃ pratipālāya | nivṛtte mayi śailendra tato vardhasva kāmataḥ || evaṃ sa samayaṃ kṛtvā vindhyenāmitrakarṣana | adyāpi dakṣiṇād deśād vāruṇir na nivartate || etat te sarvaṃ ākhyātāṃ yathā vindhyo na vardhate | agastyasya prabhāvena jan mām tvāṃ pariprcchasi ||

vedās tiṣṭhanti satyeṣu dharmāḥ satye pratiṣṭhāti || 4:14 ||

The [mythical] Lokāloka mountains are located in truth. Mount Meru stands by truth. The Vedas abide in truth. Dharma is rooted in truth.

satyaṁ gauḥ kṣarate kṣīraṁ satyaṁ kṣīre ghrtaṁ sthitam |

satye jīvaḥ sthito dehe satyaṁ jīvaḥ sanātanaḥ || 4:15 ||

The milk a cow yields is truth. Ghee in milk is present as truth. The soul dwells in the body in truth. The eternal soul is truth.

The third Yama-rule: Refraining from stealing ]

vigatarāga uvāca |

na hi tṛptiṁ vijānāmi śrutvā dharmam tavāpy aham |

upariṣṭād ato bhūyaḥ kathayasva tapodhana || 4:18 ||

Vigatarāga spoke: I can't have enough of learning about [this teaching of] your[s on] Dharma. Teach me further than this, O great ascetic.

anarthayaājña uvāca |

steyaṁ śṛṇv atha viprendra pañcadhā parikīrtitam |

adattādānam ādau tu utkocaṁ ca tataḥ param |

prasthavyājas tulāvyājaḥ prasahyasteya pañcamam || 4:19 ||

Anarthayaājña spoke: Now listen to [my teaching about] stealing, O great Brahmin, which is taught to be of five kinds. Firstly, [listen to] theft, then bribery, cheating with weights, cheating with scales, and the fifth kind, robbery.

dhṛṣṭaduṣṭaprabhāvena paraḍravyāpakarṣaṇam |

vāryamāṇāpi durbuddhir adattādānam ucyate || 4:20 ||

When somebody's wealth is taken away by an impudent and wicked person is

4.15 satye in pāda c may stand for satyaṁ: 'The soul dwells in the body as truth.'

4.16 Or: 'If truth alone (ekena) is obtained, Dharma is surely accomplished.'

4.18 It is not inconceivable that tava is meant to carry the sense of the ablative, as Kenji Takahashi has suggested to me: 'I can't have enough of learning about Dharma from you.'

4.19 'Theft' (adattādāna): literally 'taking what has not been given.'

called theft. It is a foolish thought even if suppressed.

utkocaṃ śṛṇu viprendra dharmasaṃkarakākarakam |
mūlyam kāryavināśārtham utkocaḥ parigrhyate |
tena cāsau vijānīyād dravyalobhabalāt kṛtam || 4:21 ||

O great Brahmin, listen to bribery, which defiles Dharma. A sum of money taken in order to exempt somebody from a duty is a bribe. Therefore this [also] should be considered as such [i.e. as stealing because] it is committed out of greed for material goods.

prasthavyāja-upāyena kuṭumbaṃ trātum icchati |
taṃ ca stenaṃ vijānīyāt paradravypāhārakam || 4:22 ||

[Even if] somebody wants to protect a family by the method of cheating with weights, that person should be considered a thief, because he takes away other people's wealth.

tulāvyaāja-upāyena parasvārtham hared yadi |
cauralakṣaṇakāś cānye kūṭakāpaṭikā narāḥ || 4:23 ||

[The case is similar] if somebody takes away somebody else's belongings by the method of cheating with scales. Other people, deceitful swindlers (kūṭa-kāpaṭika) share the characteristics of thieves.

durbalārjavabāleṣu cchadmanā vā balena vā |
apahr̥tya dhanam mūḍhaḥ sa cauraś cora ucyate || 4:24 ||

If someone, by deceit or by force, snatches away the wealth of weak and honest people and simpletons, that morally corrupt usurper is [simply] a thief.

nāsti steyasamam pāpam nāsti adharmas ca tatsamaḥ |
nāsti stenasamākirtir nāsti stenasamo 'nayaḥ || 4:25 ||

There is no sin equal to stealing. There is no crime (adharma) equal to it. There is no ill-fame comparable to that of being a thief. There is no bad-conduct comparable to being a thief.

4.20 My impression is that prabhāva in pāda a stands for bhāva, duṣṭabhāva ('vicious') being a common expression. The implications of vāryamāṇo in pāda c are unclear to me, hence my emendation to vāryamāṇā. My translation is thus tentative and still not satisfactory.

4.21 Note that mūlyam in pāda c is a conjecture for mūla. It is partly based on a relevant passage in the Mitākṣara (ad Yājñavalkyasmṛiti 2.176cd): paṇyasya kṛitadravyasya yaṃ mūlyam dattam, bhr̥tir vetanam kṛtakarmaṇe dattam... utkocena kāryapratibandhanirāsārtham adhikṛtebhyo dattam... Note asau in pāda e as an accusative form (for amum or adah). It is not unlikely that tena is a corruption from stena, and the pāda may have originally read stenaṃ taṃ ca vijānīyād ('he should be known as a thief'), or similar (cf. 4.22c below). M (f. 7r) reads tena steya vijānīyād here.

4.23 A line may have dropped out after pāda b, perhaps because a line similar to 4.22cd caused an eyekskip. Alternatively, this line may simply be elliptical.

4.24 It is possible that pāda d read differently, e.g. sa coras cora ucyate, meaning 'that thief is [rightly] called a thief'.

nāsti steyasamāvidyā nāsti stenasamaḥ khalah |
nāsti stenasama ajño nāsti stenasamo 'lasah || 4:26 ||

There is no greater ignorance than stealing. There are no bigger rogues than thieves. There is nobody as ignorant as a thief. There is not a lazy person who is comparable to a thief.

nāsti stenasamo dveṣyo nāsti stenasamo 'priyah |
nāsti steyasamaṃ duḥkhaṃ nāsti steyasamo 'yaśah || 4:27 ||

There is nobody as detestable as a thief. There is nobody disliked as much as a thief. There is no greater suffering than stealing. There is no greater disgrace than theft.

pracchanno hriyate 'rtham anyapuruṣaḥ pratyakṣam anyo haret

anyaḥ kṛitadhano 'paro dhayahrta ete jaghanyāḥ smṛtāḥ || 4:28 ||

Some [thieves] take away [other people's] wealth in disguise, some in broad daylight. Other wicked people take money from deposits, and some people steal through fraud. Some gather wealth by forging documents, others steal from stolen money[?]. Some people's wealth is from purchased [children?] (kṛita). Others take away others' inheritance[?]. These are considered the vilest.

There isn't a bigger idiots than a thief, who is a wicked person without Dharma and Artha. As long as he lives, he trembles in fear of the king, wailing. Having received his punishment, he gets into severe and [in]tolerable difficulties, propelled by [his] karma. When his time comes, he 4.26 Note the peculiar sandhi in pāda c (°sama ajño), which still leaves the pāda unmetrical.

4.27 Note how stena and steya are used interchangeably (or chaotically) in the above passages in the MSS to denote both 'thief' and 'theft/stealing'. The scribe of K<sub>7</sub> ends up writing stenya in 4.27e.

4.28 Metre śārdūlavikrīḍita. It appears that hriyate in pāda a is to be taken as an active verb (harate). Note also how C<sub>45</sub> and K<sub>7</sub> read the same here against the other witnesses. Take °hariṇo in pāda b as singular and m in °nya-m-adhamo as a sandhi-bridge. Alternatively, read as plural: °hariṇo 'nya adhamo... The second half of pāda c is difficult to reconstruct. The translation of pāda d is mostly guesswork. Tentatively, I take kṛita as kṛitaka ('a purchased son', see Manu 9.174). dhayahrta makes little sense to me. Florinda De Simini suggested that dhaya might stand for daya, which in turn may stand for dāya ('inheritance') metri causa. Lacking any better solution, I supplied these in my translation, marked with question marks. Note also the metrical licence that the last syllable of dhayahrta counts as long.

Then they reach the status of human existence on earth which is full of poverty and disease. Then abandoning all one's karmas, the causes of suffering, one seeks refuge in Śiva.

The fourth Yama-rule: Absence of hostility ]

aṣṭamūrtiśivadvēṣṭā pitur mātus ca yo dviṣet |
gavāṃ vā atither dveṣṭā nṛśaṃsāḥ pañca eva te || 4:31 ||

The one who is hostile towards the eight-formed Śiva, he who hurts his mother or father, he who is hostile towards cows or guests: these are the five types of cruel people.

aṣṭamūrtiḥ śivah sāḁṣāt pañcavyomasamanvitaḥ |
sūryaḥ somaś ca dīkṣaś ca dūṣakaḥ sa nṛśaṃsakaḥ || 4:32 ||

Śiva in his manifest form (sāḁṣāt) is of eight forms, with the five elements

4.29 For some time I was wondering if one should accept E's reading stenastulya na mūḍham asti as a metri causa version of stenatulyo na mūḍho 'sti; see a similar case of a nominative ending inside of compound in pāda c below. One major concern remained: the accepted reading would be of an edition that rarely emerges as the sole transmitter of the best reading. Another possible solution could be to emend to stenamṭulya..., meaning 'There is no bigger foolishness than theft', but then the second part of pāda a is difficult to connect. In the end, I decided to go for the most widely attested reading (stenatulya), which is unmetrical.

Understand prāptaśāsana tīvrasyaviṣamaṃ in pāda c as prāptaśāsanaś tīvrasyaviṣamaṃ ca viṣamaṃ prāpnoti. Alternatively, understand tīvrasya° as duḥsahya° (suggested by Törzsök).

The actual reading of C<sub>94</sub>, prāptaś (lost in the process of normalization and standing in contrast with that of all other MSS that read prāptaḥ) may suggest a doubling of the ś of śāsana metri causa (suggestion by Törzsök). More likely is that a licence of having a nominative ending inside of a compound is applied here, as may have been the case above in pāda a (also remarked by Törzsök).

4.30 Note the stem form °kalpa for °kalpaṃ metri causa. In pāda c, tathaivam, or tathaikam, and ekaśatikam are suspect. I understand vipule as vipulāyām, vipulā appearing in Amarakośa 2.1.7 as a synonym of dhātṛi, 'earth' because it is difficult to interpret it otherwise. This is still problematic because both human and animal existence takes place on earth, thus, if tiryatva (i.e. tiryaktva) indeed means 'animal existence,' there is no contrast between pādas b and c as regards location. As for tiryaktva, see, e.g., Manu 12.40: devatvaṃ sātṭvikā yānti manuṣyatvaṃ ca rājasāḥ | tiryaktvaṃ tāmasā nityam ity eṣā trividhā gatiḥ || It is not unlikely that the original form of dāridryarogākulam was dāridryarogākule, picking up vipule. Note the switch from plural to singular in pāda d.

4.31 Note pitur and mātur used as accusative forms in pāda b, or alternatively understand: 'who are hateful towards their fathers and mothers'.

(vyoman), the Sun, the Moon, and the sacrificer. [He who] disgraces [any of these] is a hostile person.

prthvyā gurutarī mātā ko na vandeta mātaram |
yajñadānatapovedās tena sarvaṃ kṛtaṃ bhavet || 4:34 ||

The mother is more venerable than the earth. Who would not praise a mother? By that [praise], sacrifices, donations, austerities and [the study of] the Vedas, all will be completed.

gāvah pavitraṃ maṅgalyaṃ devatānāṃ ca devatāḥ |
sarvadevamayā gāvas tasmād eva na hiṃsayet || 4:35 ||

Cows are an auspicious blessing, they are the gods of the gods. Cows contain in themselves all the gods. That is exactly why one should not hurt them.

jātamātrasya lokasya gāvas trātā na saṃśayaḥ |
ghṛtaṃ kṣīraṃ dadhi mūtraṃ śakṛtkarṣaṇam eva ca || 4:36 ||

Cows are the protectors of the world as if the world were their new-born [calf], there is no doubt about it. Collecting [the five products of the cow, the pañcagavya,] ghee, milk, curd, and [the cow's] urine and dung [is auspicious].

4.32 Törzsök has suggested emending sa nṛśamsakāḥ in pāda d to tannṛśmakāḥ. I don't think that it is inevitably necessary. I think that pādas a-c form a list that is meant to be in the genitive, understanding ... ity eteṣāṃ dūṣakāḥ sa nṛśamsakāḥ or similar. This is clumsy but in a way that is more than possible within the style of this text.

I have not been able find any attestation of vyoman meaning the five elements. Perhaps it is meant to mean vyomādi ('the atmosphere/sky and the other four elements').

For Śiva of eight forms, see, e.g., Śakuntalā 1.1: yā sṛṣṭiḥ sraṣṭur ādyā [1] vahati vidhihutam yā havir [2] yā ca hotrī [3] ye dve kālāṃ vidhattaḥ [4,5] śruti-viśaya-guṇā yā [6] sthitā vyāpya viśvam | yām āhuḥ sarva-bīja-prakṛtir [7] iti yajā prāṇināḥ prāṇavantāḥ [8] pratyakṣābhīḥ prapannas tanubhir avatu vas tābhir aṣṭābhir iśaḥ ||. The eight mūrtis, or rather, tanus, here are: [1] jala [2] agni [3] yajamāna [4,5] sūrya + candra [6] ākāśa [7] bhūmi [8] vāyu.

For a similar interpretation of aṣṭamūrti, see, e.g., Īśānaśivagurudevapaddhati 2.29.34 (mantrapāda; note yajamāna for our dikṣā): kṣmā-vahni-yajamānārka-jala-vāyu-indu-puṣkaraiḥ | aṣṭābhir mūrtibhiḥ śambhor dvitīyāvaraṇaṃ smṛtam || (For puṣkara as 'sky, atmosphere', see, e.g., Amarakośa 1.2.167: dyodivau dve striyām abhram vyoma puṣkaram ambaram.)

A closely related Aṣṭamūrti-hymn appears in Niśvāsa mukha 1.30–41 (I owe thanks to Nirajan Kafle for drawing my attention to this); see Kafle 2020, 62, 63, 116, 119. Kafle notes that this hymn is closely parallel to some passages in the Prayogamañjarī (1.19–26), the Tantrasamuccaya (1.16–23), and the Īśānaśivagurudevapaddhati (kriyāpāda 26.56–63). See also TAK I s.v. aṣṭamūrti.

4.33 It is difficult to restore pādas cd, although the general meaning of this line is predictable. Some questions remain. Is āditya a good reading or is mātr hidden in daivata-mādiśca? Is ānṛśamsa right or was it nṛśamsa that was meant by the author of this line? Does tamanvitaḥ (or tamānvitaḥ) has anything to do with tamas ('darkness')?

4.36 The use of karsaṇa in pāda d, most probably in the sense of 'collecting,' is slightly odd.

*pañcāmṛtaṃ pañcapavitrāpūtāṃ

atitheḥ kṛtasantoṣas tasya puṇyam anantakam || 4:41 ||*

4.37 The five Pavitras are most probably the five brahmanamantras, see, e.g., TAK III s.v. pavitra I.

4.38 Note that duhyanti and vāhyanti are supposed to be understood as passive, as in the similar verse in ŚDhU 12.92 (see apparatus).

4.39 Strictly speaking, pāda c is unmetrical. The second syllable of tapa counts as long (see Intro CHECK). Although the accusative with °kartā in pāda d is still not optimal, my emendation of tam to tām at least restores the metre and improves upon the meaning of the sentence. Alternatively, as suggested by Törzsök, taṃ could be understood as tad, picking up puṇyaṃ in pāda c, but in this way any reference to cows here is only implied.

4.40 Note the peculiar active verb forms anugaccheta and anupūjyeta. On this formation, see a remark about Niśvāsa mūla 2.8 in Goodall, Sanderson, & Isaacson 2015, 247: 'We have assumed that pūjyeta is intended to mean pūjayet and is perhaps a contraction of pūjayeta.'

sa tasya sakalaṃ puṇyaṃ prāpnuyān nātra saṃśayaḥ || 4:46 ||

he whose guest is satisfied [and] he who can abandon the sentiment of cruelty, will obtain all the merits of the above, there is no doubt about it.

4.41 On the form pīḍyeta, see previous note.

4.42 My conjecture in pāda a (°pātreṇa for °pādyena) was inspired by the fact that pāda b seems to awkwardly repeat what °pādyena in pāda a signifies. Other possibilities could include taking into account bathing (snāna) or an unguent (abhyāṅga).

4.43 For the requirement that one could part with his wife or son, or his own life, for the benefit of someone else, see VSS 2.38 and the narrative in VSS chapter 12 which tells about a Brahmin giving away his own wife to a guest; these influenced my decision to emend °ātmano to °ātmanā in pāda a. Note that in fact VSS 4.44cd below echoes verse 37cd in the above mentioned chapter 12: dvījarūpadharo dharmāḥ svayam eva ihāgataḥ.

4.46 The demonstrative pronoun tasya in pāda c may refer to the guest: 'he will obtain all his [i.e. the guest's] merits,' hinting at some sort of karmic exchange. Nevertheless, I think rather that tasya points to the merits one can obtain by the rituals listed in the previous verse. This is suggested by passages such as the following: MBh Supp. 13.14.379 ff.: ahany ahani yo dadyāt kapilāṃ dvādaśiḥ samāhi | māsi māsi ca satreṇa yo yajeta sadā naraḥ || gavāṃ śatasahasraṃ ca yo dadyāj jyeṣṭhapuṣkare | na taddharmaphalaṃ tulyam atithir yasya tuṣyati || BrahmaVP 3.44–46: atithiḥ pūjito yena pūjitāḥ sarvadevatāḥ | atithir yasya saṃtuṣṭas tasya tuṣṭo hariḥ svayam || snānena sarvatīrtheṣu sarvadānena yat phalam | sarvavratopavāseṇa sarvayajñeṣu dikṣayā || sarvais tapobhirvividhair nityair naimittikādibhiḥ | tad evātithisevāyāḥ kalāṃ nārhanṭi ṣoḍaśim ||

tasmād atithim āyāntam abhigacchet kṛtāñjaliḥ || 4:47 ||

... will ever reach the path. Therefore one should go up to the arriving guest with respectfully joined palms.

saktuprasthena caikena yajña āsīn mahādbhutaḥ |
atithiprāptadānena svaśarīraṃ divaṃ gatam || 4:48 ||

By one prastha [a small unit of weight] of coarsely ground grains given to a guest, an extremely wonderful sacrifice was performed [so to say], and his body [i.e. the protagonist in his mortal form] reached heaven.

nakulena purādhītaṃ vistareṇa dvijottama |
viditaṃ ca tvayā pūrvam prasthavārttā ca kīrtitā || 4:49 ||

The mongoose related [this story in the Mahābhārata] in the past in detail, O great Brahmin, and you known it already. The story of the prastha is well-known.

[ yameṣu damaḥ (5) —

The fifth Yama-rule: Self-restraint ]

dama eva manuṣyāṇāṃ dharmasārasamuccayaḥ |
damo dharmo damaḥ svargo damaḥ kīrtir damaḥ sukham || 4:50 ||

Self-restraint is in itself the collected essence of Dharma for humans.

Self-restraint is Dharma, self-restraint is heaven, self-restraint is fame, self-restraint is happiness.

damo yajño damas tīrthaṃ damaḥ puṇyaṃ damas tapaḥ |
damahīna-m-adharmaś ca damaḥ kāmakulapradāḥ || 4:51 ||

Self-restraint is sacrifice, self-restraint is a pilgrimage-place, self-restraint is merit, self-restraint is religious austerity. If one has no self-restraint, one is a sinner (adharma), [while] self-restraint yields a multitude of desired objects.

4.47 Something has gone wrong with pādas ab and I am unable to reconstruct the meaning. The line may have begun with something like nāgatātithyavajña° ('he who despise a guest that has arrived will not...').

4.48 This verse is a reference to the story related by a mongoose in MBh 14.92–93: A Brahmin who practises the vow of gleaning (uñcha) and his family receive a guest. They feed the guest with the last morsels of the little food they have. In the end, the guest reveals that he is in fact Dharma (14.93.80cd) and as a reward the family departs to heaven. The noble act of the poor Brahmin and his family is depicted as yielding greater rewards than Yudhiṣṭhira's grandiose horse-sacrifice. (See some remarks on this story in Takahashi 2021.)

We would be forced to accept the reading of E in pāda d (saśarīro) if the expression were in the masculine (divaṃ gataḥ). This would make sense and it would also echo expressions occurring, e.g., in the MBh: 3.164.33cd: paśya puṇyakṛtāṃ lokān saśarīro divaṃ vraja; 14.5.10cd: saṃjīvyā kālāṃ iṣṭam ca saśarīro divaṃ gataḥ. It is tempting to emend accordingly, but instead I have retained svaśarīraṃ divaṃ gatam, and I interpret it in a general way.

4.51 I suspect that the final m in damahīna-m-adharmaś ca in pāda c is a hiatus filler: damahīna-m-adharmaś ca. kāmakulapradāḥ in pāda d is suspect, and my translation is unsatisfactory. This compound could be interpreted as 'fulfilling desires and giving a family' or it may have originally nirdamaḥ kari mīnaś ca pataṅgabhrāmaramṛgāḥ |

tvag jihvā ca tathā ghrāṇā cakṣuḥ śravaṇam indriyāḥ || 4:52 ||

The elephant, the fish, the moth, the bee and the deer are without self-restraint. The senses are the skin, the tongue, the nose, the eye and the ear.

durjayendriyam ekaikaṃ sarve prāṇaharāḥ smṛtāḥ |
damam yo jayate 'samyag nirdamo nidhanaṃ vrajet || 4:53 ||

Each of these sense faculties are hard to conquer and all are known to be fatal [if unconquered]. If one masters self-restraint in a less than proper way, one remains unrestrained and will die .

mṛge śrotravaśān mṛtyuḥ pataṅgāś cakṣuḥ mṛtāḥ |
ghrāṇayā bhrāmāro naśto naśto mīnaś ca jihvayā || 4:54 ||

In the case of the deer, death comes about because of hearing [when, e.g., hunters use buck grunts]. Moths die because of their eyes [as they are attracted to the light of a lamp]. Bees perish because of their smelling [as they are attracted to smells], fish because of their tongues [when fishermen feed them].

sparsēna ca karī naśto bandhanāvāsaduḥsahāḥ |
kiṃ punaḥ pañcabhuktānām mṛtyuḥ tebhyaḥ kim adbhutam || 4:55 ||

The elephant perishes because of touch, not being able to tolerate being in fetters. How much more true it is for those who enjoy all five [senses]! Why should death come as a surprise for them?

purūravo 'tilobhena atikāmena daṇḍakah |
sāgarāś cātidarpeṇa atimānena rāvaṇaḥ || 4:56 ||

Purūravas [perished] by excessive greed, Daṇḍaka by excessive desire, Sagara's sons by excessive pride, Rāvaṇa by excessive haughtiness, read sarvakāmapradah ('fullfilling all desires') or kulakāmapradah ('fullfilling the desires of the family'). ŚDhŚ 4.28b reads sarvakāmasukhapradam, which opens up further possibilities.

4.52 Note kari for karī metri causa, and the end of pāda b (°mṛgāḥ), which should be treated metrically as if it read °mṛigāḥ.

4.53 The only way to make sense of pādas cd is to supply and avagraha before samyag. Otherwise some text may have dropped out here.

4.54 My comments in square brackets in the translation are tentative.

4.55 Mātāṅgalilā II.1 may shed some light on elephants dying in captivity: vānyas tatra sukhoṣitā vidhivaśād grāmāvatīrṇā gajā baddhās tikṣṇakāṭyagravāgbhir atisugbhimohabandhādibhiḥ | udvignās ca manahśarirajanitair duḥkhair ativākṣamāḥ prāṇān dhārayitum ciraṃ naravaśam prāptāḥ svayūthād atha ||. In Edgerton's translation (1931, 92): 'Forest elephants who dwell there happily and by the power of fate have been brought to town in bonds, afflicted by harsh, bitter, cruel words, by excessive grief, fear, bewilderment, bondage, etc., and by sufferings of mind and body, are quite unable for long to sustain life, when from their own herds they have come into the control of men.'

4.56 We may treat purūravo in pāda a as a stem form noun or thematised stem, or imagine

atikrodhena saudāsa atipānena yādavāḥ |
atitṛṣṇāc ca māndhātā nahuṣo dvijavajñayā || 4:57 ||

Saudāsa by excessive anger, the Yādavas by excessive drinking, Māndhātṛ by excessive desire, Nahuṣa by contempt for Brahmins,

that the original reading was purūravā<sup>o</sup> with double sandhi: purūravās ati<sup>o</sup> → purūravā ati<sup>o</sup> → purūravāti<sup>o</sup>.

Pāda a may refer to the following passage in the MBh (1.70.16–18, 20ab): purūravās tato vid-vān ilāyām samapadyata | sā vai tasyābhavan mātā pitā ceti hi naḥ śrutam || trayodaśa samu-drasya dvīpān aśnan purūravāḥ | amānuṣair vṛtaḥ sattvair mānuṣaḥ san mahāyasaḥ || vipraiḥ sa vighrahaṁ cakre vīryonmattaḥ purūravāḥ | jahāra ca sa viprāṇām ratnāny utkrośatām api || [...] tato maharṣibhiḥ kruddhaiḥ śaptaḥ sadyo vyanaśyata | (“The wise Purūravas was born to Ilā. We heard that Ilā was both his mother and his father. The great Purūravas ruled over thirteen islands of the ocean and, though human, he was always surrounded by superhuman beings. Intoxicated with his power, Purūravas quarrelled with some Brahmins and robbed them of their wealth even though they were protesting. [...] Therefore, cursed by the great Ṛṣis, he perished.”) See also BuddhCar 11.15 (Aiḍa = Purūravas): aiḍas ca rājā tridivam vigāhya nītvāpi devīm vaśam urvaśīm tām | lobhād ṛṣibhyah kanakam jibhīṣur jagāma nāśam viṣayeṣv atṛptaḥ ||

For Daṇḍa(ka)’s story, see Rāmāyaṇa 7.71.31 ff.: Daṇḍa meets Arajā, a beautiful girl, in a forest and rapes her. As a consequence, her father, Śukra/Bhārgava, destroys Daṇḍa’s kingdom, which thus becomes the desolate Daṇḍaka-forest.

For two versions of the destruction of Sagara’s sons, who were chasing the sacrificial horse of their father’s Aśvamedha sacrifice, and by doing so disturbed Kapila’s meditation, and who in turn burnt them to ashes, see MBh 3.105.9 ff. and BrahmāṇḍaP 2.52–53.

As for Rāvaṇa’s haughtiness, especially the fact that he chose to be invincible by all creatures except humans, and its consequences, one should recall the story of the Rāmāyaṇa and Rāvaṇa’s destruction brought about by Rāma therein.

4.57 Saudāsa, also known as Kalmāṣapāda, hit Śakti, Vasiṣṭha’s son, with a whip because the latter did not give way to him, and as a consequence Śakti cursed Saudāsa: Saudāsa had to roam the world as a Rākṣasa for twelve years. See MBh 1.166.1 ff.

As for the end of the Yādavas, see the short Mausalaparvan of the MBh (canto 16): cursed by the sages Viśvāmitra, Kaṇva and Nārada, and seeing menacing omens, the Yādavas take to drinking in Prabhāsa and destroy each other. The form māndhātō in C<sub>45</sub> stands for māndhātā (nominative of māndhātṛ). I have corrected it in spite of the fact that the authors’ knowledge about his story may come from Divyāv 17, where it sometimes appears to be an a-stem noun (māndāta). dvijavajñayā in pāda d stands for dvijavajñayā metri causa.

Māndhātṛ was born from his father’s body who, being excessively thirsty once, had drank some decoction prepared for ritual purposes and as a result become pregnant with him. Nevertheless, BuddhCar 11.13 suggests that Māndhātṛ himself was still unsatisfied with worldly objects even after he had obtained half of Indra’s throne: devena vṛṣṭe ’pi hiranyavarṣe dvīpān samagrāṁś caturo ’pi jītvā śakrasya cārdhāsanam apy avāpya māndhātur āśid viṣayeṣv atṛptiḥ||. In fact, as Monika Zin points out (Zin 2021, 149), Māndhātṛ/Māndhātā’s rise and fall is a very popular theme in the ‘Narrative Art of the Amaravati School’: ‘Statistics show that in the Amaravati School the most frequently represented narrative is the story of King Māndhātā, which appears 47 times.’

Nahuṣa was elevated to the position of Indra for a period of time and he also wanted to take Śacī, Indra’s wife. Indra instructed Śacī to tell Nahuṣa to harness some Ṛṣis to a vehicle and use this vehicle to take Śacī. Agastya, one of the Ṛṣis, was insulted even further by Nahuṣa, therefore he cursed Nahuṣa, who then fell from the vehicle. See MBh 12.329.35 ff. and a verse in the BuddhCar (11.14) that follows the one about Māndhātṛ: bhuktvāpi rājyaṁ divi devatānām śatakratau vṛtrab-hayāt pranaṣṭe | darpān maharṣin api vāhayitvā kāmēṣv atṛpto nahuṣaḥ papāta||.

[Mahā]bali perished by excessive donations, Arjuna by excessive heroism, King Nala by excessive gambling, Nṛga by taking a cow.

damena hīnaḥ puruṣo dvijendra

svargaṃ ca mokṣaṃ ca sukhaṃ ca nāsti |

vijñānadharmakulakīrtināśa

bhavanti vipra damayā vihīnāḥ || 4:59 ||

[For] a person who is without self-restraint, O great Brahmin, there is no heaven, liberation or happiness. O Brahmin, people without self-restraint are the destruction of knowledge, Dharma, family and fame.

The sixth Yama-rule: Taboos ]

nirghrṇo na paratrāsti nirghrṇo na ihāsti vai |

nirghrṇe na ca dharmo 'sti nirghrṇe na tapo 'sti vai || 4:60 ||

A person without taboos does not exist either in this or the other world. In a person without taboos there is no Dharma or religious austerity.

parastrīṣu parārtheṣu paraivāpakaṛṣaṇe |

paranindāparāṇṇeṣu ghrṇāṃ pañcasu kārayet || 4:61 ||

These five should be treated as taboo: women who are not depending on [consuming] others' food.

parastrī śṛṇu viprendra ghrṇikāryā sadā budhaiḥ |

rājñī viprī parivrājā svayoniparayoniṣu || 4:62 ||

Listen, O great Brahmin, the wise should always treat women who are not dependent on oneself as taboo, [be she] a queen, a Brahmin's wife, a

4.58 Pāda a is most probably a reference to Mahābali's promises made to Vāmana that caused his own fall. The ultimate cause of Arjuna's death while the Pāṇḍavas were on the way to the underworld was summarised by Yudhiṣṭhira thus (MBh 17.2.21ab): ekāhnā nirdaheyam vai śatrūn ity arjuno 'bravīt | na ca tat kṛtavān eṣa śūramāni tato 'patat ||. ('Arjuna claimed that he could destroy the enemy in one single day. He failed to do so. He was a boaster, that is why he fell.')

King Nala was an expert in the game of dice but once he lost his kingdom to Puṣkara. See, e.g., MBh 3.56.1 ff.

As for Nṛga, see MBh 14.93.74: gopradānasahasrāṇi dvijebhyo 'dān nṛgo nṛpaḥ | ekāṃ dattvā sa pāraḥ narakam samavāptavān ||. ('King Nṛga had made gifts of thousands of cows for the twice-born. By giving away one single cow that belonged to someone else, he fell into hell.')

4.59 Note how flexible the gender of most nouns is in pāda b: svarga, mokṣa and dama are usually masculine in standard Sanskrit. The majority of the witnesses suggest that pāda c ends in a stem form noun (°nāśa). This pāda is unmetrical, or rather it applies the licence of a word-final short syllable being counted as potentially long (°dharmA°). Note how viprā in pāda d is probably an attempt in some MSS to restore the metre. This pāda is also unmetrical, or rather the licence of a word-final short syllable being counted as potentially long is again applied (*viPR*A).

4.60 The implications of *pāda*s ab are not crystal clear to me. Perhaps: such a person has no right for existence in society and has no place in heaven.

wandering religious mendicant, a relative or of another caste.

parārthe śṛṇu bhūyo 'nya anyāyārtha-m-upārjanam |
ādhaprasthatulāvyājaiḥ parārtham yo 'pakarṣati || 4:63 ||

Listen further to something else, with regards to others' wealth. [It may include] gaining wealth through unlawful means, when somebody takes away other people's wealth by cheating with weights of one ādha[ka] or a prastha and with scales.

jīvāpakarṣaṇe vipra ghrṇīkurvīta paṇḍitaḥ |
vanajāvanajā jīvā vilagāś caraṇācarāḥ || 4:64 ||

O Brahmin, the wise should regard the taking away [of others'] lives as taboo. Wild and domesticated animals, serpents, [in general,] plants and animals [are examples of life forms not to destroy].

paranindā ca kā vipra śṛṇu vakṣye samāsataḥ |
devānām brāhmaṇānām ca gurumātātithidviṣaḥ || 4:65 ||

And what is the hurting of others? Listen, O Brahmin, I'll tell you briefly. He who is hostile to the gods, Brahmins, gurus, mothers and guests [hurts others].

parānneṣu ghrṇā kāryā abhojyeṣu ca bhojanam |
sūtake mṛtake śauṇḍe varṇabhraṣṭakule naṭe || 4:66 ||

As regards other people's food, eating together with people whose food is not to be accepted (abhojyeṣu) is taboo, [e.g.] after birth or death [in a family], in case of vendors of alcohol, or a family having lost their caste, and in the case of a [member of the] Naṭa [caste of dancers].

4.62 The translation of parayoni in pāda d is tentative.

4.63 Although 'nya in pāda a could be interpreted several ways (e.g. anye for anyasmin, or taken to be the first element of a compound: anya-anyāyārtha-), I think that bhūyo 'nyat is a fixed expression meaning 'something/anything more.' See, e.g., BhG 7.2cd: yaj jñātvā neha bhūyo 'nyaj jñātavyam avaśiṣyate.

4.64 In pāda d, I take caraṇācarāḥ as standing for carācarāḥ (cara-acarāḥ) metri causa. Alternatively, one may understand it as caraṇacarāḥ (metri causa), meaning 'those who move on their feet,' perhaps as opposed to snakes (bilaga or bilamga). Neither solution is fully satisfactory. Note that this pāda also involves a small correction.

4.65 Note mātā as a stem form in pāda d.

4.66 One should probably understand śauṇḍe in pāda c as śauṇḍike, 'a distiller,' or, alternatively, it may be corrupted from śaṇḍhe, 'a eunuch'; see both in Vāsiṣṭhadharmaśāstra 14.1-3: athāto bhojyābhojyam ca varṇayīṣyāmāḥ | cikitsaka-mṛgayu-puṃścali-ḍaṇḍika-stenābhiśastar-śaṇḍha-patitānām annam abhojyam | kadarya-dikṣita-baddhātura-somavikrayi-takṣa-rajaka-śauṇḍika-sūcaka-vārdhuṣika-carmāvakṛtānām || etc. Translated in Olivelle 1999, 285 as: 'Next we will describe food that is fit and food that is unfit to be eaten [...]. The following are unfit to be eaten: food given by a physician, a hunter, a harlot, a law enforcement agent, a thief, a heinous sinner [...] a eunuch, or an outcaste; as also that given by a miser, a man consecrated for a sacrifice, a prisoner, a sick person, a man who sells Soma, a carpenter, a washerman, a liquor dealer, a spy, an usurer, a leather worker...' In support of reading śaṇḍhe, one might consult Manu 3.239: cāṇḍālāś

ete pañcaghr̥ṇāsu saktapurūṣāḥ svargārthamokṣārthinah

loke 'nindanam āpnuvanti satatam kīrtir yaśo'lamkṛtāḥ |

prajñābodhaśrutim smṛtim ca labhate mānam ca nityam labhet

dākṣiṇyam sabhavet sa āyusa param prāpnoti niḥsaṃśayaḥ || 4:67 ||

Those people who stick to the five kinds of taboo [and thus] seek heaven, wealth and liberation, will reach eternal faultlessness in this world, embellished with fame and glory. [A person like that] will obtain wisdom, intelligence, [knowledge of] the Śruti and Smṛti traditions, and honour forever. Kindness will arise and he will obtain an extra long life, no doubt.

The seventh Yama-rule: The five methods of virtue? ]

caturmaunam catuḥśatruś caturāyatanaṃ tathā |

caturdhyānam catuṣpādam pañcadhanyavidhocyate || 4:68 ||

The four cases of observing silence, [victory over] the four enemies, the four sanctuaries, the four meditations, and the four legged [Dharma] are called the five ways of being virtuous.

caturmaunasya vakṣyāmi śṛṇuṣvāvahito bhava |

pāruṣyapiśunāmithyāsambhinnāni ca varjayet || 4:69 ||

I shall tell you about the four cases of observing silence. Listen, be attentive.

One should avoid violent and slanderous [words], lies, and idle [talk].

kāmaḥ krodhaś ca lobhaś ca mohaś caiva caturvidhaḥ |

catuḥśatrur nihantavyaḥ so 'rihā vītakalmaṣaḥ || 4:70 ||

The fourfold enemy [made up of] desire, anger, greed and delusion is to be destroyed. He who destroys [these] enemies will become sinless.

ca varāhaś ca kukkuṭaḥ śvā tathaiva ca | rajasvalā ca ṣaṇḍhaś ca nekṣerann aśnato dvijān ||
Translated in Olivelle 1999, 120 as: 'A Cāṇḍāla, a pig, a cock, a dog, a menstruating woman, or a eunuch must not look at the Brahmins while they are eating.'

4.67 Understand kīrtir-yaśo° as kīrtiyaśo° ('r' being an intrusive consonant here metri causa), as in 5.20 below. Alternatively, as suggested by Francesco Sferra, emend to kīrtim yaśo'lamkṛtām. My emendation of °kṛtam to °kṛtāḥ is influenced by 5.20b. In pāda c, note the muta cum liquida licence that allows °bodhaśrutim° to scan as - ˘ ˘ -, the consonant cluster śr not turning the previous syllable long. Pāda d has several problems. I take sabhavet as standing for sambhavet metri causa, and I had to emend saṃāyusa to sa āyusa to make sense of it. Understand āyusa as āyuh (metri causa), otherwise emend to sa mānuṣya. Also consider correcting niḥsaṃśayaḥ to niḥsaṃśayam.

4.68 Understand pāda d as pañcavidho dhanya ucyate.

4.69 Note the genitive with a verb meaning 'to tell' in pāda a, similarly to 1.38a and CHECK. Similar teachings on mauna in DharmP 1.31cd–32ab and Divyāv 186.21 are quoted in the apparatus.

4.70 Possible direct sources for the idea that kāma is an enemy to be defeated or avoided include BuddhCar 11.17: cirāmbarā mūlaphalāmbubhākṣā jaṭā vahanto 'pi bhujamgadirghāḥ | yair nānyakāryā munayo 'pi bhagnāḥ kaḥ kāmasaṃjñān mṛgayeta śatrūn ||; see also BhG 3.43: evam buddheḥ param buddhvā saṃstabhyātmanam ātmanā | jahi śatrum mahābāho kāmārūpam durāsadam ||. As for arihā in pāda d, the notion that a saint is a 'destroyer of the enemies' [that are evil states of mind] (arihanta/arahanta) in Jainism, but less so in Buddhism, is discussed

caturāyatanaṃ vipra kathayisyāmi tac chṛṇu |

karuṇā muditopekṣā maitrī cāyatanaṃ smṛtam || 4:71 ||

I shall teach you the four sanctuaries. Listen, O Brahmin. Compassion, sympathy in joy, indifference, and benevolence are the four sanctuaries.

caturdhyānādhunā vakṣye saṃsārārṇavatāraṇam |

ātmavidyābhavaḥ sūkṣmaṃ dhyānam uktaṃ caturvidham || 4:72 ||

I shall now teach you the four meditations, which will liberate you from transmigration. Meditation is taught to be fourfold: of the Self, vidyā, bhava [= Śiva] and the subtle one (sūkṣma).

ātmatattvaḥ smṛto dharmo vidyā pañcasu pañcadhā |

ṣaṭtriṃśākṣaram ityāhuḥ sūkṣmatattvam alaṅkṣaṇam || 4:73 ||

The tattva of the Self is Dharma. Vidyā is in the five in a fivefold way[?]. They call the thirty-sixth the imperishable one, [and] the subtle tattva has no attributes.

catuṣpādaḥ smṛto dharmas caturāśramam āśritaḥ |

gṛhastho brahmacārī ca vānaprastho 'tha bhaikṣukaḥ || 4:74 ||

The four-legged one is said to be Dharma [as] it rests on the four āśramas, [those of] the householder, the chaste one, the forest-dweller and the mendicant.

dhanyās te yair idaṃ vetti nikhilena dvijottama |

in Gombrich 2013, 57–58.

4.71 This verse teaches the four Buddhist brahmvihāras under the label caturāyatana. Therefore the word āyatana seems to be a synonym of vihāra here, and its use a simple method of appropriating it, turning the list into a Brahmanical one.

4.72 Note the stem form dhyāna in °dhyānādhunā (for °dhyānam adhunā) in pāda a. For contrast, but also for similarities, see the dhyānayajña section in VSS 6.7ff, in which five types of related meditations are taught. See analysis on pp. Intro CHECK.

4.73 This verse is difficult to interpret. Pādas a to d should define ātman, vidyā, bhava, and sūkṣma, objects of meditation, respectively. In pāda a, dharmo is suspect: it may be the result of an eye-skip to pāda a of the next verse. Pāda b might refer to tattvas in an ontological system of 25, 26 or 36 tattvas. If pāda c is in fact a reference to a 36-tattva philosophical system, it is in striking contrast with the 25-tattva system described in VSS chapter 20. I take ṣaṭtriṃśa as being in stem form.

4.75 Note the plural instrumental (yair) with a singular active verb (vetti; anacoluthic structure).

There are five areas of negligence. I shall teach them to you, listen.

Murdering a Brahmin, drinking alcohol, stealing, having sex with the guru's wife: they call these grievous sins. The fifth is when one is connected with them [i.e. with these sins or with people involved in these sinful acts].

anṛtaṁ ca samutkarṣe rājagāmī ca paśūnaḥ |

sakhyuḥ putrasya ca strīṣu gurutaḥpasamaḥ smṛtaḥ || 4:80 ||

Sexual intercourse with a female relative, with an unmarried girl, with women of the lowest castes, with the wife of a friend or of one's own son are said to be equal to violating the guru's bed.

4.76 Emending °mānavah to °mānave might err by overcorrection, and °mānavah may have originally been felt like a genitive ('for a person...').

4.77 Note the stem form noun in pāda a (°sthāna) metri causa, and also that this stem form noun may function as a singular noun next to a number (pañca), a frequently seen phenomenon in this text. See the apparatus to the Sanskrit text for very similar verses in the MBh, Manu and the YājñS, and note how pāda f slightly deviates from Manu 11.55, which is translated in Olivelle 2005, 217–218 as: 'Killing a Brahmin, drinking liquor, stealing, and having sex with an elder's wife—they call these "grievous sins causing loss of caste"; and so is establishing any links with such individuals.'

4.78 This verse being a quotation of Manu 11.56, my translation is based on Olivelle 2005, 218.

4.79 This verse continues quoting Manu. Pāda a in the witnesses may actually be no more than the result of misreading of the syllable jjha in Manu 11.57. Note the variant brahmojjhaṁ vedanindā ca in both the 'Northern' and 'Southern' transmissions in Olivelle's critical edition of Manu (Olivelle 2005, 847).

4.80 The text, and my emendation in pāda c, still follow Manu (11.59).

If a man is associated with [any of these] four [i.e. brahmahatyā, surāpāna, stena, gurvaṅganāgama], he commits sin. By this all the five grievous sins have been explained. These five kinds of negligence are to be avoided, O great Brahmin.

4.81 This is Manu 11.58. I have emended rugma° to rukma° in pāda d, although rugma° is attested in a great number of Southern MSS and one Śāradā MS in Olivelle 2005, 847.

4.82 Perhaps understand pāda c as etan mahāpātakapañcakam. Note the confusion of number and gender: understand pañca pramādāḥ etā varjanīyāḥ or pañca prāmādāny etāni varjanīyāni.

4.83 My emendation from °manasā dhūryaś to °mana-mādhuryaś is based on the fact that following the list of yamas in 3.16cd–17ab, we need some reference to mādhurya here and that it is easy to see how this corruption came about: °mano-mādhurya° would be unmetrical, hence the form °mana-mādhurya; °mana-mā° is easily corrupted to °manasā° (not to mention the fact that manasā comes up in the next verse). In addition, we need five items in this line because of pañcamah. As always, I correct mādhūrya to mādhurya, although it seems that the former is acceptable in this text. I did not correct mādhuryaś to mādhuryaṃ because of the corresponding pañcamah.

4.84 Pādas cd of the previous verse, and pādas ab of the present one cover four categories of the above: cakṣurmādhurya, buddhimādhurya, drṣṭimādhurya and vāgmādhurya. This suggests that what follows is on kāyamādhurya. Emending pāda d to svāśramābhyāgate gurau would make the line smoother, as suggested by Kengo Harimoto.

duritamalapahārī śaṅkarasyājñāyāste

bhavati prthivibhartā hy ekachatrpravartā || 4:89 ||

Thus has been taught this section on the yama-rules, O great Brahmin. Humans should follow them to reach happiness here and in the other world. One will stand removing one's filth of sins, and shall by Śaṅkara's command become a ruler of the world [that he subjugates] under one royal umbrella.

4.85 Understand jātavedam in pāda b as jātavedasam or jātavedāḥ, or rather as belonging to the compound °dānaṃ: jātavedodānaṃ. For pāda e, see an Āryāgiti verse in the MahāSubhS (2558): amṛtāyatām iti vadet pite bhukte kṣute ca śataṃ jīva | choṭikayā saba jṛmbhāsamaye syātām cirāyurānandau || ('When eating or drinking, one should say: "May it turn into nectar!"; and after sneezing: "Live for a hundred years!" By snapping the thumb and forefinger when yawning, there will be long life and happiness.')

4.86 °ārjavāḥ should be in the accusative, therefore it is to be taken as feminine (rather than neuter) or as an irregular form for °ārjavāni. I have emended pāratoṣikam to pārītoṣikam. My translation of the categories listed here is tentative, the only guiding light being that, if the first line is right, there should be five of them. In addition, I have tried to find categories that seem to be, more or less, in conflict with 'sincerity' or 'straightness.'

4.87 I thank Nirajan Kafle for helping me interpret this verse.

4.89 In pāda a °pra° does not make the previous syllable long: this is the phenomenon of 'muta cum liquida,' one of the hallmarks of the VSS, that is, syllables such as tra, pra, bra, dra do not necessarily make the previous syllable long. In pāda b, parata most probably stands for paratra or parataḥ metri causa. We may correct it to paratra, presupposing the presence of the li-

I could have choosen to emend it to °malaprahārī (again applying the licence ‘muta cum liquida’), but I decided not to because apahārin, apahāra, apahāraka are used in the text very frequently. See also 8.44c, which contains a very similar expression: sakalamalapahāre dharmapañcāśad etat.

Vigatarāga spoke: Now teach me the true nature of the Niyama-rules in detail. I have become desirous to hear [your] teaching that is comparable to ambrosia. Tell me more (apara vada), [to the one who had been] burnt by the fire of materiality (prakṛti), [but is now] sprinkled with the water of knowledge, and is ignorant of [the topic]. One can't have enough of the [teaching on] Dharmas (nāsti dharmeṣu tṛptiḥ).

Anarthaya jñā spoke: I shall teach you something more that is nice to hear, O best of the twice-born. The specific sections of the Niyamas are of five types [each]. It is the essence of Dharma, dear to Hari, Hara and the sages, O great Brahmin, the destruction of the impurity of the Kali age, generally known as liberation.

śaucam iḥyā tapo dānaṃ svādhyāyopasthanigrahaḥ |
vratopavāsamaunaṃ ca snānaṃ ca niyamā daśa || 5:3 ||

Purification, sacrifice, penance, donation, Vedic study and the restraint of sexual desire, religious observances, fasting, taciturnity, and bathing: these are the ten Niyamas.

5.1 Most witnesses read °vadana° in pāda b. This is slightly odd in the sense of 'speech,' the meaning required here, therefore I follow M here. One wonders if it is not amṛtasvādāna or °svadāna ('tasting nectar') what was meant originally. I translate the phrase in question as if it read amṛtatulyavacanam. The first half of pāda d is difficult to interpret safely. apara vada ('tell me more') might be original, with apara in stem form. The phrase matājñā is now emended to -m-atajjñāṃ, containing a hiatus breaker but making the line metrical. Otherwise it could be emended to matājñā (with the last syllable taken as long) and translated as a vocative ('O knower of [my] thoughts'). Note M's reading for the end of the line (me dharmatṛptiḥ).

5.2 My suspicion is that °kala° in pāda b stands for kalā metri causa. Similarly, °munibhīṣṭam is metri causa, for °munyabhīṣṭam ('dear the the sages'). In pāda d, prāya° is suspect. Compare with 6.1c: dharmamokṣaprasiddhyartham.

[ niyameṣu śaucam (1) —

tatra śaucādinirdeśaṃ vakṣyāmiha dvijottama |
śārīraśaucam āhāro mātṛā bhāvaś ca pañcamah || 5:4 ||

From among these, now I shall tell you the particulars of purification [first], and [then] the others. [1] Bodily purity, [2] [purity of] food, [3] [purity of] property[?] (mātṛā), [4] [purity of] character[?] (bhāva), and the fifth, [5]...?

[ śārīraśaucam — Purity of the Body ]

tāḍayen na ca bandheta na ca prānair viyojayet |
parastrīparadravyeṣu śaucam kāyikam ucyate || 5:5 ||

He should not beat, tie or kill [any living being]. [This and] purity concerning others' wives and property is called bodily purity.

śrotraśaucam dvijaśreṣṭha gudopasthamukhādayaḥ |
mukhasyācamanaṃ śaucam āhāravacaneṣu ca || 5:6 ||

The cleanliness of the ears, O great Brahmin, and of the anus, the loins, the mouth etc. [also contributes to bodily purity]. The purity of the mouth [comes from] sipping water before eating, speaking.

mūtraviṣṭāsamutsarge devatārādhaneṣu ca |
mṛttoyais tu gudopastham śaucayīta vicakṣaṇaḥ || 5:7 ||

After the emission of urine and faeces, and before the worship of gods, the wise one should clean his anus and his loins with clay and water.

ekopasthe gude pañca tathaikatṛa kare daśa |
ubhayoḥ sapta dātavyā mṛdaḥ śuddhiṃ samīhatā || 5:8 ||

One [portion of clay] for the loins, five for the anus, ten for one hand, [then] seven [portions] of clay are to be applied for both [hands] by him who wishes cleanliness.

5.4 The chapter deals with śārīraśauca (5.5–9) and āhāraśauca (5.10–16), therefore pāda c is probably correct, and M's reading (śārīrasrotam āhāra) is wrong. Even if we could interpret pāda d with any certainty, there is one missing element of this list of allegedly five items. Something must have dropped out here. Oddly enough, the chapter stops after teaching the second type of purity, āhāraśauca, so we are left without a clue. MBh Indices 14.4.3229–3230 is not very helpful: manaḥśaucam karmaśaucam kulaśaucam ca bhārata | śārīraśaucam vākśaucam śaucam pañcavidham smṛtam ||.

5.5 Note the application of the licence muta cum liquida in pāda c: the first syllable of dravyeṣu does not make the previous syllable heavy.

5.7 Note the peculiar verb form śaucayīta (for a more standard śocayeta). M's śaucaye[c] ca may be close to an original reading.

5.8 In essence, this verse is Manu 5.136. Olivelle's notes on this verse read: 'on one hand: within the context the meaning is clear: "one hand" refers to the left hand, with which the person applied the earth and water to the penis and anus. All purifications below the navel are carried out using the left hand. Variant reading: "on the left hand."' (Olivelle 2005, 287.)

*etac chaucam grhasthānām dviguṇam brahmacārinām |
vānaprasthasya triguṇam yatinām tu caturguṇam || 5:9 ||*

This is the purification for the householder (grhastha). It is twice as much for the chaste one (brahmacārin), three times as much for the forest-dweller (vānaprastha), four times as much for the ascetic (yati).

[ āhāraśaucam — Purity of the food ]

*āhāraśaucam vakṣyāmi śṛṇuṣvāvahito bhava |
bhāgadvayaṃ tu bhuñjīta bhāgam ekaṃ jalam pibet |
vāyusaṃcārādānārthaṃ caturtham avaśeṣayet || 5:10 ||*

I shall teach you the rules of purity concerning food. Listen, pay great attention. One should eat [as much] food [that fills] two quarters [of the stomach] and drink water [that fills] one quarter. In order to give passage to the air, one should save the remaining quarter.

*snigdhasvādurasaiḥ ṣaḍbhir āhāraṣaḍrasair budhaḥ |
dhātuvaśāmyanāśo 'sti na ca rogāḥ sudāruṇāḥ || 5:11 ||*

[By] the wise one[’s applying] the six soft and sweet juices, [which are] the six flavours in food, the disturbances of the dhātus will disappear and the terrible illnesses will not arise.

*abhakṣyaṃ ca na bhakṣeta apeyaṃ na ca pāyayet |
agamyaṃ na ca gamyeta avācyaṃ na ca bhāṣayet || 5:12 ||*

He should not eat what is forbidden and he should not drink what is

5.9 This verse corresponds to Manu 5.137. Note the muta cum liquida licence in pāda c: tr does not turn the previous syllable heavy and the pāda becomes a na-vipulā.

5.10 Śaṅkara quotes a similar verse in his commentary ad BhG 6.16 (see apparatus). It translates as: ‘Half is for saucy food, the third part for water, but in order to be able to move the air, one should leave the fourth part [empty].’ This verse and one in the SannyāsUp (see apparatus) have saṃcārānārthaṃ tu and saṃcārānārthāya, respectively, where our verse in the VSS has saṃcārādānārthaṃ. It would be tempting to emend but the VSS version more or less works fine, therefore there is no need to alter the text.

5.11 The readings may suggest that pāda b contains sadrava or maybe sudrava, but it is difficult to make sense of the sentence. We are lacking a verb; āhāra might be wrong for āharet (see M). The Āyurvedic implications of this clumsy verse are obscure to me. What is clear is that traditionally there are six basic flavours or ‘juices’ in food. See, e.g. BhelaS 1.28.1: yad bhakṣayati bhuñkte vā vidhivac cāpi mānavah | anyac ca kiñcit pibati tat sarvaṃ ṣaḍrasānvitam || (‘All that a human eats or enjoys according to the rules, and furthermore all that he or she drinks, is endowed with the six flavours.’) To repair pādas ab, one should perhaps imagine that the intended meaning was that the six flavours/juices should be present in a harmonious proportion in a wise man’s food. Cf. BhelaS 3.1.1: ṣarīraṃ dhārayantiḥ ṣaḍrasāḥ samam āhṛtāḥ | ato 'nyathā vikārāṃs tu janayanti śarīriṇām || (‘The six flavours will support the body in this world when brought to a balanced state. Otherwise they will produce defects to people.’) On dhātuvaśāmya, see, e.g., Caraka 1.9.4: vikāro dhātuvaśāmyaṃ sāmyaṃ prakṛtir ucyate | sukhasaṃjñakam ārogyaṃ vikāro duḥkham eva ca || (‘The imbalance of the dhātus means defects. Balance is said to be natural. Health is happiness, defects are suffering.’) forbidden. He should not go where he is not allowed to and he should not say what is improper.

*laśunaṃ ca palāṇḍuṃ ca grñjanaṃ kavakāni ca |

He should avoid garlic, onion, grñjana onion, mushrooms, buffalo meat and pork, following the rules.

*chattrākaṃ viḍvarāhaṃ ca gomāmśam ca na bhakṣayet |

He should also avoid [eating] geese, cranes, cakravāka birds, cocks, parrots and hawks, crows, owls, balāka cranes, fish etc.

*amedhyāmś cāpavitrāmś ca sarvān eva vivarjayet |
śākamūlaphalānām ca abhakṣyam parivarjayet || 5:16 ||*

He should avoid everything that is ritually impure or polluted. He should also completely avoid those vegetables, roots and fruits, that are prohibited.

In the books of Manu, in the Purāṇas, in Śaiva texts, and in the Bhāratasaṃhitā (i.e. the Mahābhārata), the practice of purity is definitely expanded in great detail. Now you have asked me [about it], and I taught it [to you] in a condensed form.

*satyavādī śucir nityam dhyānayogarataḥ śuciḥ |
ahimsakaḥ śucir dānto dayābhūtakṣamā śuciḥ || 5:18 ||*

He who speaks the truth is pure. He who engages in yogic meditation is pure. He who avoids violence and is restrained is pure. Compassion towards living beings and patience is purity.

sarveṣām eva śaucānām arthaśaucam param smṛtam |

5.12 Understand the causative pāyayet as simplex.

5.15 Note that in pāda b the first syllable of śyenakān does not turn the previous syllable, śu, heavy. This is an extension of the muta cum liquida licence.

5.17 In pāda b, since °samhite is not a correct locative of °samhitā, instead of emending to śaive bhāratasaṃhite, we may take the compound as a samāhāradvandvasamāsa in the neuter locative. Note the gender and number confusion between kīrtitāni and °ācāram in pādas cd. This and the next verse sound as if the author had been aware of the fact that he left the remaining three categories of purity (see 5.4) unexplained.

5.18 My impression is that dayābhūtakṣamā in pāda d may stand for bhūtaḍayā kṣamā (bhū-taḍayā occurring in 1.7 and 3.27–28), and I translate accordingly.

yo 'rthe hi śuciḥ sa śucir na mṛdvāriśuciḥ śuciḥ |

kāyavānīmanasāṃ śaucaṃ sa śuciḥ sarvavastuḥ || 5:19 ||

Of all the [ways of] purification, material purification is taught to be the highest. For he who is pure with regards to material things is truly pure, and not the one who [only] uses clay and water [i.e. the one who performs only ordinary baths]. When purification pertains to the body, to speech and to the mind, he is pure in all respects.

5.19 Pādas a-d are quoting Manu 5.106 (in most witnesses, unmetrically); it is translated in Olivelle 2005, 144 as: 'Purifying oneself with respect to wealth, tradition tells us, is the highest of all purifications; for the truly pure man is the one who is pure with respect to wealth, not the one who becomes pure by using earth and water.'

5.20 Note the stem form adjective °jña and noun °mānava metri causal and the second syllable of yadi as a long syllable at the caesura in pāda a (see M's reading), the plural āpnvanti where one would expect a verb in the singular and kīrtir metri causa for a compounded stem form (kīrti°) in pāda b, and the sandhi-bridge -m- in paratra-m-īhita° in pāda d. Compare with 4.67b above.

The second Niyama-rule: Sacrifice ]

atha pañcavidhām iḥyām pravakṣyāmi dvijottama |
dharmamokṣaprasiddhyartham ṣṛṇuṣvāvahito dvija || 6:1 ||

[Anarthayajña continued:] Now I shall teach you the five types of sacrifice (iḥyā), O excellent Brahmin, for success in Dharma and liberation. Listen carefully, O Brahmin.

arthayajñāḥ kriyāyajño japayajñas tathaiva ca |
jñānam dhyānam ca pañcaitat pravakṣyāmi prthak prthak || 6:2 ||

Material sacrifice, sacrifice through work, sacrifice through recitation, knowledge and meditation: I shall teach you these five one by one.

[ arthayajñāḥ — Material sacrifice ]

agnyupāśanakarmādi agnihotrakratukriyā |
aṣṭakā pārvaṇī śrāddham dravyayajñāḥ sa ucyate || 6:3 ||

Material sacrifice includes the following: the domestic ritual fire worship etc., the public performance of the ritual of Agnihotra, [and the so-called pākayajñas such as] the Aṣṭakā oblation, the Pārvaṇī oblation, and the ancestral ritual (śrāddha).

[ kriyāyajñāḥ — Sacrifice through work ]

ārāmodyānavāpīṣu devatāyataneṣu ca |
svahastakṛtasamskāraḥ kriyāyajña sa ucyate || 6:4 ||

Sacrifice through work is taking care of/cleaning/embellishing (samskāra) a grove, a park, a pond or a temple with one's own hands.

6.2 Note the singular etat after a number (see Intro CHECK).

Compare this list of five to the somewhat similar BhG 4.28: dravyayajñās tapoyajñā yogayajñās tathāpare | svādhyāyajñānayajñāś ca yatayaḥ samśita-vratāḥ ||. ŚDhU chapter 3 can be also relevant since it uses the terms japayajña, jñānayajña, and dhyānayajña. See also ŚDhU 1.10 (C<sub>9.4</sub> f. 4.2v 14): karmayajñas tapoyajñāḥ svādhyāyo dhyānam eva ca | jñānayajñāś ca pañcaite mahāyajñāḥ prakīrtitāḥ ||. Note how this definition of the five mahāyajñas in the ŚDhU is different from the one, e.g., in Manu 3.69–71 (brahma°, pitr°, daiva°, bhauta°, and nṛyajña).

6.3 By somewhat overtranslating the items in this list, I want to emphasise that the text introduces three categories of sacrificial rituals well-known from the time of the Grhyasūtras and Śrautasūtras: those of the domestic or aupāsana fire (grhyakarma), the Śrauta rituals such as the Agnihotra, and the Smārta pākayajñas, such as the aṣṭakā, the pārvaṇī and the śrāddha. For a mention of the pākayajñas in a manner similar to our pādas cd here, see, e.g. the Dikṣottara quoted in Goodall, Sanderson, & Isaacson 2015, 275: aṣṭakāḥ pārvaṇī śrāddham śrāvanyāgrahāṇīcaitryāśvayujī tathā | caitrī cāśvayujī caiva pākayajñāḥ prakīrtitāḥ ||. For an earlier list of pākayajñas, see GautDhS 1.8.19: aṣṭakā pārvaṇāḥ śrāddham śrāvanyāgrahāṇīcaitryāśvayujī sapta pākayajñasamsthāḥ.

Sacrifice through recitation ]

japayajñam tato vakṣye svargamokṣaphalapradam |
vedādhyayana kartavyam śivasamhitam eva ca |
itihāsapurāṇam ca japayajñah sa ucyate || 6:5 ||

Next I shall teach you the sacrifice through recitation, the bestower of the fruits of heaven and liberation. One should recite the Vedas, Śaiva texts or the Mahābhārata, the epics and the Purāṇas: this is called sacrifice with recitation.

[ jñānayajñah —

Sacrifice through knowledge ]

idaṁ karma akarmedam ūhāpohaviśāradaḥ |
śāstracakṣuḥ samālokyā jñānayajñah sa ucyate || 6:6 ||

[He who can decide if] ‘this is [proper] action; the other is improper action’ because he is knowledgeable about reasoning pro and contra, and investigates with his eyes on the Śāstras, is called [a person performing] sacrifice through knowledge.

[ dhyānayajñah —

Sacrifice through meditation ]

dhyānayajñam samāsenā kathayisyāmi te śṛṇu |
dhyānam pañcavidham caiva kīrtitam hariṇā purā |
sūryaḥ somo ’gni sphaṭikaḥ sūkṣmaṁ tattvaṁ ca pañcamam || 6:7 ||

I shall teach you concisely about sacrifice through meditation. Listen to me. Meditation was taught by Hari in the past as of five kinds. [Meditation on] the Sun, the Moon, Fire, Crystal and the subtle tattva as fifth.

sūryamaṇḍalam ādau tu tattvaṁ prakṛtir ucyate |
tasya madhye śaśiṁ dhyāyet tattvaṁ puruṣa ucyate || 6:8 ||

First it is the Sun [that should be meditated upon], which is said to be prakṛti-tattva. He should visualize the Moon in its centre: that tattva is said

6.5 Note the stem form vedādhyayana in pāda c metri causa. As for the interpretation of śivasamhitam in pāda d, see 5.17b above: śaivabhāratasamhite. The proximity of these two phrases, and the fact that both give instructions on using texts, suggest that we should interpret them similarly. It is then a samāhāradvandvasamāsa again, in the neuter. Both śivasamhitam and itihāsapurāṇam should be interpreted as being part of the compound in pāda c: śivasamhitādhyayanaṁ and itihāsapurāṇādhyayanaṁ.

6.6 For the expression śāstracakṣuḥ, see, e.g., BrahmaP 24.21: tena yajñān yathāproktān mānavāḥ śāstracakṣuḥ | kurvate ’harahaś caiva devān āpyāyanti te ||. In G. P. Bhatt’s translation (Bhatt 1955, 126): ‘Day by day men with the sacred scriptures as their guides perform sacrifices in the manner they have been laid down and thereby nourish the gods.’

6.7 For an analysis of this fivefold method of meditation, and this ancient-looking tattva-system, see Intro CHECK, and for different versions of the same teaching of meditation, see VSS 22.19–28 and DharmP 4.5–14.

*candramaṇḍalamadhye tu jvālām agniṁ vicintayet |
prabhutattvaḥ sa vijñeyo janmamṛtyuvināśanaḥ || 6:9 ||*

In the centre of the Moon's disk, he should visualise a flame, a fire. That is said to be prabhu-tattva, the destroyer of [the circle of] birth and death.

*agnimaṇḍalamadhye tu dhyāyet sphaṭika nirmalam |
vidyātattvaḥ sa vijñeyaḥ kāraṇam ajam avyayam || 6:10 ||*

In the centre of the ring of Fire, he should visualize a spottless crystal. That is said to be vidyā-tattva, the never-born, imperishable cause.

*vidyāmaṇḍalamadhye tu dhyāyet tattvam anuttamam |
akīrtitam anaupamyam śivam akṣayam avyayam |
pañcamam dhyānayaññasya tattvam uktaṁ samāsataḥ || 6:11 ||*

In the centre of the disk of vidyā, he should visualize the highest tattva, never-heard, unparalleled, undecaying and imperishable Śiva. The fifth tattva of the sacrifice through meditation has been taught in short.

*vigatarāga uvāca |
ekaikasya tu tattvasya phalaṁ kīrtaya kīdṛśam |
kāni lokāḥ prapadyante kālāṁ vāsya tapodhana || 6:12 ||*

Vigatarāga spoke: Teach me, what are the fruits of [reaching] each tattva? Which worlds can be attained and how much time [can one spend there], O great ascetic?

*anarthayañña uvāca |
brahmalokaṁ tu prathamam tattvapraṁkṛticintayā |
kalpakotīśahasrāṇi śivavan modate sukhī || 6:13 ||*

Anarthayañña spoke: Through meditation on the first tattva, prakṛti, [one reaches] Brahmaloka. He will rejoice [there] happily like Śiva for millions of æons.

*dvitīyam tattva puruṣam dhyāyamāno mṛto yadi |
viṣṇulokaṁ ito yāti kalpakotīyayutam sukhī || 6:14 ||*

If one dies while meditating on the second tattva, puruṣa, one goes to 6.8 Note the form śasiṁ for śasiṇam.

6.10 Note the stem form sphaṭika in pāda b metri causa.

6.12 The reading tritattvasya in pāda a in the MSS is a problem because we have just finished a section mentioning five tattvas. (This was probably noticed by E, hence printing hi for tri°.) My conjecture (tu) is based on the assumption that tri is often written as tr in Nepalese MSS (e.g. in M at this point) and that tr may then easily get corrupted to tu.

6.13 Understand pādas ab as brahmalokaṁ prathamamatattvacintayā prakṛtitattvacintayā. One might take prathamam adverbially ('firstly': prathamam brahmalokaṁ prakṛtitattvacintayā), but in the next verses, the ordinal numbers (dvitīyam, trītiyam, pañcamam) always refer to the tattvas.

Viṣṇuloka from this world, [and will live there] happily for billions of æons.

prabhutattvaṃ tṛtīyaṃ tu dhyāyamāno mariṣyati |
śivaloke vasen nityaṃ kalpakotṣayutaṃ śatam || 6:15 ||

Should one die while meditating on the third, the prabhu-tattva, one can live in Śivaloka continuously for a hundred billion æons.

vidyātattvāmṛtaṃ dhyāyet sadāśivam anāmayam |
akṣayaṃ lokam āpnoti kalpānāntaparam tathā || 6:16 ||

If he visualizes the nectar of vidyā-tattva, [i.e.] Sadāśiva, he can reach [His] diseaseless, imperishable world [and can live there] well beyond endless æons.

pañcamam śivatattvaṃ tu sūkṣmaṃ cātmani samsthitam |
na kālasamkhyā tatrāsti śivena saha modate || 6:17 ||

The fifth one, the subtle śiva-tattva dwells in the Self. There is no counting of time there and he will be rejoicing [there] together with Śiva.

pañcadhyānābhiyukto bhavati ca na punarjanmasaṃskārabandhaḥ jijñāsyantāṃ dvijendra bhavadahanakaraḥ prārthanākalpavṛkṣaḥ | janmenaikena muktir bhavati kimu na vā mānavāḥ sādhayantu
pratyakṣān nānumānaṃ sakalamalaharaṃ svātmasaṃvedanīyam || 6:18 ||

[If] he practises the five meditations, there is no rebirth and no more fetters of transmigration. O excellent Brahmin, [the Lord] should be sought, a wishing tree of desires, [as] he burns away existence. Liberation comes within one single birth! People, why should you not strive [for it]! [It is known] as the destroyer of all impurity. [It's ascertainable] by direct perception. It is not inference. It is to be experienced by one's own Self.

[ niyameṣu tapaḥ (3) —

The third Niyama-rule: Penance ]

mānasam tapa ādau tu dvitīyaṃ vācikaṃ tapaḥ |
kāyikaṃ ca tṛtīyaṃ tu manovāṅkarma tatparam |
kāyikaṃ vācikaṃ caiva tapo miśraka pañcamam || 6:19 ||

6.14 Note the stem form tattva in pāda a metri causa.

6.15 E changes śivaloka to rudraloka, probably for more contrast with sadāśiva in 6.16 and śivatattva in 6.17. CHECK

6.16 In pāda a, amṛta is suspect. It may refer to the world of Sadāśiva and then vidyātattva is in stem form. Alternatively, since this verse is the only one in this list of worlds (6.13–17) without an ordinal number, amṛtaṃ may mean ‘four’ or possibly ‘fourth,’ as suggested by Monier-Williams and Apte in their dictionaries. This meaning would fit in nicely. In addition, dying has been mentioned above, thus amṛtaṃ might be a corrupted form of a participle from the verbal root mṛ (mṛyan or maran?): e.g., vidyātattvaṃ mṛyan dhyāyet... (‘should he meditation upon Vidyātattva while dying...’).

6.18 Note how a plural passive imperative form (jijñāsyantāṃ) stands for the singular (jijñāsyatām) metri causa. Note also that the last syllable of dvijendra (at the caesura) counts here as long: this phenomenon of a word-ending syllable becoming long by position is common in the VSS. The non-standard janmena in pāda d seems superior to janmanā for it preserves the metre.

The first type of penance is mental penance, the second is verbal penance, the third is the bodily one, the next one is the one which is [characterised by] both mental and verbal action. The fifth type of penance is a mixture of the bodily and the verbal ones.

*manahsaumyaṃ prasādaś ca ātmanigrahaṃ eva ca |
maunaṃ bhāvaviśuddhiś ca pañcāitat tapa mānasam || 6:20 ||*

Gentleness of the mind, calmness, self-control, taciturnity and the purification of one's state of mind: mental penance comprises these five.

*anudvegakarā vāṇī priyaṃ satyaṃ hitaṃ ca yat |
svādhyāyābhyasanaṃ caiva vācikaṃ tapa ucyaṭe || 6:21 ||*

Verbal penance is taught as speech that causes no anxiety, which is kind, true and useful, and it includes also the practice of recitation.

*ārjavaṃ ca ahiṃsā ca brahmacaryaṃ surārcanaṃ |
śaucaṃ pañcamam ity etat kāyikaṃ tapa ucyaṭe || 6:22 ||*

Bodily penance is taught as the following: honesty, harmlessness, chastity, the worship of gods, and purity as the fifth.

*iṣṭaṃ kalyāṇabhāvaṃ ca dhanyaṃ pathyaṃ hitaṃ vadet |
manomiśraka pañcāitat tapa uktaṃ maharṣibhiḥ || 6:23 ||*

[Penance] which is a mixture of the mental [and the verbal] is taught by the great sages to be these five: he should speak [about things that are] agreeable, of a virtuous character, auspicious, salutary and useful.

*svasti maṅgalaṃ āśīrbhir atithigurupūjanaṃ |
kāyamiśraka pañcāitat tapa uktaṃ mahātmabhiḥ || 6:24 ||*

[Penance] in which bodily [and verbal actions] mix is taught by the great-souled ones to be these five: the worship of the guest and the guru, benediction, greetings, and blessings.

*maṇḍūkayogī hemante grīṣme pañcatapās tathā |
abhrāvakaśo varṣāsu tapaḥ sādhanam ucyaṭe || 6:25 ||*

[Being] a [so-called] frog-yogin in the winter, or one with the five fires in the summer, or one who has the clouds [i.e. the open sky] for shelter in the rainy season: these kinds of penance is called sādhana.

6.19 Note the stem form miśraka in pāda f metri causa.

6.20 Again, we can see the use of the singular (etat) next to numbers; note also the stem form tapa in pāda d metri causa. This verse is a paraphrase of MBh 3.39.16 (BhG 17.16; see text in the apparatus).

6.21 This verse is a version of MBh 6.39.15 (BhG 17.15; see it in the apparatus).

6.22 This verse seems to be a paraphrase of MBh 6.39.14 (BhG 17.14; see it in the apparatus).

6.23 Note the use of the singular (etat) next to a number and the stem form noun in pāda c.

6.24 See ŚDhŚ 11.73–79 (and Bisschop, Kafle, & Lubin 2021, 91–93 and 120–121) for a somewhat similar discussion on 'kind speech.'

6.25 Manu 6.23 mentions three kinds of penance that corresponds to three seasons: grīṣme pañ-

svamāṃsoddhṛtya dānaṃ ca hastapādaśiras tathā |

puṣpam utpādy dānaṃ ca sarve te tapasāḍhanāḥ || 6:26 ||

Carving out his own flesh as a donation, or [offering his own] hand, feet and head, or drawing [his own] blood (puṣpa) as a donation: all these are sādhana-penances,

kr̥cchrātikṛcchraṃ naktaṃ ca taptakṛcchram ayācitam |

cāndrāyaṇaṃ parākaṃ ca tapaḥ sāmtapanādayaḥ || 6:27 ||

[as also] the ‘painful penance’ and the ‘extremely painful one’, [eating only] at night, the ‘hot and painful’ and [the one in which only food obtained] without solicitation [can be eaten], the cāndrāyaṇa and parāka penances, the ‘sāmtapana,’ etc.

yenedaṃ tapa tapyate sumanasā saṃsāraduḥkhaḥchidam

āśāpāśa vimucya nirmalamatis tyaktvā jaghanyaṃ phalam |

svargākāṅkṣyanṛpatvabhogaviṣayaṃ sarvāntikaṃ tatphalaṃ

jantuḥ śāsvatajanmamṛtyubhavane tanniṣṭhasādhyam vahet || 6:28 ||

He who performs with a well-disposed mind this penance that puts an end to the suffering caused by transmigration (saṃsāra), abandoning the trap of hope, with a spotless mind, giving up the lowest rewards [such as] wishing for heaven, being a king and having enjoyments for the senses, will have an ultimate (sarvāntika) reward. In this home of eternal births and deaths, man can bring about an accomplishment that puts an end to them.

|| iti vṛṣasārasaṃgrāhe ṣaṣṭho ’dhyāyaḥ ||

catapās tu syād varṣāsv abhrāvakāśikaḥ | ādravāsās tu hemante kramaśo vardhayaṃs tapaḥ ||
Translated in Olivelle 2005, 149 as: ‘[He should] surround himself with the five fires in the summer; live in the open air during the rainy season; and wear wet clothes in the winter—gradually intensifying his ascetic toil.’ This and ŚDhSaṅgr 9.32ab (quoted in the apparatus) may suggest that being a ‘frog-yogin’ could be the same as wearing wet clothes or standing in water for a long time. A footnote to verse MBh 12.309.9 in the Kumbakonam edition of the MBh (Krishnacharya & Vyasacharya 1906–1914) suggests otherwise: maṇḍūkavat pāṇipādaṃ saṅkocya nyubjaḥ śete iti maṇḍūkaśāyī. (‘The word ‘frog-sleeper’ means somebody who sleeps like a frog, with his hands and feet withdrawn and with his back humped.’)

6.26 Note the stem form svamāṃsa in pāda a for the accusative. The translation of pāda c is tentative, but taking puṣpa as ‘blood’ is not only normal e.g. in tantric texts (see e.g. CHECK), but VSS 17.38–39 suggest the same in a similar context: devī uvāca | svamāṃsarudhiraṃ dānaṃ dānaṃ putrakalatrayoḥ | kiṃ praśasyaṃ mahādeva tattvaṃ vaktum ihārhasi || maheśvara uvāca | svamāṃsarudhiraṃ dānaṃ praśaṃsanti maṇiṣiṇaḥ | śrūyatāṃ pūrvavṛttāni saṃkṣīpya kathayāmy aham || (‘Devī spoke: Why are one’s own flesh and blood and one’s son and wife praised as donation, O Mahādeva? Tell me the truth please. Maheśvara spoke: The wise praise one’s own flesh and blood as donation. Let’s hear the old legends, I shall tell you briefly.’)

6.27 For short descriptions and the loci classici of these penances, see, e.g., Kane 1941–1962, v. 4, 130–152. For nakta/naktānna see VSS 8.22 below and, e.g., ŚDhS chapter 10, and for ayācita, VSS 8.23 below.

6.28 Note my emendation in pāda a (sumanasā from sumanasah) and that in order to restore the metre, I accepted E’s stem form tapa. Note the stem form °pāśa in pāda b metri causa.

Here ends the sixth chapter in the Vṛṣasāraṃgraha.

[ saptamo 'dhyāyaḥ ]
[ Chapter Seven ]

[ niyameṣu dānam (4) —
The fourth Niyama-rule: Donation ]

dānāni ca tathety āhuḥ pañcadhā munibhiḥ purā |
annaṃ vastraṃ hiraṇyaṃ ca bhūmi godāna pañcamam || 7:1 ||

In the past the wise declared that, again, there were five kinds of donation.
Donation of food, clothes, gold, land and the fifth, donation of cows.

[ annadānam — Donation of food ]

annāt tejaḥ smṛtiḥ prāṇaḥ annāt puṣṭir vapuḥ sukham |
annāc chriḥ kānti vīryaṃ ca annāt sattvaṃ ca jāyate || 7:2 ||

From food [comes] energy, memory, the vital breath, growth, body, happiness. From food arise grace and beauty, heroism, strength.

annāj jīvanti bhūtāni annaṃ tuṣṭikaraṃ sadā |
ānnāt kāmo mado darpaḥ annāc chauryaṃ ca jāyate || 7:3 ||

Living beings live on food. Food always satisfies. From food arise desire, rapture, pride and valour.

annaṃ kṣudhātrṣāvyādhīn sadya eva vināśayet |
annadānāc ca saubhāgyaṃ khyātiḥ kīrtiś ca jāyate || 7:4 ||

Food drives away hunger and thirst and disease instantly. From donations of food arise happiness, fame and glory.

annadaḥ prāṇadaś caiva prāṇadaś cāpi sarvadaḥ |
tasmād annasamaṃ dānaṃ na bhūtaṃ na bhaviṣyati || 7:5 ||

He who donates food donates life. He who donates life donates everything.
Therefore nothing is equal to the donation of food, nothing was, nothing will be.

[ vastradānam —
Donation of clothes ]

vastrābhāvān manuṣyasya śriyād api parityajet |
vastrahīno na pūjyeta bhāryāputrasakhādibhiḥ || 7:6 ||

In the absence of [proper] clothes, a man will also lose his fortunes. A person without clothes may not be respected by his wife, son, friends etc.

7.1 tathety in pāda a is suspicious and my translation of it ('again') is tentative and is supposed to refer back to the fact that all yamas so far have been divided into five types. Note how annaṃ, vastraṃ, hiraṇyaṃ and bhūmi (the latter treated as neuter, or given in stem form) are all meant to go with °dāna (again, in stem form, metri causa).

7.2 Note the stem form noun kānti metri causa in pāda c.

7.6 Pāda b is difficult to interpret securely. I translate it as if reading śrīś tam api parityajet.

*vidyāvān sukulīno 'pi jñānavān guṇavān api |
vastrahīnaḥ parādhīnaḥ paribhūtaḥ pade pade || 7:7 ||*

Be it a learned person from a good family or an intelligent and virtuous person, anybody without clothes is subdued and humiliated on every occasion

*apamānam avajñāṃ ca vastrahīno hy avāpnuyāt |
jugupsati mahātmāpi sabhāstrijanasaṃsadi || 7:8 ||*

because a man without clothes receives contempt and disrespect. Even a great soul will despise [him] at the court, among women, in an assembly.

*tasmād vastrapradānāni praśaṃsanti manīṣiṇaḥ |
na jīrṇaṃ sphuṭitaṃ dadyād vastraṃ kutsitaṃ eva vā || 7:9 ||*

Therefore the wise praise donations of clothes. One should not give away old, torn or dirty clothes.

*navam purāṇarahitaṃ mṛdu sūkṣmaṃ suśobhanaṃ |
susamskṛtya pradātavyaṃ śraddhābhaktisamanvitam || 7:10 ||*

[Clothes] should be donated [only if they are] new, not worn, soft, delicate and beautiful, ornamented, and accompanied by willingness and devotion.

*śraddhāsattvaviśeṣeṇa deśakālavidhena ca |
pātradravyaviśeṣeṇa phalam āhuḥ prthak prthak || 7:11 ||*

They say that the reward [of donation/generosity] is in every case dependent on the particular [donor's] willingness and character, the choice of place and time, and on the particular recipient and material.

*yādṛśaṃ dīyate vastraṃ tādṛśaṃ prāpyate phalam |
jīrṇavastrapradānena jīrṇavastraṃ avāpnuyāt |
śobhanaṃ dīyate vastraṃ śobhanaṃ vastraṃ āpnuyāt || 7:12 ||*

The reward received will similar to the clothes donated. By donating old clothes, one would receive old clothes [as a reward]. By donating beautiful clothes, one would receive beautiful clothes [as a reward].

*dadyād vastra suśobhanaṃ dvijavare kāle śubhe sādaram saubhāgyam atulaṃ labheta sa naro rūpaṃ tathā śobhanaṃ |
tasmin yāti suvastrakoṭi śataśaḥ prāpnoti niḥsaṃśayam
tasmāt tvaṃ kuru vastradānam asakṛt pāratrikotkarṣaṇam || 7:13 ||*

Should one bestow very beautiful clothes on a Brahmin at an auspicious time, respectfully, he [i.e. the donor] will receive unequalled happiness and a beautiful appearance. When he departs, he will be given hundreds of millions of items of nice clothes, no doubt about that. Therefore do donate clothes often. It is the way up to the other world.

Consider also BrahmaP 220.139: vastrābhāve kriyā nāsti yajñā vedās tapāṃsi ca | tasmād vāsāṃsi deyaṇi śrāddhakāle viśeṣataḥ ||

7.8 The intention originally may have been this: “Even if he is a great soul, he will be avoided...”

7.11 It seems that vidhena ca stands for vidhinā ca or rather vidhānena metri causa in pāda b. CHECK also ŚDhU, and Florinda's article, etc.

[ suvarṇadānam — Donation of gold ]

suvarṇadānaṃ vipreṇdra saṃkṣīpya kathayāmy aham |
pavitraṃ maṅgalaṃ puṇyaṃ sarvapātakanāśanam || 7:14 ||

O great Brahmin, now I shall teach you about the donation of gold in a concise manner. It is a pure, auspicious and meritorious [act] and it washes off all sins.

dhārayet satataṃ vipra suvarṇakāṭakāṅgulim |
mucyate sarvapāpebhyo rāhuṇā candramā yathā || 7:15 ||

Should one hand over [to someone] a golden bracelet or ring, O Brahmin, he will be freed of all sins, just as the moon is freed from [the demon] Rāhu [after an eclipse].

dattvā suvarṇaṃ viprebhyo devebhyas ca dvijaṛṣabha |
tuṭimātre 'pi yo dadyāt sarvapāpaiḥ pramucyate || 7:16 ||

If a person donates gold to Brahmins or gods, O excellent Brahmin, even if it is only in a minute quantity, he will be freed of all sins.

raktimāśakakarṣaṃ vā palārdhaṃ palam eva vā |
evam eva phalaṃvrddhir jñeyā dānaviśeṣataḥ || 7:17 ||

[The amount can be just] one rakti, a māśaka, a karṣa, half a pala or a pala: this is exactly how the increase in the [size of the corresponding] reward will be, in proportion to the properties [i.e. amount] of the donation.

[ bhūmidānam —
Donation of land ]

sarvādhāraṃ mahidānaṃ praśaṃsanti maṇiṣiṇaḥ |
annavastrahiraṇyādi sarvaṃ vai bhūmisambhavam || 7:18 ||

The wise praise the donation of land as the basis of everything [else]. Food, clothes, gold etc., all these originate in the land.

bhūmidānena vipreṇdra sarvadānaphalaṃ labhet |
bhūmidānasamaṃ vipra yady asti vada tattvataḥ || 7:19 ||

7.13 Note the stem form vastra in pāda a metri causa. 'on a Brahmin' (in pāda a): literally, 'on a person who is first among the twice-born' (dvijavare). The final syllable of saubhāgyam in pāda b counts as long by licence; see, e.g., 5.20 and 6.18b. This time the caesura is not involved. In pāda c, °koṭi is treated as neuter or as a stem form (metri causa).

7.15 I suspect that aṅguli is used in pāda b in the sense of aṅguliya ('finger-ring').

7.16 The form tuṭi as a widespread variant of truṭi, see e.g. CHECK.

7.17 I suspect that phalaṃ vrddhir, or phalaṃvrddhir, stands for phalavṛddhir (phalasya vrddhiḥ) metri causa, meaning 'the increase of the reward.' rakti, māśaka, karṣa, and pala are units of weight.

O Brahmin, one can obtain all the rewards of donation by donating land. If there is anything that equals the donation of land, O Brahmin, you should definitely tell me.

*mātrkuṣṭhivimuktas tu dharaṇīśaraṇo bhavet |

Be it [only a land of] one forearm, two forearms, fifty or a hundred, a thousand, ten thousand, a hundred thousand, donations of land are held in great esteem.

*ekahastam ca yo bhūmiṃ dadyād dvijavarāya tu |
varṣakoṭīśatam divyam svargaloke mahīyate || 7:22 ||*

Should he donate a piece of land of [only] one forearm to a Brahmin, he will enjoy a billion divine years in heaven.

*evam bahuṣu hasteṣu guṇāguṇi phalam smṛtam |
śraddhādhikam phalam dānam kathitam te dvijottama || 7:23 ||*

Thus in case of [donating] many forearms [of land], the reward is said to be proportional to the properties [of the land]. O Brahmin, I have taught you about the rewards of donation that is made willingly.

*jāmadagnyena rāmeṇa bhūmiṃ dattvā dvijāya vai |
āyur akṣayam āptam tu ihaiva ca dvijottama || 7:24 ||*

[Paraśu]rāma, the son of Jamadagni, having donated land to the Brahmin [Kaśyapa], obtained eternal life in this very world, O excellent Brahmin.

7.20 I take sādharaṇā as one word, but it is possible that the intention of the author was sā dharaṇā in two words, in fact meaning sādharaṇ (sā ādharaṇ, 'it is the basis').

7.23 I think that guṇāguṇi, or perhaps guṇaguni (which would be unmetrical, containing two laghus in both the second and third syllables of the pāda), should refer to the idea that, e.g., the donation of a piece of land of  $2 \times 2$  hastas would result in  $2$  or  $4 \times$  koṭīśata years in heaven, guṇa generally meaning 'times.' I take guṇā as referring to the size of the land donated, and °guṇi[n] as 'amounting to that many times,' but this is only a guess, and it would need to be supported by some similar passage, other than 7.17 above.

I suspect that pāda c is an awkward attempt at saying śraddhādhikadāna(sya) phalam.

7.24 See a summary of the corresponding episode CHECK in the MBh in Mani 1975, 570–571, s.v. Paraśurāma: 'To atone for the sin of slaughtering even innocent Kṣatriyas, Paraśurāma gave away all his riches as gifts to brahmins. He invited all the brahmins to Samantapañcaka and conducted a great Yāga there. The chief Rtvik (officiating priest) of the Yāga was the sage Kaśyapa and Paraśurāma gave all the lands he conquered till that time to Kaśyapa. Then a platform of gold ten yards long and nine yards wide was made and Kaśyapa was installed there and worshipped. After the worship was over according to the instructions from Kaśyapa the gold platform was cut into pieces and the gold pieces were offered to brahmins.

When Kaśyapa got all the lands from Paraśurāma he said thus:—“Oh Rāma, you have given me all your land and it is not now proper for you to live in my soil. You can go to the south and live somewhere on the shores of the ocean there.” Paraśurāma walked south and requested the ocean to give him some land to live.’ Note that without applying the muta cum liquida licence (ca dvi°), pāda d would be iambic and thus metrically problematic.

7.26 I am unable to interpret pravartanabhavāṃ in pāda a and I suspect that śakyānurūpaṃ in the same pāda stands for śaktyānurūpaṃ metri causa.

7.27 I suspect that khyātiś ca tulyāṃ in the MSS stands for khyātim atulyāṃ (‘and unequalled fame’) and that it is not a clumsy attempt to restore the metre, but rather a later correction gone wrong. I have emended the phrase believing that the second (last) syllable of khyātim may be treated as guru. See the same licence applied in non-anuṣṭubh verses above, e.g., in 5.20a, 6.18b, 7.13b (just before atula). I doubt if E’s reading in pāda c, durjayatā (‘invincibility’) were better than ūrjayatā transmitted in all the MSS consulted. While ūrjayatā is still problematic, it is not inconceivable that it stands for ūrjatā meaning most probably ‘being powerful, strength, vigour.’

The whole world of Śakra [i.e. Indra can be taken as one's possession] by donations only. Donations make people happy. Supreme ruler[s] enjoyed all the land in the world only because of donations. Skanda (candrānana) appears as handsome and fortunate, with a [good] family[? CHECK] only because of donations. One can reach happiness that lasts countless births only through donations, there is no doubt about that.

|| iti vṛṣasārasaṃgrāhe dānapraśaṃsādhyāyaḥ saptamaḥ ||

Here ends the seventh chapter in the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha called Praise of Donations.

Also, note here the stem form noun saubhāgya metri causa. Note svargaṃ as a neuter noun, and the stem form °bhoga metri causa in pāda d. The lack of sandhi between eva and ananta° helps restore the metre.

7.28 °lokasakalaṃ in pāda a is suspect and E's silent emendation (°lokaṃ atulaṃ) is not without reason. I translate pāda b as a general statement although samrāṭ may refer to a specific figure and story in mythology. The perfect form bubhuje, and the next pāda, at least point to this direction.

[ niyameṣu svādhyāyaḥ (ṣ) —
The fifth Niyama-rule: Study ]

pañcasvādhyāyanam kāryam ihāmutra sukhārthinā |
śaivam sāmṁkhyam purāṇam ca smārtam bhāratasaṁhitām || 8:1 ||

Five kinds of study are to be pursued by those who wish to be happy in this life and in the other: [one has to study the] Śaiva [teachings], Sāmṁkhya [philosophy], the Purāṇa[s], the Smārta [tradition] and the Bhāratasaṁhitā [i.e. the Mahābhārata].

śaivatattvam vicinteta śaivapāśupatadvaye |
atra vistarataḥ proktaṁ tattvasārasamuccayam || 8:2 ||

He should reflect on the Śaiva truth in both Śaiva and Pāśupata [teachings].
In those teachings the whole essence of truth is taught extensively.

samṁkhyātattvam tu sāmṁkhyeṣu boddhavyam tattvacintakaiḥ |
pañcatattvavibhāgena kīrtitāni maharṣibhiḥ || 8:3 ||

Those who reflect on the truth (tattva) can grasp the truth of enumeration [of ontological principles/reality levels] (samṁkhyātattva) from Sāmṁkhya [texts]. The great sages taught [those twenty-five] tattvas [of Sāmṁkhya] as being in groups of five.

purāṇeṣu mahikoṣo vistareṇa prakīrtitaḥ |
adhordhvamadhyatiryam ca yatnataḥ sampraveśayet || 8:4 ||

In the Purāṇas it is the sheath[s] of the world that are described extensively.
One can definitely enter [the realm] of the lower [world, i.e. hell], the upper [world, i.e. heaven], and middle [world, i.e. the human world], and the horizontal [world, i.e. of animals, by studying the Purāṇas].

smārtam varṇāśramācāram dharmanyāyapravartanam |
śiṣṭācāro 'vikalpena grāhyas tatra aśaṁkitaḥ || 8:5 ||

8.1 Note the accusative ending of °saṁhitām after a list consisting of words probably in the nominative. One may correct it to °saṁhitā or rather supply an active verb such as adhigacchet ('he should study').

8.2 Note that śaivatattvam in pāda a is the result of a conjecture and that the reading śaivapāśupatadvaye in pāda b is based on one single manuscript (P<sub>57</sub>). In spite of these uncertainties, I think that this form of the current half-verse is the only one that yields the appropriate meaning.

8.3 In pāda d, kīrtitāni picks up an implied tattvāni.

8.4 Note that tirya seems to be an acceptable nominal stem in this text for tiryañc. I understand the causative form sampraveśayet as non-causative, and I interpret °madhya° as the 'human world' tentatively. E's silent emendation to samprabodhayet is understandable since to 'enter' these worlds (especially the hells and the human world) through the study of the Purāṇas makes little sense, at least when taken literally.

The Smārta [tradition] deals with the conduct of the social classes (varṇa) and disciplines (āśrama), and with the procedures of Dharma and lawsuits. Good conduct is to be gathered from that [source] without hesitation, with certainty.

itihāsam adhīyānaḥ sarvajñaḥ sa naro bhavet |
dharmārthakāmamokṣeṣu saṃśayas tena chidyate || 8:6 ||

A man who studies the epics (itihāsa) will become omniscient. [All his] doubts about Dharma, Artha, Kāma and Mokṣa will be eliminated.

striyo vā garhitotsargaḥ svayaṃmukṭiś ca kīrtiyate |
svapnopaghātāṃ viprendra divāsvapnaṃ ca pañcamah || 8:7 ||

Listen with great attention, O Brahmin, to the five [spheres of] sexual restraint. Women, forbidden ejaculation, and masturbation are mentioned [in this context, as well as] offence while sleeping, O Brahmin, and sleeping by day as the fifth.

[ striyaḥ —

Women ]

agamyā strī divā parve dharmapatny api vā bhavet |
viruddhastrīm na seveta varṇabhraṣṭādhikāsu ca || 8:8 ||

A woman is not to be approached sexually in daytime and on the four days of the changes of the Moon (parvan), even if she is one's lawful wife. One should not have sex with a woman who is taboo or with one of those who have lost their class (varṇa) or are [of a] superior [varṇa than oneself].

[ garhitotsargaḥ —

Forbidden ejaculation ]

ajameṣagavādīnāṃ vadavāmahiṣiṣu ca |
garhitotsargam ity etad yatnena parivarjayet || 8:9 ||

Intercourse with goats, sheep, cows, mares, buffalo-cows is called forbidden ejaculation, which is to be avoided at all cost.

[ svayaṃmukṭiḥ —

Masturbation ]

ayonyakāṣaṇā vāpi apānakāṣaṇāpi vā |
svayaṃmuktir iyaṃ jñeyā tasmāt tāṃ parivarjayet || 8:10 ||

8.5 Compare pāda a with 3.15c.

8.8 Understand parve as parvani (thematization of the stem in -an). The nominative °strī in pāda c, now corrected to the accusative, may be the result of an eyeskip to strī in pāda a.

8.9 Understand °ādīnām in pāda a as standing for the locative case. Understand °sargam as neuter nominative (instead of °sargaḥ) or alternatively understand pāda c with a hiatus bridge: garhitotsarga-m-ity etad.

Rubbing himself against something else than a female sexual organ or rubbing his anus, are called masturbation, therefore these are to be avoided.

[ svapnaghātam — Offence while sleeping ]

svapnaghātam dvijaśreṣṭha aniṣṭam paṇḍitaiḥ sadā |
svapne strīṣu ramante ca retaḥ prakṣarate tataḥ || 8:11 ||

Offence while sleeping, O best of Brahmins, has always been [considered] undesirable by the learned. [If] one enjoys women while sleeping, his semen will issue.

[ divāsvapnam — Sleeping by day ]

divāśayaṁ na kartavyaṁ nityaṁ dharmapareṇa tu |
svargamārgārgalā hy etāḥ striyo nāma prakīrtitāḥ || 8:12 ||

Sleeping by day should always be avoided by those who are intent on Dharma. These women are called ‘the bolts [that block the gate to] the path to heaven.’

[ niyameṣu vratapañcakam (7) —
The seventh Niyama-rule: religious observances ]

mārjārabakāśvānagomahīvratapañcakam |
[ mārjāravratam —
The Cat Vow ]

svaviṣṭhamūtraṁ bhūmiṣu chādayed dvijasattama |
sūryasomānumodanti mārjāravratikeṣu ca || 8:13 ||

[Hear about] the five religious observances [called] the cat, the crane, the dog, the cow, and the earth. He buries his own urine and faeces in the ground, O truest Brahmin. He rejoices [seeing] the sun and the moon when performing the cat observance.

[ bakavratam —
The Crane Vow ]

bakavac cendriyagrāmam suniyamya tapodhana |

8.10 The conjecture that changes anyonya° to ayonya° in pāda a involves minimal intervention and makes the sentence much more meaningful than the version transmitted. Also consider ayoni°. The variant strī for tām in pāda d in the E may be one example of the numerous silent intervention made by Naraharināth in his edition.

8.12 It is not crystal clear why ‘sleeping by day’ should count as one of the offences against sexual restraint. Even if we translated divāsvapna and divāśaya as ‘daydreaming,’ this category would still seem out of context. Pādas cd are clumsy and out of context. They would fit verse 8.8 better.

8.13 Note °viṣṭha° for viṣṭhā metri causa in pāda c (ma-vipulā). Alternatively, read svaviṣṭhamūtra bhūmiṣu (pathyā). Note the stem form sūryasoma for sūryasomau in pāda e. It is not entirely clear why cats would rejoice seeing the Sun and the Moon. Perhaps this remark refers to the fact that cats can be active both in the daytime and at night.

sādhayec ca manastuṣṭim mokṣasāadhanatatparaḥ || 8:14 ||

bhīmas tuṣṭikarāś caiva purāṇeṣu nigadyate || 8:16 ||

A person practising the Cow Vow should never hold back his urine and faeces. This is a terrifying [observance] that gives satisfaction, [as] stated in the Purāṇas.

[ mahīvrataṃ —

8.14 Cranes are compared to ascetics here probably because of the similarity of their posture when relaxing standing on one leg to ascetics performing penance standing on one leg (such as the ascetic, and a cat, depicted on the famous relief in Mahabalipuram).

8.15 A possible explanation for Śiva being satisfied with an ascetic practising this observance is that Śiva's Bhairava form often has a dog as his mount. See, e.g., Bakker 2014, 232–233 on a 5–6th-century image of Bhairava and a dog carved in rock at Muṇḍeśvarī Hill not far from Vārāṇasī, and Mirnig 2013, 334. CHECK This observance has ancient roots. Its practitioner, the kukkuravatika appears in Majjhimanikāya 2.1.7, in the Kukkuravatiyasutta, alongside with a practitioner of the govrata (govatika), an observance that comes up in the next verse in the VSS: evaṃ me sutam. ekaṃ samayaṃ bhagavā kolīyesu viharati haliddavasanaṃ nāma kolīyānaṃ nigamo. atha kho punṇo ca kolīyaputto govatiko, acelo ca seniyo kukkuravatiko yena bhagavā tenupasaṅkamimsu... See Acharya 2013, 127–128. Acharya summarises the Kukkuravatiyasutta thus: 'The Kukkuravatiyasutta from the Majjhimanikāya (II.1.7) presents a govatika together with a kukkuravatika. They are observing their vows, and have adopted the behaviour of a bull and a dog respectively. The Buddha tells them that as they are cultivating bullness and dogness, the state of mind of these animals, they will go to hell or become reborn as animal. They are alarmed at this and take refuge in the Buddha.'

8.16 I prefer reading bhīma and tuṣṭi<sup>o</sup> as two separate words, the first one either in stem form (C<sub>94</sub>C<sub>45</sub>K<sub>82</sub>K<sub>7</sub>P<sub>57</sub>) or as bhīmas (C<sub>02</sub>K<sub>10</sub>E) or bhīmaṃ (em.), to reading these two words as a compound because of the following caiva. I suspect that both bhīma and tuṣṭikara refer to the vrata, rather than its practitioner, but I have not emended bhīmas tuṣṭikarāś to bhīmaṃ tuṣṭikaram because vrata appears as a masculine noun, e.g., in 8.17d below.

Acharya 2013 gives a number of significant clues about the origins of this observance. After exploring its links to Pāsupatas, Acharya 2013, 116–118, quotes Jaiminiyabrāhmaṇa 2.113, which contains the phrase yatra yatraīnaṃ viṣṭhā vindet tat tad vitiṣṭheta, in Acharya's translation: 'Wherever he feels the urge to evacuate faeces, right there he should evacuate.' This is an instruction in a Vedic text that is close to what the VSS teaches above. Incidentally, the Jaiminiyabrāhmaṇa adds: tena haitenottaravayasy e [vā] yajeta (translated in Acharya 2013, 118 as: 'One should perform this [sacrifice] in the final years of one's life').

The Earth Vow ]

kuddālair dārayanto 'pi kīlakoṣīśataiś citāḥ |

sa cottamam idaṃ lokam prāpnoti na ca saṃśayaḥ || 8:18 ||

He who practises these five religious observances with his senses subdued will, without doubt, reach this superior world [i.e. heaven?].

[ niyameṣv upavāsaḥ (8) —

The eighth Niyama-rule: Eating restrictions ]

śeṣānnam antarānnam ca naktāyācitam eva ca |
upavāsam ca pañcāitat kathayiṣyāmi tac chr̥ṇu || 8:19 ||

8.17 While dārayanto as an active participle in the masculine nominative is acceptable as an irregular form, the precise interpretation of pādas a and b is still problematic therefore my translation of this verse is tentative and the description seems too condensed to be intelligible. Kengo Harimoto suggested that C<sub>02</sub> and E might be transmitting the correct reading, and then the reference would be to soil piled up by millions of insects (kīṭakoṣī<sup>o</sup>), instead of points of wedges (kīlakoṣī<sup>o</sup>). Nevertheless, now I think that the reference point could be Bhīṣma's dying scene in the MBh, where the great warrior is lying on a bed of hundreds of arrows: sa śete śaratalpastho medinim aspr̥śams tadā: 'Then he lay there on his bed of arrows, without touching the ground' (MBh 6.115.8ab). The word citā is used in the same context in MBh 12.47.4ab: vikīrṇāṃśur ivādityo bhīṣmaḥ śaraśataiś citāḥ: 'Bhīṣma, laid on a hundred arrows, was like the Sun with its scattered rays of light.' If this interpretation of VSS 8.17 is correct, the observance described here may require one to dig the ground, install wedges, and lie on them, in the manner of fakirs. The reference to the Earth in pāda c may have been inspired by lines such as MBh 6.115.11cd: rarāsa pṛthivī caiva bhīṣme śāntanave hate: 'The Earth cried out when Bhīṣma, the son of Śāntanu, was killed.'

In BhavP 4.121, called 'The Description of eighty-five observances' (vratapañcāśitivarnana), we find this on mahīvrata: dadyāt triṃśatpalād ūrdhvaṃ mahīm kṛtvā tu kāmcanīm | kulācalā-drisahitām tilavastrasamanvitām || 152 || tiladroṇopari gatām brāhmaṇāya kuṭumbine | dinam payovratas tiṣṭhed rudraloke mahīyate || 153 || etan mahīvratam proktam saptakalpānuvartakam |

A tentative translation of this passage would go as follows: 'One should donate a golden [model of] Earth that weighs more than thirty palas (appr. one kilogram), showing the chief mountain-ranges, together with [donations of] sesamum seeds and clothes, the sesamum seeds [weighing] more than a droṇa (appr. ten kilograms), to a householder Brāhmin. One should keep the milk-observance [i.e. subsisting on nothing but milk] for one day, and one will have fun in Rudraloka. This is called the Earth Observance whose range is seven æons.' (I take the values for weights from Olivelle 2005, 997.) The descriptions of the dharāvṛata and the śubhadvādaśī observance in Kane 1941–1962, v. 5, 321 and 429 are similar. The VSS's mahīvrata seems different, and more in line with the somewhat transgressive and wild, perhaps Pāśupata-oriented, nature of the four preceding observances.

8.18 Note the neuter idaṃ picking up the normally masculine lokam in pāda c, and that the same idaṃ would make more sense if the interlocutor were a deity, e.g., Śiva, referring to his abode, and not Anarthayajña, the ascetic.

[Not] eating in-between breakfast and dinner ]

antarā prātarāṣi ca sāyamāṣi tathaiva ca |
sadopavāsi bhavati yo na bhunkte kadācana || 8:21 ||

He will be regarded as one that is always fasting if he never eats between breakfast and dinner.

[ nakṭānnam —

Eating [only] at night ]

na divā bhojanaṃ kāryaṃ rātrau naiva ca bhojayet |
nakṭavele ca bhoktavyaṃ nakṭadharmam samīhatā || 8:22 ||

One should eat neither in the daytime nor in the evening, and should eat [only] at midnight if he wishes to follow the practice of [eating only at] night (nakṭadharmā).

[ ayācitānnam —

Eating food obtained without solicitation ]

anārambhya ya āhāraṃ kuryān nityam ayācitam |
parair dattaṃ tu yo bhunkte tam ayācitam ucyate || 8:23 ||

He who consumes food only without initiating [the donation], without asking for it, and eats [only] that which has been given by others is called [one who eats] unsolicited [food].

[ upavāsaḥ —

Fasting ]

8.19 Note how this category of niyama-rules was called upavāsa (“fasting”) in 5.3c above but how in fact upavāsa is just the fifth subcategory within this group of eating restrictions.

8.21 My translation here follows the parallel verse in the MBh and is based on that of Kisari Mohan Ganguli (Ganguli 1883–1896). The syntax of the version here in the VSS is less smooth than that in the MBh, and the VSS’s reading prāntarāṣi definitely required an emendation.

8.22 Note °vele for °velāyām in pāda c.

8.23 anārambhasya (‘of someone who has not yet started/initiated’) in pāda a seems suspect, hence my conjecture (anārambhya ya) that involves minimal intervention and yields better sense. I take ayācitam in pāda b adverbially.

bhakṣyaṃ bhojyaṃ ca lehyaṃ ca coṣyaṃ peyaṃ ca pañcamam |
na kākṣeṇ nopayujīta upavāsaḥ sa ucyate || 8:24 ||

Chewable and unchewable food, food to be sipped or sucked or drunk, as the fifth [category]: if one does not long for and does not consume [any of the above], that is called fasting (upavāsa).

[ niyameṣu maunavratam (9) —
 The ninth Niyama-rule: Silence ]

mithyāpiśunapārūṣyatikṣṇavāg apralāpanam |
maunapañcakam ity etad dhārayen niyatavratāḥ || 8:25 ||

One who is disciplined in religious observances should keep taciturnity in [i.e. should avoid] these five: deceitful speech, envious speech, insult, harsh speech and bragging.

[ mithyāvācanam — Deceitful speech ]

asambhūtam adṛṣṭam ca dharmāc cāpi babhīkṛtam |
anarthāpriyavākyaṃ yat tan mithyāvācanam smṛtam || 8:26 ||

Fictitious [speech], [speech about] unknown [things], [speech about things] outside the range of Dharma, meaningless and unfriendly speech: these are called deceitful speech.

[ piśunaḥ —
 Envy ]

paraśrīm nābhinandanti parasyaiśvaryaṃ eva ca |
aniṣṭadarśanākāṅkṣī piśunaḥ samudāhṛtaḥ || 8:27 ||

One who does not rejoice in others' fortune or in others' power, one who would like to see something disadvantageous [for others] is called envious.

[ pārūṣyam — Insult ]

mṛtā mātā pitā caiva hānisthānam katham bhavet |
bhūṅkṣva kāmam amṛṣṭānām pārūṣyam samudāhṛtam || 8:28 ||

‘[Your] mother and father are dead. How can this be a condition for deficit? Enjoy the love of unclean women!’ [These are] called insult.

8.24 For a detailed discussion of the categories bhakṣya, bhojya, lehya and coṣya, see Kafle 2020, 245, n. 534. See also ŚDhU 8.13: bhakṣyaṃ bhojyaṃ ca peyaṃ ca lehyaṃ coṣyaṃ ca picchilam | iti bhedāḥ śaḍannasya madhurādyās ca śaḍguṇāḥ ||

8.25 pārūṣya seems to be the good reading in pāda a, as opposed to C<sub>02</sub>'s sambhinnā, because in the following a short section on the category of pārūṣya is coming up (in 8.28). As far as the readings spṛṣṭavāg and prṣṭavāg are concerned, I suppose prṣṭavāg is not inconceivable (as suggested by Judit Törzsök), for in 8.29 it is, in a way, questions that are given as relevant examples. Nevertheless I conjectured tikṣṇavāg here, relying on the same verse, 8.29.

8.28 My translation of pāda b, or rather of the whole verse, is tentative, and to make sense of pāda a, I have chosen a reading (mṛtā) that is not well attested. I am not at all certain that I

Verbal abuse ]

hṛdi na sphuṭase mūḍha śiro vā na vidāryase |
evamādīny anekāni tikṣṇavādī sa ucyate || 8:29 ||

‘Won’t you burst in your heart, stupid? [Why] don’t you break your head?’ [If one utters] these or similar [curses], he is said to be using verbal abuse.

[ asatpralāpaḥ —

Bragging ]

dyūtabhojanayuddham ca madyastrikatham eva ca |
asatpralāpaḥ pañcāitat kīrtitaṃ me dvijottama || 8:30 ||

Relating fancy stories about gambling, enjoyments, fights, drinking and women are the five types of bragging. [Thus] have I taught [reasons for taciturnity], O excellent Brahmin.

maunam eva sadā kāryaṃ vākyaśaubhāgyam icchatā |
apāruṣyam asambhinnaṃ vākyaṃ satyam udīrayet || 8:31 ||

Taciturnity should always be practised by those who long for the beauty of speech. One should speak true words without insult and idle talk.

yas tu maunasya no kartā dūṣitaḥ sa kulāḍhamah |
janme janme ca durgandho mūkaś caivopajāyate || 8:32 ||

He who does not practise taciturnity is defiled and he is the black sheep of the family. For a number of rebirths, [his mouth] will stink and he will become mute.

tasmān maunavratam sadaiva sudṛḍham kurvīta yo niścitaṃ vācā tasya alaṅghyatā ca bhavati sarvāṃ sabhāṃ nandati |
vaktrāc cotpalagandham asya satataṃ vāyanti gandhotkaṭāḥ
śāstrānekasahasraśo giri naraḥ proccāryate nirmalam || 8:33 ||

Therefore the speech of a person who always keeps the observance of taciturnity firmly, with resolution, will be impossible to ignore and it will make the community rejoice. The fragrance of lotuses and [other kinds of] rich fragrances will blow from his mouth. Thousands of faultless śāstras will be declared in the words of this person.

understand what these abusive words imply.

8.30 I take °katham in pāda b as an alternative nominative form of °kathā metri causa and as belonging to all the categories here thus: dyūtakathā, bhojanakathā, yuddhakathā, madyakathā, strikathā. Note the use of the singular next to a number in pāda c and understand me in pāda d as mayā. The latter usage appears in the epics, see Oberlies 2003, 102–103 (4.1.3).

8.32 The form janme for janmani often occurs in Śaiva tantras as a typically Aīśa phenomenon. See, e.g., NiśvNaya 1.86a (janme janme vimūḍhātmā, see Goodall, Sanderson, & Isaacson 2015, 114 and 191) and BraYā 45.8b, 452a, 559a (the last reads janme janme tu yā jātim, see Kiss 2015, 83 and 128ff). Thematisation of stems in -an occurs in the epics, see Oberlies 2003, 88 (3.10).

8.33 To make sense of pāda d, we are forced to take śāstra as a stem form noun and naraḥ

[ niyameṣu snānam (10) —

The tenth Niyama-rule: Bathing ]

snānam pañcavidhaṃ caiva pravakṣyāmi yathātatham |

āgneyaṃ vāruṇaṃ brāhmyaṃ vāyavyaṃ divyaṃ eva ca || 8:34 ||

I shall teach you the five kinds of bathing as they really are: fire bath, water bath, Vedic bath, wind bath and divine bath.

[ āgneyaṃ snānam —

Fire bath ]

āgneyaṃ bhasmanā snānaṃ toyāc chataguṇaṃ phalam |

bhasmapūtaṃ pavitraṃ ca bhasma pāpaprāṇāśanam || 8:35 ||

Fire bath is [performed] with ashes. Its fruits are a hundred times bigger than [those of] a water [bath]. [Things] purified with ashes are holy. Ashes destroy sin.

tasmād bhasma prayuñjīta dehināṃ tu malāpaham |

sarvaśāntikaraṃ bhasma bhasma rakṣakam uttamam || 8:36 ||

Therefore one should use ash for it purifies humans of their defilement.

Ashes yield appeasement for everyone. Ash is the ultimate protector.

bhasmanā tryāyuṣaṃ kṛtvā brahmacaryavrate sthitam |

bhasmanā ṛṣayaḥ sarve pavitrīkṛtaṃ ātmanaḥ || 8:37 ||

Drawing [the sectarian marks on their foreheads while reciting] the Tryāyuṣa [mantra], observing chastity, all the sages purified themselves with ashes.

as a (regular) genitive from nr. (I thank Judit Törzsök for this interpretation.) Another way of understanding the beginning of this sentence would be to separate śāstrāneka<sup>o</sup> as śāstrān eka<sup>o</sup>, treating the word śāstra as masculine.

8.37 Note tryāyuṣa in the sense of the three puṇḍra-lines on the forehead and compare with 11.28c. Understand sthitam as sthitah or rather sthitāḥ if we are to connect this line to the next (8.37cd). Understand pavitrīkṛtam as pavitrīkṛtvantaḥ.

The reference here may be a story in which Kaśyapa and other Ṛṣis are burnt to ashes, to be later reanimated by Virabhadra, in the Śokara forest. See PadmaP 5.107.1–14ff: śucismitovāca | kaśyapaṃ jamadagniṃ ca devānāṃ ca purā katham | rarakṣa bhasma tad brahman samācakṣva mune mama || 1 || dadhīca uvāca | kaśyapādīyutā devāḥ pūrvam abhyāgaman girim | śokaraṃ nāma vikhyātāṃ girimadhye suśobhanam || 2 || nānāvihagaṃgasaṃkīrṇaṃ nānāmunigaṇāśrayam | vāsudevāśrayaṃ ramyaṃ apsarogaṇasevitam || 3 || vicitravṛkṣasaṃvītaṃ sarvartukusumojjvalam | tathāvidhaṃ praviśyaite girim vāyam athāpare || 4 || stuvantaḥ keśavaṃ tatra gatāḥ sma gir- iśeṣvaram | dr̥ṣtvā tatra mahājvālāṃ praviṣṭāś ca vāyam ca tām || 5 || māmekaṃ tu tiraskṛtya hy adahad devatā munin | māṃ dadāha tataḥ pascād bhasmībhūtā vāyam śubhe || 6 || asmān etādr̥śān dr̥ṣtvā virabhadraḥ pratāpavān | kenāpi kāraṇenāsau gatavān parvataṃ ca tam || 7 || bhasmod- dhūlitasarvāṅgo mastakasthaśivaḥ śuciḥ | ekāki niḥspr̥haḥ śānto bhāṣābdam athāśṛnot || 8 || atha cintāparaś cāśin mriyamāṇa śavadhvaniḥ | śavānām iva gandhaś ca dr̥śyate tannirikṣaṇe || 9 || iti niścitya manasā jagāmaṅnim atiprabham | sa vahnir virabhadraṃ ca dagdhum ārabdhavān atha || 10 || tṛṇāgnir iva śānto 'bhūd āsādyā salilam yathā | tato 'parāṃ mahājvālāṃ virabhadraḥ tu dr̥ṣṭavān || 11 || kham gacchantiṃ mahākālo jvālāṃ nipatitām api | manasā cintayac cāpi virab- hadraḥ pratāpavān || 12 || sarveṣāṃ nāśinī jvālā prāṇināṃ śatakoṭīṣaḥ | tat sarvaṃ rakṣaṇārthaṃ hi pipāsuś cāpy aham tv imām || 13 || prāśnāmi mahatiṃ jvālāṃ salilam tṛṣito yathā | etasminn

bhasmanā vibudhā muktā vīrabhadrabhayārditāḥ |
bhasmānuśamsaṃ dṛṣṭvaiva brahmaṇānumatiḥ kṛtā || 8:38 ||

The gods, afflicted by their fear of Vīrabhadra, were set free with the help of ashes. Seeing the glory of ashes, Brahmā consented [to the use of this otherwise impure substance].

caturāśramato 'dhikyam vratam pāsupatam kṛtam |
tasmāt pāsupatam śreṣṭham bhasmadhāraṇahetutaḥ || 8:39 ||

[Thus] the Pāsupata observance was created, which is above [the system of] the four āśramas. Therefore the Pāsupata [observance] is the best because it involves carrying ashes [on one's body].

[ vāruṇam snānam —
 Water bath ]

vāruṇam salilam snānam kartavyam vividham naraiḥ |
nadītoyataḍāgeṣu prasraveṣu hradeṣu ca || 8:40 ||

A water bath (vāruṇa) is to be performed with water in different ways by [different] people: in the water of rivers, water tanks, streams and ponds.

[ brāhmyam snānam —
 Vedic bath ]

brahmasnānam ca viprendra āpohiṣṭham vidur budhāḥ |
trisaṃdhyam eva kartavyam brahmasnānam tad ucyate || 8:41 ||

The wise know the Vedic bath as [the one performed with the Vedic mantra beginning] āpo hi ṣṭhā, O excellent Brahmin. It is to be performed at the three junctures of the day [dawn, noon, evening]. It is called the Vedic bath.

[ vāyavyam snānam —
 Wind bath ]

goṣu saṃcāramārgeṣu yatra godhūlisambhavaḥ |

antare vīram vāg āha cāsarīriṇī || 14 ||.

8.38 The verse may refer to the destruction of Dakṣa's sacrifice, after which the gods were relieved. See old SkandaP 180.1–4ab (in which our pāda b is echoed): sanatkumāra uvāca | brahmādyā devatā vyāsa dakṣayajñavadhe purā | śāṅkaram śaraṇam jagmur vīrabhadrabhayārditāḥ || 1 || gaṇendrenābhiyuktās tu bhasmakūṭāni bhejire | yadā bhasma praviṣṭās te tejaḥ śāṅkaram uttamam || 2 || abhavan te tadā raudrāḥ paśavo dikṣitā iva | bhasmābhasitagātrāṇām śāṅkaravrat-acāriṇām || 3 || svaṃ yogaṃ pradadau teṣāṃ tadā deva umāpatiḥ |.

8.39 One could simply accept the reading of C<sub>02</sub> (°hetunā) in pāda d, but all other rejected readings hint at an original hetutaḥ (as remarked by Judit Törzsök).

8.40 The reading vividham in pāda b seems to be the lectio difficilior as opposed to the rejected vidhivat.

8.41 The Rgvedic mantra starting with āpo hi ṣṭhā (RV 10.9.1–3) is traditionally associated with mārjana ('cleaning, wiping'). According to Kane 1941–1962, v. 4, 120, a Brahmin "should bathe thrice in the day, should perform mārjana (splashing or sprinkling water on the head and other limbs by means of kuśas dipped in water after repeating sacred mantras) with the three verses 'apo hi ṣṭhā' [sic] (Rg. X.9.1–3) [...]" This suggests a method of bathing that is more of a ritual than an actual bath.

tatra gatvāvasīdeta snānam uktam manīṣibhiḥ || 8:42 ||

He should go where, on the paths where cows roam, dust is rising, and he should sit down there. This is called [a kind of] bath, [namely the vāyavya or wind-bath].

[ divyaṃ snānam —
Heavenly bath ]

varṣatoyāmbudhārābhiḥ plāvayitvā svakāṃ tanum |
snānam divyaṃ vadaty eva jagadādimahēśvaraḥ || 8:43 ||

One should immerse one's own body in the water-showers of rain water. The one and only great Lord (mahēśvara) of the universe calls it heavenly bath.

iti niyamavibhāgaḥ pañcabhedena vipra
nigadita tava prṣṭaḥ sarvalokānukampya |
sakalamalapahārī dharmapañcāśad etan
na bhavati punajanma kalpakotyaṃyute 'pi || 8:44 ||

Thus have I taught you the section on the Niyama-rules in divisions of five [sub-categories to each] because you asked me to, favouring the whole world. These fifty Dharmic [teachings], wipe off all the defilement. There will not be rebirth [for one who keeps these rules], not even in millions of æons.

|| iti vṛṣasārasaṃgrāhe niyamaprasāṃsā nāmādhyāyo 'ṣṭamaḥ ||

Here ends the eighth chapter in the Vṛṣasārasaṃgrāha called the Praise of the Niyama-rules

8.42 Understand goṣu in pāda a as gavām (genitive). This version of bathing seems to be a way of taking a shower in the holy dust raising from under the hooves of cows.

8.44 This verse marks not only the end of a long section on the Niyama rules, but also the end of a major part of the text that discusses the ten Yama and ten Niyama rules, spanning 3.16–8.44.

There are two stem form nouns in pāda b: I suspect that E is right assuming that in order to restore the metre, we must have nigadita and not nigaditas, which is transmitted in all the witnesses; also understand sarvalokānukampya in pāda b as sarvalokān anukampya. Understand sakalamalapahārī in pāda c as sakala-mala-apahārī, which would be unmetrical, and compare it with duritamalapahārī in 4.89c. Take etan/etad as either picking up °pahārī or rather a plural corresponding to °pañcāśad. The latter phenomenon, namely the use of the singular after numbers, is one of the hallmarks of the text.

By 'fifty Dharmas,' the text refers to the ten main Niyama-rules × five subcategories.

The licence of an word-ultimate short syllable treated as long (°janma in pāda d) is also frequently seen here. Note also puna for punar metri causa.

[ traigunyam —
The system of three qualities ]

trikālaguṇabhedena bhinnam sarvacarācaram |
tasmāt triguṇabandhena veṣṭitam nikhilam jagat || 9:1 ||

The whole universe with its moving and unmoving elements is divided by the three subdivisions (guṇa) of time. Therefore the whole world is bound by the fetters of three qualities (guṇa).

vigatarāga uvāca |
traikālyam iti kiṃ jñeyam traidhātukaśarīriṇaḥ |
kiṃcid vistaram eveha kathayasva tapodhana || 9:2 ||

Vigatarāga spoke: What does the term 'the three times' mean for an embodied creature that is made up of three constituents (dhātuka)? Teach me about this in a somewhat more extended manner, O great ascetic.

anarthayajña uvāca |
traikālyam triguṇam jñeyam vyāpī prakṛtisambhavaḥ |
anyonyam upajīvanti anyonyam anuvartinaḥ || 9:3 ||

Anarthayajña spoke: The three times are the three qualities (guṇa). It is 9.1 It is only M, a MS not collated for this chapter, that inserts, post correctionem, anarthayajña uvāca at the beginning of this chapter. It is not really needed: Anarthayajña's teaching continues without interruption here. Another possibility is that this verse was originally the continuation of the end of chapter two (2:40ef: traikālyakalanāt kālas tena kālaḥ prakīrtitaḥ). At least it seems to directly connect there topic-wise. My translation of guṇa in pāda a is tentative.

9.2 I have included the element trai<sup>9</sup> in the lemma in pādas ab only because C<sub>02</sub> has a slightly unusual ligature there (mtrai).

As for the interpretation of traidhātuka in pāda b, an intelligent guess would be a reference to the three so-called 'humours' of the body, namely pitta, vāyu/anila/vāta, and śleṣman. These are discussed later in, e.g., VSS 23:31–32ab, in the context of types of sleep: śleṣmapittānilasthāne trīṇi pakṣāṇi vāsinah | tamah śleṣmāśrayā nidrā rajonidrā tu vātikā || pittāśrayaṃ smṛtāṃ nidrāṃ sāttvikāṃ viddhi bhūpate |.

MBh 12.330.21–22ab clearly states that the three dhātus, pitta, śleṣma and vāyu, keep the body alive: trayo hi dhātavaḥ khyātāḥ karmajā iti ca smṛtāḥ | pittaṃ śleṣmā ca vāyuś ca eṣa saṃghāta ucyate || etaiś ca dhāryate jantur etaiḥ kṣīṇaiś ca kṣiyate |.

The present verse in the VSS contains the only occurrence of the term traidhātuka in the text. In 5.1cd, dhātu is probably used in the same Ayurvedic sense that I am proposing here (dhā-tuvaiṣamyānāśo 'sti na ca rogāḥ sudāruṇāḥ). Elsewhere dhātu means 'verbal root' (3.3), 'metal' (16.6: yathā vai sarvadhātūnāṃ doṣā dahyanti dhāmyatām | tathā pāpāḥ pradahyante dhruvaṃ prāṇasya nigrhāt ||), and 'gross element' (for Sāṃkhya-style mahābhūtas in chapter 20). To slightly complicate things, chapter thirteen claims that the human body is made up of two dhātus, somadhātu and agnidhātu. Semen contains somadhātu, menstrual blood agnidhātu, and the new-born baby is thus made up of both. See e.g. 13.20cd–13.21: śukraśonitasamyogād garbhotpattiḥ tataḥ smṛtaḥ || agnisomātmakam devi śarīradvayadhātutaḥ | somadhātu smṛtaṃ śukram agnidhātu rajaḥ smṛtam | agnisomāśrayaṃ devi śarīram iti saṃjñitam ||.

[all-]pervading and is born from Prakṛti. They support each other, they follow each other.

sattvaṃ rajas tamaś caiva rajaḥ sattvaṃ tamaś tathā |
tamaḥ sattvaṃ rajas caiva anyonyamithunāḥ smṛtāḥ || 9:4 ||

Sattva, Rajas and Tamas; Rajas, Sattva and Tamas; Tamas, Sattva and Rajas; they are mutually each other's pairs.

sāttviko bhagavān viṣṇu rājasah kamalodbhavaḥ |
tāmaso bhagavān īśah sakalamvikaleśvaraḥ || 9:5 ||

Lord Viṣṇu is Sattvic. [Brahmā], the one who was born on a lotus, is Rājasa. Lord Īśa is Tāmasa, [both in his] complete (sakala) [form] and [as] formless (vikala) Īśvara.

sattvaṃ kundenduvarṇābhaṃ padmarāganibhaṃ rajaḥ |
tamaś cāñjanaśailābhaṃ kīrtitāni maṇiśibhiḥ || 9:6 ||

Sattva is of the colour of jasmine and the moon. Rajas is of the colour of ruby. Tamas is of the colour of lamp-black and collirium. [This is how the colours of the qualities] are taught by the wise.

sattvaṃ jalam rajo 'ngāraṃ tamo dhūmasamākulam |
etadguṇamayair baddhāḥ pacyante sarvadehinaḥ || 9:7 ||

Sattva is water, Rajas is charcoal, Tamas is filled with smoke. All living creature are being burnt away by [the fire] of these qualities (guṇa).

vigatarāga uvāca |
kena kena prakāreṇa guṇapāśena badhyate |
cihnam eṣāṃ prthaktvena kathayasva tapodhana || 9:8 ||

Vigatarāga spoke: By what sort of nooses of the qualities (guṇa) is [a person] bound? Teach me the signs connected to them one by one, O great ascetic.

anarthayañña uvāca |
anekākārabhāvena badhyante guṇabandhanaiḥ |
mohitā nābhijānanti jānanti śivayoginaḥ || 9:9 ||

Anarthayañña spoke: [Creatures] are bound in many ways and by many conditions by the fetters of the qualities (guṇa). Those who are deluded do not know. The Śivayogins do know.

9.3 Understand pāda b as referring to the neuter traikālyam or rather triguṇam (gender confusion). Note the number confusion in pādas cd.

9.5 My altering the reading viṣṇu to viṣṇū in pāda a against all witnesses may be regarded as an overcorrection and the stem form could be original. My translation of pādas cd is tentative. I suspect that pāda d is one single compound, the anusvāra is only inserted to avoid the metric fault of two laghu syllables at the second and third position. I understand vikala as a synonym of niṣkala. For the tantric connotations of the pair sakala-niṣkala see, e.g., TAK III s.v. niṣkala.

*ūrdhvaṁgo nityasattvastho madhyago rajasāvṛtaḥ |
adhogatis tamo'vasthā bhavanti puruṣādhamāḥ || 9:10 ||*

He who is always established in Sattva goes upwards. He who is covered with Rajas goes in the middle. Those lowest of men in the state of Tamas go downward.

*svarge 'pi hi trayo vaite bhāvanīyās tapodhana |
mānuṣeṣu ca tiryeṣu guṇabhedās trayas trayāḥ || 9:11 ||*

These three kinds of [guṇas] are to be acknowledged even in heaven, O great ascetic, and among humans and also among animals.

9.10 Understand adhogatis in pāda c as a bahuvrīhi in the plural (adhogatayas).

9.12 Note that Brahmā was labelled as Rajas-type in 9.5b above.

9.13 Note that there seems to be only nine names/categories listed here unless we try to interpret viśveśa as viśvedevāḥ and īśaḥ.

The ten middle-ranking Tāmasa [animals] are: goats, sheep, buffaloes, mice, mongooses etc., camels, Raṅku deer, hares, rhinoceroses.

9.15 I take ’tithi as a stem form noun and vijñanī as vijñānī, both metri causa. rājamantri as ‘minister’ makes sense, but by emendating rāja<sup>o</sup> to rājā in pāda c I aim to arrive at a list of ten categories instead of nine.

9.16 Since all the witnesses consulted treat vaṇi as an acceptable stem in pāda a, I have refrained from correcting it to vaṇij/vaṇik. The English equivalents that I give in square brackets are in some cases not more than traditionally accepted guesses.

9.17 Problems with this verse include the following. There are only nine professions/castes listed here instead of the expected ten. kolī is difficult to interpret; later texts of the Jātiviveka genre such as Gopinātha’s Jātiviveka (see O’Hanlon, Hidas, & Kiss 2015) mention kolī as a regional name for the caste Niṣāda (sometimes: a falconer). I take trapu tentatively as trapukṛt although I can’t see any attestation of that form. And taking nīlikā as a (female) dyer is again tentative.

[ tāmasādhamaḥ —

The ten Tāmasa-Rājasa [beings] are: Balāka-cranes, cocks, crows, Bengal kites, painted quails, partridges, vultures, herons, Bakas and hawks.

[ tāmasādhamaḍi —

Low Tamas-type etc. ]

kokilolūkakañjalyakapotāḥ pañca eva ca |
śārikāś ca kuṇḍāś ca daśaite tāmasādhamaḥ || 9:23 ||

The ten lowest Tāmasa [beings also include]: cuckoos, owls, Kañjala-birds, doves, and the five[?], Śārika birds and sparrows.

makaragohanakrāś ca ṛkṣāś ca tamasāttvikāḥ |
kacchapaśiśukumbhīramaṇḍūkās tamarājasāḥ |

9.19 °mahiṣyāś seems to be an equivalent of °mahiṣāś metri causa. Again, we expect ten items in this list but we find only nine.

9.20 Translating śṛṅgi, śṛṅgin, or perhaps śṛṅgī as ‘sheat-fish’ is not much more than a guess. Other possibilities such as ‘elephants’ or ‘bulls’ are less likely because we have had them above in other categories, although repetitions do occur across, and sometimes within, these lists: see, e.g. mṛga mentioned both in 9.18 and 20, śyena in both 9.21 and 22, and śuka repeated in 9.21.

9.21 Although all the manuscripts consulted read kroñca° in pāda a, I have decided to accept E’s standard spelling in this case. In pāda b, I left °bāruṇḍa° thus, although what is really meant is probably bhāraṇḍa, bhāruṇḍa or bhurunḍa. Note the repetition of śuka in this stanza.

9.22 It would be easy to correct the stem form °śyena in pāda c to śyeno but I suspect that the form could be original, possibly because it was confused with an instrumental.

9.23 My impression is that the reading °kiñjalka° (usually: ‘the filament of a lotus’) in pāda a is either a mistake for, or rather an altered form metri causa, maybe a regional form, of kañjala (a kind of bird). C<sub>94</sub>C<sub>02</sub>K<sub>82</sub> (kiñjalya) may be slightly closer to the required form (kañjalaka/kañjalka?). My emendation is a compromise. Note that there are only six items in this list and that pāda b is difficult to make sense of in this context. Something must have gone wrong here.

śīlam ca nābhimānam ca sāttvikāś cottamā janāḥ || 9:29 ||

[These ten words describe] the people who are the best among the Sāttvika

9.24 Note that the reading that yields ‘and bears’ (rṣkās ca) is my conjecture for a problematic rṣā ca. It is far from satisfactory since bears have already appeared in verse 9.20 above. My emendation of the word śūśu to śisu (‘porpoise,’ for śīśuka or śīśumāra, lit. ‘child-killer’) in pāda c is based on the fact that, most probably, we need an aquatic animal here, rather than a hare (śāśa). The readings kabandhyās and kabanas in pāda f make no sense. I conjecture kavayyas (the plural of kavayī), which is a type of fish. See them mentioned in MahāSubhS 388: ajājījambāle rajasi maricānām ca luḥitāḥ kaṭutvād uṣṇatvāj janitarasanausthavyatikarāḥ | anīrvāṇotthena prabalataratailāktatanavo mayā sadyo bhrṣṭāḥ katipayakavayyaḥ kavalitāḥ ||. See a translation of this verse in the MahāSubhS (ed. Sternbach, vol. 1, p. 67): ‘I rolled them in a cumin swamp / and in a heap of pepper dust / till they were spiced and hot enough / to twist your tongue and mouth. / When they were basted well with oil, / I didn’t wait to wash or sit ; / I gobbled that mess of koji fish / as soon as they were fried. (D.H.H. Ingalls’s translation).’

9.25 In pāda d, tamas° or tamaḥ° are unmetrical and might be the result of scribal correction. The original may have been the metrical tama°, here transmitted only in E. Cf. 9.27d.

9.26 There seems to be only nine items here instead of the expected ten. I have not been able to interpret the last one, dhravāvaś.

9.28 ādi in pāda a is misplaced, in order to avoid the metrical fault of two laghu syllables in the second and third syllables; understand bhramarapatanaḡādayaś ca.

īrṣādveṣasamo yas tu sukhaduḥkhasamāś ca ye |
stutinindāsamā ye ca guṇātītaḥ sa ucyate || 9:41 ||

He who is indifferent to envy and hate, treats happiness and sorrow as equal, treats praise and reproach as equal, is called ‘one who is beyond the qualities (guṇa)’.

tulyapriyāpriyo yaś ca arimitrasamas tathā |
mānāpamānayos tulyo guṇātītaḥ sa ucyate || 9:42 ||

9.37 Note the lack of sandhi within what was meant to be a compound in pāda c (understand rājasreṣṭhāhāro), and the total lack of gender agreement between the adjectives in pādas ab, and āhāro and pradah.

9.38 Understand °pūti in pāda a as standing for °pūti metri causa (which is oddly repeated in pāda b), and note that °amedhya° in the same pāda is an emendation (correcting K<sub>7</sub>’s reading). I have conjectured āmayārasa° for āyāmarasa° in pāda c because the transmitted readings make little sense and because āmaya appeared in 9.37d above.

9.40 Note passages in the BhG (6.32, 12.13, 14.24–25) quoted in the apparatus to the critical edition, of which VSS 9.40–42 seem to be echoes of.

He who treats pleasant and unpleasant things, enemy and friend, respect and contempt equally, is called ‘one who is beyond the qualities (guṇa)’.

eṣa te kathito vipra guṇasadbhāvanirṇayaḥ |
guṇayuktas tu saṃsārī guṇātītaḥ parāṅgatiḥ || 9:43 ||

O Brahmin, thus has the exposition of the essence of the qualities (guṇa) been taught to you. Those who are connected with the qualities (guṇa) are mundane (saṃsārī), those beyond the qualities (guṇa) are on the supreme path.

about the transcendental and highly secret pilgrimage place at which one can be liberated from mundane existence (saṃsāra). O Maheśvara, teach me the truth for the benefit of mankind.

10.3 Note the change of speaker here: Nandikeśvara is also the main interlocutor of the ŚDhś and the ŚDhSaṅgr. This verse marks the beginning of the layer that can be labelled Śaiva. On Nandi/Nandin/Nandikeśvara not being Śiva's bull, see Bhattacharya 1977 and p. xiii above.

10.4 It is not unlikely that in pāda d, sanātanaṃ was intended to refer to dharmā<sup>o</sup> ('eternal Dharma'), or that dharmaguhyā should be corrected to dharmam guhyam ('...ask you about a secret and eternal Dharma').

10.6 Although most witnesses consulted treat praśna as neuter, and it can be original, it could as well be just a minor error transmitted widely. This is why I have chosen K<sub>7</sub>'s reading (taṃ praśnaṃ).

10.8 Note bindusāraṃ for bindusaras/saram/sarasam metri causa. Although some of these toponyms are difficult to identify and some may refer to southern locations (e.g. Setubandha), in general they suggest a North Indian focus. See details on pp. CHECK

10.9 I take pūrvavat in pāda b as if used in the sense of pūrvam ('previously'), and eteṣāṃ in pāda d as eteṣu. It would also be possible to take eteṣāṃ in 10.9d and jñānamātreṇa in 10.10b as connected ('by the mere knowledge of them') but the former solution seems to work better with 10.14, where again a genitive (teṣāṃ) may stand for a locative (teṣu).

10.10 We are forced to agree with E's printing °kārakam in pāda d because all the other readings seem out of context, whether they refer to Śiva as a vocative or a nominative.

[ prayāgo vārāṇasī ca —

10.11 My translation here is slightly tentative and is fashioned to make sense in light of what is coming: the praise of internalised pilgrimage places, contrasting them with real, external pilgrimage places.

10.12 In pāda b, one could apply K<sub>82</sub>'s reading that has the standard neuter nominative form kṣetram as opposed to the form transmitted in all other witnesses (kṣetra) but the latter might be original, influenced by the stem form puruṣa in pāda a.

10.14 anaghānaṁ in pāda c is problematic. It may simply stand for anaghaṁ ('faultless'). That is how I translate it. Originally it may have involved a stem form adjective: anaghaitan (anagha + etaḍ).

10.16 Note again the use of the singular next to numbers (caturdaśa... manoharam prayāgādī), a frequent phenomenon in this text.

The Gaṅgā ]

ākāśagaṅgā vikhyātā tasyāḥ sravati cāmṛtam |

ahorātram avicchinnaṃ gaṅgā sā tena ucyate || 10:19 ||

She is called the ethereal Gaṅgā, and the nectar of immortality issues from her day and night uninterruptedly. That's why [this internalised pilgrimage place] is called Gaṅgā.

[ somatīrtham —

Somatīrtha ]

somatīrtham idā nādī kiṅkiṇīravacihnitā |

taṃ tu śrutvā na saṃdehaḥ sarvapāpakṣayo bhavet || 10:20 ||

Somatīrtha is the tube Idā. It is characterised by the ringing of small bells.

10.17 There seems to be only two yogic tubes mentioned here (and in 10.20–21): Suṣumnā and Idā, instead of the more usual triad of Idā, Piṅgalā, and Suṣumnā. This is strikingly similar to what we see in the archaic yoga of the NīśvNaya, see Goodall, Sanderson, & Isaacson 2015, 33–34. According to Barois 2020, 23 and 46 the case is similar in the DharmP. This is slightly doubtful because a third tube, called Turyā, is mentioned immediately after Idā and Suṣumnā in DharmP 4.57: idā vāmā suṣumnā ca dve nādī nāsikāśrite | bhruvor madhye parā nādī tajjñāis turyeti kirttitā ||. It is also possible that the third tube is there, as Prayāga, in our obscure VSS 10.17cd, which may want to say that at the confluence of the Gaṅgā/Suṣumnā and the Yamunā/Idā, there is the internalised pilgrimage place, or tube, called Prayāga. Compare MBh Indices 6.3A.41–44: idā bhagavatī gaṅgā piṅgalā yamunā nadī | tayor madhye tṛtīyā tu tat prayāgam anusmaret || idā vai vaiṣṇavī nādī brahmanādī tu piṅgalā | suṣumnā caīśvarī nādī tridhā prāṇavahā smṛtā ||. Note that Yamunā has not been mentioned as a tīrtha in the VSS. See also HYP 3.110: idā bhagavatī gaṅgā piṅgalā yamunā nadī | idāpiṅgalayor madhye bālaraṇḍā ca kuṇḍalī ||.

Note also E's attempt to make pāda a metrical.

10.18 This verse most probably describes the spot between the eyebrows as an internalised pilgrimage place.

10.19 This verse may describe a bodily location such as the soft palate as an internalised pilgrimage place. The word gaṅga is interpreted here as an intensive form from the root  $\sqrt{gam}$ , related to the better-attested intensive stems jaṅgam and ganīgam (see the latter two, e.g., in Whitney 1989 [1924], §1003).

Upon hearing that [ringing], all of one's sins will be destroyed.

[ sūryatīrtham — Sūryatīrtha ]

sūryatīrtham suṣumnā ca nīravāravasaṃyutā |
śrutimātrād vimucyeta pāparāśir mahān api || 10:21 ||

Sūryatīrtha is the [tube] Suṣumnā, the one that has a soundless thundering. By merely hearing about it one is liberated, even if one has a huge heap of sins.

[ agnitīrtham — Agnitīrtha ]

agnitīrthārjunā nāḍī brahmaghoṣamanoramā |
tat tad akṣaram ākarṇya amṛtatvāya kalpate || 10:22 ||

Agnitīrtha is the Arjuna tube. It is charming because of the hum of Veda recitation. Upon hearing this or that syllable, one will become immortal.

[ puṣkaram — Puṣkara ]

puṣkaram hr̥di madhyastham aṣṭapattraṃ sakarṇikam |
cintayet sūkṣma tanmadhye janmamṛtyuvinaśanam || 10:23 ||

Puṣkara is a lotus with eight petals and a pericarp in the centre of the heart. One should visualize the Subtle One in its centre [and] it'll destroy birth and death.

[ mānasam — Mānasa ]

mānasasaramadhyastham sa haṃsaḥ kamalopari |
salīlo līlayācārī parataḥ parapārāgaḥ || 10:24 ||

That goose on a lotus in the middle of the Mānasa lake is playful, acting gracefully, rising far beyond the other shore.

[ naimiṣam —

10.20 Note that Idā has already been identified as the Yamunā in 10.17b.

10.21 Suṣumnā has already been identified as the Gaṅgā in 10.17a. nīravā-rava in pāda b probably stands for nīrava-rava metri causa.

10.22 CHECK Arjunā nāḍī

10.23 hr̥di might be meant to be a nominative, as in 12.17, here potentially compounded with madhyastham. On sūkṣma (here in stem form metri causa), see CHECK.

10.24 Understand mānasasara° in pāda a as mānasasara° (metri causa). To make sense of this verse, especially the masculine nominatives in pādas cd, I have conjectured sa haṃsaḥ for what seems to a compound: sahaṃsakamalopari. I suspect pāda a to qualify, clumsily, kamala in pāda b. Other possibilities include sahaṃsa° meaning 'with the syllables HAM and SA on it.'

The association of Lake Mānasa on Mount Kailāsa with lotuses, and especially with geese or swans, is well-known. See, e.g., MBh 6.114.90ff: Gaṅgā sends the great sages, who inhabit Lake Mānasa in the form of geese, to visit the dying Bhīṣma. Although the interpretation of this verse, which obviously refers to an internalised form of this pilgrimage place, is still problematic, the goose/swan most probably signifies to the soul.

Naimiṣa ]

naimiṣaṃ śṛṇu deveśi nimiṣā pratyayo bhavet |
samyag chāyāṃ nirikṣeta ātmāno vā parasya vā || 10:25 ||

Listen to Naimiṣa, O Deveśi. It yields assurance in a moment. One can observe the shadow of one's own and others' soul properly.

āyatam aṅgulimātraṃ nimiṣākṣiḥ sa paśyati |
dṛṣtvā pratyayam evaṃ hi naimiṣajñāḥ sa ucyate || 10:26 ||

He will see [the soul's] length with his eyes shut as one finger-breath. When one has seen the proof thus, one is called the knower of Naimiṣa.

[ bindusaraḥ — Bindusaras ]

tīrthaṃ bindusaraṃ nāma śṛṇu vaksyāmi sundari |
dehamadhye hṛdi jñeyaṃ hṛdimadhye tu pañkajam || 10:27 ||

Listen O Sundarī, I shall teach you the pilgrimage place called Bindusaras. The heart is to be known to be located in the centre of the body. In the centre of the heart, there is a lotus.

karnikā padmamadhye tu binduḥ karnikamadhyataḥ |
bindumadhye sthito nādaḥ sa nādaḥ kena bhidyate || 10:28 ||

There is a pericarp in the centre of the lotus, and the subtle sonic matter (bindu) in the centre of the pericarp. In the centre of the subtle sonic matter (bindu), there is the subtle sound (nāda). How is that subtle sound (nāda) divided?

ukāraṃ ca makāraṃ ca bhittvā nādo vinirgataḥ |
taṃ viditvā viśālākṣi so 'mṛtatvaṃ labheta ca || 10:29 ||

The subtle sound (nāda) departs divided by the sounds U and M. Realizing

10.25 This obscure verse (coupled with the next one) might have something to do with a type of meditation, chāyādhyāna, mentioned in NīśvUttara 5.6: tattvadhyānaṃ prathamakam chāyādhyānaṃ dvitīyakam | ghoṣadhyānaṃ tṛtīyaṃ tu lakṣadhyānaṃ caturthakam ||. Later on in the same text (5.12 and 16), this meditation on 'the shadow of the soul/puruṣa' is mentioned again. NīśvUttara 5.16 states that 'Focussing on[?] one's awareness on [one's] "shadow" (chāyācittam), one will see the soul (pumān = pumāṃsam?) in the sky (viyatstham). Practising in this way, one attains success and becomes Śiva.' (tr. in Goodall, Sanderson, & Isaacson 2015, 391; chāyācittam samālam-bya viyatstham paśyate pumān | evaṃ abhyasyamānas tu siddhyate ca śivo bhavet ||. But as the editors of the Nīśv put it with reference to the four elements of meditation given there: 'Very little of this is clear and almost nothing is certain' (Goodall, Sanderson, & Isaacson 2015, 389).

10.26 Pādas ab involve an emendation and a conjecture, without which it is difficult to understand this line.

10.27 Understand °saraṃ in pāda a as °saro (thematization). Take hṛdi as a nominative in pāda c and possibly also in pāda d (and see 10.23a).

10.28 For a general discussion on nāda and bindu, see, e.g., TAK III s.v. nāda. Our text considers the internalised manifestation of the pilgrimage place Bindusaras to be bindu, or subtle sonic matter.

that [subtle sound], O Viśālākṣi, one can obtain immortality.

kumbhīrāghoṣamīnā daśagaṇamakara bhīmanakrā visargā
sānsvāre gabhīre madasukharasanaṁ setubandham vrajasva || 10:30 ||

I shall teach you Setubandha, which sports a current whose water of subtle sound (nāda) cleanses you of the dirt of your sins. [It is a river whose] banks are the tongue, the throat, and the chest, and its sandbanks are the group of vowels (svara). It is wavy because its whirlpools are the voiced consonants (ghoṣa). Voiceless consonants (aghoṣa) are its crocodiles and fish, the ten verbal classes (gaṇa) are its sea-monsters, visargas are its terrifying alligators. It is in the deep-sounding anusvāra (sā-anusvāre). Go to Setubandha, have a taste of the pleasure of intoxication.

[ suradrahā — Suradraha ]

saptadvīpāntamādhye śṛṇu śaśivadane sarvaduḥkhāntalābham
īśānēnābhijūṣaṁ hr̥di hrada vimalaṁ nādaśītāmbupūrṇam |

pañcavyomaḥpraśastaṁ gatiparamapadaṁ prāptukāmena sevyaṁ || 10:31 ||

O Moon-faced goddess, listen to [the description of Suradraha], the way to the cessation of all sorrow, in the centre of the seven islands. It is frequented by Īśāna, a spotless lake in the heart full of the cool water of sound (nāda). There is a lotus arising there whose petals are Prakṛti and whose filaments are split between Śaktis, praised as the five gross elements (vyoman). It is to be honoured if one wishes to obtain the path to the supreme abode.

10.29 VSS 10.27–29ab seem to paraphrase NīśvK 5.55–57ab.

10.30 Note that °kaṇṭhōra° is a conjecture based on the context: this line talks about sounds and the production of sounds. For this urāḥ/ura (‘chest’) seems better than ūru (‘thigh’). It is not evident at first sight why pādas b and c stick to feminine endings. I take this as qualifying an implied nādī, partly because the similarly structured 10.33 below explicitly mentions nādī. Some of the compounds here are inverted or split: understand āvartaghoṣā taraṅgā as ghoṣāāvartataraṅgā, kumbhīrāghoṣamīnā as aghoṣakumbhīramīnā, and bhīmanakrā visargā as visargabhīmanakrā. Nevertheless, the general idea seems to be clear: the internalised version of the pilgrimage place Setubandha, externally usually understood as Rameśvara in the South, is now the sounds of recitation.

10.31 The first syllable of hrada in pāda b does not make the previous syllable long (‘muta cum liquida’ licence), otherwise the line would be unmetrical. Understand the same hrada as a stem form metri causa standing for the accusative. keśaraṁ śaktibhinnaṁ in pāda c should probably be understood as a bahuvrīhi compound thus: śaktibhinnaśeśaraṁ. For vyoman as ‘gross element,’ see notes to VSS 4.32 above, but note that the expression ‘fifty voids’ (pañcāśadvoman) also comes up in VSS 20.7 and also in 10.33 below. It is not clear why this internalised pilgrimage place, or the

Those whose inner selves have become Sthāṇu [i.e. Śiva] are continuously delighted in Him, as he is embraced by the lotus in their hearts. [He is the one] whom Īśa's devotees can behold, who drives off the impurity of the Kali age, who is all-pervading (vyāpin) and non-manifest (niṣprapañca), the lord of gods, Ghaṇṭikeśa of undying existence. The ærial bindu is a non-mundane (abhava) pilgrimage place.

Its flock of fish is the Pañcarātra [tradition], its winding path is the Śruti [tradition], its rapid waves the Smārta [tradition]. It is beautiful with its whirlpools of yoga. Its currents are the Upaniṣads. The foam made by its whirlpools is the Mahābhārata. This river, whose form is the fifty voids (vyoman), is the abode of the elixir. [This is the description of] the pilgrimage place Vāgīśvara.

10.32 The interpretation of this verse is not without problems. The cruxed expression in pāda a is difficult to repair; it may involve nāḍi or nāḍyā, ekā, and saṃgata. These suggest that it may hint at a point of confluence where the bodily tubes (nāḍi) join. (Possibly understand nāḍya ekasaṃgatāḥ.) In pāda b, sthāṇu is my conjecture for sthānu, and I understand °ātmā as standing for the plural nominative. I take ghaṇṭikeśa in pāda d as a stem form noun in sandhi with amara°, notwithstanding the reading ghaṇṭikeśamara° in C<sub>9.4</sub>C<sub>4.5</sub>K<sub>10</sub>K<sub>7</sub>.

The external pilgrimage place related to Ghaṇṭikeśvara the VSS has in mind here may or may not be 'Virajā, modern Jajpur in the Cuttack District of Orissa' presided over by Ghaṇṭīśa, Mahāghaṇṭeśvara or Mahāghaṇṭa Bhairava (Sanderson 2009, 113, n. 241). See Introduction CHECK.

As for the yogic interpretation of this verse, it seems plausible that ghaṇṭikā is taken here as the uvula, from which amṛta is said to be dripping down the throat. See TAK II s.v. ghaṇṭikā and Mallinson 2007.

10.33 kramapada (better known as padakrama) is a particular method of reciting Vedic texts. CHECK REF Note the split compounds in pāda b. Understand mīnaughā pañcarātraṃ as pañcarātramīnaughā, and smārtavegā taraṅgā as smārtavegataraṅgā. Note the form upaniṣadi for a stem form of upaniṣad in upaniṣadi-vahā in pāda c. This phenomenon is similar to what we see in 10:23 and 27 above with hr̥di. The lack of sandhi between °śobhā and upaniṣadi° is also notable.

One will know all the Vedas by knowing Him who puts an end to the suffering of transmigration, to birth, disease, separation, suffering, death, the floods of unbearable pain, to dwelling in the womb, to extremely insufferable sensations, and to places of suffering that are difficult to escape from. Such a person will, without doubt, reach Śiva's world that is difficult to enter even for the gods.

brahmasūtram trayas tattvaṃ bodhanā muṇḍitaṃ śiraḥ || 11:22 ||*

The Brahmakūrca [penance] is the Guṇātīta [state of mind], the scent of the sacrifice is the Nirañjana [state of mind]. [His] sacred thread is the three Tattvas. For a shaven head he has enlightenment/teaching.

*nivṛtṭyādi caturvedaś catuḥprakaraṇāśanaḥ |
dakṣiṇām abhayaṃ bhūte dattvā yajñam yajet sadā || 11:23 ||*

The four Vedas are Nivṛtti etc. His seat is the four Prakaraṇas. He should always perform a sacrifice donating the priestly fee of providing being[s] with freedom from danger.

*vinārthaṃ yajñasamprāptiḥ kathitā te varānane |
āsahasasya yajñānām phalaṃ prāpnoti nityaśaḥ || 11:24 ||*

The attainment of non-material sacrifice has been taught to you, O Varānanā. [The sacrificer] will in any case obtain the fruits of up to a thousand [ordinary] sacrifices.

*āśramaḥ prathamas tubhyaṃ kathito 'sti varānane |
sadāśivena saddharmaṃ daivatair api pūjitam || 11:25 ||*

The first life-stage [life option] has been taught to you, O Varānanā, the true Dharma, which is revered by Sadāśiva and also by the [other] gods.

*[ brahmacaryam —
brahmacaryaṃ nibodhedaṃ śṛṇuṣvāvahitā śubhe |
dviṭīyaṃ āśramaṃ devi sarvapāpavināśanam || 11:26 ||*

[Now] learn about brahmacarya. Listen with attention, O Śubhā. [This is] the second life-stage, O Devī, the destroyer of all sins.

*vrataṃ brahmaparam dhyānaṃ sāvitṛ prakṛti-r-layaṃ |
brahmasūtrākṣaram sūkṣmaṃ triguṇālaya mekhalam || 11:27 ||*

[Here] religious observance is [now] meditation on Brahman. The Sāvitṛ [hymn] is absorption in Prakṛti. The Brahmanical cord is the subtle syllable.

11.22 On the guṇātīta state of mind, see 9.39–43. Understand guṇātītatvaṃ and nirañjanatvaṃ?

His girdle is now contained in the three guṇas.

dama daṇḍa dayā pātram bhikṣā saṃsāramocanam |
tryāyusaṃ dvyaḥśarātītam jñānabhaṣma-alāṅkṛtam || 11:28 ||

His staff is self-restraint, his bowl compassion. Begging/alms? is liberation from saṃsāra. The tryāyusa [mantra] is the one beyond the two syllables[?]. It[?] is embellished with the ashes of knowledge.

snānavratam sadāsatyaṃ śīlaśaucasamanvitam |
agnihotra trayas tattvaṃ japa brahmabilasvarah || 11:29 ||

The bath-vow is speaking the truth always. It is accompanied by the purity of moral conduct. Sacrifice to Agni is the three tattvas[?]. Recitation is the sound at the aperture of Brahmā.

dvitiya āśramo devi yathāha bhagavān śivah |
mayāpi kathitam tubhyaṃ janmamṛtyuvinaśanam || 11:30 ||

[This is] the second life-stage as Lord Śiva taught it, O Devī. I have also taught [it to] you[,] the destruction of birth and death.

[ vānaprasthaḥ —

vānaprasthavidhiṃ vakṣye śṛṇuṣvāyatalocane |
yathāśrutam yathātathyam ṛsidaivatapūjitam || 11:31 ||

Listen, O Long-eyed goddess, I shall teach you the forest-dweller's way of life, which is revered by the Ṛṣis and the gods, as I heard it, as it [really] is.

vairāgyavanam āśritya niyamāśramam āharet |
śīlaśailadṛḍhadvāre prakāre vijitendriyah || 11:32 ||

Having taken to the forest of indifference, he should take residence in the Āśrama of niyama-rules, within walls that have the stone-strong gate of moral conduct, with his sense faculties conquered.

adhibhūtaḥ smṛto mātā adhyātmaś ca pitā tathā |
adhidaivika-m-ācāryo vyavasāyāś ca bhrātaraḥ || 11:33 ||

One's mother is the material realm, one's father the supreme spirit. the divine realm is one's teacher, determination one's brothers.

śrutiḥ smṛtiḥ smṛtā bhāryā prajñā putraḥ kṣamānujaḥ |
maitrī bandhur jaṭā cāpaṃ karuṇā supavitrakam || 11:34 ||

His wives are Śruti and Smṛti, his son is Wisdom, his younger brother Patience. His relative is Benevolence, his twisted hair is his bow, Compassion his sacred thread.

11.27 One could emend prakṛtir layam in pāda b to prakṛtau layaḥ, but I retained the reading of C<sub>94</sub>K<sub>82</sub>K<sub>7</sub>E because it may have been the original way to make the compound prakṛtilaya metrical. In other words, I suspect the -r- to be only a link between the two elements of this compound. I also retained the neuter ending. Note 16.8d, where the same expression becomes prakṛtālayam.

11.29 Perhaps brahmabilasvara in pāda d refers to the same concept as brahmanāda does in 11.19c.

muditā mauna catvāraḥ sarvakāryam upekṣakā |
yamavalkalasaṃvītas tapahkṛṣṇājīnādharah || 11:35 ||

Sympathy is the four ways of taciturnity. All his duties are Indifference. He has the yama-rules for a garment made of bark, and he wears Penance for the skin of a black antelope.

uttarāsaṅgam āsīno yogapaṭṭadṛḍhavrataḥ |
vedaghoṣeṇa ghoṣeṇa prānāyāmo 'gnihāvanam || 11:36 ||

He is seated on the highest level of non-attachment, and the firm observance is his yoga-belt. Fire sacrifice accompanied by the sound of murmuring the Vedas is breath-control accompanied by the hissing [of breathing].

jītaprāṇamṛgākūlo dhṛti yajñah kriyā japah |
arthasaṃgraha śāstreṣu sakhā damadayādayah || 11:37 ||

He is full of[?] conquered breaths for a deer[?]. [For him] sacrifice is resolution, ritual is recitation. His collection of wealth is in the śāstras, his companions are self-control, compassion etc.

śivayajñam prayuñjīta sādhanāṣṭakapūjanam |
pañcabrahmajalaih pūtaḥ satyatīrthaśivahrade || 11:38 ||

He should perform sacrifice to Śiva [with/as?] the worship of the eight [yogic?] practices. He is purified by the water of the five Brahma[-mantras] in the auspicious [śiva] pool on the sacred banks of truthfulness.

snānam ācamanam kṛtvā saṃdhyātrayam upāsayet |
akṣamālā purāṇārtham japa śāntam divānīśam || 11:39 ||

Having bathed and having sipped water [there], he should take honour the three junctures of the day. His rosary is the meaning of the Purāṇas. The pacification of mantras? is? recitation day and night.

jñānasalilasampūrṇamīti hāsakamaṇḍaluh |
pañcakarmakriyotkrānti japa pañcavidhah sukham || 11:40 ||

His jar of epics is filled with the water of knowledge. [Tentatively:] The actions of the five [medical] procedures are suicide. The five kinds of pleasure are recitation.[?]

sādhanaṃ śivasamkalpo yogasiddhiphalapradah |
saṃtoṣaphalam āhārah kāmakrodhaparājitaḥ || 11:41 ||

The Śivasamkalpa [hymn] is practice (sādhana), which yields fruits of yoga accomplishments. His food is the fruit of Contentment. He conquered lust and anger.

11.36 hāvana = havana metri causa

11.37 °mṛgākūla for °mṛgākūlaḥ metri causa? See saṃgraha used probably in a similar sense in 11.46.

11.40 pūrṇa-m-īti hāsa°: -m- is a filler. Note that utkrānti is a yogāṅga in chapter 16.

11.41 The Śivasamkalpa is Ṛgvedakhila 4.11 ff: yenedam bhūtam bhuvanam bhaviṣyat

*āśāpāśajayābhyāso dhyānayogaratipriyaḥ |
atithibhyo 'bhayaṃ dattvā vānaprasthaś cared vratam |
vānaprastham ayaṃ dharmam gaditaṃ pūrvadhāritam || 11:42 ||*

His practice is the victory over the trap of hope. He prefers the joy of yoga meditation. The forest-dweller should observe his vow by providing his guests with fearlessness. This is how the Dharma of the forest-dweller has been taught and followed in the past.

*! saṃsāroddharaṇam anityaharaṇam ajñānanirmūlanam
! prajñāvṛddhikaram amoghakaraṇam kleśārṇavottāraṇam |
! janmavyādhiharam akarmadahanam sevet sa dharmottamam || 11:43 ||*

[The yogin] should follow, with faith and self-control, the supreme Dharma, which delivers him from Saṃsāra, removes transient existence, uproots ignorance, increases wisdom, is fruitful, delivers cross him from the flood of affliction, removes rebirth, disease and burns his bad karma.

[ parivrājakaḥ —

The wandering mendicant ]

*parivrājakadharmo 'yaṃ kīrtayiṣyāmi tac chṛṇu |
sukhaduḥkhaṃ samaṃ kṛtvā lobhamohavivarjitaḥ || 11:44 ||*

Here follows the a wandering religious mendicant's Dharma. Listen, I shall teach you about it. Making joy and pain equal, he gets rid of greed and folly.

*varjayaṃ madhu māṃsāni paradārāṇi ca varjayet |
varjayet ciravāsaṃ ca paravāsaṃ ca varjayet || 11:45 ||*

He should avoid honey and meat, as well as others' wives. He should avoid staying [in a place] for long and also staying at others' places.

*varjayet sṛṣṭabhojyāni bhikṣām ekāṃ ca varjayet |
varjayet saṃgrahaṃ nityam abhimānaṃ ca varjayet || 11:46 ||*

He should avoid food that has been thrown away and he should avoid a single alms round[? the same food?]. He should always refrain from accumulating wealth and from self-conceit.

*susūkṣmaṃ manasā dhyātvā śucau pādaṃ vinikṣipet |
na kupyeta anālābhe lābhe vāpi na harṣayet || 11:47 ||*

Meditating on the subtle he can put his feet into the pure.[??] He should not get angry when [food] is not available, and when it is, he should not rejoice.

parigṛhītaṃ amṛtena sarvaṃ, yena yajñas tāyate saptahotā tan me manaś śivasāṅkalpam astu, etc. See also Manu 11.251ab: sakṛt japtvāsyavāmīyaṃ śivasāṅkalpam eva ca.

11.42 Gender!

11.43 K<sub>s2</sub> only corrects °haraṇamanitya° to °haraṇam anitya° (CHECK this), but its scribe probably meant an anusvāra at the end of °haraṇam, perhaps trying to correct the metre. He tries to correct the metre also with anityaharaṇan tajñā°.

11.46 See the term arthasaṃgraha in 11.37c

arthatṛṣṇāsv anudvigno roṣe vāpi sudārune |

stutinindā samam kṛtvā priyam vāpriyam eva vā || 11:48 ||

niyamās tu parīdhānam saṃyamāvṛtamekhalah |

nirālambam manaḥ kṛtvā buddhiṃ kṛtvā nirañjanām || 11:49 ||

His garment is the Niyama-rules, and he is girded by the girdle of self-control. He makes his mind supportless, his intellect spotless,

ātmānam pṛthivīm kṛtvā kham ca kṛtvā manonmanam |

tridaṇḍam triguṇam kṛtvā pātram kṛtvākṣaro 'vyayah || 11:50 ||

his self Earth, the Manonmana ether[?], his three staffs [of the Parivrājaka] the three guṇas, his bowl the imperishable syllable.

nyased dharmam adharmam ca irṣyādveṣam parityajet |

nirdvandvo nityasatyastho nirmamo nirahamkṛtaḥ || 11:51 ||

He should throw away [the distinction between?] Dharma and Adharma, and should avoid envy and hatred. He is indifferent to the opposites [such as cold and heat, good and bad], dwells always in truthfulness, unselfish, humble.

divasasyāṣṭame bhāge bhikṣām saptaḥṣaṇḍam caret |

na cāṣṭa na tiṣṭheta na ca dehīti vā vadet || 11:52 ||

He should go on his alms round visiting seven houses at the eighth part of the day. He should not sit down, he should not stay, and he should not say 'Give me!'.

yathālābhena varteta aṣṭau piṇḍān dine dine |

vastrabhojanaśayyāsu na prasajyeta vistaram || 11:53 ||

nābhinandeta maraṇam nābhinandeta jīvitam |

indriyāṇi vaśamkṛtvā kāmam hatvā yatavrataḥ || 11:54 ||

He should nor rejoice in death, he should not rejoice in life. Having conquered his senses, having killed his desire, firm in his observances, atītam ca bhaviṣyam ca na bhikṣuś cintayet sadā |

krodhamānamadadarpān parivrāḍ varjayet sadā || 11:55 ||

the Bhikṣu should never think about the past or the future. The wandering mendicant should always avoid anger, self-conceit, intoxication and pride.

11.48 In pāda c, understand stutinindā as a dual accusative.

11.49 Check if saṃyama is a technical term here.

11.50 °kṣaram avyayam in pāda d would be unmetrical, that is why the nominative appears here.

virāgaṃ tu dhanuḥ kṛtvā prāṇāyāmaguṇair yutam |
dhāraṇāśaratīkṣṇena mṛgaṃ hatvā manendriyam || 11:56 ||

Making indifference a bow which is strung by the strings of breath-control, he should kill the beast that is the mind and the sense-faculties with the sharp-pointed arrow of concentration.

maitrikhadgasutīkṣṇena saṃsārāriṃ nikṛntayet |
karuṇāvartacakreṇa krodhamattagaṃ jayet || 11:57 ||

He should stab the enemy that is Saṃsāra with the extremely sharp knife of friendliness. He should defeat the rutting elephant of anger with the whirling discus of compassion.

muditāvarmabaddhāṅgas tūṇaṃ pūrṇaṃ upekṣayā |
anakṣaraṃ paraṃ brahma cintayet satataṃ dvija || 11:58 ||

His body is clad in the armour of sympathy, his quiver is full of indifference. He should constantly recall the unutterable syllable which is supreme Brahman, O Brahmin.

brahmaṇo hṛdayaṃ viṣṇur viṣṇoś ca hṛdayaṃ śivaḥ |
śivasya hṛdayaṃ saṃdhyā tasmāt saṃdhyāṃ upāsayet || 11:59 ||

Brahmā's heart is Viṣṇu. Viṣṇu's heart is Śiva. Śiva's heart is the Junctions of the day. Therefore he should worship the Junctions.

saṃsārārṇavatāraṇaṃ śubhagatiḥ sa brahma saṃdhyākṣaraṃ dhyāyen nityam atandrito hy anupamaṃ vyaktātmavedyaṃ śivam |
rūpair varṇaguṇādibhiś ca vihitam durlakṣyalakṣyottamaṃ
yatnoddhṛtya samāśrayet suragurum sarvārtihartā haram || 11:60 ||

[Śiva] is deliverance from the ocean of mundane existence, the path to happiness, the Brahman, the junctions, the [sacred] syllable. [the yogin] should always, unweariedly, meditate on matchless Śiva, who is to be recognized as the manifested soul. He should take refuge in Hara, who is devoid[?] of form, colour, qualities etc., who is the supreme aim which is difficult to discern, ... , the divine guru, who removes all pain.

|| iti vṛṣasārasaṃgrāhe caturāśramadharmavidhāno nāmādhyāya
ekādaśamaḥ ||

Here ends the eleventh chapter in the Vṛṣasārasaṃgraha called the Regulations Concerning the Four Life-Stages.

11.57 Note the Buddhist terms maitrī and karuṇā in this verse.

11.58 Note the Buddhist terms muditā and upekṣā in this verse.

11.60 vihitā here in the sense of 'devoid'.

[ Chapter Twelve ]

[ ātithyadharmah —
The rules of hospitality ]

devy uvāca |

ahiṃsā paramo dharmah satataṃ parikīrtyate |

ātithyakānām dharmam ca kathayasva yad uttamam || 12:1 ||

The Goddess spoke: Harmlessness is always praised as the highest Dharma.
Also, teach me the ultimate Dharma of those who practise hospitality.

maheśvara uvāca |

ahiṃsātithyakānām ca śṛṇu dharmam yad uttamam |

trailokyam akhilaṃ devi ratnapūrṇam sulocane || 12:2 ||

Maheśvara spoke: Hear the ultimate Dharma of the harmless ones and that of the ones who practise hospitality. O beautiful-eyed goddess, [if] all the three worlds, full of wealth,

caturvedavide dānam na tattulyam ahiṃsakah |

śṛṇu dharmam atithyānām kirtayiṣyāmi sundari || 12:3 ||

[were handed over as] a gift to [a Brahmin who] knows the four Vedas, [that gift] cannot be compared to somebody who avoids doing harm. Hear the Dharma of the hospitable ones. I'll teach it [to you], O beautiful one.

[ vipulopākhyānam —
The Story of Vipula ]

āsīd vṛttam purākhyānam nagare kusumāhvaye |

kapilasya suto vidvān vipulo nāma viśrutaḥ || 12:4 ||

This is an old story of what happened once in a city called Kusuma [i.e.
Pāṭaliputra]. There was a famous and wise man called Vipula, Kapila's son.

dharmanityo jitakrodhaḥ satyavādī jitendriyaḥ |

brahmanyas ca kṛtajñas ca madbhaktaḥ kṛtaniścayaḥ || 12:5 ||

He always followed his Dharma, he conquered anger, he spoke only the truth and he conquered his senses. He was friendly to Brahmins. He was grateful and he was my determined devotee.

dhanādhyo 'tithipūjyas ca dātā dānto dayāluḥ |

nyāyārjitadhano nityam anyāyaparivarjitaḥ || 12:6 ||

He was rich and he worshipped[?] his guests. He was generous, restrained, and merciful. He wealth always came through just means. He always stayed away

12.2 Understand ahiṃsātithyakānām as ahiṃsakānām atithyakānām ca

12.3 Note that this verse seems to be all that Maheśvara teaches in this chapter on ahiṃsā and that tattulyam ahiṃsakah may contain a sandhi bridge: tattulya-m-ahiṃsakah atithyānām in pāda c stands for atithyānām or atithyakānām metri causa.

from illegal actions.

bhāryā ca rūpiṇī tasya candrabimbasubhānanā |
pīnottuṅgastanī kāntā sakalānandakārīṇī |
pativratā patiratā patiśuśrūṣaṇe ratā || 12:7 ||

He had a beautiful wife whose face was as pure as the disk of the moon. Her breasts were round and elevated, she was lovely, a source of all pleasure. She was faithful, devoted to her husband and his needs.

atha kenāpi kālena sūryarāgam abhūt tataḥ |
grastabhāgatrayas tv āsīt kṛṣṇamādhavamāsike || 12:8 ||

Now, once there was an eclipse of the sun. Three quarters [of the sun] were eclipsed, and it was in the dark half of the month of Mādhava.

snātukāmāvatīryante sarve paurāṇrpadayaḥ |
devās ca pitaras caiva tarpyante vidhivat tathā || 12:9 ||

Eager to take a ritual bath, the king and all citizens went down [to the river]. They were worshipping the gods and the deceased ancestors according to rule.

keciḥ juhvati tatrāgniṃ kecid viprāṃś ca tarpayet |
kecid dānopatiṣṭhanti kecit stuvanti devatām || 12:10 ||

Some sacrificed in the fire, some fed the Brahmins, some gave donations, others praised the deity.

dhyānayogarataḥ kecit kecit pañcatape rataḥ |
evaṃ pravartamāneṣu rājanādiṣu sarvaśaḥ || 12:11 ||

Some people practised yoga meditation, others were engrossed in five-fire penance. While all the royals and other people were doing this all around the place,

vipulo 'pi hi tatraiva gaṅgāgaṇḍakisamgame |
bhāryayā saha tatraiva snātvā kṣomavibhūṣaṇaḥ || 12:12 ||

Vipula too, there at the confluence of the Gaṅgā and the Gaṇḍakī, together with his wife, performed a bath, and, attired in linen clothes,

devatāguruviprāṇām anyeṣāṃ tarpaṇe rataḥ |
tatrāvasarasamprāpto brāhmaṇo 'tithir āgataḥ || 12:13 ||

was satiating the deities, the gurus, the Brahmins and others. Then, jumping on the possibility, a Brahmin came up [to them] as a guest.

bhāryā tasyātirūpeṇa mohitā brahmaṇas tadā |
brāhmaṇo 'pi tathaiveha rūpeṇāpratimo bhavet || 12:14 ||

The wife got infatuated with that Brahmin's extreme beauty. The Brahmin [felt] the same. His beauty was unparalleled.[?]

12.12 Note gaṇḍakī metri causa for gaṇḍakī in pāda b.

12.14 Pāda d is slightly suspect and the translation of pādas cd is tentative. The expression

anyonyadr̥ṣṭisamsaktau jātau tau tu parasparam |

vipulenāñjalim̐ kṛtvā brāhmaṇa sam̐sitavrata || 12:15 ||

Their gaze got fixed on each other mutually. Vipula joined his hands [and said:] “O virtuous Brahmin, ājñāpaya dvijaśreṣṭha adya me ’nugrahaṃ kuru |

bhāryābhṛtyapaśugrāma ratnāni vividhāni ca || 12:16 ||

I am at your service, be gracious to me now, O great Brahmin. [My] wife, servants, cattle, village and all kinds of jewels [are all at your service].”

vipulenaivam uktas tu gr̥hīto brāhmaṇo ’bravīt |

yadi satyaṃ pradātāsi suprasannaṃ manas tava || 12:17 ||

Having been addressed and greeted hospitably by Vipula, the Brahmin spoke: “If you really mean to give, your heart is very generous.”

vipula uvāca |

suprasannaṃ mano me ’dya suprasannaṃ tapaḥphalam |

śighram ājñāpaya vipra yac cābhilaṣitaṃ tava |

adeyaṃ nāsti viprasya svaśiraḥprabhṛti dvija || 12:18 ||

Vipula spoke: “My heart is generous, generosity is the fruit of austerity. Just command me quickly, O Brahmin. What is your desire? There is nothing that should not be donated to a Brahmin, beginning with one’s own head, O Brahmin.”

brāhmaṇa uvāca |

svasti bhavatu bhadraṃ vaḥ kalyāṇaṃ bhava śāśvatam || 12:19 ||

The Brahmin spoke: “If you talk like this, my dear, give me your beautiful wife. Be happy, may you be fortunate, and may you prosper eternally!”

vipula uvāca |

praticcha bhāryāṃ suśroṇīm̐ rūpayauvanaśālinīm̐ |

akutsitāṃ viśālākṣīm̐ pūrṇacandranibhānanām̐ || 12:20 ||

Vipula spoke: “Accept my wife who has nice buttocks, and is young and beautiful, blameless, large-eyed and whose face resembles the full-moon.”

bhāryovāca |

parityājyā kathaṃ nātha apāpāṃ tyajase katham̐ |

atīva hi priyāṃ bhāryāṃ nirdoṣāṃ sa kathaṃ tyajeḥ || 12:21 ||

rūpenāpratimo<sup>6</sup> pratimā bhuvi is common in the Mahābhārata and in the Purāṇas. Is that what was meant here? May a dual have been intended?

12.17 Note that C<sub>02</sub>’s omission here is probably due to an eyeskip from suprasannaṃ in 12.17d to suprasannaṃ in 12.18a, although this would have lead to an omission of the next vipula uvāca.

12.19 In pāda d, bhava is less than satisfactory. One would normally expect bhavate/bhavatām/bhavatu in this context. Alternatively, it is possible kalyāṇo bhava (‘be happy’) was meant or we could accept E’s reading.

The wife spoke: “How can you abandon me, my lord? How can you leave somebody who is sinless? How can you abandon a wife who is extremely kind and faultless?

sakhā bhāryā manuṣyāṇām iha loke paratra ca |
dānaṃ vā sumahad dattvā yajño vā subahuḥ kṛtaḥ || 12:22 ||

A wife is a man’s friend in this world and in the other world. [Even if] a man gives enormous donations or performs numerous sacrifices,

aputro nāpnuyāt svargaṃ tapobhir vā suduṣkaraiḥ |
śruto me pitṛbhiḥ prokto brāhmaṇais ca mamāntike || 12:23 ||

or performs hard penance, he cannot get to heaven without having a son. I have heard that this was taught by the ancestors, and by Brahmins in my presence.

aputro nāpnuyāt svargaṃ śrutam me bahuśaḥ purā |
mandapālo dvijaśreṣṭho gataḥ svargaṃ tapobalāt || 12:24 ||

The sonless cannot obtain heaven. I have heard this so many times!
Mandapāla, the great Brahmin, went to heaven as a reward of his austerities.

dānāni ca bahūn dattvā yajñāṃś ca vividhāṃs tathā |
vedāṃś ca japayajñāṃś ca kṛtvā sa dvijasattamaḥ || 12:25 ||

That great Brahmin made numerous donations, performed various sacrifices, [recited] the Vedas, and performed sacrifices of recitation.

prāptadvāro ’pi yasyāpi devadūtair nivāritaḥ |
aputro nāpnuyāt svargaṃ yadi yajñāśatair api || 12:26 ||

But when he reached the gate [of heaven], it was blocked by the celestial messengers: “The sonless cannot get to heaven, not even by hundreds of sacrifices.”

ity uktas tu cyutaḥ svargān mandapālo mahān ṛṣiḥ |
putrān utpādayām āsa śāraṅgāṃś caturo dvijaḥ || 12:27 ||

Mandapāla, the great sage was thus informed and he fell from heaven. The Brahmin begot four sons with a Śāraṅga-bird.

tena puṇyaprabhāveṇa svargaṃ prāpto hy avāritaḥ |
kulatrāṇāt kalatrāsmi bharaṇād bhārya eva ca || 12:28 ||

12.21 sa is problematic CHECK accept tyajet?

12.25 I have taken japayajñāṃś in pāda c as a tatpuruṣa compound. The same expression occurs e.g. in VSS 6.2ff, MBh 13.102.8c, Manu 2.86 etc. By this, vedāṃś becomes difficult to interpret (I supply ‘recited’). It may be possible to take japa as a form deriving from japan (present participle) metri causa: vedāṃś ca japa[n] yajñāṃś ca kṛtvā, but in this case the notion of performing sacrifices comes up twice in this verse.

satyadharmam atikramya nānyadharmam samācare |

12.28 Note that pāda c is the result of emendations and that bhārya in pāda d is to be understood as bhāryā metri causa (nevertheless I supplied 'to be supported' in the translation to convey the general meaning of the word bhārya, which seemed to fit the context well).

12.30 I have not included  $C_{02}^{p.c.}$ 's vipula uvāca (echoed in E) because after punar abravīt it seems secondary and unnecessary. Note that the correction in  $C_{02}$  is in a second hand.

12.33 The reading narakastho ( $K_7E$ ) is tempting but it could be a scribal correction and narakasthād may be original, meaning narakasthānād.

12.36 I have emended tvayi in pāda d to tvayā because it seems an early random scribal mistake, rather than some linguistic peculiarity.

12.38 In pāda a, ahaṃ either stands for mām or the phrase jijñāsārtham ahaṃ can be translated as 'I am to be tested.'

12.39 I understand grahaḥ sūryo in pāda c as sūryagrahaḥ (or sūryagrahaṇam): the eclipse of the Sun, which appears to be an auspicious day. See parallels in the apparatus.

12.40 In pāda f, brāhmaṇe (loc., in all the witnesses that I have consulted) may have originally read brahmaṇe (dat.).

khetakharvaṭadeśam vā jñāmiha na kaṃcana || 12:49 ||
 I don't know these roads, this country, these villages and these cities, towns, mountain settlements. I don't know anybody here.

12.44 Note Śivadharmaśāstra 10.11cd, in a similar context of donations: bhojayitvā tato brūyāt prīyatām bhagavān śivah Understand sukṛtam phalam as sukṛtaphalam (metri causa).

12.45 There are several ways to explain the form āśīḥ in pāda c. The easiest is to treat it as a singular accusative neuter. Alternatively, it could be a plural accusative feminine from āśī and then suvipulaṃ is either to be understood adverbially or as suvipulā[s]. Another way to treat āśīḥ would be to take it as a nominative standing for the accusative.

12.49 In pāda d, the reading of all the witnesses, kaṃcana, seems to be an early scribal mistake for kañcana. But note that the same happens at 12.55d.

12.51 I have accepted the reading (emendation?) of Ein pāda d (āruhat) because I think that āruhet is an early scribal mistake that is easy to make and because °āruhat comes up again in 12.53d.

12.53 Note how the agent of this sentence is omitted here. That it was a monkey that gave Vipula the fruit becomes clear in 12.94.

12.55 I suspect that śrotā in pāda c is meant to be feminine participle śrutā, but the metre required the first vowel to be lengthened; understand me as mayā. In pāda d, the reading of all the witnesses, kaṃcana, seems to be an early scribal mistake for kañcana. But note that the same happens at 12.49d.

12.60 I understand pathikena as standing for pathikena metri causa (see 12.64b) and not as two words, pathi kena. This means that we are forced to accept an instrumental as the agent of the finite verb uvāca. I suspect that K<sub>7</sub>'s reading (pathiko) is an attempt to correct the syntax, but in this way apūrvam becomes problematic. With pūrvam the sentence may mean: ‘The traveller replied: “Have you not come here before?”’ ayaṃ as the end of this verse may have been the original reading and C<sub>45</sub> may have corrected it to adaḥ. Another possibility is that an original adaḥ is preserved in C<sub>45</sub>, and it got corrupted to ayaḥ (C<sub>94</sub>), and then to ayaṃ (C<sub>02</sub>K<sub>82</sub>). In any case, I have chosen the reading adaḥ because it works better; it can be viewed as my editorial correction.

12.63 Note the form śreṣṭhim from the stem śreṣṭhi instead of śreṣṭhin (thematization).

When Vipula saw the foreman who was sitting in his house, he went up to him and offered him that fruit.

*aho phalam idaṃ śreṣṭham aho phalam ihānitam |

“Wow, what an excellent fruit! And hey, it has been brought here. Wow, what a form, what a smell, wow what a splendid fruit!

*tatas tvarita gatvaiva phalaṃ grhya manoharam |
ādareṇopasṛtyaiva rājānaṃ sa phalaṃ dadau || 12:71 ||*

12.64 Note the stem form pathika in pathikovāca in pāda b. Alternatively, it is an instance of double sandhi (pathika uvāca - pathikovāca)

12.68 Note ihānitam for ihānītam in pāda b for metrical reasons.

12.69 Most probably, kandare (‘in a cave’) in pāda b is an early mistake for mandare (‘on Mount Mandara’), a location that appears frequently in the epics and the Purāṇas next to Mount Meru. This is why I conjecture mandare here. Understand devalokika in pāda c as a stem form compound (metri causa) for a more standard devalaukikaṃ. martya-m-upajāyate in pāda d might be original, with m as a sandhi bridge. Nevertheless, I emended the pāda to make it clearer.

12.70 Pāda a is slightly suspect. It is possible that originally it contained a negation: aho ’smi na phalaṃ bhoktā (‘Ah! I will not eat this fruit’). On the other hand, saphala seems to be an odd form in this text simply meaning phala (see 12.71–72, 108). The translation I have chosen is tentative.

Then grabbing that pleasant fruit, he left hastily. He approached the king respectfully, and gave him the fruit.

*rājā ca sa phalaṃ dr̥ṣṭvā vismayaṃ paramaṃ gataḥ |

12.71 In pāda a, tvarita, for the adverb tvaritaṃ, is in stem form metri causa. As in 12.70, sa phala, or rather saphala might simply mean phala. Here in pāda d I have chosen to print this phrase as two words because here sa can be grammatically/syntactically correct. See also next line (12.72a).

12.72 On the possibility that saphala is a form in this text simply signifying phala, see notes on 12.70 and 72. pūrva[m] in pāda d is suspect and difficult to interpret and E is probably trying to silently emend it. One possibility is that the pāda originally contained a stem form noun: phalāpūrvaṃ manoharam (“an unparalleled and charming fruit”). Alternatively, pūrva is an eye-skip to 12.73b.

12.74 I take svāda as a stem form noun that stands for the accusative metri causa.

*uvāca rājā taṃ śreṣṭhiṃ svārthataṭparanirdayaḥ |

The king, who was selfish and cruel, spoke to that foreman of the guild: “Tell Bhīmabala to bring another fruit today.

*sa rājñā evaṃ uktas tu śreṣṭhī bhīmabalas tathā |
pratyuvāca ha rājānaṃ prāñjaliḥ praṇataḥ sthitaḥ || 12:82 ||*

The foreman and Bhīmabala were addressed by the king thus. [Bhīmabala] replied to the king, joining his hands reverentially and remaining standing with his head bowed down.

*na vanena vane rājan na vāñijyakṛṣeṇa vā |
kenāpi kulaputreṇa tava darśanakāṃkṣayā || 12:83 ||*

“Your majesty, one cannot obtain [such a fruit by wondering] from forest to forest. It cannot be obtained through merchants or by cultivating the land. Some noble man who is seeking your audience

*datto ’smi tena rājendra mayā datto ’si bhūpate |
na te śaknomy ahaṃ rājan vaktuṃ vaideśinaṃ naram || 12:84 ||*

gave it to me, and, O king, I gave it to you, your majesty. Your majesty, I cannot tell you who this foreigner is.”

*śrutvā bhīmabalavākyaṃ pratyuvāca tataḥ punaḥ |
amātyakulaputras tvam brūhi madvacanaṃ punaḥ || 12:85 ||*

12.80 The syntax of pāda c is confusing. I translate it as if it carried a causative meaning (e.g. kuru bhīmabalaṃ tv evaṃ: ‘make Bhīmabala do like this’). On the other hand, an instrumental would be better (‘act like this, together with Bhīmabala’), at least 12.82b hints at this solution.

12.82 I accepted the reading śreṣṭhī in pāda b although it may be a correction of śreṣṭhi, an original prātipadika of the thematised form of śreṣṭhin (see 1.63a).

12.83 Pāda a could be construed as na vane na vane rājan (‘Your majesty, there is no [such fruit] in any forest’), but a similar expression, vanena vanaṃ, occurs e.g. in MBh 1.14.4.1 meaning ‘from forest to forest’ (te vanena vanaṃ vīrā ghnanto mṛgaganān bahūn| apakramya yayū rājāns tvaramānā mahārathāḥ)), and this made me choose another option (na vanena vane rājan). E’s variant seems like an attempt to ‘correct’ the text.

Having heard Bhīmabala's reply, [the king] said: You are the son of a noble family of ministers. Announce[?] my orders.

yatraiko bahavo 'traiva jāyante nātra saṃśayaḥ || 12:86 ||

tato bhīmabalaḥ kruddhaḥ khaḍgaṃ grhya śaśiprabham |
alaṅghya vacanaṃ rājñāḥ kulaputraṃ vrajaty aram || 12:89 ||

Then Bhīmabala got angry, took his sword that looked like the [crescent] moon, and, obeying the king's orders, went to that son of a noble family [together with Puṇḍaka the foreman].

Reveal to me quickly where you found the divine fruit. Without that fruit, my friend, your life is in danger."

vipula uvāca |

12.85 Pāda a is unmetrical. It is possible the the original read °balam to avoid this, still meaning the compound bhīmabalavākyaṃ.

12.86 I have choosen C<sub>45</sub>'s reading in pāda c only because it is metrical. This does not mean that the unmetrical reading of C<sub>94</sub>K<sub>82</sub>K<sub>7</sub> cannot have been the original one.

12.88 My impression is that Caṇḍa and Vicaṇḍa could be the two royal envoys mentioned in verse 12.126 (rājadūtadvayam), sent along with Bhīmabala to make sure he obeys the king's command. Compare with Śivadharmottara 7.101 (Kenji and Sathya), where Yamas attendants are called Caṇḍa and Mahācaṇḍa.

12.89 The reconstruction of pāda d is unsatisfactory and I do not know how to emend aram/param at the end of the line. We have to suppose that Bhīmabala is accompanied by Puṇḍaka the foreman of the guild because Vipula's answer seems to be directed towards him.

12.91 I conjectured tvaram for tava in pāda b because tava is both unmetrical and meaningless in this context. tava might have been the result of an eyeskip to pāda d or rather to pāda b of 12.92.

jīvitāśāṃ ahaṃ prāpto vaidesiḥbavanam tava |

kṛtakartā katham vadhyah prāpnuyām aham adya vai || 12:92 ||

Vipula spoke: I regained my hope for life [when I reached?] your house in this foreign country. How could one who does his duty be slain? I would obtain [another fruit] right now.

phalam vā na punas tv anyad dātum śakyam na kenacit |

sahyaparvataśailāgre āsīnah śrāntamānasah || 12:93 ||

But there is no other fruit. Nobody can provide any. Up on the rocky peak[?] of Mount Sahya, I sat down, mentally exhausted.

vānaras tat phalam grhya mama dattvā punar gataḥ |

mayā dattam idam tubhyam tvayāpi ca narādhipa || 12:94 ||

It was a monkey that took that fruit, gave it to me and then disappeared. I gave it to you, you gave it to the king.

tatra gacchāva bho śreṣṭhi dṛśyate yadi vānarah |

tvayā mayā ca gatvaiva yācāvaḥ plavagādhipam || 12:95 ||

Let's go to that place, O foreman, to see if the monkey is there. When we get there together, we can ask the monkey king [for more fruit].

śreṣṭhinā ca tathety āha gacchāmaḥ sahitā vayam |

yatra prāptam phalam tubhyam mokṣayāmo na saṃśayah || 12:96 ||

The foreman said: "Alright, let's go together to the place where you got that fruit. We shall be saved."

rudra uvāca |

tam āruhya girim sahyam mārgamānaḥ samantataḥ |

vipulena tato dṛṣṭo vānarah plavagādhipaḥ || 12:97 ||

Rudra spoke: Climbing Mount Sahya, searching the place all over, Vipula then caught glimpse of the monkey, the monkey king.

ayam sa vānaraśreṣṭho vrkṣacchāyām samāśritaḥ |

mama puṇyabalenaiva dṛśyate 'dyāpi vānarah || 12:98 ||

"It's that extraordinary monkey there lurking in the shade of that tree. This monkey has showed up today merely by the force of my meritorious act.

vānara kuru mitrārtham sadyo mṛtyur bhaven mama |

12.92 The translation of pādas ab is tentative. If my interpretation is correct, the house in question is Puṇḍaka's house. Perhaps understand kṛtakartā in pāda c as kṛtyakartā.

12.95 I have accepted C<sub>45</sub>'s reading in pāda d mainly because the reading of all the other witnesses is difficult to interpret and because a similar verb form, yācasva, appears in 12.105d.

12.96 The foreman uses the plural in his reply correctly: he refers to Vipula, Bhimabala and himself.

12.98 The 'meritorious act' mentioned here is probably that of giving his wife to the Brahmin at the beginning of the story.

Hey, monkey, unless you do me a friendly favour I'll perish very quickly.
Give me another one of that fruit that you gave me, O monkey, [and thus] keep me alive.”

vānara uvāca |

gandharveṇa tu me dattaṃ phalaṃ dattaṃ tu te mayā |
punar anyat kathaṃ dāsyē tatra gaccha yadīcchasi || 12:100 ||

The monkey spoke: It was a Gandharva that had given me the fruit and I gave it to you. How could I give you another one? Go there [where Gandharvas live] if you wish.

vipula uvāca |

adattvā tat phalaṃ tubhyaṃ jīvitum saṃśayo bhavet |
athavā tatra gacchāmo yatra citrarathaḥ svayam || 12:101 ||

Vipula spoke: “If you cannot give me another fruit, [my] staying alive is doubtful. Another alternative is that we go where Citraratha himself[, the king of the Gandharvas,] dwells.”

vānaraḥ punar evāha evaṃ kurvāmahe vayam |

tataś citrarathāhvāsam upagamyedam abravīt || 12:102 ||

The monkey replied: “Let’s do it.” Then, upon reaching the dwelling place of Citraratha and having gone up to him, he said this:

gandharvarāja kāryārthī tvām ahaṃ punar āgataḥ |
pūrvadattaphalaṃ tv anyad dehi mām yadi śakyate || 12:103 ||

“O king of the Gandharvas, I have come back to you with a request. Give me another of that fruit that you gave me if you can.”

gandharvarāja uvāca |

sūryalokagataś cāsmi tena dattaṃ phalottamam |
mayā dattaṃ phalaṃ tubhyam atyantasuhrdo ’si me || 12:104 ||

The king of the Gandharvas spoke: “I went to the world of Sūrya, and it was him who gave me that extraordinary fruit. I gave that fruit to you [because] you are my very best friend.

kuto ’nyat phalaṃ ādāsyē mama nāsti plavaṅgama |

sūryalokaṃ gamiṣyāmas tatra yācasva bhāskaram || 12:105 ||

Where could I find another fruit to give you, I don’t have one, O monkey.
Let’s go to the world of Sūrya and ask the Sun there.”

gandharvenaivam uktas tu tathety āha plavaṅgamaḥ |

sūryalokaṃ tataḥ prāptā gandharvādāya sarvaśaḥ || 12:106 ||

Having been addressed thus by the Gandharva, the monkey consented. They

12.101 I suspect that tubhyaṃ in pāda a is used in the sense of tvayā and that is how I translate this phrase. I doubt if Vipula would threaten the monkey (‘for you living becomes doubtful’).

12.104 Understand suhrdo in pāda d as a singular nominative of the rare suhrda.

The Gandharva spoke: I have come back to you with a request, O Sky-goer lord. Give me another of that fruit you gave me and spare a life.

sūrya uvāca |

somalokagataś cāsmi tena dattaṁ phalottamam |

sa phalaṁ dattam evāsi suhṛdatvān mayā tava || 12:108 ||

Sūrya spoke: I went to Soma's world, and it was he who gave me the magical fruit. I gave you that fruit out of my friendship for you.

anyad dātum na śaknomi gaccha somapurādya vai |

taṁ prārthayāvikalpena atriputraṁ graheśvaram || 12:109 ||

I cannot give you another one. Go now to Soma's city. Ask him, the son of Atri, the lord of planets, without hesitation.

rudra uvāca |

uvāca sūryaḥ somāya karuṇāpekṣayā śaśim || 12:110 ||

Rudra spoke: Led by Sūrya, they went to the world of Soma, Sūrya addressed Soma, expecting compassion from the Moon.

soma uvāca |

kimartham āgato bhūyaḥ kartavyaṁ tatra bhāskara |

phalaṁ dātum punas tv anyan muktva tv anyat karomy aham || 12:111 ||

Soma spoke: For what purpose have you returned? O Sun, there will be a solution for that. Except for giving another fruit, I shall do anything.

sūrya uvāca |

yadi śakyaṁ phalaṁ dehi anyan na prārthayāmy aham |

na dattāsi phalaṁ anyan mayā vadhya bhaviṣyasi || 12:112 ||

Sūrya spoke: "If you can, give me a fruit, I am not asking for anything else. If you do not give me another fruit, I'll kill you."

12.106 I have emended the correct but unmetrical °ādayaḥ in pāda d to ādaya to restore the metre.

12.108 Note the odd syntax of pādas cd. sa phalaṁ may have been influenced by 12.71d and 72a. Here tat phalaṁ would work better but see sa phalaṁ in a similarly odd position in 12.113d. dattam evāsi is also problematic although similar structures do appear in this text, e.g. in 12.113c. The original may have read tat phalaṁ datta evāsi; or take dattam evāsi as datta-m-evāsi, with a hiatus breaker -m-.

12.109 Understand purādya as puram adya (stem form metri causa)

12.110 Understand sūryāgrataḥ in pāda a as sūryam agrataḥ (stem form noun). Note the form śaśim for śaśinam.

soma uvāca |

āgamaṃ tasya vakṣyāmi śṛṇuṣvāvahito bhava |

sarva eva hi gacchāmo viṣṇulokaṃ graheśvara |

sarva evopajagmus te phalārtham madhusūdanam || 12:117 ||

Let’s go, all of us, to Viṣṇu’s world, O lord of the planets.” They all went to Madhusūdana for the fruit.

evam uktvā gatāḥ sarve devarājapuraskṛtāḥ |

12.113 Note sa phalaṃ for tat phalaṃ again, as in 12.108c. The syntax of pādas cd is rather confused and datta in pāda d is a stem form participle metri causa.

12.115 soma indram in pāda a in K<sub>7</sub> may be a correction of the reading in all the other sources. On the other hand, it can be original, and the hiatus may have confused an early scribe.

12.120 The function of tac ca in pāda b is unclear. Perhaps understand atra (‘here’). Understand sarvam ihāgatāḥ as sarva-m-ihāgatāḥ, with a hiatus filler -m- for sarva (i.e. sarve) ihāgatāḥ. The non-standard form anyam transmitted in all witnesses consulted might be original but I have not found any more instances of it in this text. That is why I have corrected it to the standard anyat.

12.124 For the expression parameṣṭhiprajāpati see MBh 6.15.35ab: sarvalokeśvarasyeva parameṣṭhiprajāpateḥ

caturmūrtiś caturvaktraś caturbāhuś caturbhujah |

caturvedadharo devaś caturāśramaṇāyakaḥ || 12:135 ||

12.130 Note °vṛkṣa in pāda b as a stem form noun for °vṛkṣā or °vṛkṣān (manoramāḥ/-ān). One could simply correct the pāda to nānāvṛkṣān manoramān, but then the next line should also be altered.

12.132 Note the odd syntax of pādas ab. Pāda b should be understood as a phrase in the instrumental case.

12.133 I understand pādas ab as if it read apsarogaṇakoṭibhiḥ sarvābharaṇabhūṣitair bhūṣitam. Perhaps understand vimānakoṭikoṭināṃ as vimānakoṭināṃ koṭiḥ and °samanvitam as °samanvitānām.

sādhū bho vipula śreṣṭha sādhū bho vipulam tapaḥ || 12:142 ||

12.138 It is difficult to say if sām̐khyā-yoga in pāda d signifies one or two things. I could have chosen to separate them, interpreting sām̐khyā as a stem form noun, because in other parts of the text, sām̐khyā and yoga are usually treated as two different traditions. See 8.1–3, 16.36–37, and 23.5c. Nevertheless, perhaps understand patañjalam as pātañjalāḥ (metri causa and gender confusion). Another, less likely, possibility is that here sām̐khyayoga and pātañjalayoga are somehow contrasted here.

12.139 Understand mūrtimān in pāda d as mūrtimantaḥ. Note also C<sub>45</sub> and C<sub>02</sub>’s attempt to include the Atharvaveda. I find it more likely that by arthaveda Kauṭilya’s Arthaśāstra is being referred to here.

bowing down his head, prostrating himself on the ground again and again, delivered a sweet speech to [Brahmā,] the Grandfather of Brahmaloka:

12.143 Understand °śriya as the singular vocative masculine of °śrī.

12.145 iyam (f.) in pāda a stands for either ayaṃ (m.) or idaṃ (n.), agreeing with the gender of vimāna. Alternatively, the sentence wants, rather clumsily, to convey the meaning ‘all these millions of aerial palaces...’. Note that here, as often in this text, nouns stand in the singular after numbers such as a thousand.

12.146 Understand tavārthīyopasarpanti as tavārthīyā upasarpanti (double sandhi). tavārthāyo° may work as well (C<sub>45</sub> and K<sub>82</sub>) but I consider tavārthīyo° the lectio difficilior, thus potentially the original reading.

12.147 We are forced to accept E’s reading of bhayatrasta here because it is far superior to the readings of all other witnesses. The rejected reading (bhayas tatra) may have been the result of a simple metathesis (tra-sta to sta-tra).

12.148 The compound brahmalokapitāmahaḥ may sound tautological as an epithet of

vipula uvāca |

bhagavan sarvalokeśa sarvalokapitāmaha |

garbhāvāsaṃ na ca tvan na ca punamaraṇaṃ kleśaṃ āyāsapūrṇaṃ

chittvā mohāndhaśatruṃ vrajasi ca paramaṃ brahmabhūyatvam eṣi

|| 12:151 ||

Hearing [this] Brahmā spoke to [Vipula] of huge intellect, honouring [him] as follows. You will live until the universal floods of destruction. You will not have any longing for being reborn any more. There will be no dwelling in a womb for you, no rebirth, no anguish full of weariness. Killing the enemy who is the darkness of illusions, and you will reach the ultimate, the absorption into the Brahman.”

maheśvara uvāca |

brahmaṇā evaṃ uktas tu viṣṇunā prabhaviṣṇunā |

evaṃ bhavatu bhadraṃ vo yathovāca pitāmahaḥ || 12:152 ||

Brahmā but it does occur in the MBh (12.336.30b) and in other texts (Padmasaṃhitā 3.193d, Jayadrathayāmala 3.14.198b).

12.149 Note that E adds a line here (see the apparatus; translation: ‘I am a fool, how could I praise you? You are beyond knowledge, beyond the ultimate.’). I have not been able to locate this line in any of the available sources.

12.151 The stem form noun °mati of the bahuvrihi compound in pāda a may stand for matih (see the unmetrical reading of C<sub>94</sub>C<sub>45</sub>K<sub>82</sub>), and then it should refer to Brahmā himself (‘Brahmā, the one with a huge intellect...’). I have choosen to take mati as a stem form noun standing for the accusative, referring to Vipula. This works better because mānayatvā (and śrutvā) requires an object. Note āhūtasamplava instead of the more common ābhūtasamplava (see also 2.13). me in pāda b is difficult to interpret. I take tvan na in pāda c as an ablative of tvad used as a genitive plus na.

Maheśvara spoke: When [Vipula] was addressed thus by Brahmā, Lord Viṣṇu (viṣṇunā prabhaviṣṇunā) [said:] “Let it be like that, bless your soul, just as the Grandfather said.”

indreṇa raviṇā caiva somena ca punaḥ punaḥ |
sādhyādityair marudrudrair viśvebhir vasavaiḥ tathā || 12:153 ||

[Then] Indra, Ravi and Soma, the Sādhyas, the Ādityas, the Maruts, the Rudras, the Viśve[śas] and the Vasus[?] [spoke:]

aho tapaḥphalaṃ divyaṃ vipulasya mahātmanah |
svaśarīraṃ divyaṃ prāptaḥ śraddhayātithipūjayā || 12:154 ||

“Wow, what a divine reward for great-souled Vipula’s penance! He has reached heaven in his own [mortal] body by virtue of his worshipping a guest in good faith.”

evam ādīny anekāni vipule parikīrtitam |
brahmāṇaṃ punar evāha viṣṇur viśvajagatprabhuḥ || 12:155 ||

This and many other things are related in the Vipula section [probably of the Mahābhārata, see MBh 13.39.1ff]. Viṣṇu, the lord of the whole universe, turned back to Brahmā.

|| iti vṛṣasārasaṃgrahe vipulopākhyāno nāmādhyāyo dvādaśamah ||
